INJURY JINX REAPS HEAVY TOLL AT AMES

Missouri Tigers Manhandle Cyclones in Initial Big Six Game.

AMES. In. Oct. 15.—Reserve strength of the Iowa football squad will be severely tested this week as Coach Noel Workman prepares for the night game with Marquette gniversity at Milwaukee Friday. Four regulars of the Cyclone machine were forced from the Mis-souri game Saturday with serious Hippodrome ajuries and only one has any ance of competing against Martackle, has a broken ankle bene which will keep him out of competition for the remainder of the season. Another sophomore tackle, Bob took Smith, had a shoulder muscle iled" and probably will be out for more than a week. Carl Kern, veteran guard, is out of the game for at least two weeks with a bad at over his eye and even then will be able to play only under serious candicap. The fourth casualty. handicap. The fourth casualty, Gordon Nagel, sophomore center, was forced from the Tiger game by a hard blow on the head, but is xpected to start as center against Marquette.

The remainder of the lineup is expected to be in shape by Friday, although all of the men are sufferg minor bruises. Captain te's tackle position and Lounsberry to Smith's place.

Harry Johnson and Bob Burton will remain at the ends, Spear and Roe at the guards and Bennett, Larson and Tegland in the backfield. Paul Trauger, injured quarterback, is expected to be able to assume his signal calling respon-sibilities, after being kept out of

PATTERSON WILL MAKE SPEECH AT FORUM LUNCHEON

after all. Dr. Charles H. Patterson, of the department of philosophy, will speak at the World Forum lunchthing wrong with election last on today on "Civilization and bulture." The luncheon will be Tuesday. must have discovered that a vote neld at 12 o'clock in the dining in the hand was worth only half om of the Nebraska hotel. as much as two in the box.

Tickets can be bought from the University Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., ecretaries or they may be ob lained from the salesmen on the campus. The price of the tickets is thirty-five cents if bought be-fore noon and forty cents if purhased at the door

Have You Had Your Laugh Today? Then HEAR, SEE, ENJOY-

DON PEDRO -AND HIS BAND ROMAS TROUPE BEBE SHERMAN

'POLLY & OZ' Stuart Symphony A. J. Babich, Cond. Playing La Burlesque

With HERB GRAY CELLO SOLO

Shows 1-5; 7-11 Mat 40 Children 15c

THE GREATEST CROWDS THAT HAVE EVER AT TENDED THE ORPHEUM. CROWDS A BLOCK LONG. DON'T WAIT UNTIL THE FOOTBALL CROWDS COME IN FRIDAY AND SATURDAY TO SEE THIS COMEDY HIT. SEE IT

THE COCKEYED WORLD

Victor McLarson-Edmond Lowe Attend the matinees and avoid the nite crowds-

ORPHEUM

Shows 1-3-5-7-9 Mat 35c Eve 50c Chil 10c

BE AN EARLY BIRD YOURSELF and make a date now to see rib-racking laugh sensation Black Crows The Two Why Bring That Up"

"Why Bring That Up?' A Paramount Picture Attend the matinee and avoid the theater crowds

LINCOLN NOW

LECTURE THURSDAY (Continued From Page 1.) Mata 35c Eve 50c Chil 10c

Fassnacht Gains World Renown From Playing Christ Part in Passion Play

Adolf Fassracht, the Christus of decided upon this Passion play for the Freiburg Passion play, which the dedication of their civic project, the Krug bowl. is to appear in the university coliseum Oct. 17, 18 and 19, is of the seventh generation of the Passnacht family to portray this sacred

Loyalty alone would not have preserved this, the oldest and only family inheritance of its kind. It is a love and a belief in the part, such as Adolf Fassnacht possesses, that enables him to easily refuse offers of opera representatives made him during the successful six weeks run in the New York

Parents Performed.

The parents of the contempointerpreter performed play in the public square before the Freiburg cathedral for their fellow citizens, many of whom took part in the production. He was finally persuaded to accept urgent invitations from religious leaders all over Europe, thus giving the story to as many as possi-

village life in response to the call of those who felt the good could be on a broader plane, induced Adolf to bring the present

RAG WAGS.

IT is a wise professor who recog-

There seems to have been some-

In deciding on my science I

Signed for both psych, and poli

The green freshman has been looking into intramurals and while

RAY RAMSAY DECLARES

NIPULATE AIRPLANE

(Continued From Page 1.)

Landed Almost Theer.

over and so he kept following him.

Mr. Ramsay now holds is given only after a student has completed ten hours of solo flying, passed a written test on air commerce and air traffic rules as well as a test on the control and manipulation of the plane. The tests are given by

Have Traffic Rules.

Aren't So Scared.

the ground is leaving you. It is the same way with flying at a great rate of speed. You think nothing of going 100 or 110 miles an hour because you see no trees or telephone poles rushing past and so you have no sensation of machine as fast as you can be-holds it up. The mother who, ac-cording to the story, told her son he could learn to fly but that he must always remember to fly slow and low, was all wrong." When questioned as to whether or not he thought aviation should be taught in the university, Mr. Ramsay declared, "They do teach the theory of flying here, but of course the actual practice must be obtained elsewhere. I suppose the university might buy a few airplanes but that would be very expected by the straight such pensive. Besides I'm afraid such a course would be too popular."

REDCOAT WILL GIVE

"It is in fact safer to drive the "People who ride in airplanes requirement," he a government inspector.

responsible for it.

The private pilot's license which

IT'S EARIER TO MA.

right moment.

worried.

nizes his own notes,

to do some business.

made by African Zulus and American and Canadian Indians, skins of lions, leopards, panthers, wolves jackals, snakes and crocodiles.

Scored Big Success.

As a result of the huge success which the play scored, other cities prevailed upon Mr. Fassnacht to resent the play for their citizens, and now as they are on their western tour, the American Legion, Lincoln post No. 3 is presenting Early training has played an important part in perfecting such an outstanding player as Mr. Fassnacht. Born while his parents were on one of the Passion pilgrimages, his first appearance was as the baby in nativity. This was followed by his representation of one of the children in the mob, until he reached the age that justified his portrayal of the twelve year old

Christ teaching in the temple.

During this time his grandfather was interpreting the Christ.

An intense study of the paintings of the masters of religious works, together with a thorough study of theology and discussions with religiou. leaders of all de-

Has Large Collection. By MARGARET TINLEY.

His collection also includes skins of brown bears and the largest polar bear skin ever brought south, the ride of the largest alli-gator that could be found in the Florida Everglades, all kinds of ornaments, tools and weapons used by the Indians, Zulus and Hottentots. He also has saddle that the quarterlies are here the book stores have begun packs and saddle sleeping bags, used by the northern patrolnien, From coed conversation it seems that a great many are carrying tusks of big game and many other specimens and curiosities from the outlying districts of Africa, Mex-

It does look as if there were ome royal Rhodes to learning ico, Canada and elsewhere. Major Schoof has lectured in the larger cities of Canada and northern United States. He has been well received by large and enthusiastic audiences.

Some mathematician COEDS ARE ASKED TO CO-OPERATE IN Quarterlies evidently having one to his head, Cy Eykes cites: A Phi Psi sighed, "Ah! unwise I, CONCESSION SALE

Any of those wishing to sell concessions at football games for the Women's Athletic association and who have not sold before are to turn in their names into the intramural office in the women's gymnasium before Friday, Oct. 18, according to Clarice McDonald.

he fully approves of "rivalry" for girls he feels that it is not quite gentlemanly to "soccer." Women who sold at the last game and cannot sell at this coming game are requested to notify the intramural office. Women who sold last time, and want to sell again will be scheduled to work in the same places as before.

THAN AUTOMOBILE Students selling concessions are to report at 1:30 o'clock Saturday but it is just plain hard because at the stadium. Those selling in you have to be able to straighten the stands and checking are to reyour machine at exactly the port at 1 o'clock.

"One day," continued Mr. Ram-CHORAL UNION TO say, "the instructor told me he was tired of flying with me and that I RECEIVE SPECIAL should go on up alone. It was so SINGING INTEREST unexpected that I didn't have time

The university choral union, founded for the purpose of uniting the best voices of the city and uni-Mr. Ramsay laughed as he told how he disturbed one instructor greatly by following his instruc-tions too literally. The latter had versity into one great union has already reached a membership of over 200 voices. By authority of the regents and chancellor, singers told Mr. Ramsay to land his plane where he was standing. When the plane came toward him, he moved may enter without the formality of a fee or registration, but member-ship is open only by invitation exout of its way, but his pupil thought this was an indication tended to singers of recognized that he was to land still farther ability. Regular rehearsals are to be held throughout the year under the director, Prof. Howard Kirkpatrick. In order to make the enterprise a success invitations are being sent out to the most prominent singers of the city for their

Kansans Organize First Society for Lettermen "Yes, indeed, there are traffic rules in the air," answered the new

LAWRENCE, Kas. — The "K" men of the University of Kansas pilot when that question was asked "You must always keep to organized themselves into a club the right just as on the ground. You must always keep a distance of at least 300 feet between you last Wednesday. Heretofore the men who have received the coveted athletic "K" have not been organand another plane, and if there is

It is the plan of the club to have a ship flying below you, you are a trophy and lounging room on the "Another requirement," he added, "is to take your plane out of a tail spin so you will know what to do if you ever find yourcampus. The forty-two men who were present at the organization will be charter members.

self in that predicament. It isn't difficult except for the fact that you want to do exactly the oppo-Tryouts for Rifle Team Will Be Held on Range site thing you are supposed to do.

There will be a meeting for all men interested in trying out for the men's rifle team in the baseare rarely as scared as they think they are going to be," maintained the alumni secretary. "When you go up, you have no sensation of movement. It merely seems that ment of Andrews hall on Friday. October 18 at 4 o'clock.

Takes Part of Christ

ADOLF FASSNACHT.

Who will play the part of Christ in the Freiburg Passion Play which will be given in Lincoln Oct. 17, 18 and 19 at the univer-Adolf to bring the present company to America at the request of the city of St. Joseph, Mo., which world's best known character. taken the Christ part in the Pas

PLANS SET AT K. U. FOR DAD'S DAY FETE

Waddle' Feature Fun For Fathers.

Lawrence, Kas. - Plans are being made for more than 800 per-

Prof. W. W. Davis, of the faculty of the department of history, will be the principal speaker for that evening. Professor Davis is one of K. U.'s patron saints of athletics, having been on the athletic board for several years and a strong supporter of Kansas teams.

The ticket sale for the banquet charge is working to make the and fans. banquet the best in years in comorganizations, and the joint stu- feat at Memorial stadium. dent councils.

ECONOMICS PROJECT INTERESTS WOMEN

One hundred twenty-one women clubs of Nebraska had enrolled by Oct. 1 in the home economics study club project encouraged by the extension service of the agricultural A few more clubs will still college. enroll this year. The ladies choose one of four different series of topics to study during the year. They receive circulars about the monthly topics, study them, and discuss them in their monthly meetings.

Your Drug Store

I guess we put Syracuse out of the running. Now let's all trim Pitt Some people sure copy our ads but remember this is your drug store. THE OWL PHARMACY

RENT CARS

Model "A" Fords, Chevrolet sixes and fours and Reo Wolverines and Flying Clouds.

Special discount on Chevrolet cylinder cars and Reo Wolverines. Reservations held until 7 p. m. Fime charge begins at 7 p. m. Plenty of cars at all times. We will appreciate your business to highest scholarship honors is brought nearer when you are aided by good health. Shredded Wheat-every day keeps your mind active and your body fit. Make it a habit.

Motor Cut Company 1120 P Street Always Open

Pittsburgh Panther Craves Husker Blood, But Defeat at Home Is Rare

The Pittsburgh Panther, mighty beast of the jungle, is coming from his native haunts this week to the prairies of Nebraska. He is going question by the students in the to feast on Cornhusker meat as a Pittsburgh correspondent confi-Last week his is open to all regularly enrolled undergraduate students. menu consisted of a generous porginia Mountaineers, whom he scratched to the tune of 27 to 0.

Eastern sport writers are con-ceding the ferocious cat from the Smoky City an excellent chance of taking the Cornhuskers. They point to the veteran squad that to the near rout they gave Ne-braska last year, to the fact that Bible hasn't worked his system yet and to the proficiency of Uansa, Parkinson and Donchess, for rea-

Pitt Is Confident.

wise gentlemen, however, should take one more matter into consideration. Pittaburgh is intending to accomplish the feat of morial stdium, a thing seldom accomplished in past history as a Lincoln for Detroit, Jan 14 and slight perusal of the records indi-return Jan. 21.

In 1929 the Irish of Notre Dame, like the Panthers of 1929, had dreams of a national championship. All they had to do was to crush the Cornhuskers who had previously taken the count from Drake and Missouri. But they ventured into the confines of Memo-rial stadium and Nebraska won 17 to 0, that game marking the finale of the career of Ed Weir.

Violets Take Count.

Likewise did Chick Meenhan's New York Violets have the idea in 1927 that they were the best bunch Special Banquet, 'Jayhawk of football players in the United States until they invaded Lincoln and saw nothing but red all day and all night.

In fact, in all the history of Nebraska's present playing field only twice have the Huskers been forced to accept defeat and then only after great battles. Nebraska sons at the annual University of has not been defeated on its home Kansas' dad's day banquet, which field in three seasons. Not since the Missouri Tigers eked out a 14 teria following the K. U.-K. Aggie shoved all over the field by game Saturday, Oct. 19. Fraterni- Borg's men, have they gone down. ties at the university have been The only other time that the score asked by Prof. Henry Werner, has ended in favor of the visitors men's student adviser, to have no banquets that night at individual almost completed and Illnois won houses in order that all members 9 to 6, not, however, because the and their "dads" will be able to at-tend the Hill dinner. fleet Grange did anything start-ling. ling.

Nebraska has been held to a tie several times on its home field. A memory of two weeks discloses that the S. M. U. Mustangs did that. Perhaps the most humiliating tie of all was the one last year when Pittsburgh outrushed Neis being handled by the Owl so- braska on a muddy field. The clety, honorary organization of Cornhuskers failed to register a junior men. Invitations are being first down. That tie does not sent to all fathers of university leave any pleasant memories in students, and the committee in the minds of Nebraska gridmen

Another tie or two and several memoration of the annual univer-sity "dad's day." Following the dinner, a special "Jayhawk Wab-that up? The plain facts of the ble" varsity will be held, sponsored case are that the Cornhuskers by the Jay Janes and Ku Kus, pep very seldom bow their heads in deburgh may accomplish the feat but Many organized houses on the not without encountering a generhill are planning special dinners on ous portion of that old Cornhusker Sunday for the "dads" visiting at fight.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

ANNOUNCES CONTEST (Continued From Page 1.) the winner of the essay contest and the other will be the winner of the oratorical contest, which Dr. White said would be announced later. To Create Interest.

The object of the contest is to universities, colleges, and normal schools of the state. The contest

The essays must be limited to 2,000 words and they must be type-written. A comprehensive bibliography must accompany each es-The essays must sented to the committee at Andrews hall before Dec. 1. ten best essays shall be returned lock Suthreland has to work with, to their respective authors, who shall have ten days to rewrite or revise them before they are submitted for the final decision

Books of reference are available on the second floor of the library at the reserve desk. Additional material and information can be obtained from any member of the committee or from Dr. F. A. High, Nebraska superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, who has an ofdowning the Cornhuskers in Me-fice in the Sharp building. The morial stdium, a thing seldom ac-winner of the contest will leave

LITERARY MAGAZINE NEARS COMPLETION

(Continued From Page 1.) land: A Cowboy's Paradise" is written by Charles Lindsay, in-structor in the department of his-Mr. Lindsay has studied

ploneer Wyoming and is specializ-Writes of Letters.

Gilbert H. Donne, head of the university library, writes an arti-cle about letter writing and heads it with the question: "Is the Gen-tle Art Lost?"

The Midwestern Writers section. which is published in each issue, is in the hands of Martin S. Peterson, instructor in English. His article is corrected with the regional magazine. He discusses four well known magazines, the Midland, the Frontier, the Southwest Review and the Prairie Schooner.

"Habit of Bathing."

Gerald Humbert writes a light essay on the "Habit of Bathing" and L. C. Wimberly has a folklore article on redheaded people. Poems by Macklin Thomas, a former student at the university and now instructor of English at the University of Wisconsin; Lover Eiseley and Richard House add to the publication.

Davis Coffee Shops

Day and Night - 108 N. 13 Facing Campus - 1131 Fountain Service

-0 O C= Raincoats -are very, very modish this season OF instance, there is this rubberized, wool-lined modei: graceful in every line, yet warm enough for autumn wear. Has large leather butlons. Comes in brown. Priced 15.00 Then there is another one we like to talk about: Russian style, belted with fastening at he side; four-button top and high collar. Comes in green, brown and tan. Priced 7.50 Sizes 13, 15 and 17 Misses Shop-Second Floor

=000=