METHODIST COUNCIL CONSIDERS BUSINESS

Organization Will Support Harrison Luncheon on Wednesday

The Methodist student council held its regular session at the Temple cafeteria on Friday noon, taking up important matters of business that are on the program for the coming semester.

Miss Bereniece Hoffman, president, presided, asking for reports from the standing committees. Arrangements were made for the picture of the group for the Cornhusker.

A number of events to which the council agreed to give its co-operation are on this week's program, including the appearance of Dr. Paul Harrison, a medical missionary to Arabia, and an outstanding alumnus of Nebraska. Dr. Harrison will appear Wednesday noon at the Temple at a luncheon meeting.

The council also voted to co-operate with the Cosmopolitan club in supporting their program next Friday evening when the above men will speak in the social science auditorium.

The meeting is a world brotherhood international meeting, and each man will be given twenty minutes to talk, after which they will answer any questions which may be asked.

Votes Money For Fund. The council also voted to send $25 to the Wesley foundation work in Japan, under the leadership of Dr. T. T. Brumbaugh, who visited on the campus several weeks ago.

The next meeting of the group will be held on Feb. 20th, when a fellowship supper meeting will be held at the Wesley Foundation parsonage.

DR. P. HARRISON ARRIVES IN CITY FOR SHORT VISIT

Classes in English history, ancient history, sociology, and pharmacy. Graduated in 1905. Dr. Harrison received his A. B. degree from the University of Nebraska in 1905 and his Ph. D. degree from John Hopkins university three years later.

In 1910 he went under auspices of the Dutch Reformed church as a medical missionary to Arabia where he has remained since with the exception of a few times he has been in Europe and America on furlough.

During his score of years in Arabia he has traversed the whole country by camel and in his medical report for one year there have often been as many as a thousand cases, most of them surgical. His work during the influenza epidemic in 1918 which was especially virulent in Arabia won him distinctive recognition by Abdul Aziz bin Saud, most powerful tribal chief in the country.

is noted writer. Writings of Dr. Harrison include numerous articles for the Journal of Medical Science and a treatise on the situation in Arabia published in 1920 in the Atlantic Monthly.

TIGERS ROMP ON NEBRASKA 33-20

(Continued from Page 1.) line and Maclay sank a free throw to bring the score to 17 to 16 in favor of Missouri. After that Missouri scored 16 points while Nebraska was held to two field goals.

Charlie Huhn led the attack of the Tigers with five field goals. Fisher was high man for the Cornhuskers with four goals. Fisher up to this time has averaged 12.1-2 points per conference game, but the work of the Tiger guards held him to his lowest score of the conference season.

The unexpected defeat of Kansas at the hands of the Oklahoma Sooners was one of the biggest upsets of the season. The win was the first for Oklahoma. By virtue of the defeat, Kansas remains in second place, while Nebraska, in spite of her loss, is still at the top of the line.

WESLEY GROUP PLAY AT NORTH PLATTE

'A Sacrifice Once Offered' is Title of Production Given Saturday

'A Sacrifice Once Offered' was given by Wesley Players at the Methodist church in North Platte last night and is to be given this evening at a joint service of the First and Trinity Methodist churches in Grand Island.

Rev. W. C. Fawell, sponsor of the group, will have charge of the church services at the Methodist church in Kearney this morning, and is to be assisted by certain members of the organization. The three act religious drama, 'A Sacrifice Once Offered,' deals with the home life of Pontius Pilate during the time he is considering the case of Jesus Christ.

The mental struggle of Pilate is brought out very vividly during the presentation and the attention of the audience is gripped and held through the showing. Rev. Fawell said. The cast includes: Calpurnia, wife of Pontius Pilate, Carolyn Cooper; Pontius Pilate, Russell Lindskog; children of Pontius Pilate: Julius, Oliver Kibben; Antonius, Lloyd Watt; and Virginia, Ingeborg Nielson; Damon, their tutor, Ozro Dean; Procula, aged slave woman, Mildred Johnson; Claudia, a slave girl, Marjorie Dean; John Mark, a young Jew, Irving Walker; Nathan, Anna's messenger, George Schmidt; and Longinus, a centurion, Norman Peters.

Another opportunity to see this play is to be given Lincoln residents and students, when it is presented at St. Paul Methodist church on the evening of Feb. 22.

YELLOW JACKETS DEFEND POSITION OF PRESIDENTS

2. The Yellow Jacket faction, although the minority fraternity group, will not refrain from presenting for election those whom it considers the best candidates in the field merely because the faction is in the minority.

3. The Yellow Jacket faction believes that the powers which certain students demand for class heads will come only through selecting competent and efficient presidents for the classes.

4. The yellow jacket faction is not willing to admit that the class presidencies have no powers attached as evidenced by certain constructive work carried on by two class presidents last semester.

5. The Yellow Jacket faction re- sents the declaration that class presidencies are political plums. Class presidents are placed in office by a majority vote regardless of the party with whom they may be affiliated and it is the students' privilege to affirm or reject party nominees.

6. The Yellow Jacket faction believes that the Barb party by withdrawing from the class presidency race is admitting a weakness which no minority faction should admit, namely, inability to place before the voting students suitable candidates for the various offices.

7. Contrary to other views the Yellow Jacket faction does not believe that participation in class elections is silly, asinine, foolish or insane.

Neal S. Gomon, President. Yellow Jacket faction Date is Feb. 17

Second semester elections have been set for February 17. All candidates will be filed at the student activities office by next Friday, in order that their eligibility may be checked prior to the election. Whatever the outcome of the balloting, it will be a race solely between the Yellowjackets and Blueshirts.
