

Huskers Complete Preparation for K. U.

BIBLE PUTS MEN THRU LAST DRILL

Nebraska Mentor Stresses Passing Game as Gridsters Sent Thru Final Workout Before Second Big Six Game in Stadium Saturday.

TWO INEUPS SCRIMMAGE AGAINST FRESHMEN

K. U. Will Arrive in Lincoln This Mornina and Take Short Workout in Stadium; Students, Band And Fans Will Detrain Tomorrow.

BY MURLIN SPENCER
Coach Dana X. Bible sent the Cornhuskers through a long passing drill Thursday afternoon as the last step in the preparation for the Homecoming game Saturday with the University of Kansas. Two teams were used in dummy scrimmage against the freshmen in an attempt to perfect a passing offense to be used against the Jayhawkers.

Going up against one of the heaviest lines in the conference, the Huskers may be forced to take to the air, and if that is necessary Coach Bible will have his men prepared. The first eleven to be used against the freshmen last night consisted of Ely, center; Justice and Koster, guards; Rhea and Gilbert, tackles; Duricee and Joy, ends; with Sauer, Bauer, Masterson and Kreizinger in the backfield. This is the team that seems likely to get the call to start against the Jayhawkers. With Sauer and Masterson passing, this team had more than ordinary success with their passes.

Second Lineup.
The second team was made up of McPherson, center; Adam and DeBus, guards; O'Brien and Schmitt, tackles; Nesmith and Kilbourne, ends; with a backfield composed of Paul, Penny, Staab and Brown with Roby alternating with Paul in the backfield. This second eleven had difficulty in making their pass plays click.

Part of the afternoon was spent in a pass defense drill in case the Jayhawkers abandon their running plays for a passing attack. Every man in the squad is in good shape for the contest this week. With two weeks to prepare, the Huskers have been going great guns in their practices and are in the best shape they have been all season.

Vet Line May Start.
The line which will see the most action, composed of Ely, at center; George Koster, game captain, and Justice, guards; Rhea and Gilbert, tackles; with Joy and Duricee at ends, will have their hands full against their heavier opponents. Joy will be given his big chance to make the grade, his ability as a pass receiver aiding in his selection for one of the wing positions. The sophomore backfield, with the exception of Kreizinger, will probably again be given the call, but it is certain that the other set of backs will be given a chance. The work of Roby in kicking the past three weeks will undoubtedly be in his favor if the game should develop into a kicking duel. The Kansas Jayhawkers will arrive in Lincoln Friday morning and will take a short workout in Memorial stadium that afternoon. They will be followed Saturday by a special train which will carry be another. However, since final arrangements had not been completed, he would not designate the name of the third speaker. Following the scheduled talks at the stadium, all members of the coaching staff will be introduced. At the time of introduction a short description of the work done by each respective man will be made.

form to be constructed at the south end of the floor. Bands Alternate Play. Tomorrow's band will open the dance. The two orchestras will then alternate during the early part of the evening. Just before intermission Beck's orchestra will play while the Morrow troupe is preparing for its stage show. In addition to the streamers over the dance floor, the stage and platform for Beck's orchestra at the south end of the floor will be decorated. Stage decorations will emphasize the Nebraska and K. U. colors. The decoration committee is headed by Delphin Nash and George Thomas, members of the Barb council which has charge of the coliseum, having charge of the monthly all-university parties, staged there throughout the year. Party is innovation. The party, which is an innovation sponsored by the Innocents society which has charge of campus arrangements for Homecoming. The committee in charge is headed by Art Wolf, general chairman of Homecoming. The plan has had enthusiastic support from the faculty and promises to become a traditional part of future Homecomings on the Nebraska campus. Shortly after the plan was announced, Pan-hellenic and Barb councils acted to close the nights to all other parties, pledging entire co-operation of their groups with the Innocents in making the party a success.

STAGE SET FOR LARGEST RALLY OF YEAR TONITE

As the present day line coach and former captain of the Cornhusker gridmen, Bill Day will elaborate in his talk of the spirit necessary to football success. Bill, who captained the varsity in 1929 and whose play at center was one of the most outstanding of the Nebraska line of his day, undoubtedly knows better than any other man here the powers of the Jayhawk machine, for he has seen Kansas play twice this year. Another Speaker Probable. In addition to these two prominent figures, it was intimated by Art Mitchell that there might also

VETERAN TACKLE IS OUT

Jayhawkers Have Won Only 9 Out of 37 Contests With Huskers.

LAWRENCE, Kas., Oct. 21.—Chances for Kansas to register a win over Nebraska at Lincoln this Saturday were given a boost when three members of the injured list, Carnie Smith, quarter, Clarence Spangler, tackle, and Jewell Campbell, end, reported for practice Wednesday afternoon. With these men back in suit, practice went on with increased vigor. Earl Foy, veteran right tackle, failed to suit up due to injuries received in the Kansas Aggie game last Saturday, and it is doubtful if he will be in shape to see action this week. Saturday's defeat at the hands of the Aggies has not dampened the Jayhawkers' spirit. With Kansas improving their formations and recuperating from the
