OUTSTATE GROUPS SEND DELEGATES TO HEAR DEBATE

Large Crowd Is Expected To Attend Contest With Oxford.

WILL ARGUE ON JURY

No Verdict Will Be Given, Either by Judges or By Audience.

A large crowd is expected in St. Paul's church tonight at 7 p. m. when the debate between Oxford and the University of Nebraska begins. According to Dr. H. A. White, coach of debate, delegations are expected from many outstate colleges and high schools. Twenty-five members of the Doane college debating squad have already ordered tickets, and space is being reserved for them in the auditorium.

The question for debate is, "Resolved: that the jury system is unnecessary for the administration of justice." Oxford will take the affirmative side and Nebraska will uphold the jury system. Owing to the fact that the Oxford debaters prefer no decision debates, no formal verdict will be rendered either by judges or by the audience. It has been arranged, however, to have an open forum of one half-hour duration in which the audience may participate and ask the debaters any questions that they desire. Speaking from the floor will be limited to three minutes for each person.

First Speakers Talk Twice. The first speaker for the affirmative and the first speaker for the negative will be allowed two speeches, one lasting ten minutes and the other, which will come at the end of the debate, five minutes. The other four debaters

Kappas and Sig Alphas Plan Snappy Song and Dance for Kosmet's Show

By Bill McGaffin. "Radio Rantics" is the name of the Kappa-Sig Alpha act which will be presented in the Kosmet Klub revue Thanksgiving and from the title the act can be anything from an imitation of the Phi Pits when they get their house bills to an impersonation of the Alpha Phi chapter's actions when the Saturday night dance comes round. We have the lockdown, however, from the author of Insanity Fair (Jim Pickering, in other words) who wrote the act and he declares there will be no such material as just described in his show. In fact, this is one presentation which suggests the title—a most unusual occurrence in these days. The skit will be centered around the interior of a radio broadcasting station. There will be a girl listening to the radio. Then the scene will change and interior of the studio will be shown. Master of ceremonies will be a takeoff on Graham McNamee. This is all well and good (we know it's hackneyed but what of it) for an ordinary plain show, but what puts life and pep (post toadies, oatmeal or what have you) into the act, and what is really the feature of the entire

Turkeys May Stay Home Thanksgiving; East Is Bankrupt

Turkey day will mean more this year than it ever has before. Perhaps everyone will eat the traditional bird on the gala feast of the year, because of the reduction in price, according to F. E. Musshell, professor of poultry husbandry.

Heretofore the East has demanded its turkey and been willing to pay such a high price for it that Nebraska folks have had to bid up to delirious meat prices to grace their Thanksgiving tables with home grown turkeys. This year, however, the people in the east have been so worried over the stock market that they refuse to get hungry for turkey at any price.

Prices for turkey this month are ten cents below the normal and will continue to drop, as the market is being flooded more every day. It is also true that records show a great increase in the number of birds raised. Lancaster county alone produces close to 10,000 birds.

JEWETT SPEAKS ON WORLD WIDE PEACE

'Idealism Should Be Based On Facts,' Colonel Says In Forum.

FAVORS NATIONS LEAGUE

'Idealism should be based on facts,' Lieut. Col. F. F. Jewett declared at the World Forum luncheon Wednesday. Colonel Jewett spoke on "International Relationships, in the Light of International Armaments."

"We should not form an ideal which we cannot realize with the facts of life," he said. "We had better face the facts and base our ideal on them." The colonel stated that he did not believe in armed peace.

"No formula has ever been produced, which can bring peace among the nations," he declared. The colonel stated that he thought that the League of Nations would be a wonderful asset to the world. He said that the United States rightfully objected to sending the troops to any part of the world where they might occur.

"The Kellogg treaties outlaw war as an international policy," he declared. He pointed out that the nations still had the power of self defense reserved and that each nation had the right to judge when it itself might be in danger.

Explains Constitution. He explained that the constitution guaranteed every citizen protection and the protection of his property. That was the reason, he said, why the American army invaded Mexico at the time Villa was in power.

A. S. M. E. HEARS TALK ON SUMMER ELECTRICAL WORK

The American Society of Mechanical Engineers held a meeting in the mechanical engineering building last night. Raymond Prohaska called the meeting to order and Professor Luebs, honorary chairman, made the announcements.

Fred Wood gave a talk on his summer experience with the Western Electric company of Chicago. Final instructions were given to T. A. House, who is to represent the Nebraska chapter at the national convention of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, held in New York City Dec. 2 to 6. The chapter voted to defray $35 of the expenses of the trip.

The society received an invitation from L. J. Ruf, superintendent of the Omaha power station, to inspect the new equipment which has been installed in the plant recently. Sandwiches and coffee were served following the meeting.

SPECIAL GUN WILL SHOOT PARTY TOYS

Favors for All-University Affair to Be Handed Out in New Way.

PLAN LIVELY PROGRAM

A specially constructed gun that will shoot out favors to the audience will feature the third All-University party of the year to be held at the coliseum Saturday, Nov. 23, beginning at 8:15 p. m.

"Preparations are being made for the biggest All-University party of the year," according to Alan Williams, chairman of the Barb council, which sponsors these parties.

Herb Smith's orchestra will furnish the music for the affair. A program of short vaudeville skits will interrupt the dancing in the middle of the evening. Dancing will start at 8:15.

New ideas in favors will be tried out at the party. These favors, the nature of which has not been made public by the committee of the Barb council in charge, have never been used at an All-University party before. The colors of the University of Nebraska will be shown in the tokens, which are coming directly from New York City.

As a part of the plan of decorating the coliseum for the party, those in charge are going to make an attempt to cover the entire ceiling with a canopy. The effect will be that of a dimly lighted theater.

Saturday's party will be the third of a series of All-University parties being given by the barb council. According to those in charge attendance at the first two parties was favorable. As the parties are open to all students in the university, it is desired by those in charge that all the students get in back of the parties and insure their continued success.

UPSON RETURNS FROM MEETING OF SCHOOLS

DEAN ASKS STUDENTS TO TAKE TRAIN

November 20, 1929. To the Students, The University of Nebraska. It has come to my attention that a considerable group of students are contemplating going to Manhattan, Kansas, for the K-aggie-Nebraska football game on next Saturday. In view of the fact that the Union Pacific railroad has offered a very low rate, together with the fact that automobile travel is always susceptible to extra hazards and the further fact that the automobile trails into Manhattan are often impassable, the university authorities believe that every student making this trip should take advantage of the special train. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated. Yours truly, T. J. Thompson, Dean of Student Affairs.

CORNHUSKER PEP FLOWS OVER IN BIG CELEBRATION

Wednesday Morning Is First Demonstration of High Spirited Huskers.

FUNERAL NOTICES COME

Black Bordered Cards Put About Campus Tell of Husker Demise.

By the Rally Man. Cornhusker spirit popped off Wednesday morning after a clock classes in its first attempt of the week to rally behind the Scarlet football team in its gridiron classic this Saturday, when it will attempt to capture the Big Six football classic. Pep sessions were held in classes throughout the morning and will continue throughout today and Friday morning.

Funeral notices on the campus Wednesday morning invited Cornhusker students to attend the funeral of their Cornhusker football team at the Aggie stadium Saturday met Nebraska students as they entered the campus for their classes Wednesday morning. Although the origin of these invitations has not been traced down it is reported that three Aggie students visited the Husker campus in their campaign to hand the Huskers their first defeat by an Aggie team.

Flare Comes at 3 O'clock. The big rally of the week is scheduled for three o'clock this afternoon. It is hoped that the entire Cornhusker student body will turn out for this final pep session in front of the Social Sciences and rally until four o'clock at which time, headed by the band, Corn Cobs and cheerleaders, the mass meeting will move over to Memorial stadium to rally around the Husker team which will be working out on the sod in their last strenuous practice before the title clash with "Bo" McMillin's Kansas Aggies this week. Although the stadium gates will be closed to the public, those in charge of the rally are arranging to enter the playing field in the last big pep demonstration of the week.

Friday morning at classes and in between classes, Cornhusker pep will find its outlet, as Nebraska's student body has fully realized the importance of the Aggie game this week. An impromptu rally staged Wednesday night was held along fraternity row where Russians Report Reorganization in Country's System of Agriculture. Great reorganization is being made in Russian agriculture, according to Mr. Kovalev, who headed a delegation of nine Russians who visited the college of agriculture Monday and Tuesday. They represented the All-Union Collective Peasant Farming associations of Russia and are making a survey of the agricultural methods used in America.

The foreign visitors led a round table discussion at the college of agriculture Tuesday afternoon. The discussion was carried on through the medium of an interpreter. The Russians were asked questions, which were translated to them by the interpreter, who in return relayed the Russians' replies back to the audience. Many Small Farms. The visitors said that many Russian farms consisted of but two acres, while some were farms of twenty-five and thirty acres. The Russians said that the peasants with two acres needed more land to farm while those with larger farms had more land than they could cultivate. Land in Russia was nationalized after the revolution. They explained that now land could not be bought or sold in Russia or even owned. The visitors stated that they regarded land as God's gift, the same as the Americans regarded the fresh air and sunshine. It was given to the peasants for them to cultivate but they do not own the land they farm.

Russians Report Reorganization in Country's System of Agriculture

Russia Unevenly Populated. Mr. Kovalev explained that the reason why some peasants received thirty acres while others got but two was because Russia is very unevenly populated. He said that much of the land in Russia, which is well adapted to agriculture, is thinly populated, while sections around Moscow and other cities were over populated. Shortage of railroads was his explanation of this condition. Russia is undertaking the construction of many railroads, he said, which will help distribute the population more evenly. Soviet Plan Changes. The Russians explained that the Soviet plan of land distribution did not prove to be successful at first. Peasants were given land to farm but they had no machinery or implements with which to cultivate their lands or no money with which to buy them. This led many of the peasants to lease the use of their lands for three years, but they were unable to live on the rent which was paid them and a new revolution threatened, they said. This condition caused the government to establish cooperative banks, which extended credit to the peasants. Three Farm Methods. The delegation explained that there were three methods of farm-

RIFLE CONTESTANTS SHOOT FOR PLACES

Four Five Man Teams Enter Competition; Winners Will Get Prizes.

BURGESS IS HIGH MAN

The first shoulder-to-shoulder match among the contestants for places on the rifle team was fired Tuesday evening at the range in Andrews hall. Four teams of five men each, named after various schools, took part. The Kansas university team captained by Curtice Nelson took first honors.

The K. U. team had a total score of 1698 x 2000. The Oklahoma A & M placed second with 1582. Cliff Webster's Kansas State team placed third with 1010. Cliff Dier's New York Stock Exchange team score is not yet completed.

Ted Burgess of the Jayhawk team made the highest individual score of 363 x 400. Bartholemew, last years letter man and captain of this year's varsity team, lacked his old form according to Sergeant McGimsey, coach, and made only 351. Dier, member of the last season's team placed third with 348.

Thursday evening the Washington college, Kemper Military Academy, California university and Arkansas State teams fire. The Kemper team under the leadership of Merrill Flood, a letter man, is doped to win the event according to Sergeant McGimsey. Flood fired in the national matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, this past summer, showing up very well.

Sergeant McGimsey is using this series of matches as a means of elimination in preparation for the picking of the varsity team by Captain H. Y. Lyon. Loud mufflers as first prize and red suspenders as second prize will be awarded the two highest teams. A consolation prize of red handkerchiefs for the lowest team will be given. All twenty-five cent entrance fees not yet paid should be paid to Sergeant McGimsey as the prizes must be paid for.

K-AGGIE TICKET SALE JUMPS APPRECIABLY

More Than 500 Remain to Be Sold, According to Athletic Office.

MAY ORDER NEW SUPPLY

An appreciable advance in sale of tickets to the K-aggie-Nebraska gridiron encounter at Manhattan, Kans. on Saturday was noted here today, as clear weather continued to be the rule.

More than 250 tickets for the tilt have been sold, it was announced today from the office of John K. Selleck, director of student activities. Approximately five hundred and fifty tickets still remain here for sale, it was pointed out today. An estimate that all of them would probably be sold was made by Mr. Selleck.

In the event that the 800 tickets originally brought here are sold, 400 more will be reserved at Manhattan, Mr. Selleck announced. He attributed the unusual number of tickets being sold to the interest in the game Saturday, which may decide the outcome of the present conference season. A win for Manhattan would clinch the title for that school, while a Cornhusker victory would keep the Nebraska in the undefeated class.

KAPPA PHI WILL HAVE GATHERING THURSDAY NIGHT. Kappa Phi Methodist sorority will hold a meeting at Emmanuel church, Fifteenth and U streets, Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Attendance of all members is required.

The program for the evening will consist of a talk by Miss Geneva George, director of religious education at the First Methodist Episcopal church. This will be followed by a presentation of the drama, "The King's Highway" by a group of Kappa Phi women.

Mysterious Letters Invite Nebraskans to Cornhusker Funeral

Nebraska's campus was flooded Wednesday morning with black bordered cards which extended University of Nebraska students a cordial invitation to attend the funeral of "The Cornhuskers," which was scheduled for Memorial stadium field at Manhattan this Saturday.

The invitations were printed in black and were distributed throughout the campus and fraternity and sorority row Wednesday morning. The "funeral" of the Cornhusker football team which Kansas Aggie students are planning with a great deal of interest is to be the first event of its kind in the history of the two schools.

Reports on the Nebraska campus as to the origin of these black invitations that were to be seen on all corners of the campus Wednesday morning, seem to be varied and doubtful. Dame Rumor has it that three Aggie students were designated to appear on the Nebraska campus Wednesday morning and issue the funeral invitation to Nebraska's student body.

Although Daily Nebraskan reporters are trying to trace the origin of the cards, no further report has been turned into the office of The Nebraskan.

STUDENT COUNCIL APPROVES BARBS' NEW DOCUMENT

Name of Group Must Be Changed to Read Barb Executive Board.

M'CLEERY OFFERS BILL

Resolution Adopted Asking Extension of Time on Some Parties.

Long delayed approval of the Barb constitution by the Student council was finally accomplished at a meeting of the group Wednesday. The council approved it with a few minor changes and the provision that the name of the non-fraternity organization be changed from the Barb council to the Barb Executive board.

Members of the present non-fraternity group were reluctant to change the name. The document which was run in The Daily Nebraskan, with a few changes, will be submitted to the faculty committee on student organizations.

Adoption of a resolution offered by Bill McCleery concerning the extension of time limits for certain parties and discussion of proposals of various nature were the principal items of business taken up at the meeting.

Proposes to Extend Limit. The party proposal which will be presented to the faculty committee follows: "To the Faculty Committee on Student Organizations: Whereas, the Student council of the University of Nebraska recommended to the faculty committee on student organizations last year that the Military ball, Interfraternity ball, and Junior-Senior Prom be permitted to last until 12 o'clock, with the time limit for coeds being extended to 12:30 o'clock, with the provision that these parties be held on the Nebraska campus if subject to such alterations of rules, and Whereas, this plan has been con-

WOMEN JOURNALISTS SET DINNER PROGRAM

Famous Newspaper Figures Are Represented in Banquet Talks.

CUP WILL BE AWARDED

"New York Day by Day" by Day (Stanley)—is only one of the farcical speeches which will comprise the program at the annual journalism dinner, sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, at the Annex cafe this evening at 6 o'clock. The presentation of the Sigma Delta Chi cup for the best news story in The Daily Nebraskan for the second semester of last year will be made by Gene Robb, president of the journalistic fraternity.

Student journalists will apply the style and tactics of famous newspaper figures to the campus situations in their after dinner speeches. Bill McCleery, as Will Rogers, will make some pertinent remarks, and Don Carlson will imitate the press physician, Dr. Brady, in his suggestions for Nebraskans. Gene Robb (Minerva) will have some advice for a number of students in this institution. Stanley Day's talk will resemble the column of the famous New Yorker, O. O. McIntyre. As toastmaster there will be one who will portray William Randolph Hearst.

HUNDRED SPANISH STUDENTS ATTEND VARIED PROGRAM. Approximately one hundred students were present at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Club Espanol, held in room 5 of University hall from 4 to 5 p. m. Spanish songs, stories and music by the Spanish orchestra comprised the program and the entire meeting was conducted in Spanish.

The departmental instructors were presented to the group and each gave a short talk. A vocal duet was sung by Hortense Henderson and Emilio del Rosario, followed by stories told in Spanish by Helen Baldwin, Adele Barnhardt and Eva Cales. The Spanish orchestra played several selections, La Paloma, O Sole Mio and El Amante Vagabundo. The meeting was presided over by Mary Griagrosso.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS STAGE LAST SHOWING

'John Ferguson' Will Be Played Final Time This Evening.

The University Players will present their final showing of "John Ferguson" tonight at the Temple theater at 7:30 o'clock. This is the last opportunity Nebraska students will have to witness this fine piece of dramatic presentation.

W. Zolley Lerner, Doris Hosman and Paul Miller distinguish themselves in their respective roles. Mr. Lerner, who has received past recognition for his work in "Emperor Jones" and "Lilliom," added more proof that he is an actor of ability. He develops realistically and convincingly the character of old John Ferguson, the peasant farmer who is completely permeated with the idea that the Bible is the final word in regard to the conduct of man. Only his love for his son can cause this faith to waver.

Miss Hosman as his daughter Hannah also shows marked ability. With ease and grace she gives a praiseworthy performance as a pretty, young Irish girl. Miss Hosman won the sympathy and approval of all. Play It Character Study. Paul Miller as "Clutie" John Mac-
