+ On The Campus +

By Mary Nichols.

Winter and another formal season have come and will have gone after this evening when the Junior-Senior Prom, one of the social highlights in university circles, takes place in the ballrooms of the Lincoln hotel. Following close is spring with its gay parties. One of the sororities has scheduled a spring party for Saturday, another a house party, and two fraternities house parties. The All-University party, a Japanese affair, comes on Saturday evening, too.

Delta Sig Pledges Entertain.

Active members and guests of Delta Sigma Delta will be honored at a party given by pledges of the fraternity on Saturday evening at the chapter house. The fifty couples who will attend will be chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Miller.

Party Given by Delta Upsilon.

Members of Delta Upsilon will entertain at an informal dancing party at the chapter house on Saturday evening. Included in the forty couples who will attend will be two out of town alumni of the fraternity, Barton Hamilton of Omaha and Norman Anderson of Chicago. Chaperons for the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Arndt and Mrs. C. M. Phillips.

Board Sponsors Mixer.

Members of the Farmers Fair board will sponsor a mixer on Saturday evening in the student activities building on the campus of the college of agriculture. Chaperons for the dance include Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Prescott and Robert P. Crawford.

Sisters of A. G. R. Entertained.

Honoring Alpha Gamma Rho sisters, members of that fraternity will entertain at a dinner at the chapter house at 1 o'clock on Sunday. Included in the group of fifteen sisters who will be present will be a number from out of town. Chaperons at the dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Mussehl.

SOCIALIST LEADER WILL SPEAK TODAY

ticket sales have been unusually large.

Norman Thomas is a graduate of Princeton university and of Union Theological seminary. He is an ordained member of the Presbyterian ministry and has held several pastorates in New York state.

He was the socialist candidate for the presidency in 1928, candidate for mayor of New York City in 1929 and in 1925, and candidate for the governorship of New York in 1924. He is a former editor of the World Tomorrow, which he founded, a contributing editor of the New Leader, and an associate editor of the Nation.

Is League Founder.

Mr. Thomas is a member of the executive committee of the American Civil Liberties union and chairman of the board of directors of the League of Industrial Democracy. Dean J. E. LeRossignol, of the college of business administration, stated that Mr. Thomas was one of the founders of this league.

"The purpose of the league," the dean said, "is to have the wage earners have more control over industry. Norman Thomas is a moderate socialist," he declared. Dean LeRossignol said that the league was formerly called the Intercollegiate Social society, its name being changed during the war.

"The league is a national membership organization, which by lectures, publications, conferences and investigations seek to promote education for a new social order based on production for use and not for profit."

States Socialist Facts.

Norman Thomas stated recently in a speech given before a meeting of the league, which was reported in the news bulletin of the league: "I am a socialist because socialism, better than any other theory, seems to me to supply the need for some sort of analysis of our social order and some building principles of reconstruction.

"I am a socialist and not a communist, because socialism is a cast in a less rigid and dictatorial mould than communism. I believe that our whole conception of democracy needs analysis and restatement, but I am convinced that the dictatorship of a communistic party, at least in our Western world, is a dangerous and unsatisfactory substitute for the imperfect democracy we now have."

DEAN EXPLAINS ALTERED DATE FOR IVY AFFAIR

dent's career, not crowning the May queen and the other events on Ivy day, and therefore wishes to have Alumni Round-Up built around commencement. He considers that the school will gain scholastically by the placing of a number of holidays in one week.

High school senior classes usually sneak to Lincoln sometime during May and it is Dean Thompson's wish that they may on that day come to the university and see some of the ceremonies. He stressed the fact that this change is only temporary and may be changed again next year.

Thompson States Ideas.

Dean Thompson stated further, "It is the opinion of many that by placing these events in a single week the university may well conduct "open house" or "at home" hours for guests who may visit the university for these occasions. The Alumni association feels that by separating Round-Up from Ivy day and associating these festivities more closely with Commencement day, the activities will be more successful.

"Most important of all, however, is the fact that the three day break between class work and final examinations, which has always been questioned by a majority of students and faculty, is avoided by the present scheme."

Mortar Boards Approve.

The Mortar Boards have been considering the change for three years and it has their entire approval. Ivy day was founded by the Mortar Boards in the early nineteen hundreds. A few years later the May queen ceremonies were added.

Almost a decade later the Innocents had a part for the first time in celebrating the day. Other events, such as the Interfraternity sing, became a part of the day still later. Because Ivy day was founded by the Mortar Boards, says Dean Thompson, they are given the opportunity to decide the date.

ALPHA SIGS WIN IN VOLLEY BALL ROUND

Defeat Pi Kappa Alpha in Close Game; Teke Team Beat Sig Alphs.

Volleyball pushers in the interfraternity volley ball elimination tournament tasted their first victory or defeat Thursday afternoon on the coliseum courts.

Alpha Sigma Phi and Pi Kappa Alpha played the feature game of the afternoon, but the Alpha Sigs emerged on the long end of 15-10 and 17-15 scores. Morrison's heighth and service aided the Alpha Sigs greatly in their win over the Pi K A's.

Delta Chi and Delta Sigma Lambda forfeited their games and were thereby eliminated. Sigma Alpha Mu won the Delta Sigma Lambda forfeit and the Phi Sigma Kappa won from the Delta Chi in the same way.

The Tau Kappa Epsilon volleyers shut out the Sigma Alpha Epsilon representatives in two straight games, 15-0. Delta Tau Delta put the Kappa Sigma out of the running when they easily won 15-10, and 15-0. Delta Upsilon won out over the Farm House by 15-5, and 15-0. Scoring summary:

Tau Kappa Epsilon won from Sigma Alpha Epsilon 15-0, 15-0.

Delta Tau Delta won from Kappa Sigma 15-0, 15-0.

Alpha Sigma Phi won from Pi Kappa Alpha 15-8, 17-15.

Delta Upsilon won from Farmhouse 15-5, 15-0.

Phi Sigma Kappa won from Delta Chi by forfeit.

Sigma Alpha Mu won from Delta Sigma Lambda by forfeit.

act by Mr. and Mrs. Wally Morrow, singing numbers by the Lefholtz sisters trio from Omaha, singing by twelve year old Marjorie Whitney and a fast tap number by an "unknown" little boy, will feature the entertainment throughout the evening which will be interspersed with dancing.

Chaperones for the affair include Gov. and Mrs. Arthur J. Weaver, Mayor and Mrs. Don Love, Lt. Col. and Mrs. F. F. Jewett, Prof. and Mrs. Paul Grummann, Chancellor and Mrs. E. A. Burnett, Dean and Mrs. T. J. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harper, and Dean Amanda Heppner.

Indirect lighting plans are being followed which will allow no white lights in either ballroom, the spots and gelatine flood supplying colored lights playing over both ballroom floors.

Presentation at 10:30.

Presentation of the prom girl will take place in the main ballroom at 10:30, following the counting of the ballots at 10:15 by members of the prom committee, representatives from each of the four sororities who have candidates for the honor, and Ralph Raikes, president of the Student council.

Novelty presentation schemes have been worked out for the introduction of the prom girl and will be "puller" on the crowd of dancers at 10:50.

Ample checking facilities have been arranged to accommodate the large crowd, both floors have been waxed, and proper means of ventilation have been cared for.

AMES WILL COMPETE IN BIG SIX CONTEST

Prospects as Good as Last Year for Taking Meet At Columbia.

AMES, Ia.—W. W. Thompson, Hampton, Iowa State college half miler, will be unable to compete in the Big Six indoor meet at Columbia, Mo., Saturday, due to an attack of appendicitis.

Coach Bob Simpson will take thirteen men to Columbia. Cyclone prospects appear equal to last year when the cardinal and gold runners were barely nosed out of the title by Oklahoma.

Three Iowa State cindermen will defend their indoor titles won last year: Captain Maurice Soults, in the pole vault; Meier, in the 50 yard dash; and Putnam, in the two mile run. The dash event will be over a 60 yard route as compared with the 50 yard race of last year. Other probable point winners for the Cyclones are: Hager, in the hurdles; Nagel, in the half mile run; Wells, in the 60 yard dash; and Marion Soults, brother of the captain, in the hurdles and high jump.

Coach Bob Simpson announced the following state entries:

60 yard dash: Meier, Wells, Mershe.
60 yard high hurdles: Hager, M. W. Soults, M. R. Soults.
60 yard low hurdles: Hager, M. W. Soults, M. R. Soults.
Pole vault: M. W. Soults.
High jump: Manning, M. R. Soults.
Broad jump: Swift.
440 yard dash: Conaway, Jay, Elerick, Hershe.
880 yard run: Nagel.
Mile run: Putnam.
Mile run: Putnam.
Two mile run: Putnam.
Mile relay: Conaway, Jay, Elerick, Hershe.

RODEO IS FEATURE PRECEDING KANSAS RELAYS IN SPRING

LAWRENCE, Kas.—A feature of the Kansas Relays program at the University of Kansas this spring will be a night rodeo at the Memorial stadium on April 18, preceding the relays on Saturday, April 19. The Interscholastic High school track meet will be held Friday afternoon.

Prizes will be given to winners of events of bronco-busting, trick riders, steer bulldoggers and other rodeo novelties. A personnel of 25 to 50 horsemen, bronco busters, cowgirls will lend a Western atmosphere, and about 50 horses will be entered in the attempt of the university athletic association to furnish entertainment in this form of outdoor sport.

TOPERS—OF ORANGE JUICE.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle.—Orange juice will soon become the most popular drink on the Washington campus, if many sororities or fraternities need new radio sets.

Each glass of orange juice consumed brings some house just one vote closer to a new Atwater-Kent radio.

The radio will be awarded at the end of this quarter by the Honey Dew shop at 13507 University way. Each drink of Honey Dew registers one vote, and the house with the highest total wins the radio.

Phrases Taken From Food Industry Form Metaphors of Slang

"He's as crooked as a pretzel."
"He has a lot of crust."
"She knows her onions."

The food industry, greatest in the world, furnishes the metaphors and similes for many of our most pithy and catching phrases according to Dr. Victor Levine, a professor at Creighton university. Here are more of his examples:

"Cool as a cucumber."
"Use your bean."
"He's a nut."
"Some spring chicken."
"The old Hen."
"You bonehead."

HE GOT THE JOB..
WE had a smooth pair of fox trot numbers we were eager to stamp on a new record. One—hit of a great talkie; the other—crammed with irresistible rhythm—BOTH memorably melodic and smartly new.
They deserved the baton of a master bandsman—to be molded into toe-tantalizing form by the deftest of syncopators. So of course someone said "Whiteman."
