

MRS. WILLIAMS SAYS WOMEN HAVE CHANGE

Sociologist Explains Work For Vespers Service Tuesday Night.

"The vocational field is as broad and its opportunities as many for women as for men," declared Mrs. Hattie Williams of the sociology department of the university in her talk before Vespers Tuesday evening at Ellen Smith hall.

There are two types of business, the housekeeping and the entrepreneurial. Women may go into the clerical end of the business or manage the whole thing themselves.

ARTISTS PUT UP FINE NUMBERS IN NEW RECORD LIST

By the Record Man. If you have a craving to hear beautiful pipe-organ music hear Jesse Crawford play his latest Victor release, "How Am I to Know?"

There is a wide field for women in the medical profession, especially in children's hygiene, continued Mrs. Williams. Public opinion, however, is against women as nurses.

DIRECTORY SALES HIT 400 TOTAL TUESDAY

Shortage of Copies Holds Back Monday Record; Expect Increase.

More than 400 student directories were sold on the university campus Tuesday as the demand for copies continued.

It is expected that the total number of books to be sold today will be well over the 500 mark, for no shortage is expected.

The gross anatomy course consists of the dissection of a human body and the mastery of the location, relations and function of the various organs and systems.

Honorary Organization Sells Japanese Prints

Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary fraternity, is sponsoring a sale of imported Japanese prints on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons.

The sale will be held on the first floor of the home economics building at the college of agriculture.

These prints are studies of line and color and may be used as illustrative material in teaching art. The prints are also suggested as Christmas gifts.

MEDICAL COLLEGE ACTIVITY

PAUL C. PLATT, Editor.

Starting with this issue of The Daily Nebraskan the medical college of the University of Nebraska makes its debut as a department in the university publication.

It has been through the efforts of both student bodies that the undertaking was completed and it is hoped that the paper may prove to be more representative of the entire university because of it.

The following persons are representing the medical school: Paul C. Platt, editor; assistants; non-fraternity men, Warner Sower; Alpha Kappa Kappa, Carl Hillie; Phi Beta Pi, Harold Johnson; Phi Chi, Bruce Hennockson; Phi Rho Sigma, Hamilton, Morrow; Nu Sigma Nu, Bruce Hay; Nurses' training school, Edna Mae Handy; hospital and offices, Miss Margaret Godsey.

Fraternities Have Parties After Close of First Quarter. Four medical fraternities entertained last Saturday night with dances in celebration of the close of the first eight weeks' term.

Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity held a dance in a ballroom in the Blackstone hotel, Phi Chi fraternity held a dance in their chapter house, Phi Beta and Nu Sigma Nu fraternities also held dances at their respective houses.

Phi Chi Celebrates Memorial Day. Phi Chi fraternity celebrated its national memorial day last Friday, Nov. 9, 1929. The day is set aside by the national chapter as Memorial day for its brothers.

Freshman Class Starts Anatomy Course. Monday morning the freshman class started its study of gross anatomy.

The gross anatomy course consists of the dissection of a human body and the mastery of the location, relations and function of the various organs and systems.

This is one of the outstanding features of the anatomy department at Nebraska that they endeavor to teach the student applied anatomy rather than facts.

Dr. Manuel Grodinsky and Dr. Herbert Davis are the two assistants in the laboratory, who assist in the lectures. This is Dr. Davis' first year in the gross anatomy department, his position being up to this year an instructor in surgery and director of the laboratory of surgical research.

Dr. Russell Best assisted in the course last year but this year he has been granted a leave of absence and is studying in Germany.

When the sun chases the rain

YES—it makes a rainbow. But if the day is warm it also makes a heavy coat uncomfortable.

That is just the reason for the new Fish Brand "Topper." It is light-weight, easy to carry, easy to fold and pack in a traveling bag or the pocket of a car.

If you like a longer coat you'll find it in the popular "Varsity" model. Look for the trade-mark and make sure you're getting a genuine Tower's Fish Brand Slicker—"The Rainy Day Pal." A. J. Tower Company, Boston, Mass.

PHI BETA KAPPA HAS MEETING ON MONDAY

DR. POOL WRITES BOOK ON FOREST TREES IN STATE

The second edition of "Handbook of Nebraska Trees" is just off the presses of the university. This book of 179 pages is of the nature of a guide to the native and introduced forest trees of the state.

The author is Dr. R. J. Pool, chairman of the department of botany, and the work is published by the conservation and survey division of which Dr. G. E. Condra is director. The handbook contains keys and descriptions of 79 different species of forest trees, the most of which are native Nebraska trees, with full page illustrations of each.

Notes on the uses and general values of the trees are included in the descriptions. The geographical distribution of fifty Nebraska trees within the state is shown by means of outline maps. The first edition of this work was published in 1919. The new books may be secured from the conservation and survey division.

GREEKS WILL MEET FOR SOCCER BATTLE

Delta Sigma Phi and Tau Kappa Epsilon, scheduled to meet yesterday, will play in a soccer game to determine third and fourth places winners in fraternity ranks Thursday, it was announced Tuesday from the intramural athletics office.

The game was postponed due to conditions of the field. It will start at 4:30 on the drill field Thursday. The two teams were defeated in the semi-finals by Delta Upsilon and Delta Tau Delta respectively.

Miss Appleby Talks To Home Economics Women

Miss Erma Appleby, secretary of Y. W. C. A. for the university, spoke about Japan to the home economics women at the college of agriculture in Vespers, Tuesday noon. Miss Appleby recently made a trip around the world and during this time visited for some time in Japan.

Real happiness is cheap enough, yet how dearly we pay for its counterfeit!—Helen Keller.
