By Military Forces
November 13.

Members of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military organization which has been placed in official charge of ticket sales for the military ball, are inaugurating a wholly new plan of canvassing the student body and residents of Lincoln in an effort to wage an effective concerted sales campaign. Captain Sperry is acting as advisor to the organization in charge.

To sell enough tickets before the night of the twenty-third annual ball, Scabbard and Blade is presenting a dual plan entirely new to the university. On Friday, the thirteenth of this month, the first "Campus day" will be held. Every student of the university registered in military science will be required to turn out in uniform. This request applies to basic students as it does to advanced men. The greeting of these men to every one they meet will be, "Have you purchased your ticket to the military ball?" Every student in uniform will solicit all members of various classes and anyone outside of classes that he knows or cares to address.

Spoerry Makes Provisions.
Captain Sperry has made further provisions for an elaborate and effective campaign. He has divided the city of Lincoln into fifteen districts. Each of these districts will be covered thoroly by the representative companies of the entire regiment which have already been assigned. All of the

KOSMET SELECTS KING FOR COURT OF ANNUAL REVUE

Frank Roehl, Lincoln, Will Take Throne; Is Active
In Music Circles.

SHOW SITE ENGAGED

Auditorium of Lincoln High School Secured for Saturday.

Frank E. Roehl, Alpha Tau Omega, will preside as the king of the Kosmet court according to an announcement made yesterday by the Kosmet Club. This year's king is a baritone and is at present a member of the First Plymouth Congregational choir. He has also sung in the Great Cathedral choir, has had experience in operatic work at Lincoln high school and in university music work. Lucille Corrothers, last year's queen, will be this year's lady of the court due to the resignation of Audrey Gregory.

The Magee trophy, which will be awarded to the winning act in the revue, is on display this week at Long's college bookstore and is engraved except for the name of the winning group. The cup will remain on display until the morning of the revue when it will be taken to the Lincoln high school auditorium where it will be presented to the group which gives the best act of the show.

At High School.

The revue will be held in the Lincoln high school auditorium, 22nd and J sts., instead of in the Stuart theater where it was held last year. The disagreement between the Lincoln Theater corporation and union labor made the use of the Stuart impossible.

The high school auditorium will accommodate only 1,200 people but every seat is a good one according to the Kosmet Club, due to the sloping floor and because there are no obstructions.

There will be no reserved seats on sale and it will be a question of first come first served. A check up of the salesmen revealed that the seats are selling rapidly and that those desiring seats had best obtain them immediately before the supply is gone.

The idea of the awarding of a cup was instigated this year and the trophy is to be donated by Magee's to the best of the twelve acts presented during the program. The winner of the prize will retain the honor until the ensuing year when it will be given to the winner of that year's competition.

LAWS PLAN ANNUAL SMOKER FOR FROSH

Welcome Fete Set for Nov.
11; Newly Organized
Band Will Play.

Law college seniors will sponsor the annual all Law smoker as an official welcome to the law college freshmen on Thursday, Nov. 12. As yet no place has been decided on to hold the affair, but it will be held somewhere off the campus since it is against university regulations to hold smokers on the campus.

The smoker and the annual Law barbecue during roundup week in the spring, are the two big social events of the year for the law college. The program for the affair will be different from the ordinary program, according to Glenn McKinney, senior law class president, who is in charge of the smoker. As a special feature, a newly organized eleven piece orchestra composed entirely of law students will make its debut.

A number of guests will be invited to the smoker including local attorneys, judges and graduates of the college. McKinney is hoping to have several of these smokers during the year.

The orchestra which is practicing at intervals in preparation for its first appearance is composed of Fred Gee and Arthur Bailey, trumpets; Joe Alter, trombone; Brainard Rofson, Lowell Boomer, and Lester Hungerford, saxophones; Charles McCarl, violin, Maynard Groshans, piano; Bob Baker, banjo; Keith Schroeder, drums, and Lester Seltzert, sousaphone. George C. Reinmiller is directing the orchestra.

Tickets for the annual Dad's Day luncheon Saturday go on sale today, according to announcement yesterday by Coburn Tomson, in charge of the affair for the Innocents society. Pasteboards are being sold for fifty cents by Interfraternity and Panhellenic council delegates.

The noon luncheon at the Cornhusker Saturday is the feature of this year's program honoring students' dads. Wally Marrow's orchestra, under the direction of Jimmie Douglas, has been secured to play for the occasion, Tomson said.

The luncheon is scheduled to start at 12 o'clock, and will not last for more than an hour, so there will be plenty of time to get to the Iowa-Nebraska game in the afternoon, he said.

Speakers who have been secured for the occasion were announced yesterday. They are: Chancellor Edgar A. Burnett, John H. Agee, president of the Lincoln chamber of commerce; Robert Joyce and Walter Devereaux to Preside.

Richard Devereaux, president of the Innocents society is slated to act as toastmaster.

The Dad's Day tradition was started in 1922, when the Innocents sponsored the first program in honor of the fathers of university students. The program this year however, according to the chairman for the affair, contrary

HONOR CORNHUSKERS AT COMMERCE LUNCH

Bible and Team Guests of Junior Chamber
Tuesday.

MAY ACCOMPANY TEAM

The Cornhusker football team and Coach Bible were the guests of the junior division of the chamber of commerce at a luncheon Tuesday noon. Walter Kirkbride was the master of ceremonies and John Hollingsworth was the chairman of the program committee.

Coach Bible expressed his appreciation of the support given to the Nebraska football team by the citizens of the state. Members of the coaching staff along with assistants were introduced to those present and the football team was also introduced.

President Robert Van Pelt presided at the dinner and music was furnished by Leo Beck's orchestra. The possibility of the members of the junior division attending the Nebraska-Kansas Aggie football game Nov. 14 via of a special train was discussed and plans are to be under way soon to determine how many may be expected to make the trip. About 250 of the members of the junior division attended the luncheon which was held at the chamber of commerce building.

For some years of recent date it has been an annual custom of members of the junior division of the chamber of commerce to honor University of Nebraska Cornhusker football players with a luncheon or a banquet. The purpose of this is to indicate that the junior chamber is interested in university athletic activities and the progress of the team.

WORCESTER ENDS SERIES TALKS ON TEACHING MEANS

The third and concluding talk by Dr. Worcester before the engineering college faculty was held on Monday afternoon and dealt with the measurement of results of teaching. As there can be no teaching without learning and as learning is an active process, the only way of determining whether there has been teaching is by some sort of test to find out what the individual students know.

Such tests, however, may also be used to aid in the teaching process. Thus, quizzes may be used to determine the students' knowledge and ability as a basis for further teaching. Particular difficulties may be noted and these cleared up. The effects upon the student may also be beneficial, for by tests and recitations, the student finds out his own difficulties. Also, the expectation of being called upon is an incentive to learning.

The orchestra which is practising at intervals in preparation for its first appearance is composed of Fred Gee and Arthur Bailey, trumpets; Joe Alter, trombone; Brainard Rofson, Lowell Boomer, and Lester Hungerford, saxophones; Charles McCarl, violin, Maynard Groshans, piano; Bob Baker, banjo; Keith Schroeder, drums, and Lester Seltzert, sousaphone. George C. Reinmiller is directing the orchestra.

FRIDAY'S RALLY FEATURES DAVE NOBLE ADDRESS

Husker Halfback of Decade Ago Secured to Make Leading Speech.

PLAYED BRILLIANT GAME

Coaches Schulte, Day Tell Gridiron Exploits of 'Bif Moose.'

Dave Noble, famous Cornhusker halfback of 1921, '22, and '23, will be one of the chief speakers at the Dad's Day eve rally Friday night, it was announced Tuesday, by Arthur Mitchell.

Noble is largely remembered for his work against Notre Dame in 1922, the last game played on the old gridiron before the new stadium was finished.

In that game, Noble caught a pass while running at breakneck speed, jumped over one Notre Dame tackler, stiff-armed another, and raced 30 yards to the goal line for the winning touchdown. That run is still vivid in the minds of his team mates and others.

W. L. "Bill" Day, now Nebraska line coach, said yesterday, "I can see that play yet. Dave was running faster than I ever saw any man move in a football suit. Up in the air he went, never hesitating; he grabbed the ball, hit the ground with his feet, jumped over one Notre Dame tackler, stiff-armed another, and he was off. Boy, what a run."

Henry F. (Indian) Schulte, famous Nebraska track coach, recalled the run yesterday, saying, "It was the fastest running to catch a pass I ever saw, and how Dave ran after he caught it was really something to see."

Other stories of Noble's abilities abound. One of the most remembered is his exploit of kicking a ball so hard one day on a kickoff that all the air blew out and the ball went flat.

Noble will talk shortly after the rally starts at 7:30 Friday night at the stadium. He will share the flood-lighted platform with one or two other talkers. The program will especially feature a great number of songs and yells.

The rally will be preceded by a parade starting from the Temple at 7 o'clock. The parade will go up R street to Sixteenth, Sixteenth to Vine, and on Vine to the stadium.

DIRECTORY SELLING BEGINS NEXT WEEK

Editor Announces Opening
Of Drive After End of Yearbook Campaign.

The 1931 Student Directory will be put on sale the first part of next week as soon as the Cornhusker campaign is finished according to James Crabb, editor. At the present time the directory is in the hands of the printer, and printing will be finished by the end of this week.

All the student lists have been corrected and the fraternity and sorority affiliations added. The new members of the faculty have been added to the roll, and these who have left have been taken from the list.

The sale of advertising was better this year than last, according to William Comstock.

Such tests, however, may also be used to aid in the teaching process. Thus, quizzes may be used to determine the students' knowledge and ability as a basis for further teaching. Particular difficulties may be noted and these cleared up. The effects upon the student may also be beneficial, for by tests and recitations, the student finds out his own difficulties. Also, the expectation of being called upon is an incentive to learning.
