Rowley Injured Early.

Claude Rowley was injured in the Southern Methodist game and has not been in suit until late last veck. His workout with the varwity Monday and Tuesday indi-cated that the Husker backfield will be bolstered to a great extent with the return of this backfield ace. His punting and ball lugging will be needed in the title closh at Manhattan this week. The loss of Sloan faded into the distance Tuesday night as Nebraska's second triple-threater, Rowley, took the place of Sloan in the Husker packfield and showed his early season form.

In the Tuesday night session, the Husker camp again took on the appearance of a real football Among the new arrivals back on the squad were Ray Richards who was kept out of the Oklahoma game with a broken nose dicate there will be a large crowd and whose tower of strength in at the game but the stadium will the Husker forward wall was quits conspicious by its ab-sence. Works on Quarters.

Coach Bible is working over his squad of quarterbacks for the coming clash with the Aggies. Dutch Witte, Harold Peaker and Benny Marquis are all in line for plenty of special tutoring this week as the Husker pigskin mentor plans to throw all his forces and strategy on the field against the Aggie crew in one final attempt to bring the football championship to Nebraska for the 1929 season. As yet undefeated by conference teams, the Nebraska status in the conference will sink to the cellar regions should the Aggies turn in a win over the
