

FINAL STUDENT MIXER PARTY WILL BE HELD FRIDAY, AG CAMPUS

Harriet Cruise Kemmer Will Sing as Feature of Last Dance.

Prof. E. W. Lantz Praises Excellent Student Co-Operation.

Harriett Cruise Kemmer, local radio singer, will feature the final all-university mixer at the Student Activities building on the agricultural college campus next Friday evening at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Kemmer will be accompanied by Harold Turner, Lincoln pianist, who also assists her in her broadcasts from KFAB. The student executive committee is sponsoring the affair and has gone to some expense in securing this attraction. The regular summer school orchestra will play for the dance. The usual charge of 10c per person will be made.

Many requests have been received from summer session students to have another party at the agricultural college because they enjoyed the last affair held there a little over two weeks ago.

Mixer dances interspersed with other forms of entertainment will be organized during the evening's dancing. The committee will be on the floor at all times to assist everyone in having a good time.

Selectoins were announced by Prof. A. C. Easton, vice president.

Members are selected on a basis of scholarship and outstanding service in the educational field, according to Professor Easton. To be eligible to membership, candidates must have had experience in teaching and must show evidence of continuing in the profession.

Phi Delta Kappa is an educational fraternity organized for the purpose of developing a more complete professionalism, social fellowship, and productive scholarship among educators. It has existed as a national fraternity since 1910 and there are now active chapters in thirty-seven leading universities.

Tickets for the Thursday evening picnic may be purchased at Mr. Johnson's office, Teachers college.

Want a Schoolgirl Complexion? Throw Away Golf Scores

"Golf played without keeping score is health giving, golf played with competition harmful."

Such is the opinion handed down by Dr. John H. Stokes, professor of dermatology at the University of Pennsylvania school of medicine, at a recent lecture at the fifteenth annual course of medical clinics and lectures for physicians of the Pacific northwest which are being held at the University of Washington in Seattle.

"America rushes so in its playing, a high tension is created that is a factor in causing rashes and skin blemishes," he explained. Dr. Stokes is one of the four speakers who are giving daily lectures to the 250 physicians and surgeons registered in the summer course.

BAPTIST STUDENTS PICNIC

About forty Baptist students attended a picnic held Thursday evening at Pioneer park. Kitten ball and other games, in charge of Miss Madge McNeese, furnished the major part of the evening's entertainment. Picnic lunch was planned by Miss Virginia Larson and transportation facilities were organized by Glenn Melson.

Among those present were: William Richardson, Grace Young, Charles Rowand, Myra Biggerstaff, Madge McNeese, Carlton Springer, Meryl Johnson, Vernon Van Horn, Thelma Terry, James House, Beatrice Cobb, Virginia Larson, Annabel Place, Frances Starkey, Miss Cling and Helen McGaughey.

Dr. Charles Fordyce, chairman of the department of educational psychology and measurements, left Friday for Canada where he will represent the personnel committee of the national council of the Y. M. C. A. in the world conference which convenes at Toronto July 27 to Aug. 2. He has been asked to direct the discussion on the topic "How Young Men May Wisely Choose a Life Career."

The conference will be attended by delegates from forty-two different nations, meeting for the first time in this country. The conference will deal with the various problems that confront young men as they go out into their life work. From Toronto, Dr. Fordyce will go to the world alliance of the Y. M. C. A. which meets at Cleveland Aug. 4 to 12. He will report the results of his researches in devising measuring instruments for selecting executive secretaries.

TICKETS TO 1,500 FOR PICNIC LAST FRIDAY EVENING

More than 1,500 tickets were distributed for the annual all university picnic held at Capitol Beach last Friday night. Several hundred attended the dance which followed.

The swimming meet which had been planned for the hour between six and seven was cancelled because of the small number of entrants. However, a number of groups picniced together and attended the program presented by the Beach at their outdoor theater. Cut rates were given on all amusements and rides and a special charge of 25c plus one of the tickets entitled the men to dance all evening. The ladies were admitted free of charge.

TYLER IS CO-AUTHOR

Former Instructor Writes On Problems in Adult Reading.

"What People Want to Read About" is the title of a book just released by the University of Chicago press and written by Waples and Tyler. Dr. Ralph W. Tyler, co-author who is now of the bureau of research of Ohio State university, was formerly supervisor of science at the teachers college here at the university.

The book is a survey of problems in adult reading and its publication is at the instance of the American Library association and the American Association of Adult Education. "Research Methods and Teachers Problems" by the same authors was published last year by the Macmillan company.

AFTERNOON CLASSES MAY BE ELIMINATED; ASK STUDENT OPINION

Suggestion Made That 1932 Summer Schedule Begin With 6:30 Classes.

Six Morning Classes Could Be Held Under Plan; No Action Taken.

No afternoon classes and a morning schedule which begins at 6:30 o'clock in the morning and continues until 12:30 are the suggestions for the 1932 summer session which have been submitted to R. D. Moritz (director, by a number of students and faculty members during the past week. No action has been taken by officials of the summer session, but if student opinion favors such a change the suggestion will be considered when plans for the next vacation session are developed.

"By advancing the opening period thirty minutes in the morning and adding an hour period from 11:30 to 12:30, all classes which met this year at various periods during the afternoon could be given in the morning," point out those suggesting that the change be made.

The majority of the suggestions came as a result of an experiment tried this summer with a group of students in education 285. The class formerly met at 8 o'clock, but on account of conflicts the hour was changed to 12. The en- (Continued on Page 3.)

SCRIBNER'S ANNOUNCE NEW STORY CONTEST

$5,000 Offered to American Writer Submitting Best Long Story.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Scribner's magazine announces a new $5,000 contest for the best long story of between 15,000 and 30,000 words submitted before February 1, 1932. The contest is open to American authors (United States and Canada) and is for original work. There are no restrictions either as to subject matter, setting or style.

The new Scribner contest is the result of the original $5,000 long story competition last year which was won by John Peale Bishop for his "Many Thousands Gone." The original contest led to the discovery of such new writers as Nahum Sabsay, Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings, Elizabeth Willis, D. V. Carlisle, and Carroll E. Robb. Stories were also published by James Gould Cozzens, W. R. Burnett, Grace Flandrau, Josephine Herbst, James B. Wharton and Margery Latimer.
