

B TEAM DOWNS PERU, 13 TO 7

Lehman's Nubbins Win from State Normal School Under Lights in Nebraska's First Taste of Night Game; Plunges, Passes Effective.

ROUGH, ROBY CROSS FOR NEBRASKA SCORES

Former Lincoln High Star Points Early After Series Tosses, Drives Place Ball On 5-Yard Line; Nelson Boy Marks On Long Run.

PERU.—With Bob Rough, Lincoln; John Roby, Nelson; and Carlyle Staab, Ansley, supplying the scoring punch, Nebraska's "B" team passed and plunged its way to a 13 to 7 victory over Peru Normal here Saturday night.

Rough went over for Nebraska in the first twelve minutes of play after a series of plunges and forward tosses had advanced the ball to the Peru 5-yard line. Staab placekicked the extra point to give the Huskers a 7-0 lead.

Sautter tallied for Peru in the second quarter from the 8-yard line. He also contributed the extra point with a placekick. After Sautter's touchdown, the scoring was ended until the final period when Roby swept around end for forty yards and Nebraska's second counter. Staab's attempted kick was blocked.

The game ended with Nebraska camped on the Peru 13-yard line headed for another touchdown. Every member of the "B" team got into the fray while Peru substituted twice.

Rough, Staab and Roby were outstanding in the backfield for lection a large litter of 'possum, contributed by A. V. Schoenthal. Dr. W. E. Walton, who is in charge of the animals, does not find them very tractable as psychological subjects. He may attempt, however, by way of "conditioning" new responses, to break them of "playing 'possum" and to substitute for this old instinctive reaction a new method of defense.

INDIANS DEFEAT K. U. 6 TO 0 FRIDAY NIGHT

Johnson, Haskell Fullback, Too Much For Big Six Champion Team.

LINE DRIVES GO ACROSS

The Kansas Jayhawks championship Big Six team, tasted defeat at the hands of the Haskell Indians in Lawrence Friday night. Johnson, big Indian fullback dove through the Kansas line for the lone counter in the third period of the game.

The Indians held the advantage all through the game and although the first half went scoreless, they made twice as much yardage as the Kansans and completed eight first downs to the Jayhawks two.

In the second half of the game was entirely in favor of Haskell. Kansas fumbled twice on their own 11-yard line but recovered; they punted to Weller, who returned to the 32-yard line. Then a pass, Johnson to Edre out the ball on the Kansas 12-yard line. The Indian fullback then put the ball over in four straight plunges thru the line. Weller's try for extra point was blocked.

Kansas Threatens Once. Kansas threatened the Indians only twice, once when the only completed Kansas pass netted twenty yards and another time when Schaake, Jayhawk back cut thru tackle for thirty-two yards.

Haskell made thirteen first downs to the Jayhawks four and gained 233 yards against Kansas 103 yards.
