SIG CHIS DEFEAT SIG ALPHAS IN GOLF TILT

Former Team Earns Right To Enter Finals for Championship.

Clinch on second place in the interfraternity elimination golf tournament fell into the hands of the Sigma Chi Monday afternoon, when they defeated the Sigma Alpha Epsilon team, 7 to 4, on the Antelope park course. Sigma Chi is now the only survivor in one bracket and will play the winner of a match between Pi Kappa Phi and Phi Sigma Kappa for the interfraternity championship.

Pi Kappa Phi downed Alpha Theta Chi Sunday morning, 8 to 4, and the Phi Sigs disposed of Phi Delta Theta yesterday afternoon, 9 to 3, to win the opportunity to meet the semi-finals in the other bracket.

The Sig Alpha-Sigma Chi tilt was hotly contested throughout. The first foursome, made up of Mertz, Hopewell, Brown and Lyman, tied for points on the eighteen holes. Mertz defeated Brown, 3 to 0, to make as many points for Sigma Chi, and Hopewell lost to Lyman, 3 to 0, to square things for the Sig Alpha team.

Second Group.

Results turned in by the second foursome determined the winner. Minor lost a point to Conklin of the Sigma Chis on the first nine and one on the eighteen holes but won a point on the last nine.

R. Bennett had a one hole advantage over E. Bennett of the Sig Alpha team at the ninth green. On the second nine, each man won four holes and they tied, so that two points went to the Sigma Chis.

The Phi Sigs are doped to win their bracket and favored for the championship. Fisher, Jensen, Lenser and Woods make up their team.

Basketball Practice Resumed in Coliseum

Spring basketball practice will be continued during this week, according to an announcement by Coach Charley Black. Although part of the Coliseum is in use for a banquet, the stage court and the court at the south end of the floor are open, and will be used for drill on fundamentals until Friday, when practice will be suspended for the preliminaries of the high school track meet.

Phillippe Announces Five Rules for Bizad Day Golf Tournament

Gerald Phillippe of Basin, Wyo., committee chairman in charge of the Bizad day golf tournament to be held on the Antelope park golf links Friday, May 9, announced Monday that the following rules for the tourney will be enforced:
1. Every entry must hold a ticket to the Bizad day celebration.
2. Every entry must turn in his name to Phillippe before 6 p. m., Thursday, May 8.
3. The qualifying round of nine holes must be played and the score turned in at the clubhouse at Antelope park links any time before 12 noon, Friday, May 9.
4. All matches must be played in foursomes, each member thereof signing all four scorecards testifying that each respective score is correct.
5. The four players shooting the lowest scores for the qualifying round will play in the final flight at 2 p. m., Friday. This flight will be for eighteen holes, the winner of which will be declared winner of the tournament.

BY PERMISSION OF Cliff Sandahl (who has set an implied limit upon the material the shooter takes from the Journal): John Bentley has changed the name of his column back to "I May Be Wrong." Gene Robb has aptly suggested that our comment be, "Yes, Jehn, You may." The shooter always insisted that the head now used is much more appropriate for a column writer since it is indicative of a proper spirit of humility.

A CONCESSION TO THE HOWLING mob which demands more sports copy (there isn't any good reason for this stuff; everyone knows it anyway): Nebraska's scard clatter cinder crushers, racket wielders, and sandlotters just passed through a big week.

With the spiked shoe men turning in a brilliant win in a dual meet with Missouri, the tennis team edging out a victory over the Kansas Aggies, and the baseball team splitting the series with the strong Iowa university nine, Cornhusker sports enthusiasts had plenty to keep them interested.
The baseball team will be busy this week with games at Lawrence Monday and Tuesday and at Ames Friday and Saturday. Schulte's trackmen meet Kansas in a dual meet Saturday morning, preceding the finals in the state high school championships Saturday afternoon.

RUDY VOGELER, director of intramurals, is pleased with the position intramural athletics are assuming in university life.

Whereas championships in practically all divisions of the limited program were formerly dominated by a few groups, points are now evenly distributed throughout a large number of fraternities.
There can be little doubt that the intramural program of the university is a success. Contrasted to a few years ago, when a basketball tournament and a tennis tournament comprised the entire output, the system now includes competition in a great variety of sports. Plenty of men are drawn into competition who would otherwise do nothing but rest.

IT IS a bit late now, but the shooter must have his turn at the Innocents. Consistent performance like that of Ivy day just past will just about ruin the Innocents' reputation—for being purely political in the choice of members. There is a place for a real honor on this campus. Maybe we are going to have one after all.

WHILE on the subject of honoraries, here's something for Professor Grumann, who condemned rather sweepingly the present newspaper organization, saying among other things that journalists were people who couldn't do anything else.

Eight persons engaged in publication work rate the only men's honorary there it. Six of these are actually enrolled in the school of journalism. The president of the women's honorary is a journalist. While we can't consistently say that membership in these organizations is proof in itself of unusual worth, it at least demonstrates that some students enrolled in the school are at least not at the bottom of the grade.

HOW can the nation grow up to speak respectable English? A new atrocity has appeared, this time in a tobacco advertisement which is spread over full sized billboards. In letters a foot or so high, the company has a fisherman say: "Give me fish that bite—and tobacco that DON'T."

COLLECTION FOR SCRUB WOMEN.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—HARVARD UNIVERSITY—A campaign to collect $5,600 for paying back wages to a group of scrubwomen recently dismissed by the university has been started by fifty-one alumni. The present action on the part of the alumni is the outcome of a threat which they had issued on March 17 saying that a statement from the university had not satisfied them. On that day the officials of the university had released a statement to the effect that at all times the scrubwomen had received at least the wages required by the minimum wages law.

TRACKSTERS GET SET FOR BATTLE WITH JAYHAWKS

Schultemen Are to Tangle With Kansas Thinclads Here Saturday.

LAST DUAL COMPETITION

Cornhuskers Have Won All Meets for Year; Rivals Have Fast Lineup.

Nebraska tracksters will wind up their dual competition of the season when they tangle with the Kansas Jayhawks in Memorial stadium Saturday morning. The meet will be staged as an added attraction for patrons of the state high school meet and should turn in the best dual competition of the season for Schulte's squad.

Kansas decisively defeated the Kansas Aggies Saturday without the services of Jim Bausch. Bausch journeyed to the Ohio relays and won first in the shot with a toss of a little over 47 feet and also won the tri-athlon. Bausch and Rhea will furnish some interesting competition in the meet Saturday as both men have been hitting around 47 feet consistently and the fight between the two should prove interesting.

Keen Competition in Shot.

Rhea beat Bausch by inches in the Kansas relays and lost the following Saturday at the Drake relays after he had broken the record in the preliminaries. Rhea's best heave of the season is 50 feet 2 inches in the Oklahoma dual and the Arlington boy should furnish Bausch with plenty of competition.

The meet on paper seems to be a toss up with either team having a good chance to win if they get the breaks. Kansas has been laying for Nebraska all year and dope points to a real battle between two of the best teams in the Big Six. If the Jayhawks lick Nebraska it will be the first defeat suffered by the Huskers this year, having won all previous duals by a comfortable margin.
This meet will be the final appearance of Schulte's charges until the Big Six outdoor meet at Lincoln May 23-24.

Jayhawks Good Sprinters.

Kansas will have a group of sprinters who are hard to beat. Joe Klauer and Siegle lead the list and the sprint relay team of the Kansas school has been turning in some excellent performances in the relay carnivals this spring.

Trueblood, Kansas vaulter, served notice that the pole vault this week end will be no walkaway as it was last Saturday. He cleared 12 feet 8 inches to win the event and should extend Bill Ossian to win the event. Ossian has cleared 13 feet several times this season and should win if nothing happens.

The rest of the events seem to be pretty evenly divided with the final score close and the breaks may decide the meet.

INTRAMURAL OFFICE RECEIVES PLAQUES

Winners of Interfraternity Sports Contests May Call for Awards.

Plaques to be awarded the various winners in interfraternity sports competition during the past year have been received by the intramural office and are being distributed when called for. Championships already decided, and fraternities entitled to plaques are:
Hare and hound, Delta Sigma Lambda.
Handball, Sigma Alpha Mu and Pi Kappa Alpha.
Soccer, Delta Upsilon.
Water polo, Pi Kappa Alpha.
Swimming, Theta Chi.
Wrestling, Theta Xi.
Boxing, Delta Sigma Lambda and Delta Sigma Phi.
Indoor track, Farm House.
Class A basketball, Alpha Gamma Rho.
Class B basketball, Theta Xi.
Horseshoes, Kappa Sigma.
Carnival relays, Pi Kappa Alpha.
Volleyball, Tau Kappa Epsilon.
Basketball free throw, Phi Sigma Kappa.

The distribution of championships through a large number of fraternities is taken by R. F. Vogeler, director of intramurals, as an indication of the place being established for interfraternity competition. A glance at the all-year score card shows a large number of fraternities well up in total standings, as compared to a domination of higher places by a few fraternities which has been present in the past.

OPEN HOUSE AT OBSERVATORY IS BILLED TONIGHT

Tonight will be the regular open house at the University of Nebraska observatory, according to Professor G. D. Swezey, who will talk on eclipses, giving special attention to the one which occurred on April 23. The moon will be under observation through the observatory telescope.
The eclipse of last month was not visible here on account of the cloudy weather prevailing that day, says Professor Swezey. It was to have been partial here for several hours. The eclipse was to be only over an area of several miles in northern California and then for only a second and a half, being one of the shortest eclipses on record.

THOSE STUDYING MOST MAKE POOREST GRADES

Iowa Professor Finds That More Efficient Methods Needed.

AMES, IOWA.—A more effective technique of studying rather than longer study hours is the need of most students who fail to come up to scholarship standards, according to Dr. J. G. Jenkins, assistant professor of psychology at Iowa State college, who spoke before the Iowa academy of science recently. Professor Jenkins has conducted a study of the study habits of two groups of students totaling 120 at Iowa State.

The group which made the highest grades spent two hours and thirty-eight minutes a day in study while the group deficient in scholarship spent three hours and twenty-nine minutes each day. The poorer group spent less time on sleep and dates to allow an hour more time for study, exercised more, attended church more and took less time to dress.

The lightest sleeper in the group spent an average of six and one half hours in sleep while the heaviest sleeper spent ten and one half hours. The most sleeping is done on Saturday night, as a result of late Sunday mornings in bed, when the average is ten hours and eighteen minutes. The championship for rapid eating goes to a student who completed three meals a day in thirty-six minutes while one person required one hour and fifty-four minutes.

FORD OWNER'S CLUB.

UNIVERSITY OF INDIANA.—A club composed of Ford owners in the department of English at the University of Indiana has recently been started. Owners of other makes of cars are prohibited from membership. A circular issued to members of the department announces the members of the club and those prohibited from membership.
One member of the English department is listed among the unwelcome with regret, the circular states, "at one time he held the medal for driving the most decrepit Ford on the campus."

LEAGUE BALL TILTS ENTER FINAL WEEK

Five Team Tourney Next Week Will Determine Championship.

21 GROUPS COMPETING

As the interfraternity playground baseball tournament enters its final week of round robin play, Alpha Sigma Phi, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Delta Sigma Phi and Delta Tau Delta teams are leading their leagues while Phi Kappa and Pi Kappa Phi are tied for supremacy in league five.

Winners in each of the divisions at the end of this week will be scheduled for play in a five team elimination tournament for the interfraternity championship. This final round tournament should be completed by the end of next week, according to R. F. Vogeler, director of intramurals.

BUILDINGS in Which You Take Pride

ON THE CAMPUS, where "class" buildings and memorial structures are so often distinguished by their noble form, floodlighting equipment serves to prolong the enjoyment of their beauty and to enhance pride in the institution. Such an application is made for the new 165-foot campanile at South Dakota State—magnificent gift of an alumnus. Electrically operated chimes sound the hours and are heard in concerts. At night, shafts of light from General Electric floodlighting projectors effect a picture of superb beauty done in the school colors and white. From the air, the tower is identified by the beam from a G-E airway beacon surmounting the floodlighted dome. Thus, G-E equipment plays its part in promoting progress and fine appreciation. Back of every G-E product is an organization in which college-trained men are largely responsible for the planning, production, and distribution.

They're off! Ringside seats—right this way folks. The big show is on. Now that old Man Weather has snapped out of it, the fair co-eds have a chance to get into shape again. From now on things will be happening in a big way. Might just as well start in training for that half mile sprint down the walk to the May Queen's throne early. Operations have been temporarily suspended for the past week, but the suspense is permanently over and the girls are going into action. It's a show you can't afford to miss, folks!

Well, the excitement's over and baseball still continues. The files are out again and the season is on. The tournament is trying its best to finish, but wallowing around in the mud isn't exactly an outdoor sport of the highest type.

Deck tennis has evidently been progressing in spite of defects in the weather and the elimination tournament will be held next week. Contrary to popular belief this is not necessarily played on deck as no ships were available at the time. If you're good at catching rins this is an ideal sport—surely such qualifications merit a large attendance. This is one of the in-
