

SOCIETY

With the prospect of Greek letter houses and dormitories closing during the holidays, festivities are drawing to a close and a vacation looms on the horizon. The rush of Christmas parties is over and students are preparing to return to their homes. Merry Christmas!

Bisad Honorary Gives Informal Dinner Thursday
Gamma Epsilon Pi, bisad honorary, were hosts to ten guests at an informal dinner Thursday evening. Alumnae present at the affair which took place from 6 to 8 o'clock included Janet McLellan, Florence Heising, Martha Weaver, Mrs. Catherine Younklin, Mrs. Alice Stastny, Mrs. Katherine Schiefer and Mrs. Florence Reed. Katherine Slaughter, Helen Towell and Maree McQuistan were among the active members who attended the dinner.

Chi O's Plan Holiday Fete
Mittens, toys and gifts were distributed among twenty children who were guests of Chi Omega at a Christmas party Thursday afternoon. Santa Claus presented the kiddies with the gifts which were arranged around a Christmas tree. The activities planned games for the children and served them refreshments. Pledges entertained the active with skits at their annual Christmas party Thursday evening. Refreshments were served at the affair which began immediately after dinner.

Dorothy Weaver Gives Luncheon
Faculty members of the physical education department and members of the executive council of W. A. A. were guests at an informal luncheon given by Dorothy Weaver at the executive mansion Thursday noon.

Y. M. and Y. W. Cabinets To Entertain Foreigners
The foreign students party will be given Friday, Dec. 26, for all the foreign students remaining in Lincoln during the holidays. The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. cabinet members, living in Lincoln, will be in charge of the party. Students desiring more information may secure it from C. D. Hayes at his home.

Guests Are Honored Christmas at Alpha Delta Pi
Children of the Alpha Delta Pi alumnae were the honored guests at a Christmas party at the sorority house Tuesday evening. On Wednesday afternoon the girls invited fifteen little children from Bancroft school to enjoy the tree and Santa Claus.

Zeta Tau Alpha Pledges Give Skits at Christmas Party
Pledges of Zeta Tau Alpha gave several skits for the entertainment of the actives at their annual Christmas party Thursday evening. The holiday motif was carried out in the entire program.

Phi Mus Exchange Gifts at Christmas Party
Gifts were exchanged among the members of Phi Mu at their Christmas party Wednesday evening. A large Christmas tree lent a holiday spirit to the annual affair which the pledges gave for the actives. Following the distribution of the gifts the evening was spent informally.

Lois Raymond left Tuesday morning to spend Christmas vacation at her home in Yakima, Wash.

Florence Gebhard will visit Mildred Swanson at her home in Bloomfield for Christmas vacation.

Margaret Ward will spend the vacation at her home in Buffalo, Wyo.

Virginia Randall, '30, who is doing advertising work in Omaha this year, came to Lincoln last week end to attend the Alpha Delta Pi formal.

Zeta Tau Alpha recently held formal pledging for Martha Bakenhus of Columbus.

DR. PATTERSON WILL ATTEND CONFERENCE

RICE PICKS RHEA ON ALL-AMERICAN TEAM

Sports Writer Announces Selections in Issue of Collier's.

AIDED BY FIVE CRITICS

Hugh Rhea, tackle on Coach Bible's football team, has been named tackle on the Collier's All American football team, it became known Thursday. Copies of the magazine containing the selections of Grandland Rice, famous sports critic, were on sale in Lincoln Thursday morning.

An advisory board of five members located in different sections of the football realm, aided Mr. Rice in his nominations for All America honors.

His first team lineup is as follows:

Ends—Dalrymple, Tulane, and Fesler, Ohio State.
Tackles—Sington, Alabama and Rhea, Nebraska.
Guards—Koch, Baylor and Beckett, California.

Center—Tieknor, Harvard.
Quarterback—Carideo, Notre Dame.
Halfback—Pinckert, South California, and Dodd, Tennessee.
Fullback—Macaluso, Colgate.

In his comment concerning the tackle and his choice of Sington and Rhea, Mr. Rice says in Collier's:

"Great tackles always are scarce. In fact, there are few great tackles in the history of football. Even high class tackles are none too numerous. They have the hardest assignment in the game. Two star tackles can almost make a football team, but you don't see many Weirs or Henrys or Eddie Harts around."

Best of the Year.
"Among the best tackles of the year were Sington, Alabama; Price, Army; Rhea, Nebraska; Van Bibber, Purdue; Crehan, Dartmouth, and Lubratovitch, Wisconsin.

"Sington of Alabama was the outstanding tackle of the year—one of the season's greatest forwards. Sington's running mate is Rhea of Nebraska. Rhea was outstanding in his section. Pittsburgh rated him as the best tackle the Panthers met. Extremely fast, he spent a large part of the season in the middle of opposing backfields. Nebraska in the past has had such star tackles as Weir and Welser, and Rhea is a worthy successor to this pair."

RHEA MAKES COLLEGE HUMOR SECOND TEAM

Husker Tackle Picked For All-American Lineup by Eight Reporters.

Realizing that in fairness to all the combatants in our great game of football no one critic is adequately qualified to undertake alone the assignment of choosing an All American eleven, Les Gage, sports editor of College Humor, posted eight competent reporters at points of vantage to observe the 1930 contests.

The following are the members of the advisory staff who have assisted in making College Humor's selections: Robert Harron (New York Evening Post), George C. Carens (Boston Evening Transcript), Zipp Newman (Birmingham News), Lloyd Gregory (Houston Post-Dispatch), Oliver Kuehler (Milwaukee Journal), C. E. McBride (Kansas City Star), Ed R. Hughes (San Francisco Chronicle) and C. L. Parsons (Denver Post).

College Humor's 1930 All American.
Baker, Northwestern, end.
Sington, Alabama, tackle.
Slano, Fordham, guard.
Tieknor, Harvard, center.
Koch, Baylor, guard.
Edwards, Washington State, tackle.
Dalrymple, Tulane, end.
Carideo, Notre Dame, quarterback.
Schwartz, Notre Dame, halfback.
Pinckert, Southern California, halfback.
Macaluso, Colgate, fullback.

Second Team.
Fesler, Ohio State, end.
Lubratovitch, Wisconsin, tackle.
Metzger, Notre Dame, guard.
Hein, Washington State, center.
Baker, Southern California, guard.
Rhea, Nebraska, tackle.
Carman, Army, end.
Dodd, Tennessee, quarterback.
Hart, Colgate, halfback.
Welser, Haskell, halfback.
Schwartz, Washington State, fullback.

Third Team.
Maffitt, George, end.
Van Bibber, Purdue, tackle.
Woodworth, Northwestern, guard.
Jones, Utah, center.
Beckett, California, guard.
Price, Army, tackle.
Kennebec, N. Y., end.
O'Connell, Holy Cross, quarterback.
Brill, Notre Dame, halfback.
Booth, Yale, halfback.
Russell, Northwestern, fullback.

"Although there were many fine wingmen," writes Les Gage, "three ends clearly outranked the field. They were Baker of Northwestern, Jerry Dalrymple of Tulane and Wesley Fesler, Ohio State's iron man. Freddie Sington of Alabama, named on College Humor's 1929 All American eleven, was again the class of all tackles. Glenn Edwards, two hundred and forty pound tackle on Washington State's Pacific coast championship eleven, is favored over the middle west's pair of superb forwards, Milo Lubratovitch of Wisconsin and Hugh Rhea of Nebraska."

"Probably the most difficult positions to award are the guards and center posts. This fall's campaign brought three splendid pivot players, all of whom were superior to most of the guards—Ben Tieknor, Tony Slano and Mel Hein. We have favored the Harvard center, Tieknor, for first team position, stationing Slano at guard. It is with regret that we place Washington State's great center, Hein,

Hansen Gets Position at Arkansas College

Walter C. Hansen, who received his degree in 1926 in geology and who is now working for his doctor's degree, has just recently been elected head of the department of geology at State Teacher's college of Arkansas situated at Conway.

Mr. Hansen will leave for his newly acquired position next week, where he will assume his duties immediately following the Christmas holidays.

on our second eleven.

"From a host of guards, the husky Baylor forward, Botcher Koch, has a slight edge over Baker of Southern California, Metzger of Notre Dame, Beckett of California and Woodworth of Northwestern."

"A quartette that outdone Rockne's famous Four Horsemen contributes two men to our 1930 All American backfield, Frank Carideo and March Schwartz. Carideo ranks as the best of all field generals. Besides being one of the smartest signal callers ever to play the game, Carideo is a superb blocker, ideal as a safety, an excellent kicker, can pass and receive passes. Len Macaluso of Colgate, is placed at the fullback post, while Pinckert of Southern California is conceded a first team berth, 'alho Dodd of Tennessee is just about on a par with the coast player."

The February issue of College Humor magazine not only contains All American team but also eight All Sectional elevens."

CLASS B BASKETBALL PASSES MIDDLE MARK

Holidays Interfere With the Choice of League Champions.

League competition in Class B of the intramural basketball urney has passed the halfway mark. The problem of the league champions will not be settled until after Christmas with several teams in a threatening position in each league. The professional league, with two teams tied for the lead, is also progressing rapidly.

Delta Theta Phi and Xi Psi Phi are staging a spirited battle in the professional fraternity league, both teams having spotless records so far this year. These two teams appear to have the class of the league and will fight it out after vacation.

Sigma Phi Epsilon has the only undefeated team in the first league and seems slated to take the bunting unless something unexpected happens. In League II, Phi Kappa and Alpha Gamma Rho are deadlocked for the lead with undefeated victories.

In league III, Phi Kappa Psi holds the leading position with three victories in as many starts. Kappa Sigma holds the undisputed lead in League IV and Delta Tau Delta and Beta Theta Pi are tied for the lead in League VI.

that students have only ten minutes in which to change classes and attend creature comforts, bearing in mind also that on the administration's own word the university campus is being laid out in imitation of a "golf course" the members of the legislature will discover with their own eyes something of the "educational" hoax that is their state university. It is my hope that Mr. Bryan—with the support of the legislature—will take a strong stand against the university "expanding" beyond Fourteenth street, in which case Mr. Bryan and the legislature will deserve the sincere thanks of Nebraska's taxpayers for having saved them from millions in taxes for useless educational overhead. (Sixteenth and Vine is the northeast corner of the proposed campus with Tenth and R at the southwest corner. In walking from Tenth and R it will make no difference whether a member walks due east six blocks to Sixteenth and then four blocks north to Vine or whether the member walks diagonally across the proposed campus, for the distance will be the same.)
