

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXX—NO. 132.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1931.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

CHANCELLOR FAVORS POOL

17 HUSKERS WILL ATTEND TRI-STATE STUDENT MEETING

Men To Leave For Second Y. M. C. A. Retreat At Kansas.

BEGIN WORK SATURDAY

Reverend Inglis Is One Of Leaders At Second Annual Event.

Seventeen Nebraska men are leaving early Saturday morning by auto for Maryville, Kas., where the second annual triangular retreat of the student Y. M. C. A. organizations of Kansas State college of agriculture of University of Kansas and University of Nebraska is being held April 18 and 19.

The conference opens at 9:30 Saturday morning, and will close at 2:00 Sunday. The meetings will continue thru Saturday with a luncheon hour discussion of the Estes conference. Another discussion program will be held at the supper hour. Sunday will begin with a breakfast and adjournment will follow the noon dinner and fellowship hour.

The Rev. Mr. Ervine Inglis, pastor of Vine Congregational church here is to be one of the leaders of the retreat. Other leaders will include Harold W. Colvin, senior secretary, Rocky Mountain field council staff; Dean John Ise, Kansas university; Prof. Carl Rosenquist, University of Nebraska college of agriculture.

Delegates Named. The delegates from Nebraska city campus will include, Robert Venner, Arnold Walker, Harold Spence, and Harold Dahms. Those from the Ag campus are John Wagner, Orin Webster, Jason Webster, Greth Dunn, John Lowen.

(Continued on Page 3.)

AG RALLY DISCLOSES FINAL PLANS OF FAIR

Third Pep Meet Thursday Evidences Euthusiasm Among Students.

ADVERTISING PLANNED

Final plans for the 1931 Farmers Fair were disclosed at the third rally held in Ag hall on the agricultural college campus Thursday night. The fair comes on Saturday, May 2, this year. The rally was the last before spring vacation which starts tomorrow.

Crowding Ag hall to the limit, college of agriculture students showed more enthusiasm than ever before for the fair. Myrtle White, fair manager, was well pleased with the turnout and the interest shown about the 1931 show.

White announced that plans are going forward for further advertising the fair. He said letters and news stories have been sent to neighboring high schools inviting the students to attend the annual fair. Students in the college of agriculture from those towns are to give short talks before the school student body during spring vacation. Assignments were announced at the meeting.

Students to Advertise. Students going home for spring vacation were urged to take some placard to put up in their home towns. The posters are being circulated over Lincoln today, Manager White said. In addition, stickers for car windshields advertising the fair were given students.

Since Farmers Fair comes within a week after spring vacation (Continued on Page 3.)

BUSINESS HONORARY HAS PLEDGE SERVICE

Gamma Epsilon Pi Takes In New Candidates On Wednesday.

Gamma Epsilon Pi, national honorary business administration sorority, held spring pledging at 5 o'clock, Wednesday, April 15, at Ellen Smith.

Those eligible must have completed five semesters' work with an average of 85. The number pledged, exclusive of graduate students, is limited to 15 percent of the women of the junior and senior classes.

The following were pledged: Marie Adams, Herman; Dorothy McCall, Alliance; Helen Vogt, Lincoln; Maxine Wulbrandt, Exeter, and two graduate students, Dorothy Gifford, Huron, S. D. and Alice Eckels, Douglass, ans. Initiation will be held early in May, it was announced.

DUNN TO ASSIST WESLEY PLAYERS MAGAZINE EDITOR

George Dunn, '32, Omaha, was recently appointed associate editor of the Footlight, magazine of Wesley Players, national dramatic organization. Dunn will assist Prof. H. T. Ross of DePauw university, Greencastle, Ind., beginning with the September issue. The April number of this periodical was edited by Dunn with the assistance of Lloyd Watt, '33, Livingston, and it was for this work that the appointment was made.

KLUB ANNOUNCES THREE MEMBERS FOR PLAY CAST

Sophomores, Junior Take Parts In 'High And Dry,' Comedy.

Announcement was made from Kosmet Klub headquarters yesterday afternoon of the casting of three more principal parts to "High and Dry," 1931 musical comedy of the club.

Carl Beckman, junior student from Blair, is slated for the part of Herbert. In the first part of the play he is "in the big money," has the love of the heroine Jane, and everything is lovely. In the end, however, he turns out to be a villain. Beckman is affiliated with Alpha Sigma Phi.

John Milligan, sophomore student from Scribner, will portray Naga, native lover of the island queen Sheelah. Milligan is away from the island when the white party is deported to it and one of the sailors making up the party has quite a time with his queen. Milligan returns in time, however, to thwart any serious romance and things turn out o. k. for him. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega.

Leads Mutiny. John Zeilinger, sophomore from David City, has been cast as Petey, right hand man to Jim, who is a big, bad, bold mutineer. Zeilinger as Petey helps Jack Thompson as Jim to lead the mutiny on the ship which results in most everyone being deposited on a desert island. Zeilinger is a Delta Phi Gamma.

Rehearsals are being held nightly in all departments of the show. Everything is practically ready for the first showing in Hastings Monday, April 20. Scenery has already been shipped to the Hastings auditorium where the production will be given. The show will be given in Lincoln at the Liberty theater Friday and Saturday, May 1 and 2.

STUDENTS APPROVE CAR CLASSIC PLANS

'Many Entry Applications, Information Requests Made.'—Lawlor.

"The first annual college car race at Nebraska has met with instant approval from the student body," said Charles O. Lawlor, business manager of the Nebraska, yesterday. "Many applications for entry in the race were accepted and numerous requests for information were made. Several suggestions were offered by students which will be taken into consideration before definite plans for the event are made."

The derby will be run off at the state fair grounds track. A definite date has not been set, but May 9, was indicated as the most likely time. The races will be preceded in the morning by a parade of every old automobile in the possession of Nebraska students.

Prizes Offered. Prizes will be offered in all the races, in addition to awards which will be made for the oldest car, best decorated car, and the "wisest cracks" painted on the automobiles. The judges for the races will be announced following spring vacation.

Many different possibilities and ideas have been suggested to add to the program. Inter-fraternity and inter-sorority contests, and obstacle backward races have been considered.

A tentative program has been drawn up by the sponsors which (Continued on Page 3.)

Bizad Frosh Will Attend Convocation Thursday Morning

The convocation for freshman in the college of business administration will be held at 11 o'clock in social science auditorium Thursday, April 23, instead of April 17 as was announced in the Daily Nebraskan of April 16. J. F. LeRossingno, dean of the college, and Hubert Demel will speak. Oz Black will entertain the group with charcoal sketches.

2,000 FARMERS MAY FLOOD AG CAMPUS FRIDAY

College Will Be Host To Nebraska Livestock Feeders.

ALL IS IN READINESS

Prof. H. J. Gramlich Says Program For Day Is Complete.

More than 2,000 Nebraska farm men and women are expected at the college of agriculture today for the nineteenth annual Feeder's day. Prof. H. J. Gramlich, head of the animal husbandry department, reported Thursday evening that all was in readiness at the college to handle a record breaking crowd.

No cancellations for the day's program were received at the college up until last night. Two additions, however, were reported. A. E. De Rieques of Denver is to appear on the program for a few minutes while E. P. Brown of Davey is scheduled to talk on "My Help Yourself Plan of Feeding Calves."

Burr Extends Invitation. Dean W. W. Burr of the college of agriculture has extended a special invitation to the legislature, both the house and senate, to be guests at the meeting Friday. Tho no official word had been received at the college this morning relative to their acceptance, Professor Gramlich expressed the hope that the legislators would adjourn Friday afternoon for the meeting.

Dr. C. Robert Moulton of Chicago arrived at the college Thursday morning. He is to be one of the chief speakers on the Friday program. While at the agricultural college Thursday morning (Continued on Page 3.)

CASTING OF PLAQUES IS BEGUN WEDNESDAY

15 Interfraternity Bronze Scholarship Awards Go To Foundry.

REPLACE WORN CASTS

Casting was begun yesterday of the fifteen new bronze scholarship plaques which will be awarded to the fraternities ranking highest in scholarship for the second semester last year and the first semester this year at the annual Interfraternity banquet at the Cornhusker hotel, April 28.

The new plaques will replace the old ones used for many years and now practically wornout. They will be awarded this year for the first time on an actual scholarship basis rather than on the basis of the least hours down, as has been the case in the past.

Commenting on the new method of awarding the plaques, Assistant Dean of Student Affairs Harper yesterday said that under the old plan often a fraternity whose actual scholarship average was high would fail to get a plaque because of a few members in its ground having a large number of delinquent hours.

A Forward Step. Dean Harper believes that in doing (Continued on Page 2.)

Let's Prove We Want a Pool!

University of Nebraska students yesterday were offered an opportunity to take action toward procuring a $40,000 swimming pool for themselves. The way is simple. All that is necessary is that students agree to a payment of $1 per semester at time of registration, just as a medical fee is now paid. If students will agree to this, Chancellor E. A. Burnett will recommend to the board of regents Saturday that they go on record as favoring the construction of a swimming pool.

Here is a chance for the students to obtain for themselves at a nominal cost something they have long needed. The $1 fee would entitle all who paid it the use of the pool. It would provide this university with one of the things needed to put it on a par with other institutions.

Immediate action is necessary. Clip the coupon attached to this. Send it to The Daily Nebraskan office before 4 o'clock this afternoon. The coupons received will be presented to the chancellor before the regents meet Saturday. Vacation starts tonight. The coupon must be in today.

TO THE CHANCELLOR AND BOARD OF REGENTS. I hereby agree to pay $1 per semester at the time of registration to a swimming pool fund, provided that construction on the pool is started by next fall. Name _____ Lincoln Address _____ Year in school _____

Appears Tonight

Who will appear in a concert at the coliseum tonight. This famous pianist is making his seventeenth tour of the country. He first appeared in Lincoln 30 years ago.

PLAYERS TO END PRESENT SEASON SATURDAY NIGHT

Last Performance of 'Bird In Hand' Concludes Successful Run.

BY ROSELINE PIZER. Saturday evening's performance of Drinkwater's "Bird in Hand" will conclude the most successful season in University Players' history. Opening with a realistic tragedy, "Journeys' End," and concluding with the current witty comedy, "The Importance of Being Ernest," by Phillip (Continued on Page 3.)

VESTALS INITIATE 12 AT MORRILL THURSDAY

Annual Pageant Is Feature; Written By Dr. H. B. Alexander.

Twelve new members were initiated into Vestals, honorary arts and science college organization Thursday evening at Morrill hall. The initiates are Marjorie Peterson, Jean Hinman, Margaret Upson, Lucille Reilly, Virginia Jones, Dorothy Cook, Barbara Sperry, Marjorie Northrup, Helen Cassidy and Beatrice Marshall.

A feature of the ceremony was the annual pageant which was written several years ago by Dr. H. B. Alexander. Miss Marjorie Shanafelt played the harp throughout the service, and Elaine Haverfield served as reader.

PROF. H. C. HILL TO SPEAK OF EDUCATION

Chicagoan Is Scheduled To Appear At University Convocation.

Prof. Howard C. Hill of the school of education at the University of Chicago, will speak at a university convocation in the Temple theater, April 24, at 11 o'clock.

Prof. Hill will be here in connection with the spring meeting of the Nebraska History Teachers' association. He comes from the department of history in the school of education.

Dr. Hill has written a number of books on community civics, and is joint author, recently of a text book on American history. His efforts at the meeting of the history teachers this year will be directed largely toward improving the methods of instruction in history and the social sciences, and toward making these studies function in the betterment of citizenship.

Campus Calendar

Friday, April 17 Methodist Student council meeting, Temple, 12 o'clock.

JACKSON FALLS TO HUMBOLDT IN DEBATE OPENER

State Champions of 1930 Meet Defeat During First Round.

16 TEAMS PARTICIPATE

High School Squads Take Up Disarmament As Subject.

By JOE MILLER. Humboldt's defeat of Jackson high, 1930 state champions was the major upset of the first round debates in the twenty-fourth annual Nebraska high school debating tournament which got under way Thursday evening on the University of Nebraska campus.

Sixteen teams champions of their respective districts participated in the forensic competition which saw Humboldt, Beatrice, Omaha Tech, Lyons, Geneva, Grand Island, Norfolk, and Bayard come thru to win the judges' decisions.

The subject for debate used in this year's tournament is: Resolved that the nations of the world should adopt a policy of complete disarmament, with the exception of forces necessary for police purposes." A single judge rendered the verdict in each debate, the judges being University of Nebraska debaters. A feature of the first round was the fact that Omaha Tech was the lone affirmative team to register a victory, the remaining seven being won by negative teams. The Omahans trimmed Plattsmouth, and will (Continued on Page 3.)

PADEREWSKI APPEARS AT COLISEUM TONITE

Famous Polish Pianist Will Give Concert During Country Tour.

Ignace Paderewski, famous Polish pianist will appear in the coliseum tonight. A large crowd is expected to attend. The noted pianist has not toured this country for two seasons, having spent the greater part of last year traveling over Europe where he gave recitals for charity.

Paderewski's present tour, which includes seventy appearances, will take him as far west as the Pacific coast. It is his seventeenth tour of the United States.

The artist first visited this country some forty-eight years ago, although his actual debut as a pianist was in Vienna in 1877. London paid tribute to his genius in 1890 and the United States followed. His first appearance in Lincoln about thirty years ago opened the old Lincoln auditorium, since destroyed by fire, following a Kosmet Klub production.

Prof. Orin Stepanek, who is personally acquainted with Paderewski, called on the artist when he was here several years ago and received an autographed picture of him.

Wheeler, Woolsey; Weber, Field; All Are Good--But Levy, Hall Are Better

Kosmet Offers Something That Tops Even Amos And Andy.

By Forey Cord. The screen has its Wheeler and Woolseys, the stage its Weber and Fields, the radio its Amos and Andy, but the University of Nebraska has something even better—Levy and Hall, imitable comedy team which will grace the stage in "High and Dry," musical comedy of the Kosmet Klub, this affable pair will go thru their antics as a pair of sailors when the show is presented on the Liberty stage, May 1 and 2.

Nate Levy takes the part of Henry, who, although he is smart as sailors go, is not as quick mentally as he might be. This is aptly illustrated when he makes amorous advances toward Sheela, cannibal mistress. Bob Hall portrays the role of Orville, Henry's sailing mate. His lines are witty and as contrasted with the dull-minded conversation of Henry he fairly sparkles with effervescent humor.

Cast on Isle. Unlike most sailors these two chappies are true, not only to the captain and crew, but to their women. When the rest of the sailing staff mutinies Orville and Henry refuse to cross their leader and they too are cast with the passengers of the yacht upon the Isle of Sheela.

Such a move is for their own best end, however, because the queen of the island, also named Sheela, takes a certain definite fancy to Orville and takes him into the interior.

Untimely Arrival. There in the middle of the isle, quite unmolested except for Henry's constant interruption, Orville and Sheela lead a simple, domestic life in complacent happiness until Naga, the queen's native lover returns. This was most untimely, for the two sailors and Orville's grief over losing his best girl cannot be described with mere words.

There is nothing so heart rendering as a man who is disappointed in love. In this case our sailor is not only disappointed but he is chagrined, disillusioned, grief stricken, and plays a good game of deck tennis.

So while the world is waiting for sunrise and Alpha Sigs are waiting for street cars, the whole campus is anxiously awaiting the appearance of Nebraska's two eminent comedians Levy and Hall.

SUGGESTS STUDENT PAYMENT BE MADE

Administrative Head Has Plan Whereby Financing Of Project Can Be Accomplished; All Should Give Fee Of $1 Every Semester.

EACH STUDENT WOULD BE ABLE TO USE TANK

Those Entering Classes Pay For Regular Instruction Under Proposal; Architects Say Impossible To Construct Separate Building.

Declaring that if Nebraska students would agree to a payment of $1 a semester toward a swimming pool such an addition to university plant could, in his opinion, be financed, Chancellor E. A. Burnett yesterday went on record in a statement given The Daily Nebraskan as favoring immediate action toward a pool.

SIGMA DELTA CHI LAYS PLANS FOR JOURNALISM DAY

Tentative Date For Annual Frolic Of School Is Set May 1.

Plans for the second annual Journalism Day fete are being made, according to William McCleery, president of Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalism fraternity and sponsor of the festival, and present indications are that the event will be held Friday, May 1.

Following the precedent established last year, all journalism classes will probably be dismissed, and a mass meeting program for all journalism students in the morning will be followed by a luncheon and a picnic in the afternoon.

The schedule last year included a meeting and program in the auditorium of social sciences, luncheon at the Annex cafe, and an afternoon picnic at Horkey's park, Crete.

Sporting events of all kinds and other entertainment will feature the afternoon program, according (Continued on Page 2.)

FACULTY WOMEN TO TAKE TRIPS, VISITS

Home Ec Instructors Plan Methods Of Spending Vacation.

A number of the members of the home economics faculty plan trips and visits during spring vacation. Matilda Peters will spend her vacation at her home at Lyons, Neb. Bess Steele will spend several days in Chicago.

Dr. Ruth Staples and Dr. M. Ruth Clark will enjoy several days in the Ozarks. May Mackintosh will go to her home at St. Paul, Minn.; G. Carolyn Ruby to Des Moines, Ia.; Evelyn Metzger to Esterville, Ia.; Florence Corbin to Hart, Mich.

Mrs. Edna B. Snyder will visit friends and relatives at Manhattan, Kas. Gladys Winegar and Bernice Elwell will go to Chicago and Oak Park, Ill. Miss Winegar's vacation at her home in Wichita, Kas.

Wheeler, Woolsey; Weber, Field; All Are Good--But Levy, Hall Are Better

Kosmet Offers Something That Tops Even Amos And Andy.

By Forey Cord. The screen has its Wheeler and Woolseys, the stage its Weber and Fields, the radio its Amos and Andy, but the University of Nebraska has something even better—Levy and Hall, imitable comedy team which will grace the stage in "High and Dry," musical comedy of the Kosmet Klub, this affable pair will go thru their antics as a pair of sailors when the show is presented on the Liberty stage, May 1 and 2.

Nate Levy takes the part of Henry, who, although he is smart as sailors go, is not as quick mentally as he might be. This is aptly illustrated when he makes amorous advances toward Sheela, cannibal mistress. Bob Hall portrays the role of Orville, Henry's sailing mate. His lines are witty and as contrasted with the dull-minded conversation of Henry he fairly sparkles with effervescent humor.

Cast on Isle. Unlike most sailors these two chappies are true, not only to the captain and crew, but to their women. When the rest of the sailing staff mutinies Orville and Henry refuse to cross their leader and they too are cast with the passengers of the yacht upon the Isle of Sheela.

Such a move is for their own best end, however, because the queen of the island, also named Sheela, takes a certain definite fancy to Orville and takes him into the interior.

Untimely Arrival. There in the middle of the isle, quite unmolested except for Henry's constant interruption, Orville and Sheela lead a simple, domestic life in complacent happiness until Naga, the queen's native lover returns. This was most untimely, for the two sailors and Orville's grief over losing his best girl cannot be described with mere words.

There is nothing so heart rendering as a man who is disappointed in love. In this case our sailor is not only disappointed but he is chagrined, disillusioned, grief stricken, and plays a good game of deck tennis.

So while the world is waiting for sunrise and Alpha Sigs are waiting for street cars, the whole campus is anxiously awaiting the appearance of Nebraska's two eminent comedians Levy and Hall.

Wheeler, Woolsey; Weber, Field; All Are Good--But Levy, Hall Are Better

Kosmet Offers Something That Tops Even Amos And Andy.

By Forey Cord. The screen has its Wheeler and Woolseys, the stage its Weber and Fields, the radio its Amos and Andy, but the University of Nebraska has something even better—Levy and Hall, imitable comedy team which will grace the stage in "High and Dry," musical comedy of the Kosmet Klub, this affable pair will go thru their antics as a pair of sailors when the show is presented on the Liberty stage, May 1 and 2.

Nate Levy takes the part of Henry, who, although he is smart as sailors go, is not as quick mentally as he might be. This is aptly illustrated when he makes amorous advances toward Sheela, cannibal mistress. Bob Hall portrays the role of Orville, Henry's sailing mate. His lines are witty and as contrasted with the dull-minded conversation of Henry he fairly sparkles with effervescent humor.

Cast on Isle. Unlike most sailors these two chappies are true, not only to the captain and crew, but to their women. When the rest of the sailing staff mutinies Orville and Henry refuse to cross their leader and they too are cast with the passengers of the yacht upon the Isle of Sheela.

Such a move is for their own best end, however, because the queen of the island, also named Sheela, takes a certain definite fancy to Orville and takes him into the interior.

Untimely Arrival. There in the middle of the isle, quite unmolested except for Henry's constant interruption, Orville and Sheela lead a simple, domestic life in complacent happiness until Naga, the queen's native lover returns. This was most untimely, for the two sailors and Orville's grief over losing his best girl cannot be described with mere words.

There is nothing so heart rendering as a man who is disappointed in love. In this case our sailor is not only disappointed but he is chagrined, disillusioned, grief stricken, and plays a good game of deck tennis.

So while the world is waiting for sunrise and Alpha Sigs are waiting for street cars, the whole campus is anxiously awaiting the appearance of Nebraska's two eminent comedians Levy and Hall.

So while the world is waiting for sunrise and Alpha Sigs are waiting for street cars, the whole campus is anxiously awaiting the appearance of Nebraska's two eminent comedians Levy and Hall.

So while the world is waiting for sunrise and Alpha Sigs are waiting for street cars, the whole campus is anxiously awaiting the appearance of Nebraska's two eminent comedians Levy and Hall.

So while the world is waiting for sunrise and Alpha Sigs are waiting for street cars, the whole campus is anxiously awaiting the appearance of Nebraska's two eminent comedians Levy and Hall.

So while the world is waiting for sunrise and Alpha Sigs are waiting for street cars, the whole campus is anxiously awaiting the appearance of Nebraska's two eminent comedians Levy and Hall.

So while the world is waiting for sunrise and Alpha Sigs are waiting for street cars, the whole campus is anxiously awaiting the appearance of Nebraska's two eminent comedians Levy and Hall.