A large cone suspended from the high ceiling of the coliseum and supported by red, blue, yellow and green streamers was the object upon which four multi-colored lights played at the All-University party on Saturday evening. Spotlights played upon the large crowd of dancers at various intervals during the evening.

The "Miami Loons" a southern dance band, furnished the music. Mechanical musical instruments, horns and whistles were given as souvenirs. Each of the choruses were presented with a gift. Chaperones and Mrs. E. A. Burnett and Captain and Mrs. Crispy were guests at the party which was chaperoned by Colonel and Mrs. Oury, Captain and Mrs. Scott, Captain and Mrs. Lyons, Captain and Mrs. Baumeister and Dean and Mrs. Burr.
