

BIBLE PLANS USE OF RESERVE MEN AGAINST BOBCATS

Regulars in First Games Are to Be Allowed Needed Rest.

OPEN PRACTICE BILLED

Freshmen Using Montana Plays Will Battle Varsity Today.

Reserve men will be given a chance to show their stuff here Saturday when Nebraska tangles with Montana State. The Cornhuskers have played three hard games in consecutive weeks and a rest before the game with Kansas State will be beneficial to members of the team that saw most of the action in the early games.

There is no indication that the Huskers are taking the Bobcat game too lightly, however, and Tuesday night practice was long and concentrated.

Coach Bible used two sets of backs last night. Young, Frahm, Krenzinger and Brown composed one set and Marrow, Paul, Packler, Perry and Nelson situated in the second set. Stansberry also was given a chance to work out and showed up well.

McPherson at Center. McPherson will probably get the call for center job with Adam and a choice between Greenberg, Justice and Koster at the guard positions. Eno and Kroger seem likely choices at the tackle positions, and Byrnes, Durkee, Milne and Broekenkroger will battle it out for the wings.

Passing, blocking passes, and running plays were stressed in practice Tuesday. Passing is improving rapidly although the breaking up of passes is still a bit weak.

A practice will be held Wednesday night and is open to the public. Freshmen, using Montana State plays, will give the varsity their weekly battle on the stadium field.

RICHARD FITZGERALD SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Kappa Sig Injured in Auto Accident: Convalescing in Hospital.

Richard Fitzgerald, member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, who was seriously injured in an automobile wreck while enroute to Ames, Ia., Oct. 17, is now convalescing in the Bryan Memorial hospital.

Although Fitzgerald is doing quite as well as can be expected, it is doubtful if he will be able to attend school this semester due to the seriousness of his injuries.

Accompanied by Frank Konright and James Dowd, fraternity brothers, he was driving his new Ford coupe to Ames, to witness the Nebraska-Iowa State football game when the accident occurred. The wreck, which happened about 100 miles from Lincoln, was due to misinterpretation of a road sign which caused the driver to strike a side of a bridge.

Although the car was almost completely demolished as a result of the terrific impact of the car against the steel railing of the bridge, neither of Fitzgerald's companions were injured.

FORTUNE, KANSAS TWO MILER, GETS CONFERENCE BOOT

LAWRENCE, Kas.—Eddie Fortune, elected captain of the University of Kansas two mile team, has been ruled ineligible by a committee of the Big Six, and will not be in competition this fall.

Fortune was out of school the fall semester three years ago, and would not have completed three years of competition until next February, but the conference committee ruled that years of competition were based on the academic year, June to June, and as Fortune had had three years of track in the spring he was declared out.

Fortune has been one of the best distance runners in the Big Six conference, holding a record of 9:45 in the two mile and 4:28 in the mile.

North Carolina U Tries New Idea in Adult Education

CHAPEL HILL, N. C.—(IP)—Something entirely new in the way of adult education, and another method of keeping in touch with alumni, has been instituted at the University of North Carolina here in the form of the Alumni Book club.

"The new library is believed to be unique, circulating as it does at a nominal cost a list of selected books recommended by the faculty of the university. To make the affair a success, three university agencies are co-operating with the faculty—the alumni office, the library extension service and the university library.

Under the plan of the Alumni Book club, a list of five new books which may be borrowed by the alumnus is furnished each graduate. Each book will be mailed to the borrower, accompanied by a critical review, written by a member of the faculty best informed on the subject dealt with in the book.

This commentary is designed to show the book's relation to other books on the subject or to furnish information about the author and his work.

The most densely populated body of land in the world is Java with a population of 690 persons per square mile.

Y. M. Finance Drive Captains Will Meet
All team captains and workers in the university Y. M. C. A. finance campaign will hold a meeting Thursday evening in the Temple cafeteria at 8 o'clock. This meeting will be for the purpose of launching drive on the downtown campus.

The Benchwarmer by Guy Craig

They come. They stuff. They conquer.

Read this over three times and then take two guesses as to what is being considered. Correct the first time. Elections.

While this is primarily a sports column and some misguided soul may wonder what election gossip has to do with the sporting world, I must explain.

Anything that involves combat, kicking, biting and pinching must be classed as a sport. Elections call for all of this so it is a sport. If you can get the connection you are better than most of us.

To get back to the subject. Student elections at Nebraska have become more or less of a joke. The university would be justified in giving one hour's credit in "stuffing" to various political leaders and their cohorts.

Honest, folks, its getting to be terrible. Just seems as though an honest man doesn't have a chance any more unless he wears the right color shirt.

Let us consider for a moment the sad case of Zander Johnson of Herman. Little Zander was sent down to school to get an education and learn to be a citizen.

With the first election little Zander is instructed to be a "poll cat." (This is a new term.) His duty is to persuade reluctant voters that they should cast their ballot for the Dirty Shirts. Incidentally, he is given a handful of identification cards to vote as many times as he possibly can.

Little Zander seen his duty and he done it nobly. Many students and studentesses fell victims to his cunning ways during the course of the day.

That night he wrote to his proud parents telling them of his feat and papa Johnson spent the next day in telling all of his friends what a wonderful son he had and what he was doing down at Lincoln.

Pull out the handkerchiefs, comrades, because this is the saddest part of the story. Little Zander never finished school. He was shot in the back by a girl at the military ball. He had told her confidentially that her sorority's candidate had won the honorary colonel boots. It was another case where the tongue is faster than the eye.

Now this little moral lecture is over and the tears have been dried away, we still continue with the discussion. If half of the students who voted more than once on Tuesday were kicked out of school the authorities would have to close the place up.

The only safe way to conduct an election is place each student in a solitary confinement cell immediately after he has voted. When the election is all over, let the man out. If the cells run low the only remaining solution is poison or shoot the man.

Another thing—why limit everything to the athletics. Give the P. B. K. club a chance to get a little pull by having a class officer. Which reminds me of the story of the old maid who kissed an attractive young man.

Looking at him sweetly she asked if she had scared him. His silence was assent so she invited him coyly to "scare her."

"Boo!" he said. He sure cured her.

Changing goals seems to offer quite a problem to women speedball artists. The general practice has been to change the goals at half time but numerous difficulties have arisen.

The main objection to this change of goals is the fact that the girls get mixed up and score points for opponents. Queer, isn't it? But it really is quite a problem.

When you start out with one goal and make two goals, or whatever they are, at that end for a full half hour you naturally expect to keep going that way. Aw, what's the use? They ought to know better, even if they don't.

FIVE MEN STAY IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Competition in Meet Grows Stiffer as Small Group Left to Battle.

INCLUDES BEST PLAYERS

All-University tennis tournament has narrowed the survivors down to five racqueters who include some of the best material that ever trod Nebraska courts.

In the upper bracket Roberto Mario and Joe Miller remain undefeated. Mario comes from the Philippines. Miller won the freshman elimination tournament last spring and plays a careful steady game.

Lower Bracket. A sprinkling of celebrities decorated the lower bracket. Art Hoag took his half of that division by dispatching a boy named Hagan who helped him win the state junior doubles championship of Nebraska this summer. Hoag is also Nebraska junior singles champion and doped to win the All-University.

Eddie Baagler, formerly of Hastings college, may furnish strong competition. He played varsity tennis at Hastings. He prefers a low, placing game that recovers many shots over which more spectacular players would falter.

Beagler has to down Leonard Konkin, the third survivor in the lower bracket, before he can encounter Hoag.

A. W. S. COUNCIL HAS MEETING YESTERDAY

Jean Rathburn Gives Report On Progress of 'N' Stamp Sale.

An A. W. S. council meeting composed of the presidents of the organized groups was held in Ellen Smith hall Tuesday afternoon to discuss plans for the "N" stamp sale and to bring up and settle any questions in regard to self-government problems.

This preliminary meeting was the first of several that will be called throughout the year. Presidents of the groups discuss their problems in council meeting. All violations are taken to the A. W. S. court composed of the officers of the board which means a representative for each class.

A short report of the "N" stamp sale was given by Jean Rathburn, chairman of the sale who asked each president to co-operate with her by appointing two freshmen and an upperclassman to take charge of the sale. Katherine Williams, vice president of A. W. S., presided at the meeting.

Professor Obtains Power From Gulf Stream Variations

MATANZAS, Cuba.—(IP)—After two failures which cost the backers hundreds of thousands of dollars, Professor Georges Claude has at last demonstrated the practicability of his electrical power plant operated by utilizing variations in temperature of Gulf stream water.

As cold water flows from the huge tube more than 4,000 feet long to the bottom of the ocean, warm water from the surface flows into great vacuum tanks, where it is converted into steam because of the lack of pressure.

In a short time the steam reaches such a pressure that the adjacent tubes begin to revolve, and the cold water flowing about the vacuum tanks condenses the steam in one while the other is filling.

The condensation produces a fresh vacuum, so that by the time the full tank is exhausted the other is ready to begin functioning.

Professor Claude was able to light forty bulbs with his strange turbine.

Observers believe it will mean a revolution in industrial power methods.

INDIANS STAGE WAR DANCE BEFORE GAME

More Than 1,000 Take Part in Rite Before Haskell-Jayhawk Battle.

LAWRENCE, Kas.—(IP)—The best of tom-toms and chanting of braves echoed over the campus of Haskell institute here as more than 1,000 Indians, attending a nation-wide dance, incident to the game between Haskell and the University of Kansas, participated in the war dances of their forefathers.

The spectacle was held in the athletic stadium of the government Indian school. The braves jumped across the chalk lines of the institution's football field, the modern battle ground of Indian youths.

Historical Pageant. Following the dances the Indians participated in a colorful pageant depicting the history of a number of Indian tribes.

The next night, a band of present day Indian warriors, Haskell's football team, went on the war path against the University of Kansas eleven, and lost by a score of 25 to 7.

It was the first meeting of the two teams in ten years. The pow-wow, called in celebration of the resumption of athletic relations between the two schools, was interrupted at first only for graduates and students of Haskell. It was made nation-wide, however, when Indians from all parts of the country announced they would attend.

CYCLONES GET SET FOR JAYHAWK TILT

Coach Workman Puts Squad Through Series of New Offensive Plays.

AMES, Ia.—While the second and third eleven's scrimmages, Coach Noel Workman was instructing the Cyclone varsity in a series of new offensive plays to be used against Kansas at Lawrence, Saturday. These new plays will be tried out early in the week when the regular tackle the freshman team.

Every member of the team came out of the Nebraska tussle without serious injury. Only a few bruises and bumps were evidenced, and Coach Workman expects to have his whole squad in serviceable condition for the Kansas invasion.

Paul Trauger, who because of illness, was forced to view the Nebraska-Iowa State game from the press box, was in uniform. Dan Smith, who played Saturday in spite of a previous arm injury, came through the game in fine shape.

After Tuesday's scrimmage the practice will be light and the remainder of the week will be spent on setting the defense and kicking. The Cyclones leave for Lawrence Thursday night.
