FROSH PREPARE FOR GAME WITH MISSOURI SQUAD

Chalk Talk Features Work Yesterday: Eligibility Bothers Some.

RHODES GROOMS TEAM

Yearlings Will Play Twice This Season; Promising Material Out.

Choppy Rhodes kept his crew of football players indoors for chalk talk yesterday, but as soon as the ground dries out or freezes they will be hard at it again. The first freshman game is scheduled for a week from Saturday with the Missouri yearlings. The game is to be played at Memorial stadium, and there will be no varsity game on that date.

Many of the frosh gridders are ineligible at present, but most of them will be ready to play by the end of the week. Ossowski, the former Fairbury captain is down in three hours, but he is expected to make them up pronto. Some of the men are ineligible because they participated in college foot-ball before enrolling at Nebraska.

John Roby has continued to rip through the line and around the end for many spectacular runs. Dunn, 180 pound back from Lexington has been punting better than any freshmen that has come up for many years, according to Rhodes. Fogerty and Ely are also showing up very well at tackle. Ossowski has been shifted to the center of the line, and he is pass ing in fine style. Durkee has been showing up great at an end posi-

The Big Six freshmen of this year are establishing a precedent that is to be followed every year. Each team is to play two games, one at home and one away. This was made a ruling at the meeting of the Big Six officials last year.
