WEATHER GIVES VARSITY INITIAL REST OF SEASON

J. Pluvius Smiles Upon Football Machine Wednesday.

FROSH DUEL CALLED OFF

Nubbin-Yearling Game in Offing for Middle of Next Week.

Coach Dana X. Bible and his varsity football squad were forced to take refuge indoors Wednesday afternoon to go through their daily workout. The activities of J. Pluvius during the afternoon were enough to do away with any plans the coaching staff may have had and the squad was given what Bible spoke of as their first "vacation."

Nebraska football aspirants have been blessed with favorable weather all year and this is the first time rain has forced them to go inside for a workout.

Scrimmage Called Off.

The weekly scrimmage was also called off on account of the wet weather. The program for the day was to consist of a duel between Browne's frosh and the Biblemen, the former intending to show the varsity a few of the plays the Iowa Hawkeyes may throw at the Huskers this Saturday.

The freshmen, however, have not completed their season's work, if plans of the athletic officials materialize. Should the weather be favorable next Wednesday afternoon before the encounter with the Kansas Aggies on Thanksgiving day, Coach Browne's team will go out on the field to oppose Bill Day's nubbins.

Squads Want Game.

Both squads, according to their respective tutors, have been clamoring for such a contest ever since the season opened, but the Nebraska mentors have been too busy preparing their teams for the forthcoming tilts and have not given much attention to the request. Wednesday, however, the two teams—about evenly matched—will probably be given their chance to battle away.

Officials for the game with the University of Iowa, as selected early this fall, are F. E. Birch, Earlham, referee; H. G. Hedges, Dartmouth, umpire; Sec Taylor, Fairmont, headlinesman; E. W. Cochrane, Kalamazoo, field judge.

GREEK INTRAMURAL PROGRAM PROCEEDS

Soccer Tournament Reaches Final Round; Tennis In Semifinals.

WATER POLO UNDER WAY

Interfraternity sports program is advancing rapidly according to director of intramural athletics, Rudolph Vogeler. The soccer championship is in the final round, the tennis tournament is in the semifinal round, and the water polo tournament is in progress.

Alpha Gamma Rho is scheduled to play Pi Kappa Alpha in the finals of the soccer tournament. The game was to be played Wednesday afternoon but was postponed because of rain. The game will be played Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock on field No. 1. Delta Sigma Phi is to play Sigma Phi Epsilon to determine who will occupy third and fourth places in the final standings. These two teams will mix Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock on field No. 2.

In the semifinals of the tennis tournament Sigma Alpha Mu is to meet Tau Kappa Epsilon and Beta Theta Pi is to play Kappa Sigma. These matches will be played this week and the winner will be decided sometime next week.

Results of water polo matches played this week are as follows: Sigma Chi 5, Delta Tau Delta 1; Beta Theta Pi 22, Kappa Sigma 0; Alpha Sigma Phi 3, Theta Xi 1; Tau Kappa Epsilon 5, Delta Upsilon 0; Pi Kappa Alpha 3, Sigma Alpha Epsilon 0; Alpha Theta Chi 7, Alpha Gamma Rho 1.

Fraternity basket-ball entries must be in by Wednesday, Nov. 26. The interfraternity basketball tournament will start the first week in December. Any fraternities may schedule practice sessions by applying at Rudolph Vogeler's office in the coliseum.

OTOE COUNTY GIRL WINS CHICAGO TRIP

Inez Peterson of Dunbar, Otoe county, will receive a trip to the national boys and girls club congress Nov. 28 to Dec. 9, as a result of winning the 1930 home economics championship for Nebraska. Announcement of her winning was made by L. I. Frisbie, state club leader, from the agricultural college.

The new home economics champion has carried nine projects during the past six years that she has been in 4-H club work. Three were in poultry, one in dairy, two in cooking, two in clothing and one in girl's room. This summer she completed second year clothing, second year cooking, and first year girl's room projects 100 percent.

BESS STEELE WILL TALK TO STUDENTS

"A Trip Through Italy," will be the subject of a talk to be given next Tuesday evening by Bess Steele before a meeting of home economics students in Agricultural hall at 7 o'clock. Miss Steele spent this summer in touring Europe. The lecture will be devoted to art and will be illustrated. Every girl is invited to attend.

HAWKEYES READY FOR NEBRASKA

The reception committee which is ready for the University of Nebraska football team includes the three University of Iowa stars pictured above.

Oliver Sansen, fullback, will captain the Iowans in their first battle with the Cornhuskers since 1919. He is a 185 pound junior whose gains from scrimmage average 3.4 yards per trial this season.

Interception of two Penn State passes within the rival's twenty yard line by Edward Dolly, sophomore center, led to two of Iowa's touchdowns last week. Dolly plays a roving game and his alertness was one of the highlights of the 19 to 0 Hawkeye victory.

Playing his final game, Wendell Benjamin, the negro tackle, is expected to be one of the stars of the line against the Huskers. He is one of the cleverest of the Hawkeyes at breaking thru.

COEDS TO OPEN BOWLING TODAY IN ROUND ROBIN

Sixty-Four Teams Entered In Pin Rolling Compet of Sixteen Leagues.

TOURNEY COMES LATER

Preliminary Games Will Be Played to Decide Final Contestants.

Women's intramural bowling opens today when eight of the record breaking number of sixty-four teams entered for competition will start rolling the ball in their initial game of the round robin tournament.

Teams have been divided into sixteen leagues of four teams each, and a round robin tournament in which each team plays every other team of its league will be played to determine league winners. League winners will be determined by that team which has totaled the highest pin score for the three games it has played.

According to Clarice McDonald, director of intramurals, a team might conceivably win all three of its games and yet be displaced from first place in the league if some other team has aggregated more pins even though winning fewer games.

Main Tourney Follows.

Following the completion of the round robin within the leagues, a main elimination tournament will be played among the league winners to determine the grand tournament winner and runnerup.

According to the schedule, four games are to be played off each night at each of the hours between 4 and 6 o'clock. Printed cards bearing the name of the group will be placed over the alley where it is expected to bowl, and team members should go to that alley and one of the number place the names of the players who will bowl that night upon the score sheet.

In case a team finds it impossible to play a game at the hour scheduled, the intramural representative of that group should notify the intramural office at least two days before the date they are scheduled to play the game. Postponed games must be played on the Saturday morning following the same week the game was scheduled to be played.

Forfeit Games Played.

Forfeitures occur when one team is present at the alleys and they have waited 10 minutes after the scheduled hour to play, and their opponents have not appeared. Games must be played by the team to whom the game is forfeited in order for that game to be credited to the winning team.

A most essential rule to be carried out, according to Miss McDonald, is that team members must remain constant to one team, and substitutes who play for some absent member of one team whose group has entered several can not substitute on any other team.

The bulletin board to the right of the door as one enters the Armory has been set aside for bowling notices, and intramural representatives should watch it for announcements concerning the schedule. A schedule of teams according to team numbers within a group who has entered more than one team appears on the bulletin board now, and in order that no misunderstanding arise regarding one person's playing on a team on which she was not scheduled to play when her name appears under another team number, intramural representatives should make a note of the personnel of the various teams as they appear on the bulletin board.

Scheduled to play tonight at 5 o'clock at the Lincoln bowling parlors are:

Alpha Chi Omega (1) vs. Delta Zeta (1).

Dormatory A (1) vs. Gamma Phi Beta (1).

Kappa Kappa Gamma (3) vs. Delta Gamma (2).

Chi Omega (2a) vs. N'ergettes.

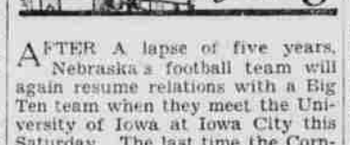
Sigma Upsilon Will Meet With Stepanek

Frederick L. Christensen, secretary, requests the presence of all active members of Sigma Upsilon, honorary literary fraternity, at the regular fortnightly social meeting to be held Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the apartment of Orin Stepanek, 1712 E street, third floor.



AFTER A lapse of five years, Nebraska's football team will again resume relations with a Big Ten team when they meet the University of Iowa at Iowa City this Saturday. The last time the Cornhuskers did battle with a Big Ten team was in 1925 when they stopped Red Grange in his tracks and beat Illinois.

But, judging from the discussion and comment running around the Nebraska campus, the game has no more importance than the election of the Nebraska Sweetheart. With the tie score at the hands of Missouri plastered on Nebraska, the students have been content to crawl back in their holes and pull the holes in after them, entirely ignoring the football squad.

At the start of the season plans were announced to run two special trains—one to Kansas and one to Iowa. According to announcements the first part of the week, the plans for a special to Iowa City have been abandoned due to a lack of interest.

ACCUSE A student of lacking school spirit and he looks at you as though he thought you were crazy. Then ask him to give a proof that he has a little of this so-called "spirit" and he again questions your sanity. Yet every student, with the exception of a mightly small majority, is sitting around sucking his thumb while the football team prepares to leave for Iowa.

What Nebraska needs is a little bit more of the old time school spirit. It is not necessary to get up on a soap box and yell, "I'd die for old Nebraska!" Neither is it necessary that the student body get on a rampage such as characterized the K-Aggie sendoff last year.

All that is necessary is for students to show that they have more than a passive interest in what is happening to the football team even though they were not fortunate enough to win the Big Six crown.

MISS EVELYN SIMPSON, the bustling young sports editor for the women, took time off Wednesday afternoon and paused in her wanderings long enough to explain the theory of this game of "paddle tennis," which is such a craze in women's intramural sports.

According to "Simpie," the game is played exactly like tennis as far as the court, net and scoring are concerned. The only difference is that the net is slightly lower. In the matter of rackets, the women have shown their ingenuity. A wooden paddle—oval in shape and measuring about eight inches in diameter — is the club used. Then the ball is rubber instead of the regulation tennis ball. And this, my children, is the equipment necessary for a "paddle tennis" game.

Little Evelyn had just returned from a glorious conquest in which she and her partner had vanquished the opposition. Oh yes, I nearly forgot, the game is for partners only.

WITH ALL the changes, shifts and what not Coach Bible has made in his Cornhuskers, the line has remained practically intact and the credit for the great Nebraska line must be given to a large degree to Line Coach Bunny Oakes. Bunny is the man who supervises the training of the linemen and teaches them how to get through the opponent's line or hold them out as the occasion may demand.

During the present season the line has never been much in doubt, the only question being as to which two of the three guards would start. Even a switching of guards did not seem to make much difference when Chick Justice was sent into the Pittsburgh fray to replace Elmer Greenberg. These two men, together with Dutch Koster, have alternated at the guard posts and formed a bulwark of strength in the middle of the Nebraska line.

HUGH RHEA and Broadstone at tackles, Steven Hokuf and Frank Prucka on the ends and Lawrence Ely at center, have completed a forward wall which has put its back to the wall and fought off the charges of Pitt and Kansas and Missouri when the cause seemed hopeless.

Of course, the line could not do the work alone. They must be assisted by the backfield, but the line has carried the bigger part of the load.

The big problem of this year has not seemed to be "Can we hold 'em?" but "Will we have enough of an offense to score?"

CAGERS TO OPEN SEASON DEC. 11 AT SOUTH DAKOTA

Hoop Squad Will Make Trip To Seattle Christmas Vacation.

TO PLAY PITT DEC. 19

Maclay, Davey and Fisher Have Reported for Practice.

Basketball season is just around the corner from Thanksgiving. With a game scheduled to take his men to Vermillion, on Dec. 12, Charles Black has been grooming a squad of twenty-five aspirants regularly since the first of November.

A short two weeks will follow the approaching vacation to permit brushing up for the South Dakota U. tilt. The week following that Pittsburgh will start on the coliseum floor and mutterings within the Husker hoop camp point to a fierce battle.

Don MacClay, Nebraska's sensation at the center position last season, has been in suit this week getting about the floor with those long quick strides that accounted for so many points in the valley last winter. Seldon Davey and Morris Fisher have been hitting the hoop for the past two weeks.

Grid Stars Report Later.

After the recess, football men expected to appear are Steve Hokuf, the fourth letter man and practically assured of a birth at guard position, George Koster and Bert Durkee.

A Christmas trip to Seattle, Washington, for a three game series with the University of Washington is the lot of those men numbered among the first ten or fifteen.

The varsity squad will probably be restricted to fifteen or eighteen men after Thanksgiving. If the candidates exceed this number a Nubbins squad under the tutorship of Bunny Oakes will be organized.

Browne Handles Frosh.

Active freshman practice will begin every night as soon as football is over with Coach Harold Browne in charge. This week Varsity Coach Black met forty freshman basketeers on Tuesday night to present to them the basket fundamentals first hand. Black will meet the frosh players again tonight.

A finish-off scrimmage has been the program each evening following practice in feinting, basket shootnig from far and near, dribbling and pivoting, passing and working plays. Last evening found Maclay, Fisher, Davey, Stipsky and Conklin working successfully against Morley, Davison, Mauch, Lackey and Phipps.

Last year the Husker team chalked up 629 points in 18 games or an average of 35 points to the contest. In the Big Six Nebraska scored 359 points to the 335 of opponents.

Huskers and Hawkeyes Resuming Relations After Eleven Years; First Played at Omaha in 1891

Thirty-nine years ago Thanksgiving day the University of Nebraska met the University of Iowa at Omaha in the first game ever played between these two schools on the gridiron. This rivalry, started in 1891, will be renewed after a lapse of eleven years when the Cornhuskers invade the lair of the Hawkeyes at Iowa City this week end.

Iowa won the first game played in 1891 by a score of 22 to 0 before a crowd of 1,800 people. Since that time the Huskers have piled up an advantage of ten games won out of the eighteen played. Iowa captured five of the games and three resulted in tie scores.

The last game was played at Iowa City in 1919, with the Hawkeyes being victorious by a score of 18 to 0. Nebraska's edge in the all time record is featured by the fact that between 1913 and 1917 the Cornhuskers scored five consecutive victories over the Iowans.

This will be the first chance Nebraska has had to try its skill with a Big Ten organization since the Cornhuskers stopped Red Grange so effectively and beat Illinois at Urbana in 1925.

The all time record of Nebraska and Iowa:

1891	Iowa 22,	Nebraska 0
1892	Iowa 10,	Nebraska 10
1893	Nebraska 30,	Iowa 12
1894	Nebraska 8,	Iowa 0
1895	Nebraska 0,	Iowa 0
1896	Nebraska 6,	Iowa 0
1897	Nebraska 30,	Iowa 0
1898	Iowa 6,	Nebraska 5
1899	Nebraska 12,	Iowa 6
1900	Nebraska 30,	Nebraska 0
1901	Nebraska 12,	Iowa 12
1902	Nebraska 11,	Iowa 5
1903	Nebraska 12,	Iowa 6
1904	Nebraska 6,	Iowa 6
1905	Nebraska 12,	Iowa 0
1906	Nebraska 16,	Iowa 7
1907	Nebraska 12,	Iowa 0
1908	Nebraska 6,	Iowa 6
1909	Nebraska 11,	Iowa 5

1916	Nebraska 12,	Iowa 0
1917	Nebraska 47,	Iowa 0
1918	Nebraska 0,	Iowa 12
1919	Nebraska 0,	Iowa 18

HARD WORKOUT OPENS WEEK FOR CYCLONES

Iowa State Prepares for Traditional Struggle With Drake.

AMES, Ia., Nov. 19.—Hard scrimmage with the strong freshman eleven, which Friday vanquished the Drake yearlings, made up yesterday's workout for the Iowa State varsity in preparation for Saturday's game with Drake at Des Moines. The Cyclones, with thirteen straight defeats behind them, showed a speedy offensive and a deceptive running and passing attack, all of which bolstered up hopes of Coach Workman's supporters for a twenty-second victory over the Des Moines outfit.

Tradition and proximity of the two colleges—their campuses lie only thirty miles apart—have guaranteed that the annual Drake-Iowa State scrap will be a battle royal. In years past the strategy has not always been confined to the football field, for students of both colleges have occasionally decorated the other's campus with appropriate slogans just before the game.

Though this kind of strategy, it is believed, is definitely a thing of the past, Iowa State's 1930 rivalry is intensified by a desire for a victory to close its normal season. Two intersectional games in the south are scheduled for the Cyclones after Thanksgiving.

Cyclone power will be materially increased Saturday by the return of Rudy Tegland, plunging fullback, and Kenneth Wells, sprinting halfback. Paul Trauger, the third regular backfield man who was absent from last week's game against the Kansas Aggies, probably will not be in shape, and Dick Grefe, sensational sophomore quarterback, will hold down the job. Alibee is expected to start the game in place of Duesenberg at guard.

Spanish Club Holds Meeting Wednesday

A meeting of the Spanish club was held Wednesday afternoon in University hall. The meeting was opened by group singing in Spanish. A short Spanish comedy entitled "Confidencies" was presented by Margaret Ward and Leta Wempe. The members of the Spanish department were presented and responded with a few words. After a short business meeting the meeting was brought to a close by further singing in Spanish.
