

BASKETBALL GETS UNDER WAY WITH LARGE SQUAD OUT

Maclay, Fisher Probable Choices for First String Again.

TEAMS NOT YET PICKED

Five Football Men Report; Hokuf, Veteran Guard, Back in Suit.

By MURLIN SPENCER.

Now that football with all of its glamor is being pushed into the background, Coach Charley Black and a squad of approximately twenty-five men are settling down to serious practice in preparation for the opening of the basketball season only a short way off.

At the present time, no definite selections have been made, and several men are fighting it out for the individual positions. No first or second team has been picked, however.

Five football men have reported for practice. These five include Hokuf, Stansberry, McPherson, Koster and Durkee. Hokuf is a veteran guard, and will undoubtedly be in the running for that position again this year.

Two Teams Used. Two teams have been used fairly consistently in early practice scrimmages. The first one of these is composed of Fisher and Davey, forwards; Maclay, center; Cox and Stip ky, guards. Several men have been alternated at the different positions on the second team. They include Phipps, Whitman and Davidson, forwards; Conklin and Lackey, center; Morley, Mauch, and Bassett, guards.

Maclay, Fisher and Hokuf are the men who will be the main-spring of the Cornhusker offense and defense this year, although with the material available, these men will have a job on their hands to hold their position on the team.

Coach Harold Browne and his freshmen have also settled down to hard work, and will be ready for scrimmages with the varsity before long.

THE BEND SWARMER

FREDERICK WARE in his "sport-log" column makes the assertion that Nebraska is not producing the football material they did years ago and this is the reason that Nebraska's record has not been so bright.

Oklahoma were chosen as the first team guards. These two men played havoc with many of the Nebraska plays that were sent at them. Milligan of Pittsburgh and McCall of Kansas are two guards who could play on any team.

During the season Nebraska played against some wonderful centers. But, of the lot, Daugherty of Pittsburgh was chosen as the outstanding man because of his wonderful playing against Nebraska when they battled the Panthers to a scoreless tie. Other outstanding centers were Armstrong of Missouri, Smoot of Kansas, and Dolly of Iowa.

All of these men that were chosen if assembled and practiced together for a period of time would be able to make it tough for any team. In the backfield we find brains, brawn and speed. In the line there is weight and power enough to open large holes for the backs. Taking everything into consideration this selection would be hard to beat. You have the Nebraska boys' word for that!

Stationed at the end posts are Cronkite of Kansas Aggies and Campbell, Missouri. Cronkite was the man who caught a pass and ran fifty-six yards to the goal line to score the winning touchdown against Nebraska Thanksgiving. Campbell is remembered as the punter whose long kicks with his left foot were so effective against Nebraska, that Missouri was able to hold the Huskers to a scoreless tie. Tracy of Texas Aggies was considered by many as one of the best ends that Nebraska has played against.

There were only four tackles named by the squad on their all-opponents' team. They were Foy, Kansas, Tully, Pittsburgh, Benjamin, Iowa, and Ely, Iowa. The first two were selected for the first team because of their outstanding work against Nebraska, although many considered the second team selection as good as the first team.

TEKES AND BETAS VIE FOR WATER POLO TITLE

Semifinals Eliminate Pi K A's and Delta Sigs in Close Contests.

As a result of the semifinals played last night at the Y. M. C. A. pool, the members of the Beta Theta Pi water polo team will battle the Tau Kappa Epsilon aquitarians for the intramural championship, on next Wednesday evening.

The upset of the evening occurred when the Tekes dethroned last year's champions, the Pi Kappa Alphas in a hard fought battle by a score of 2-1. The score board showed 1-1 at the half, and it was not until the last minute of play that the Tekes produced the winning point, which decided who would enter the finals bracket.

The game between the Betas and the Delta Sigs was also a close fight; the Betas coming up from the short end of a 7-0 score at the half, by producing two successive touch goals in the second period, making a final score of 10-9, thus deciding the other final-ists.

PLAYERS PERFORM AT WARREN CHURCH

A large audience at the Warren Methodist church, Forty-fifth and Orchard streets, received the first performance of the Wesley Player drama, "Barrabas," last Sunday evening.

Rev. W. C. Fawell, sponsor of the organization, was introduced by the pastor, Rev. Carroll Prouty, and in turn introduced the cast of the play and the director, Irene Fee, '30.

The cast was as follows: Barrabas, Lee Scott; Simon, Francis Brandt; Mary of Magdala, Beryl Kiahn; Teras Delbert Reed; Hamath, Gordon Williams; and Thaddeus, Milford Graham.

STUDENTS OF HIGH SCHOOL ARE IMPRESSIONABLE are impressionable and it is while they are in their senior year that they are most easily influenced to decide upon the college they will attend.

There can be little doubt that Hastings will make every attempt to give the visiting teams a royal reception and entertainment while the tournament is in progress. But this only strengthens our point—a lot of good boys will be lost to Nebraska.

Lincoln will probably be given a regional tournament but the cream of the high school teams will not compete in it. The real class of the state is in the final tournament and it is these men that the University of Nebraska needs.

IOWA STATE has set up a unique record, though it is very doubtful if any other members of the Big Six feel envious of this record.

In the last two seasons the Cyclones have set up a mark of sixteen straight losses. It is doubtful if this record will be broken for some time and the Cyclones have a chance to increase the number of games lost.

Last Saturday they took their sixteenth straight licking, Rice Institute of Texas administering the dose.

The Cyclones, rated as one of the strong teams of the conference at the start of the season, were handicapped by injuries and tough luck. They just couldn't seem to get the few necessary points to turn defeat into victory.

Portrait of Chancellor

The only Nebraska man ever to have his portrait done as official recognition by the American Association of Animal Production for outstanding work in the field of animal husbandry was the honor recently accorded Chancellor E. A.

Burnett at a dinner held in his honor in the club rooms of the Saddle and Cirloin club of Chicago. The portrait was done by Robert Grafton of Chicago and was unveiled at the dinner held Nov. 30.

Only ten men have been conceded this honor previous to this time, and Chancellor Burnett is the first man to be so honored from Nebraska.

Dean Fred W. Upson of the graduate college represented the University of Nebraska at the thirtieth anniversary celebration of the founding of the University of Iowa graduate school which was held at Iowa City last Friday and Saturday.

It is the annual practice of the American Association of Animal Production to confer this honor upon the man who has most distinguished himself in this field. Heretofore, the honored men were Campbell is remembered as the punter whose long kicks with his left foot were so effective against Nebraska, that Missouri was able to hold the Huskers to a scoreless tie. Tracy of Texas Aggies was considered by many as one of the best ends that Nebraska has played against.

There were only four tackles named by the squad on their all-opponents' team. They were Foy, Kansas, Tully, Pittsburgh, Benjamin, Iowa, and Ely, Iowa. The first two were selected for the first team because of their outstanding work against Nebraska, although many considered the second team selection as good as the first team.

And the Guards. McGill of Missouri, and Lee of
