Formal pledging was held at the Gamma Phi Beta house Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Julia Presson of Chicago, Ill., who spent the summer at Yellowstone park and is returning from a short trip to Texas, is the guest of Gwendolyn Hager. Miss Presson is a former student of the University of Nebraska and a member of Alpha Chi Omega. On Monday evening she was a guest at the Alpha Chi Omega house. She will visit in Stromberg for ten days before her return to her home.

Pi Kappa Phi announced the pledging of George Wahlford of Enid, Okl., John Schmidt of Adams and Lewis Zinnecker and Paul Winterhalter of Lincoln.

Six Pi Kaps including a couple of pledges will attend the Oklahoma-Nebraska football game at Norman Saturday. They will leave Friday afternoon by motor and expect to arrive Saturday morning. The Oklahoma university chapter of Pi Kappa Phi will entertain them during the weekend. Those who are planning to see the game are Ralph Treister, Elmer Strayer, Kenneth Pruden, Dudley Thompson, George Wahlford and John Schmidt.

Lyle Mabbot, Lincoln; Bill Lamoreaux and Lowell Humphries of Omaha, members of Alpha Theta Chi, have returned from the eight day trip to St. Louis with members of the engineering colleges.

Miss Madge McMoines, Alpha Phi, who has been spending a few days at the chapter house, returned Wednesday to her home in Lyons.

LELAND QUALIFIES STATEMENTS MADE IN OMAHA SPEECH

But this indifference that is so apparent arises not from the fundamental lack of interest but from engrossment in other things. So many are caught in the college whirl and don't take time to evaluate their interests or those things to which they devote their time.
Mr. Hayes says, however, that he has found students who seemed to have lost interest in religious

Students Asked to Call for Pictures

New students who had their pictures taken during registration week may call for them between Oct. 10 and 13 in room 9 of the Administration building. It was announced today. Agricultural students may secure theirs in 202 Agricultural hall. It will be necessary to present identification cards.

There have an undercurrent of thoughtful speculation for the values to be found in the realm of religion.

One evidence of this according to Mr. Hayes, is the fact that every year some upperclassmen, usually a senior, expresses his regret to him that he has not found time for church or Y. M. C. A. work during his college days.

and white also.
When the noon practice was over yesterday each player found a canvas bag with his name on it by his locker. Into it went his shoes, shoulder pads, pants, hip pads along with the jersey, socks, etc., already there. These bags were packed into six trunks to catch the outbound train. A manager's life is not weighted with spare time.

Fares Total $1,000.
It costs money to play football, too. Fifty fares at $23 each, is something over $1,000 just for space in a train not counting pullman, food, hotel rooms and two trips from Oklahoma City to Norman and return.

When Elmer Greenberg flips for choice of kick or receive at Norman Saturday as full fledged "captain for a day" he will be wearing fifteen and one-third pounds of clothes and shoes. If the Nebraska squad in suit were piled thirty-four strong in one scale, the weights would read 6,950 pounds or about three and one-third tons. Friday morning a one and one-half hour trip through the oil fields near Oklahoma City as guests of Sinclair Oil and Gas company will be the program for Bible's men.

BLAIR SAYS IT'S APT TO STAY HOT; PERHAPS WEATHER MAN BET ON CARDS AND IS TAKING OUT HIS SPITE NOW.

we are still several long jumps behind 1928.
Coldest Was 54 Degrees.
On the other hand the coldest day recorded for this month has been 54, but this time October is a little too hot, to stay in the race. During the cold snap in the last week of September, a low temperature of 43 made its appearance, October has twenty-two days to equal this.

At the present time there are eight men in the office of the Lincoln weather bureau located on the third floor of Brace laboratory, and their duties are many and varied. An hourly record is kept of the pressure, temperature, humidity, wind direction, and velocity, the amount and kinds of clouds, and the amount of precipitation—if any, and the same applies to the amount of sunshine.

Special Machines Used.

For the most part special machines are used to record the antics of the weather, but the men in the office make three "eye observations" daily. These observations are used as a check on the machines, and also to determine the structure, and type of clouds that are floating about in the heavens.

From the data taken from the machines, and the "eye observations" daily reports are made in detail, copies of which are kept in the local office, and in the bureau at Washington, D. C. The file discloses that weather observations for the last forty years can be had for the searching, and these reports are so thorough, that a person wanting to find out if it was raining or snowing at 10 p. m. on March 10, 1910, could find out by merely checking the records.

Weather History Kept.

The records are kept as a weather history of this country, and according to Mr. Blair, some of the records have found their way into the courtrooms to be used as evidence during a trial. In correlation with the records, climatic maps are made, but with the exception of the one appearing in the newspapers, none are printed.
Mr. Blair refused to predict as to the type of weather we would have after tomorrow, and so with that in mind it is probable that your guess is as good as his.
