J. D. HICKS.

PAUL R. GRUMMANN.

For Managing Editor

Applicants for the position of managing editor of The Daily Nebraskan will be received until Monday noon, September 21, in the office of the school of journalism, University hall 104. Ma-terial already on file need not be duplicated.

Student Publication Board.

TONIGHT WILL OPEN

Chancellor and Deans Will

and Mrs. E. A. Burnett and the Miss Florence McGahey, regisclude the deans of the various coland Mrs. E. H. Barbour, members

(Continued on Page 4.)

FACULTY RECEPTION

GAYLE C. WALKER,

Chairman

Signed.

Walker Issues Call

Issue

SWIMMING POOL WILL BE READY TO USE NOV.

Student Fees Bear Cost of 35 by 75 Foot Tank in Field House.

Thousand May Watch Big Six Contests During Coming Season.

Nebraska's long-awaited swimming pool, now under construction country, and a thousand spectators will be able to view Big Six natators do battle for swimmin honors. The Nebraska tank, which is to be 35 by 75 feet and 10 feet deep in the deep end, will have two low diving boards and one high one. It is exceeded in size and excel-lence only by the pool at Iowa State, which is the second largest Who has resigned Stephe ornhusker students, to whose use the pool will be open at all free eriods when there are no classes or when the Varsity squad is not working out. For Both Men and Women.

Both women and men students the use of the pool. A separate locker and shower room is being built for women students in the northeast corner of the coliseum basement. Men students will use the locker room now used or basketball, handball and other door activities. Construction work has progressed to the building of the forms preparatory to pouring the concrete. It is hoped the side walls will be ready to pour sometime today after the awaited filration plant fittings have been in-

The foor will then be regraded (Continued on Page 4.)

BIG SISTERS HELP WELCOME NEW GIRLS

Parties Entertain Freshmen Women: More Planned During Year.

D IN REGISTRATION Dr. James Perry Tollman, '27, pus, taking subscriptions from the comes from Harvard Medical col-faculty and students.

The Big Sister organization of university contributed to the rls by entertaining them at tea day afternoon, assisting in e registration, and by giving a rty for all new girls in Ellen with hall on Tuesday evening. Sunday afternoon about fifty mith hall to meet other new girls g Sisters. Members of the board erved the girls and introduced nem to one another. General canagement of the party was on Monday, the members of the rganization attended the convoons and met with the advisers help in getting the girls regis-

In Teachers college a group of iris under the direction of Alleen celey sang the Nebraska songs and taught them to the girls. In ts and Science college, agriculral college, Business Adminis-ation and Fine Arts, the Big ters met with the advisors and elped the girls in small groups. Ushering on Tuesday and Wedsday in the Coliseum was done members of the organization. Between seventy-five and a hun-ed girls attended the party on nesday night which was in Ellen with hall from eight until ten lock. This party was under the ection of Jullienne Deetkin who nducted the grand march and ranged for the refreshments. general introductions, the ris danced while Ardith Pierce of Catherine Warren played. The Big Sisters plan other fairs for new girls, non-sorority omen especially, during the year, here will be other parties and eetings arranged so that the ris will have a chance to become uainted and not feel lost on the rst Issue Expected From Publishers Tomorrow, Says Editor.

LUEPRINT GOES TO PRESS

First issue of the Blueprint, en-leering magazine, will be pub-hed tomorrow, according to various departments for the fit of freshmen engineers will

The staff for this year's Bluent is headed by Briggs, who is issted by Jack Hutchings, maning editor; Robert Campbell, rertising manager, and William house, and Saturday afternoon, who is in charge of ciration.

dent house at 1440 Q street will be used as a center of activity thruout the school year.

A stag party is planned for Friday evening, Oct. 2, at the student house, and Saturday afternoon, Oct. 3, there will be a tea for university Baptiet women.

UNIVERSITY FILLS FACULTY VACANCIES

List of Instructional Staff Changes Released by Relations Dep't.

NUMBER REMAINS SAME

the university faculty was an-nounced yesterday by the depart-POUR CONCRETE TODAY ment of public relations. In all twenty-seven changes were made but no new members were added. Details of Dr. Grumman's departure were carried in Thurs-day's Nebraskan along with changes in a few of the departwith ments. The list in its entirety follows:

Instructors Named. Harriett Schwenker, '25, will be ming pool, now under construction an instructor in commercial arts under the stage of the Coliseum. in place of Luvicy M. Hill, who is will be ready for use about Nov. 1, on leave of absence. Miss Schwen-Swimming Mentor Rudy Vogeler ker was graduated with a B.Ss. degree from the University of Nestated yesterday.

The pool will be one of the best of its kind in this section of the structor in commercial arts at Kansas State Teachers college at Kansas State Teachers college at Hays. She later received her M.A.

degree at Columbia.
Raymond H. Williams is an instructor in ceramics and sculpture in place of Emma Skudler who recently resigned. He received his B.S. from Utah and comes from In the place of W. H. Thompson indoor pool in the country.

Subject of much spirited controversy last year, it is thought that the pool will be a haven for the poo who has resigned, Stephen M. from DePauw university and refrom DeFauw university D. de-ceived his M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from Illinois. Edgar N. Johnson is an instructor in history in place of R. L. Reynolds. He comes from the University of Chi-cago where he received Ph. B. and Ph. D. degrees.

Three changes are being made in the department of home econ-omics. Martha A. Park is assistant professor of institution management in charge of the College of Agriculture cafeteria. She takes the place of S. Berniece Elwell who resigned. Miss Park received her A.B. degree from Illinois and her M.S. from Iowa State. Minns Denton, who received her Ph. D. from Chicago, has been appointed assistant professor in place of Re-bekah Gibbons, who is on leave of absence. Edith Carse, '26, is an instructor in the place of Mary Mason, who resigned. She received her B. Sc. in home economics from Nebraska in 1926 and her M. A. in 1927 from Chicago. Miss Carse was instructor in home economics and later became equipment spec-ialist for the Delineator institute. that of any previous.

New Law Teacher.

who is on emeritus status.

lege as assistant professor of clinical pathology in place of Dr. Weinberg. Dr. Tollman received his B. Sc. from the University of Nebraska in 1927 and his M. D. in (Continued on Page 4.)

CHANCELLOR REVIEWS HISTORY IN ALUMNUS

Feature Article Tells of University's Birth and Expansion.

Chancellor E. A. Burnett is the author of "These Sixty Years," a complete article reviewing the university's history, which is fea-tured in the September issue of the Nebraska Alumnus which was put in the mails yesterday.

Chancellor Burnett's article covers the birth, expansion, and activities of the University of Ne-braska from the time the doors of old University hall were opened sixty years ago, to the present day. A number of other articles were included in the Alumnus along with several illustrations. A full page cut of a number of last spring's graduates is a pictorial feature of the issue. Contents of the magazine are listed under the

"These Sixty Years," by Chancellor E. A. Burnett; "The Class of 1931," "Faculty Appointments," "Wisconsin Alumni Meet," "Retrenchment Program Necessary," "Detroit Club Has Picnic," "Sum-mer on the Campus," "The Book mer on the Campus," "The Book Shelf," "Students Build Swimming Pool," "News of the Classes," Marriages, Births, and Deaths. On the last page appear the edi-torials by Oscar Norling, editor, who discusses numerous problems in his "Just Between You and Me"

BAPTIST STUDENTS START RELIGIOUS ACTIVITY FRIDAY

Religious activity for Baptist

According to Miss Grace Spacht, up a large part of the first student secretary, the Baptist student house at 1440 Q street will be versity Baptist women.

THREE FACULTY MEMBERS LEAVE

W. E. SEALOCK.

Dean J. D. Hicks of the college of arts and sciences, Dean W. E. Sealock of the teachers college and Dr. Paul Grummann, director of the school of fine arts, who leave the university this year to take other posts.

Dean Hicks will teach American history at Harvard university while on a semester leave of absence. He is replaced by Dr. C. H. Oldfather, chairman of the history department, who will serve as acting dean of the college. Dean Sealock who become president of Omaha municipal university is re-placed by Dr. F. E. Henzlik, appointed dean of the teachers college by the regents last spring. Dr. Grumman becomes director of the Josyln Memorial at Omaha.

Nearly thirty other faculty changes for the year were an-nounced in the Nebraskan yesterday and today. Several of the fac-ulty changes have been necessitated by leaves of absence alolwed instructors.

NEBRASKAN CANVASS FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS BEGINS THIS WEEK

Student Daily on Sale at Book Stores and U Hall Basement.

With the Daily Nebraskan sales campaign well under way, Jack Thompson, busines manager, ex-pressed confidence last night of at Iowa State university at Ames greater sales of the University's cultural college at Corvallis where she was an instructor in home conomics.

The sales campaign was successfully started Tuesday morning as freshmen were canvassed for the conomics. scriptions upon completing their registration at the coliseum, Since L. Dale Coffman, who received then many subscription blocks his J. D. from Iowa and his LL. M. have been subscribed by fraternifrom Harvard, has been appointed ties, sororities, and other organisasistant professional professio assistant professor in law to take the place of Prof. C. A. Robbins, who is on emeritus status.

if any students are missed.

faculty of the university extend invitations to all students and es-Dean T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs in a statement ispecially to new students. sued yesterday concerning the Nebraskan said:

"I believe that students should trar, will nitroduce the guests to the receiving line which will insubscribe to the Daily Nebraskan if at all possible. It is the only way I know in which to keep in leges and their wives. Assisting on the museum floors will be Dr. touch with what is going on in university life." of the museum staff and Professor Subscription price for the Ne-braskan this year is $2.00 per year, or $1.25 per semester, or if mailed, $3.00 a year, and $1.75 the semester. Those not wishing their Ne-braskan mailed to them can get their copies at either Long's or Co-op. Fraternities and sororities will be able to obtain block sub-Fraternities and sororities scriptions from members of the staff who will call at the houses in the next few days.

FAMOUS DANCE BAND APPEARS IN LINCOLN

Jones Recording Orchestra Plays at Cornhusker Dance Tinight.

Isham Jones with his sixteen Brunswick recording artists will play Friday night in the grand ballroom of the Cornhusker hotel. The ball featuring Jones and his orchestra for his first appearance Lincoln will begin at 8:30

The grand ballroom has been duly decorated in elaborate designs of the modernistic type to har-monize with the unusual entertainment to be furnished by Jones and his artists.

This recording band under the direction of Isham Jones which has arrived here direct from Denver, Colo., where they have just completed an engagement at the Elitch gardens were made famous at the College Inn at Chicago.

Upon their return from London where they fulfilled an engagement.

where they fulfilled an engage-ment with the Kit Kat club, Jones Religious activity for sent plans, says Jerry Briggs, students begins formally Friday, where they fulfilled an engagesent plans, says Jerry Briggs, students begins formally Friday, where they fulfilled an engagement with the Kit Kat club, Jones and his sixteen artists have played at leading hotels and night clubs over the United States.

Tickets may yet be secured at the Cornhusker hotel.

STUDENTS GET UNIFORMS

More Than Hundred R.O.T.C. Suits Checked Out Yesterday.

Altho Monday was the initial day for issuing drill uniforms, few were checked out until yesterday when more than a hundred basic drill students reported for their

All drill students, including athletes, said Col. W. H. Oury, must appear in uniform by probably their second drill period. Band members may check out uniforms in the morning Oct. 26. The date for measuring advanced students for uniforms will be announced Student tickets to all athletic contests will be placed on sale next week according to announcement made Tuesday by John K. Selleck. business manager of athletics. Students desiring to get in on the drawings for seat locations will present their identification cards and leave their orders at the student activities office in the University coliseum, Tuesday. Tickets will be ready for delivery the following day, Wednesday.

Athletic books admit to all varsity contests and this year will include admittance to varsity swimming meets, the new pool, which will be completed soon, being available for home water meets this winter. The scheme of drawing for seal locations will be the same as last year. Students present their iden-tification cards along with their money at the coliseum office. They then are given a receipt and assigned a number. This number is tossed in the hat and seat locations assigned by lot. Student organizations or any group of stu-dents wishing to sit together must present the identification cards and money at the same time. The groups is then assigned one num-ber and takes its chances for seatlocation along with the individual tradition.

FALL SOCIAL SEASON FACULTY MEMBER RETURNS

Resumes Engineering

has been with the International Combustion Engineering Corporation of New York, where he served tion of the Interfraternity council,

For eight years previous to that he held the same post he is now filling. He was graduated from Lehigh 1912 he served as mechanical en-gineer at the U. S. Naval Experiand Mrs. T. T. Bullock. On the floors occupied by the school of ment station, and in 1919 took his M. S.

position is at stake, but their inas indifferent.

Political Seas Calm as Blue Shirt Skiff Moors in Harbor of Election Success; Yellow Jacket Yacht Leaks

By THE OBSERVER.

Poliaical seas at this institution are resting in a complete calm-one of those calms which might foreshadow an election

Eyes which are accustomed to the intricate maze of political charts can trace the routes of party ships during the past year. Quite obvious is the course of the Blue Shirt stiff which sailed easily into three electiono-ports. With their holds full of crest of an organized wave of voting tinsel the Blue Shirt marin-votes. ers, with Skippers Wally Frank-furt and Art Wolf at the helm, traded their wares for no less than eight class presidencies, three publication board offices, and a full slate of student councilors.

Somewhere in the Blue Shirt wake struggled the Yellow Jacket yacht, buffeted by chance billows, deserted by a sister yacht of soror-ity votes, and just a little late into port each time. Neal Gomon, vet-eran political mariner, saw his lit-tle crew floundering on election sands in three instances.

Barb Canoe Adrift.

Far out on the waves floated the Barb canoe with Pres. Delphian Nash seated at the paddles. The invisible captain of this barque, Alan Williams, remained at the tip, fanned by cooling breezes of barb council support; edulest to of barb council support; contest to stay away from port and fish vigorously for a larger all-university party attendance.

Things have reached the point Tickets may yet be secured at the Cornhusker hotel.

Denver Girl Visits Campus.

Maude Groenn of Denver, Regional See of the Y. W. C. A., is on the campus on her return trip from New York City. She will be here until Saturday and will speak on several occasions.

where small schools of Yellow Jacket party vessels will take on new captains and crews and will sail into new Shirt party. No longer do the political seaweeds whirl and eddy to each little shift of student opinion. The ground-swell of the Blue Shirts has grown omnipotent and at each polling it gushes up with has installed deisel engines, maybe into the political harbor on the of sails. where small schools of Yellow

STUDENT ATHLETIC TICKETS GO ON SALE TUESDAY NEXT WEEK

Pasteboards $9 Again This Year With No Extra Rooters Charge.

The price of student tickets will be $9 this year with no extra charge for seats in the card section of the east stadium. In past years an extra charge of 50 cents was made for the rooters' section.

Professor W. I. DeBaufre

as technical advisor and head of the technical research department.

University in 1907 with the degree of E. E., and received his M. E. in 1909 at the same institution. From

AWARDS ANNOUNCED

Thirty Students Will Get Partial Aid in Voice,

Howard Kirkpatrick, director of Sorority Votes Don't Count.
Silvery little shoals of sorority ballots dart into the Temple harbor at elections where an honorary the university school of music, announced Wednesday that about thirty applicants have filed for the partial scholarship awards which are being offered to students influence on the outcome of male offices may be plainly characterized terested in music. Applicants are judged by a group of picked As matters stand the political

There is a greater number of students competing for the awards due to the added publicity given them this year. All teachers of the their steel-plated skiff is quite water-tight. Meanwhile the barnapartial schoairships to students this year, which means that one partial scholarship will be awarded to the outstanding freshman and one to each winning upper class-so that more than one student may curling under the broiling sun of receive financial assistance disorganization. Little streams of studying music. Mr. Kirkpat music. Mr. Kirkpatrick water are beginning to trickle stated that they did not think it thru the seams, imminent of pobest to grant complete scholar-ships because something that is gotten for nothing is generally worth about that much to the person received the scholar-ticash. Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics bonorary sorority, is sponsoring the book exchange for the first time on the Avith the approach of a new school year the respective party vessels will take on new captains person receiving the award.

Students from all the studios where teachers are accredited with the university, are trying out for the scholarships. These partial plarships have been awarded by the university school of music for two years prior to this year. In addition to these awards, a (Continued on Page 4.)

HOLD DAILY NEBRASKAN POSTS

EVELYN SIMPSON.

Students interested in reporting for the Daily Nebraskan are urged by Editor Boyd Von-Seggern to appear at the publications offices in the basement of university hall within the next day or two. Reportorial beats are to be assigned in the near future and freshmen are

TURKISH TEAM FIRST

ON DEBATE SCHEDULE

Of Two Men Booked for

Next Month.

October, probably on Thursday evening Oct. 8. Material will be collected and placed on reserve very soon in the library.

RUSHEES ARE FETED

700 Men by Monday;

Record Looms.

Scramm, inter-fraternity adviser Over 700 cards had been cheaked out, Monday while the only avail-able data shows that only 600 were checked out at that time last placed at midnight Monday night

Marvin Von Seggern, president of the inter-fraternity council and Irving Walker, chairman of the same group report that their office worked at full capacity during en-

All violations and protests are to be taken up by the judiciary committee of the inter-fraternity

INSTITUTED FOR

Girls taking home economi subjects at the agricultural college have the opportunity of trading their books in for others to be used the first time on the ag campus. Eva Buel announced today th the exchange will have its offices on the first floor of the home economics building. She is chairman of the committee in charge of the year.

HOME EC GIRLS

BOOK EXCHANGE

tire season.

council.

RECORD NUMBER OF

For Reporters

Nebraskan Asks

particularly welcome.

ELWOOD N. THOMPSON.

Boyd Von Seggern, Elwood N. Thompson and Evelyn Simpson who head the first semester staff of the Nehraskan, the first issue of which appeared yesterday.

Von Seggern, editor, whose home is West Point, Neb., is a senior in the college of agriculture. He was formerly news editor of the Nebraskan and was editor of the Cornhusker Coutnryman last year. He is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity and of the Innocents society.

Thompson, business manager, is a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity and lives in Lincoln. He is a junior arts and sciences student. served as assistant business manager of the Nebraskan all last year. Miss Simpson, managing editor, is a senior journalism student, member of Chi Omega sor-ority and of Moriar Boards. Her home in Omaha. She was formerly

FRESHMEN CAPS THIS YEAR DEPART FROM TRADITIONAL GREEN

Innocents Sponsor Change; Scarlet and Cream Is New Scheme.

Husker students will be greeted soon with a freshman cap unlike any that has ever before appeared on the campus, according to plans just announced by the Innocents society, sponsor of the frosh cap

Instead of the traditional green, the caps this year will be of scar let and cream combination. The cap is to be of scarlet while the numeral "35," and the button will be of cream color.

the debate season. The first event of the schedule will be another in-Innocents in charge of the cap sale report that the response durternational debate on Oct. 26 or 27, ing registration at the coliseum when a team made up of two Turk-ish students will be in Nebraska for a series of debates, including Friday Night.

College Work.

Prof. William L. DeBaufre, formerly chairman of the department of mechanical engineering is again the university by the samual in his old position, replacing Dr.

Receive in Morrill Hall

College Work.

Prof. William L. DeBaufre, formerly chairman of the department of mechanical engineering is again in his old position, replacing Dr.

The subject for the line of the lin debate will be: "Compulsory un Jack Thompson wishes to emphasize that subscriptions may be obtained at Long's or Co-op book store or at the Daily Nebraskan office in the basement of U hall, ployment insurance adopted by the sovereign states as public protection against the vicissitudes of the machine age." Ne-braska will take the negative at servation of the tradition, the Innocents have secured the co-operathe request of the Turkish team. Tryouts for the two man Ne-braska team will be beld early in which organization passed a resolution Wednesday night by unanimous vote endorsing the tradition and pledging its assistance. All fraternities therefore will insist that their freshmen wear the caps. The Innocents will also seek the co-operation of the Corn Cobs and the Barb council.

Following the freshmen initiation which is in the form of a convocation to be held in the coliseum. vocation to be held in the colliseum. Sept. 24, the tickets will be taken to Ben Simon & Sons to be exchanged for caps. Caps will not be worn before the initiation. Definite rules for wearing the freshmen caps will appear in the Sunday issue of the Daily Nebraskan.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

Piano, Violin.

pond is slowly coating over with a scum that approximates stagnation. The Blue Shirts may well disregard this surface froth for cles of party decay nibble merrily at the Yellow Jacket yacht as it The scholarships may be divided exchange. Sally Seeley and Helen Henzler are her assistants. The exchange will be open the remainder of this week and the fore part of next.

BEAUTIFICATION NOW UNDER WAY

Chancellor Describes Plan Improvements Being Constructed.

DRILL FIELD IS MOVED

New Mall to Replace Old Parade Ground: Girls Dorm Promised.

Working under a decreased budget, the University of Nebraska vesterday announced building improvements to be made this comgram is the campus beautification plan. The old drill field with its memorable walks and cinder paths is to be no more, and instead the new central mall, a quadrangle after the fashion of the Memorial mall, will take its place. The new mall is to be fifty feet wide instead of forty feet. It will have two openings on Fourteenth street to take care of the increased According to Chancello Burnett this is to be one of the centers of interest on the campus. The fifty foot street will provide additional parking facilities for students and faculty. Landscaping will be in harmony with the Memorial mall The area inside the mail has already been brought to drain, and the development of grass was given attention this summer. Water mains have also been installed. Work on Pool Begins.

Concrete for the new university swimming pool will be poured next week and the pool is expected to be open about Nov. 15. Walks in front of the Memorial stadium have been given by the Memorial association and are now will also have room for the seed laboratory and possibly additional room for the department of husnurses home will accomodate 150 Tryouts for Nebraska Team (Continued on Page 4.)

MORE NEW STUDENTS,

280 Fewer Students Return Than Last Year, Says L. E. Gunderson.

NO FINAL FIGURES YET

Although there has been a decrease of 280 students returning to school as compared with last year's. An increase in new stu-dents is counted on to take care

One factor that tends to give oredence to the supposition that there will be fewer students en-rolled this year was the very rapid registration that took place last

It is expected that registration Fraternities Entertain for in the college of medicine Friday and Saturday and registration in the graduate college early next week will bring the grand total to something between six and seven thousand, the ordinary enrolln figure.

No new registration figures were available from Mr. Gunderson's office last night.

Program for Students Few conflicts or violations of the rules were reported this year. to Be Held. Rushees were prompt in the filing of dates. The rushing season offi-cially closed Tuesday night. Fraternities were allowed pledge pins

Plymouth Congregational church carillon bells, which are dedicated to the late Carrie B. Raymond, former teacher in the university school of music, will be played for the students of the university in the near future. Rev. Ben Wyland,

June with a special concert played by Anton Brees, famed bell mas-ter of the Bok tower at Lake Wales, Fla., in the new $500,000 church constructed at Twentieth and D streets.

The church was designed by Architect Lorando Taff to delivered the baccalaures address here last June. The tower contains forty-eight imported bells and is one of the finest in America. and D streets.

Nebraskan Canvasses Pebraskan Canpasses

Faculty in Campaign
Dally Nebraskan representatives will call upon all professors during the next weak to secure their subscriptions. We sincerely appreciate your heavity cooperation in past and trust we may depend upon you this year. As before the subscription price is $2 ELWOOD II. THOMPSON.

An appropriation of $75.000 was made to rebuild the new judging pavilion on the Ag campus. This building will be fireproof and Plans for the nurses home at Omaha are in the process of drafting and soon after plans are received contracts will be let. Plans for the new heating plant have already been received and contracts will be let in a short time. The

Plans are already under way for BUT FEWER RETURN

year, Finance Secretary L. E. Gunderson expects a total enrollment that will measure up to last of te drop in number of old students.

The number of rushees enter-tained by fraternities during rush week far exceed the record set last year, according to information received at the office of Prof. E. F.

> BELL CONCERT ANNOUNCED Plymouth Carillion Tower

A special concert of the First pastor, announced yesterday.

The bells were dedicated last