IN WHITE NEW STUDENTS TO MEET

INNOCENTS GET RALLY CONTROL FROM COUNCIL

Director of Pep to Report To Committee Before Each Grid Tilt.

MOTION IS UNANIMOUS

Group Appointed to Draw Up New Constitution Before Election.

The Student Council has passed its control of football rallies into the hands of the Innocents society, and has simultaneously given the latter body complete jurisdiction and control over the Corn Cobs and Tassels, campus pep organizations. In all matters pertaining to rallies, the responsibility for rallies and their outcome, however, still rests with the Student Council by a university senate ruling.

This measure was decided at the first student council meeting of the 1930-31 school year, held Wednesday afternoon, Robert Kelly, president of the new council who presided over the meeting, announced his personal appointments to the special committees of the student council.

Unanimously Passed. A motion giving the senior men honorary complete control of the rally situation was unanimously passed after an explanation of procedure by Carl Hahn, representative of the Innocents society and member of the Student Council.

Present rally plans, as outlined by the Innocents society representative, provide for three large evening rallies during the coming football season. One rally will be held before the initial game of the season with Texas A & M. The next, and largest rally will take place the night before the Missouri homecoming game, and the last pep demonstration will be sponsored on the eve of the Pittsburgh fray.

Slight discussion prevailed before the Innocents were given specific control of the Tassels and Corn Cobs and a question which was raised concerning the rally responsibility which centers with the student council resulted in a motion being passed to the effect that representatives of the Innocents report before each game to a special rally committee to be appointed by President Kelly.

EXPECT MORE THAN 300 GIRLS AT TEA

Dean of Women Hostess At Annual Affair for New Students.

More than 300 girls are expected to attend the tea which Miss Amanda Heppner, dean of women, will give on Thursday afternoon from 3:30 until 5:30 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. The affair is given especially for all new girls and house chaperones, but all university women are invited.

A profusion of palms and ferns will decorate the dining room, while large baskets of fall flowers will be employed as decorations in other parts of the hall. Bouquets of gold and cerise will adorn the tea tables in the east and west dining rooms.

Hostesses Announced. During the first hour Mrs. Schroeder and Mrs. Williams will serve in the west dining room, and Miss Parley and Miss Burgess in the east dining room. In the west dining room during the second hour Mrs. Prouty and Mrs. Daniels will preside, with Mrs. Lowrie and Mrs. Woodbury in the east dining room.

Members of Mortar Board will serve in the east dining room and the Y. W. C. A. cabins will assist in the west dining room. The girls will work in a series of six each hour.

The Big Sister board and members of the A. W. S. board will introduce the guests to one another.

Plan Receiving Line. In the receiving line will be Mrs. E. A. Burnett, Miss Elsie Ford Piper, assistant to Miss Heppner; Miss Gurd and Miss Miskell, from the office of the dean of women; Miss Bernice Miller, new Y. W. C. A. secretary; and Mrs. Ayers, social hostess at Ellen Smith hall.

During the first hour Bernice Hoffman and Jean Rathbun will invite the girls into the dining room, and for the second hour Ruth Kier and Jean Whitney will direct them.

Appearing on the program during the afternoon will be members of Delta Omicron, a quartet which will be directed by Mrs. Lenore Burkett, Van Kirk, and Juanita McComb in a whistling number.

First Parade Of Year Held By Cadet Band

The R. O. T. C. band staged the year's first practice parade last night, preparatory to appearing at freshman initiation today. The band uniforms have been issued, but Colonel Oury is endeavoring to obtain a set of new uniforms. The other outfits are expected either the first or second semester of the current term.

Harlin Easton is organizing a small jazz band among the members of the R. O. T. C. group. The synopsators will number between ten or twelve, and expect to intersperse popular selections between the more conservative numbers of the military concerts.

The jazz band inspiration is not new on the campus, though lack of interest has precluded the establishment of an organization in former years. The same difficulty is still making itself felt.

Thirty members of the fine arts band rehearsed Monday. About ten more members are to be selected.

RECEPTION FOR TEXAS VISITORS PLANNED OCT. 3

Innocents Ask 100 Cars to Take Southerners On Tour of Lincoln.

TO HAVE POLICE ESCORT Motor Cops Are to Lead Parade; Night Rally On Program.

An appeal for at least 100 automobiles to take visitors from Texas A. & M. college on a tour of the University of Nebraska campus and the city of Lincoln, Oct. 3, was sounded Wednesday by Don Carlson of the Innocents society.

The visitors, expected to number more than 250, will arrive in Lincoln on a special train in the afternoon of Oct. 3, about 1:40 o'clock. They will be met by the University of Nebraska band, and escorted to the campus.

Then about 2:30 they will be placed in the cars for which Carlson has called and will be shown the downtown and agricultural campuses, the residential district of the city of Lincoln, and the state capital. The tour will last until 3 o'clock.

Plan Evening Rally. The tour is only a part of the reception being planned by the Innocents society for the group from Texas A. & M. Other features will include an evening rally in front of the hotel at which the visitors will stay while in Lincoln.

"It is the hope of the Innocents," Carlson said, "that students will cooperate fully in this project, because of the strong friendship which exists between the two schools. It will be remembered that D. X. Bible, now director of Cornhusker destinies, was head coach at the Texas school for eleven years, and it is because of (Continued on Page 2.)

ALPHA KAPPA PSI LAYS PLANS FOR WORK THIS YEAR

A meeting of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional fraternity of commerce, was held Tuesday night in the commercial club room of the Social Science building. The meeting was well attended, and being the first of the current school year was devoted almost entirely to plans for the semester.

An initiation will soon be held when pledges from last year will become members.

R. Lynn Galloway is the presiding officer and president for this semester.

14 ENGINEERS TO GO TO ST. LOUIS FOR CONVENTION

Fourteen students of civil engineering at the University of Nebraska will leave Sunday for St. Louis, where they will attend a meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineers. The meeting is being sponsored by the student chapter of the society.

The group will stop off at Kansas City to inspect some of the engineering plants of that city. From there, they will go to the convention program.

Former Student Now Is Poultry Farm Manager

Harry Fullbrook, a former student at the college of agriculture, is now secretary and manager of the Grover C. Elmore Poultry company of Tintin Park, Ill., according to a letter received by Prof. F. E. Muesel.

Fullbrook left the university in February of last year. He is a brother of E. S. Fullbrook, associate professor of marketing in the college of business administration.

COUNCIL NAMES COMMITTEE TO PROBE AWGWAN

Return of Humor Magazine To Be Investigated by New Group.

EARLY START IS ASKED

Ryan, McGaffin, Gammill, Hopper Named for Research Task.

The agitation for the return of the Awgwan, suppressed humor periodical magazine at the University of Nebraska, has now reached the Student Council, official governing body on the campus.

At its meeting Wednesday evening, the first session for the new school year, the council confirmed the appointment of a publications committee, picked by Robert J. Kelly, president, for the express purpose of looking into the Awgwan matter.

It will be the duty of this new group, according to Kelly, to use its influence with the student publication board in reestablishing the periodical which was forced to sing a swan song last November.

Asks Early Start. "Of course," declared Kelly, "there will be other duties for the publications committee to perform from time to time, but at present time I should like to have them center their attention on the return of the Awgwan. Therefore, I have instructed the members of the committee to get busy at their earliest possible convenience."

Although the board which has supervision over student publications bears the title "student publication board," the student members are outnumbered by the faculty. There are three students and five faculty members on the board.

No Faculty Members. On the student council committee, however, there are only students. Prof. E. Lantz of teachers college is faculty adviser of the council and may serve as ex-officio member of the committee if the occasion arises.

The personnel of the publications committee, as selected by Kelly: Tyler Ryan, Lincoln, chairman; Bill McGaffin, Polk; Kenneth Gammill, Berthoud, Col.; Lorenz Hopper, Deshler; Paula Eastwood, Riverton.

CHEER SECTION TO HAVE NEW STUNTS

Vocal Novelties to Have Part in This Year's Stand Program.

MAY GO TO LAWRENCE

The student cheering section will display many new and original stunts during the coming season, according to Allen Williams, chairman of the Innocents committee.

With the division into men and women sections, it is thought that unique effects can be created by the contrast between the two divisions, particularly if singing stunts are worked out as planned. Arrangements are also being made whereby the cheering section may be taken to Lawrence where cheering of this type has never been used.

Orders for tickets in this special section may be placed Thursday. The usual $9.50 price will be charged for the tickets and an individual in this section loses his ticket if his seat is not filled during the long period of some game. Those losing tickets will be given seats somewhere in the east stand and their tickets will be sold to others who had ordered tickets but whose names were not drawn first. Preference will be given in future years to those who have been in the section before so after this year it will be more difficult than ever to get into the special section.

Goodman Loses First Round of Amateur Meet

Johnny Goodman, youthful Omaha golfer, lost to Johnny McHugh, one down, in the first round of the amateur golf tournament being held in Philadelphia. After qualifying well up with the leaders in the tournament, Goodman was conceded to have a good chance of weathering the opening rounds.

The outside nine again proved Goodman's undoing and he was two down at the turn.

Goodman's card: Out ..... 464 545 463-41 In ..... 334 354 424-32-73

McHugh's card: Out ..... 354 854 443-38 In ..... 343 355 424-33-71

Turkeys to Go On Voyage to Southern India

A pair of bronze turkeys raised at the college of agriculture will take a trip more than half way around the world. This was made known by Prof. F. E. Muesel, chairman of the poultry husbandry department.

Traveling more than 13,000 miles, these native American birds will go to India for experimental purposes. "The greatest experiment, however," Professor Muesel believes, "will be in learning whether the turkeys will survive such an ordeal of shipment."

It will require eight weeks to ship these turkeys to India. A large cage is being constructed for them, measuring four feet in width and six feet in length. An abundance of hay, green feed, cabbage and a fifty pound sack of grain is to be placed in the cage at the time of shipment.

J. J. DeValois of Katpadi, North Arcot, South India, is the purchaser of these turkeys.

ALL U CHURCH NIGHT SET FOR FRIDAY EVENING

Tradition of Long Standing To Be Observed by All Religious Bodies.

MANY PLAN PROGRAMS

Varied Entertainment to Be Offered by Several Denominations.

University tradition of long standing will be observed Friday evening when the churches of the city will hold their annual all university church night. All denominations will be represented in the various meetings of the evening. The university is cooperating with the churches by closing the evening to dances.

The various Lutheran groups will combine in a joint reception to be held in gallery A of Morrill hall at 8 o'clock. This method of meeting is being held instead of asking the students to go to the various churches of the city. Lutheran pastors have been invited to attend the reception and they will be introduced and make short talks to the gathering.

Several vocal and instrumental musical numbers have been arranged for. Philip Hudson and the Rev. H. Erck, Lutheran workers on the campus, will introduce the city pastors.

Presbyterians Plan Pow-wow. A committee is working on games for entertainment and another committee from the various Lutheran churches of the city is preparing the refreshments.

Presbyterian students are requested to meet at Westminster house, 333 North Fourteenth street, for the Pan-Presbyterian pow-wow. From the student house they will go to the Second Presbyterian church and thence to Westminster. From here they will (Continued on Page 3.)

SCHOOLMASTERS CLUB ATTRACTS EIGHT FROM U

Forgetting the worries of education courses and embryo teachers for the time, Dean W. E. Sealock, and the Doctors F. E. Henzelik, J. H. Broadly, D. A. Wozencruch, Koch, W. H. Thompson, W. O. Weidemann, and Morton of the Teachers' college are driving to Grand Island to attend the meeting of the Nebraska Schoolmasters' club Saturday.

The club is a social organization of the state school men, and the program for the day includes a golf tournament and banquet. Other meetings will be held during the year.

DIERKS SAYS MAY HAVE ADDITIONAL QUARTET TRYOUTS

Additional tryouts for the "university male quartet" were held Tuesday evening in the studios of KFAB by Dietrich Dierks. He said Wednesday that a number of excellent voices were discovered in the tryouts. About thirty-five men turned out Tuesday evening.

Mr. Dierks said that he is undecided whether an additional tryout will be held unless sufficient men desire to try out. Those wishing to do so were urged to get in touch with him at the Cornhusker hotel. He declared that there is a scarcity of first tenors and low basses among those who have tried out.

A. I. E. E. Club to Hold First Meeting on Oct. 1

First meeting of the year of the A. I. E. E. club will be held Oct. 1. The feature of the meeting will be talks by students. Last year the meetings were well attended and all things point toward a very favorable year for the club, officers say.

STUDENT RATES FOR FOOTBALL TO BEGIN THURSDAY

Tickets Go on Sale at 8 O'clock, Continue to Saturday Noon.

WILL USE LOTTERY IDEA

Drawing for Seats System Used Last Year to Be Enforced.

Sale of student football tickets begins today at 8 o'clock and continues until Saturday noon. Due to the success of the lottery system of drawing tickets which was inaugurated last year the same plan will again be used. In former years it was "first come, first served" which resulted in mob action and prevented an individual from having a fair chance in securing a good seat. Fraternities would have their freshmen working in shifts, keeping an all-night vigil, in an effort of obtaining their tickets. The lottery plan eliminates all this confusion, and every person has an equal chance.

Students tickets will be sold at $9.00. There will be an additional fifty cents for tickets in the cheering section.

All students are to bring with them their identification cards or they will be charged the regular seasonal ticket price of $12.00 for those who are not in school.

Approximately the same number of tickets are anticipated to be sold as last year which was 3,425, according to John K. Selsick, student activities agent.

SEVERAL CHANGES MADE IN FACULTY TEACHERS COLLEGE

Several changes have been made this year in the faculty of the high school division of teachers' college. A. R. Congdon formerly supervisor of mathematics is now connected with the psychology department of the college, and his place has been filled by W. B. Johns. Miss Rowan Eliff is taking the place of Mrs. Lillian Cunningham as supervisor of home economics, and Mrs. Lillie Parks is teaching normal training in place of Miss Mary Huerman who is now at the Chadron State Normal school. Frank Gradoville is coaching the high school athletics.

SURPRISE IS PLANNED AT UNIVERSITY PARTY

2,000 Balloons Ordered; To Be Filled With Gas; Hire Big Band.

WILL ERECT NEW SIGNS

The campus barb council has started action in its preparations for the opening all-university party to be held at 8:30 Saturday evening. A surprise feature is now under way but its nature is not to be revealed until Saturday night, according to Alan G. Williams, chairman of the barb council.

"Especially mention should be made of the studio band which will provide music for Saturday's revelry," Williams said. "Five members of the musical aggregation are professors in the school of music who have combined their efforts in producing numbers which will be not only symphonic but blue." There are twelve pieces in this band which will turn out music for those who attend first all-university party. It will combine hot scores and rhythms with the elements of real music and simultaneously will produce something new and different for Cornhusker musical ears, Williams claims.

Two thousand balloons have been purchased, according to the barb captain, and these are to be released from the ceiling as soon as the party gets well underway. The campus chemistry department, under the direction of Professor Frankforter, has been conducting the balloons.

In their trials the chemistry department has employed natural gas, kiesel gas, hydrogen gas and various mixtures, in order to find a proper inflator for the party balloons. Good results are promised.

An unusual stage spectacle is being arranged under the caption of "The Sun Gods." This entertainment feature is to be more expensive and more elaborate than anything ever before attempted by the barb council," stated Williams. "We are employing every available facility in order to make this first party of the season a success."

The barb council is planning new experiments in the line of campus beautification relative to the erection of new sign boards for display purposes. They are to be an improvement over those of last year, Williams states. They will be permanent affairs which will be available to other activity organizations of the campus.

FRESHMEN TO BE INITIATED TODAY

Cornhusker Oath to Be Given New Students at 11 O'clock By Prof. R. D. Scott; Innocents Society Sponsoring Program at Coliseum.

D. X. BIBLE TO DESCRIBE CORNHUSKER SPIRIT

Chancellor E. A. Burnett to Address Group; Still and Motion Pictures of Crowd to Be Taken After Ceremony; Charters to Lead Yells.

All freshmen will be excused from 11 o'clock classes this morning to attend freshman initiation at the coliseum. Members of the class of 1934 numbering around 1,500 will assemble in the building shortly after 11, sing Nebraska songs for the first time as students, hear a few preliminary remarks and then take the Cornhusker oath.

To Prof. R. D. Scott will fall the responsibility of swearing the new students to the Cornhusker oath. Others on the speaking program will be Chancellor E. A. Burnett, Prof. C. J. Frankforter, and D. X. Bible. Bill McCleary, president of the Innocents society, the organization sponsoring the affair, will be master of ceremonies.

Many to Talk. Others representing activities in the university who will be introduced are Dean T. J. Thompson, Dean Amanda Heppner and Sarah Pickard, president of the Mortar Boards.

Before the introduction of speakers Robert "Mike" Charters, last year's varsity yell king, will lead the assembly's freshmen students in songs and yells assisted by the R. O. T. C. band led by Billy Quick.

The band will assemble in front of the coliseum at 10:50. Assembling of freshmen will be directed by members of the Corn Cobs, who will meet at 10:50 also.

Bible on Program. Features of the program at the Coliseum will be talks by Chancellor E. A. Burnett and by Coach D. X. Bible. In years past the football captain has been presented at the freshman initiation but all athletic captains were dispensed with last year by actions of the teams. Coach Bible will say something about Cornhusker spirit as it relates to the football team.

Arrangement have been made to take still and motion pictures of the freshmen outside of the Coliseum immediately after the rites. The freshman initiation, McCleary pointed out, Wednesday, is the only time that the entire freshman class assemblies after it has been registered.

Moving pictures of the crowd will be shown at motion picture theaters throughout the state.

3,500 PERSONS ATTEND CONCERT OF MARINE BAND

Performance Called One of Best Ever Heard Here By Music Critics.

BOYS PLAY ON PROGRAM

Group of 200 Lincoln Youths Give Numbers Under Famous Leader.

An audience estimated at 3,500 last evening heard what was described by music critics as one of the finest band concerts ever played in Lincoln. The concert was staged by the United States marine band, under the direction of Capt. Taylor Branson at the university coliseum.

Soloists for the concert were Arthur S. Witcomb, cornetist, and Robert E. Clark, trombonist, both of whom are well known.

Preceding the concert by the marine band, the Lincoln Civic Boys' band of about 200 pieces played several selections under Captain Branson's direction. William T. Quick, director of the University of Nebraska R. O. T. C. band, presented Captain Branson. The United States marine band, composed of fifty pieces, is the president's official band while stationed in Washington, D. C., during the summer months. It plays three times each week on the white house lawn, before Washington monument and on the capitol steps.

Two Bands Here. Lincoln has been fortunate in hearing two of the three bands maintained by the government in Washington, D. C., in the last two years, the navy band having been here last season.

The evening program: Overture, "The Boatman"; Henry Hadley, Encores, Star and Stripes; Flight of the Bumble Bee; Parade of the Generals; Nocturne, "Dreams of Love," Franz Liszt; Encores, Old Soldier's Dream; Tinker Tink; American Army.

Cornet solo, "Crescent Moon," by Arthur Wilcomb, Fred Weidner; Encores, Killyard, Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes; Little Grey Home in the West; Tone poem, "The Euphemistic's Merry Pranks," Richard Strauss.

Intermission. Grand scenes from "Andrea Chenier," Umberto Biondini; Encores, I. S. Infanterie, Juba Dance, United States; "Love's Enchantment," by Robert E. Clark, Arthur Fry; Encores, Killyard, Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes; Little Grey Home in the West; Paquinade, Louise Moreau Gottschalk; Encores, Marine's Horn, Semper Fidelis; Anchors Aweigh, Field Artillery; "Carmel" in Paris, Johan Severin Sverdrup.

"The Star Spangled Banner."

Luther Bible League to Start Meetings Oct. 1

The Rev. H. Erck, Lutheran student pastor, announced Wednesday that the Luther Bible league will begin its meetings on Wednesday, Oct. 1. The meetings are to be held in Temple 205, where the league has met for the past six years.

Discussion this year will center chiefly around the Augsburg confession. This year marks the quadri-centennial of that document, which is one of the most important documents of the Lutheran church. The confession was read before the Augsburg, Germany, diet on June 25, 1530, at the time of Charles V.
