

ACCESSORIES TO CONTRAST WITH SPRING COSTUME

Hats, Jewelry Go Together; Shoes, Gloves Match; Purses Optional.

GLOVES INDESPENSIBLE

White Exceedingly Good in Any Details Chosen; Earrings Worn.

Be bright, in reds, oranges, startling cerise colors. Be dainty in cool pastel shades. Be practical in dark, rich browns and navy blues. But steer away from black. Don't forget white, dead white, when you are choosing accessories and remember you must have a contrast somewhere.

Those are but a few commandments of style that could be named for modes are as varied and numerous as a girl could wish. Smart accessories, as ever, help make the costume. Shoes, gloves, purses, jewelry, hats—all may match, but it is never to combine them in groups. Hats may match jewelry. Shoes and gloves go together. Purses may be purchased to match either of these pairs.

Gloves Essential. Don't forget about those gloves! Attire is more formal this season, so only in moments of extreme relaxation can you go without them. For street or campus wear, gauntlets to match your shoes may be worn. Shorter sleeves mean longer gloves, and longer gloves mean elbow length at least. It is fashionable to wrinkle them below the elbow. Your afternoon gloves are best if they are white. If they do not match your dress, find some other excuse for white, such as white slippers or hat, for there is no better shade.

With your evening dress, long gloves of white or some sharply contrasting color may be worn. Mitts dyed to match are also good. Costume jewelry is good in small quantities. Long earrings are popular, but are worn without beads. Or, if you prefer beads, wear them, and you can wear big ones at home. Bracelets in novelty designs are exceedingly popular. Pearls of all shades and sizes will be seen, and will be especially good with formal wear. Personality can be emphasized more by jewelry than any one thing, so choose your ornaments with care and you do yourself a favor.

Small Purses. Your purse may be any color or two or three of them as long as it is flat and not too large. Small beaded and lace trimmed bags are extremely smart accessories for afternoon and evening.

Scarfs are a new method of color addition. If you have no other contrast note, depend on the small tie scarfs in brilliant motifs, striped, plaid and figured.

What is one to decide about prints incidentally? One French house says checks, Roman stripes and plaids only. Another of equal prominence emphasizes small flowers and figures in all over designs. All one can do in the face of such argument is to follow the color contrast rule and feel fairly certain of a smart appearance.

In foot wear, high heeled oxfords are second to none in popularity. Cut low about the instep, the dainty spring creations add grace and loveliness to the feminine foot. Pumps are still in full swing. Strap pumps of other than the T strap variety are a thing of the past.

Feminine foibles are too numerous to follow ad infinitum. So just watch your colors and you'll get along.

No Comeback.

COTTON MATERIAL STEPS OUT

VOGUE

This spring finds cotton materials suddenly appearing for formal use. The evening dress shown at the left is of cotton organdy, finished with bindings. The square neck in front becomes a deep V in the back. Small circular ruffles finishing the armholes and a sash with long ends start us looking backward to pinfore days. The "Kate Greenway" skirt with circular ruffle added is a new old note. The slip may be of rustling taffeta.

Eyelet-embroidered batiste forms the graceful in-between dress at the right. Interesting is the cape collar which becomes a girde at the waist line.

DR. CLARK GIVES TALK

Speaker Says Mexico Has No Middle Class in Tuesday Speech.

There is no middle class in Mexico, according to Dr. Marjorie Ruth Clark, professor of home economics research at the agricultural college, who talked to the Home Economic association Tuesday evening at Ellen Smith hall and exhibited examples of Mexican arts and crafts work. The lower class has been kept in utter subjection to the higher in Mexico. The peasants live miserably. The Mexican government is now struggling to give its common people an integral education, teaching them not academic subjects but how to keep clean, feed themselves more healthfully and build and furnish homes. Dr. Clark went to Mexico last summer to study the labor movement of the common people. She found this movement largely communistic.

THERE'S nothing better than a bowl of delicious Kellogg's Corn Flakes and milk. So easy to digest, it invites sound sleep. Dietitians advise it. How much more healthful than hot, heavy foods.

So order Kellogg's when you drop in at the campus restaurant tonight. Enjoy with canned peaches, or sweeten with honey for an extra treat. Good . . . and good for you!

IT PLEASURES YOU

"It's good to hear your voice, Mother! How's Dad? . . . Sure, I'm all right again. And my work's going well . . . knocked off a '90' in Math. last week!"

You have no idea how much inspiration and genuine pleasure you will get from weekly telephone chats with the folks at home. Let Mother and Dad hear from you in reality—and regularly. This newer, faster, far more personal way of keeping in touch with them is mighty popular with University men and women all over the country.

Why not telephone the folks at home each week? If you prefer, you may have them call you and "reverse" the charges, which will be placed on Dad's monthly bill. It's easy, quick and inexpensive.

For out-of-town calls to places 25 miles away, the day station-to-station rate is about 25 cents; 40 miles away, 35 cents; 75 miles, 50 cents; 125 miles, 75 cents; 150 miles, 80 cents. Where the station-to-station day rate is more than 35 cents, the rates are lower during the evening and night periods.

Make it a weekly habit. It is one that brings happiness by the mile to thousands of university people and their parents!
