

NEBRASKA DROPS TENNIS MEET TO SOONER SQUAD

Cornhuskers Lose Season Opener by 4-2 Count Monday.

HUSKERS TAKE DOUBLES

Harold Sherman Trounces Thomas; Mahood Loses To C. Davis.

The Husker tennis team dropped a 4-2 decision to the invading University of Oklahoma racquetters Monday afternoon on the coliseum indoor courts. It was the initial Big Six test for the Cornhuskers.

Nebraska copped two matches when Harold Sherman trounced Thomas of Oklahoma 6-3, 6-3 in a singles encounter, while the doubles team of Cameron and Sherman came through in the final match of the afternoon to outclass the Sooner combination of Bennett-Thomas for a 6-3, 6-3 victory.

Visitors Are Strong.
The Oklahomans presented a powerful crew of racquet wielders in sweeping three of the four single matches and breaking even in the doubles. Charley Davis, Oklahoma star, trimmed Mahood, No. 1 man for Nebraska, in a battle which was nip and tuck all the way. However, Davis was far too effective with his sizzling drives and placements for Mahood, the match score favoring Davis 6-0, 6-3.

Milo Cameron, Nebraska, put up a great fight against Bennett, Sooner captain, but was forced to accept the short end of a 6-4, 6-4 tally. Mario lost to Hastings, Oklahoma, 6-1, 6-1 in another singles match. Harold Sherman displayed too much tennis for Thomas, Oklahoma and his 6-3, 6-3 triumph was well earned.

Huskies Take Doubles.

Sherman-Cameron, No. 1 doubles team for the Huskers played a fine game to put down Bennett-Thomas, while Mario-Mahood found the going too tough against Davis-Hastings, losing by a 6-1, 6-0 count.

Both teams displayed plenty of tennis, with Oklahoma having the edge.

The Husker netmen have a busy program ahead of them for the next week.

They leave Friday on a road trip which finds them playing Missouri at Columbia on Saturday, May 9; Kansas, Monday, May 11, and the Kansas Aggies on Tuesday, May 12.

Singles.
Davis, Oklahoma beat Mahood, Nebraska, 6-0, 6-3.
Bennett, Oklahoma beat Cameron, Nebraska, 6-4, 6-4.

Sherman, Nebraska beat Thomas, Oklahoma, 6-3, 6-3.
Hastings, Oklahoma, beat Mario, Nebraska 6-1, 6-1.

Doubles.
Sherman-Cameron, Nebraska beat Bennett-Thomas, Oklahoma, 6-3, 6-3.
Davis-Hastings, Oklahoma, beat Mario-Mahood, Nebraska, 6-1, 6-0.

HE WAS A Nebraska man. It came thru the mails, the following item.

WASHBURN COLLEGE, Topeka, Kas.—"I regard Earnest Bear as one of the ten best football coaches in the country." Those words were spoken by Knute Rockne a few weeks before he was killed in an airplane crash. Rockne made the assertion while speaking at a luncheon in Omaha, Neb., in February.

Bear is head football coach and director of athletics at Washburn. While Bear was coach at Nebraska his team twice defeated the Rockne men.

HE WAS A Nebraska man—Ray Richards, Wednesday this afternoon former Husker football tackle will meet Frank French, Renwick, Ia., who is heavyweight champion of the Corn state. From sensational Cornhusker football to a year on the professional gridiron to professional wrestling has been Richards' climb. The bout is to be the main event at the Lincoln auditorium Wednesday night.

Richards has won his first three encounters easily and appears for the first time in his home state.

Former Cornhusker tackle, and now a professional wrestler, who will be in action here Wednesday night when he meets Frank French, Renwick, Ia., heavyweight champion of Iowa, in the main event of Mar Johnson's grappling show in the Lincoln auditorium.

This will be Richards' fourth mat venture. He easily won his first three encounters. It will be his first appearance on Husker soil.

It wouldn't be much fun to be a stepping stone for his 220 pounds of beef and energy.

THE LINCOLN Star reveals a telegraph operator who conveyed Rhea's wire to Coach Schulte from the Drake relays with the information that Hugh tossed the javelin 1568 1/2. An omitted space between the 6 and 8 makes some difference here. It is a bit disconcerting, this nonchalance with which Lincoln Nebraskans hear of Rhea's performances. Not so out in the state.

There, if you have a speaking acquaintance with Hugh you are a hero. It's Rhea's own fault that he is accepted casually now, however. The consistency with which he threatens the fifty foot mark and breaks records has almost become routine.

To be news much longer, Hugh, you'll have to let somebody beat you; or fail to break some record or other.

THEY REALLY grow tennis players in this Oklahoma place. Charles Davis wearing Sooner colors had no trouble disposing of Paul Mahood, 6-0, 6-3, yesterday. And Mahood is Nebraska's best, which is pretty good.

Davis looks like the triplet of the two Oklahomans who captured both the doubles and singles in the Big Six meet here last spring. Tall, slender, dark haired, he wields a racquet with no superfluous motions. It ought to be a fast battle when Davis meets "Junior" Coen in Lawrence Wednesday. Davis is a sophomore.

THAT "NO superfluous motion" phrase is one of the big secrets of success in sports according to Know-It-All Oscar, the bounce-bounce boy. Not many people can drive 250 yards while doing the Charleston. And St. Vitus dancers aren't usually so good at billiards. At that, we wouldn't be especially surprised if Hugh Rhea had thrown the javelin one thousand five hundred sixty eight and one half feet.

That will be all, Orville.

Schelby and Sullivan Are Survivors in Greek Horseshoe Meet.

GOLF PLAY PROGRESSES

Department Threatens With Forfeits Entries Not Playing Matches.

Intramural sports are in full swing.

Professional and social fraternity horseshoes, intramural golf and baseball are all being pursued with vim and vigor by Greek organizations with Jack Best trophy longings or individual athletic championships as beacon lights.

In all university horseshoes Schelby and Sullivan are the sole survivors. Sullivan outpitched Evans to climb into the finals position.

Schedules Golf.
Rudy Vogeler announced that the following golf matches must be played by Tuesday, May 5, without fail: Phi Kappa vs Sigma Phi Sigma; Theta Xi vs Sigma Nu; and Kappa Sigma vs Phi Delta Theta.

Quarter finals schedules find Delta Upsilon pitted against Delta Sigma Lambda; and Sigma Chi lined up to play the winner of a Kappa Sigma-Phi Delta Theta bout. With two matches contested the Phi Deltas had won 6 points from the Kappa Sigas yesterday. Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon have also reached the quarter finals position. The winner of Phi Kappa vs Sigma Phi Sigma will encounter Phi Gamma Delta which drew a bye in the first round.

Threaten Forfeits.
The intramural department announces that unless the matches which are holding up play are completed at once, both teams will automatically be eliminated.

League winners have been determined in interfraternity horseshoes. They are Delta Sigma Lambda, Alpha Gamma Rho, Theta Xi, Beta Theta Pi and Phi Kappa. Final pairings follow: Delta Sigma Lambda, bye; Alpha Gamma Rho vs Theta Xi, Wednesday, May 6; Beta Theta Pi vs Phi Kappa, Friday, May 8.

LAST WEEK OF HOOP INSTRUCTION BEGINS

Fifteen Men Don Suits to Make Bids for Fall Varsity Places.

FROSH LOOK PROMISING

Weeping clouds Monday afternoon gave an atmosphere of "basketball weather" to Charley Black's spring practice session. The Husker hoop coach is starting his second and concluding week of hoop instruction. Fifteen men with varsity dreams for next season were on hand yesterday afternoon.

Among the men working out were George Koster, veteran guard from the past season, Bob Lackey, substitute center and fast developing his lanky six feet two or three for work at the pivot position, and Kirk Lenser who hails from Hastings with a good court record backing him up.

The other short trousered lads on the receiving end of Black's directions were mostly freshmen. Among them is some of the most promising material to don frosh togs at Nebraska in many a day. Walter Henrich of Wichita, Kansas is an acknowledged "hot shot." George Sauer of Lincoln is expected to give some guard a stiff battle for the defense position that Hokuf will be ineligible to fill the first semester.

Boswell, Lunney, Roswick, Letts, Scheinholtz, Bauer, Hall, Ayers, and Levinson constituted the other men on hand yesterday from whom Black hopes to fetter a winning team.

OMICRON NU TAKES IN EIGHT MEMBERS ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Omicron Nu, home economics honorary, held initiation of new members last Friday evening at 7:30 in the home economics parlors. Those initiated were Margaret Osborn, graduate student, Pawnee City; Genevieve Brehm, Lincoln; Mabel Johnson, Stanton; Helen Baeder, Lincoln; Eva Buel, Hickman; Helen Jeffries, Ida Grove, Ia.; Evelyn Krotz, Odell, and Sally Seely, Harvard.
