Cardinal hopes sank a trifle lower yesterday when they were defeated by the defending champions 6 to 1 in Philadelphia in the second game of the 1930 world series. The Philadelphia Athletics gained an early lead and were never headed.

This victory gives the A's a two game lead. The teams will play tomorrow in St. Louis. Mickey Cochrane, Philadelphia catcher, was the hero of yesterday's game, banging out a homer in the first inning to give the champions their lead.

Wants Every Student.

"Every student," Hahn stated, "who has any of that Cornhusker spirit and who is willing to back the team will be at Grant Memorial hall this evening. More than that, we want to show the Texans that Nebraska does have school spirit and we want to give them a real reception at the hotel."

Activities at Grant Memorial hall will get under way at 7 o'clock with Edward Butler, university student and noted organist, playing a medley of college songs on the organ. It is planned to have members of the Nebraska team in the building. They will be introduced by Bill McCleery, president of the innocents.

Parade to Hotel. After a short talk by McCleery and a few yells the crowd will follow the R. O. T. C. band to the Lincoln hotel to welcome the Texas delegation and team.

"It is our hope and intention to block the street of Lincoln in this parade," Hahn said. "We want 5,000 students in front of the Lincoln hotel to help Coach Bible say 'howdy-do' to his former mates from Texas."

Coach Bible will introduce members of the Texas delegation. Officials from the Texas school are being feted at a banquet at the Lincoln hotel Friday evening with D. X. Bible acting as special host.

Warner to Lead Cheers. Don Warner, varsity cheer leader of several seasons ago, will have charge of organized cheering at both the rally Friday night and at the game Saturday. Organ Concert Tonight at Grant Memorial Hall at 7 O'clock Is New Feature In Nebraska Rallies

Edward Butler, university sophomore, will start something new in the way of rallies when he seats himself at the organ in Grant Memorial hall tonight and plays a medley of college songs followed by songs of Nebraska and Texas A. & M.

Butler is a newcomer to Nebraska having spent his first year at the University of Iowa two years ago. He is both pianist and organist and has played the organ since he was eight.

He is recognized as one of the youngest members of the American Guild of Organists. He has been doing work in theaters and churches for ten years and has studied under several famous teachers. Chief of these are Milton Charles, former head organist of Balaban-Katz theaters in Chicago and now head of the organ staff of the west coast Paramount-Public theater chain.
