

BIG SIX CINDER MIX FORECASTED AS ONE OF BEST

Nine 1929 Event Champions Are in Readiness for Annual Battle.

TO BE HELD IN LINCOLN

Nebraska, Kansas Are Given Edge From Early Season Performances.

With nine 1929 event champions among the field of competitors the second annual Big Six conference track and field championships is expected to be one of the best meets in Missouri Valley athletic history. The 1930 classic is scheduled for the University of Nebraska memorial stadium, Friday and Saturday, May 23 and 24.

Event champions defending their laurels won at Ames last year are Hursley, Missouri, 440 yard dash; Lamson, Nebraska, 120 yard high hurdles; Carmen, Oklahoma, low hurdles; Fortune, Kansas, two mile run; Faytinger, Nebraska, javelin; Tomson, Nebraska, broad jump; Ossian, Nebraska, and M. Soultz, Iowa State, pole vault; Shelby, Oklahoma, high jump.

In view of the early season performances, Nebraska and Kansas are favored to battle for the title with Oklahoma and Iowa State given an outside for victory if the Cornhuskers and Jayhawkers start dividing points in an even fashion. Nebraska won the outdoor championship in 1929 and the indoor title in the 1930 meet.

Good Marks Expected.

Good marks are expected in all events, the early season showing in relay carnivals and dual meets finding Big Six conference athletes hanging up new varsity records in all institutions.

Among the records figured certain to fall are the mile relay, the shot put, discus and high jump. The Missouri quartet is expected to hang up a new relay mark. Jim Bausch of Kansas or Hugh Rhea of Nebraska are apparently assured of a new shot record, while Thornhill of Kansas and Shelby of Oklahoma are headed for discus and javelin marks respectively.

The sprint field, which is expected to produce around 9 8-10 seconds in the century and 21 4-10 seconds in the furlong includes Meier of Iowa State, indoor champion; Smuny and Steffah, Nebraska; Walsh and Jackson, Missouri; Sickel and Klauer, Missouri; Atkinson, Oklahoma, Elwell, Kansas Aggies.

Keith Hursley, outdoor and indoor champion, heads a pack of Missouri quarter-milers that is expected to score heavily in the 440 yard event. The leaders in the event include Ulfers, Dills of Missouri; Beardslee of Kansas; Fuhrrodt and Ostergaard, Nebraska; Abbott, Oklahoma.

Ostergaard in Running. Rockwell Swartz, Missouri indoor champion, and Bob Ostergaard, Nebraska, are the half mile leaders with Miller, Kansas Aggies; Hinshaw and Young, Kansas; Moore, Oklahoma; and Walters, Iowa State also very much in the running.

Ray Putnam of Iowa State and Dawson of Oklahoma, indoor champion, are among the mile favorites. The event also will include Richard Swartz, Missouri; Miller, Kansas Aggies; Garvey, Nebraska.

The two mile grind again brings Putnam and Dawson to the front along with Fortune of Kansas, 1929 champion. Putnam won the indoor title in the Columbia meet. Ether-ton and Griffin of Nebraska are among other leading hurriers.

The hurdlers include both outdoor champions—Lamson of Nebraska in the highs and Carmen of Oklahoma in the lows. The field also includes Hager of Iowa State.

The spotlight event will be one of the features of the meet. Jim Bausch of Kansas and Hugh Rhea of Nebraska, a pair of sophomores will be bidding for a new conference record. Rhea has done 50 feet 2 inches in competition this season, while Bausch has been more consistent in getting 48 and 49 feet. Other leaders include Thornhill, F. Bausch and Ward of Kansas; Rider, Oklahoma, and Hokuf, Nebraska. J. Bausch is indoor champion.

Kansas has a bunch of exceptional discus men and is expected to score heavily in the event. Thornhill, with a throw of 135 feet 7 1/4 inches, leads the Jayhawkers group which includes J. Bausch, F. Bausch and Ward. Other good discus men are Rider and Churchill, Oklahoma; Hitch, Iowa State; Eisenhart and Hokuf, Nebraska.

Faytinger of Nebraska will defend his javelin laurels against a field which includes J. Bausch, Walton, Kansas; Livingston, Williams, Kansas Aggies; Hokuf, Nebraska; Mills, Oklahoma.

Ossian of Nebraska, indoor champion and co-holder with Soultz of Iowa State of the outdoor championship, is among the pole vault leaders. Soultz is also among the competitors. Other leaders are Choate and Redwine, Oklahoma; Trueblood and J. Bausch, Kansas.

TEKES WIN FROM DELTA SIGS FOR BASEBALL TITLE

Intramural Leaders Take Baseball Title by Winning From Delta Sigs.

YORDY SIZZLES 'EM OVER

Last Inning Rally Nets One Run for Contenders But Fails to Get Tie.

Championship honors in the interfraternity baseball tournament rest in the hands of Tau Kappa Epsilon, following a 4-2 victory over the Delta Sigma Phi team in the final Friday afternoon on the drill field sandlot. The Tekes are already leading the pack in the race for the all year intramural trophy.

Delta Sigma Phi scored the most runs on the title winning team that any contender has during the tournament. The Tekes, winners of their league in the preliminary games, turned back Delta Tau Delta 1-0 and Alpha Sigma Phi 7-0 to compete for the title. The Delta Sigs entered the finals by getting a bye and winning from Theta Xi.

The work of Cy Yordy in the box factored heavily in the victory for the Tekes. Aside from the fifth inning batting spree of the Delta Sigs and the last inning attempt to knot the score, Yordy fed the air to many batters and kept hits scattered. He had good support in the field.

Gabrielson, in the box for the Delta Sigma Phi team, pitched good ball, but Teke hitters had little difficulty in locating the pellet. Infielders bungled several times to allow men on bases. Tekes collected five safe hits.

Lanquist, Teke second sacker, found Gabrielson in the initial inning for a hit and the Tekes loaded the bases for what looked like wholesale scoring, but the Delta Sigs knuckled down to nip any runs. In the third inning, Lallman and Yordy hit and scored. The Tekes scored again in the fourth, and in the last inning.

Delta Sigma Phi came back in the fifth to get a run and to threaten when Yordy slackened. They scored again in the last inning in a rally intended to even the count. With two down and bases loaded, Carter was rushed into the game to pinch hit for the Delta Sigs. He smacked a liner down third base line and was thrown out at first.

The lineup: Tekes—Young, ss; Jackson, cf; Lanquist, 2b; Stupak, 3b; Uehling, c; Scherer, ss; Jensen, lf; Smith, rf; Lallman, 1b; Yordy, p. Delta Sigma Phi—Poundester, ss; Rhea, 1b; Gabrielson, p; Sureska, 3b; Tomson, 2b; Kett, ss; Morrison, lf; Radford, rf; Walker, c; Freeman, cf.

SIGMA NUS TO HONOR SISTERS

This is an annual occasion observed by Sigma Nu. No specific plans have been made for entertainment and the afternoon will be spent informally.

FROSH IN BY 7:45.

The new student government rule at Michigan state requires that "freshman girls shall retire to their respective dormitories at 7:45 every week night, and sophomores and juniors shall do likewise at 10 o'clock. But senior girls, by reason of their advanced and exalted position in this worthy institution, shall barge around town until 11 "if they feel so inclined," which they always do.

THERE is always something to be thankful for. With all the rain we are having now there is a possibility that the weather will be half respectable for the Big Six meet slated for Lincoln next Friday and Saturday. Nebraska's prospects are good for cleaning up that event. Coach Schulte hasn't brought out his bad news yet, but it certainly seems as though the dope should favor Nebraska. We have sprinters, middle distance men, distance men, hurdlers, broad jumpers, vaulters, weight men and high jumpers, and that seems to be about all it takes to win a track meet, providing the men are good enough.

Not wishing to cast any reflections upon the ability of Phil Garvey and his fellow milers, we predict, nevertheless, that Nebraska isn't going to take first in the mile. Putnam of Iowa tore off a mile in 4 minutes 19 and a fraction seconds the other afternoon, and according to newspaper writers, (who, it is reported, are woefully inaccurate) didn't extend himself. If he feels like that next Saturday it might be expecting a trifle too much of anyone in the Big Six to beat him.

ALL YEAR interfraternity scores have not been completely compiled recently, but it appears that Tau Kappa Epsilon is going to win the Jack Best trophy for all around proficiency. The club is out in front by a considerable margin and only three events remain on the program: the water carnival, the tennis tournament, and the golf tournament. The last two are well under way and are expected to be finished within a few days.

The winning of the trophy by the Tekes, if they win it, breaks the long reign of supremacy of the Kappa Sigs, who were all year champions three times consecutively.

IN THE FOLLOWING work of art, we find a clever interpretation of a very difficult theme—that too much rain has disastrous effects upon the human brain. Poets are never able to interpret their own work, according to Professor Grummann, which has been pointed out before, so we offer this explanatory note.

The piece is brought to the read-
