

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXI—NO. 36.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1931.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

WILL HONOR DADS TOMORROW

KLUB REVUE IN MORNING OPENS DAD DAY EVENTS

Kosmet Produces Show in Lincoln High School Auditorium.

TICKETS SELL RAPIDLY

Nebraska Sweetheart Will Be Presented as Final Climax.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock the curtain will rise on Kosmet Klub's annual morning revue which this year opens the Dad's day program by revealing the identity of the Nebraska Sweetheart in a grand finale after presentation of 11 skits by fraternity and sorority groups.

Full dress rehearsals of the show will be staged tonight at 6:30 in the Lincoln high school auditorium where the show is to be staged tomorrow morning.

Seats for the revue are almost sold out. Kosmet Klub officers say, and a large crowd is expected. The tickets may still be secured, however, by calling at the Klub rooms or seeing an officer of the organization.

Magee's Give Trophy.

The Magee trophy, to be presented to the best act on the program, will be awarded by Ray Ramsay and two other judges not yet determined. Judges will base their decision on the audience's applause.

As a grand finale to the program of the 11 skits, identity of the Nebraska Sweetheart, chosen by all male student vote Oct. 29, will be revealed and she will be presented as princess in the court of King Kosmet, portrayed by Frank E. Roehl. Lucille Carruthers will act as queen of the court.

Only three of the candidates who filed for the election last month are eligible to receive the honor since the Klub ruled the fourth nominee, Imogene Steinmeier, ineligible because she had too many credit hours.

Three Candidates.
The three candidates are Willa (Continued on Page 4.)

PERSHING RIFLES TO HONOR SERVICE FLAG

Military Company Will Fire Salute at Opening of Iowa Game.

TASSELS CARRY BANNER

Members of Pershing Rifles, honorary basic military fraternity, will fire a salute of three rounds in honor of the university service flag at the Iowa-Nebraska game Saturday afternoon. The ceremony will take place on the field of the stadium just before the game starts.

The entire company of Pershing Rifles will form the firing unit, according to J. E. McGeachen, captain of the company. The group will form at the south end of the field, march down to the north goal posts, and there split into two platoons on either side of the field.

Colonel Leads Parade.

The parade for the ceremony will consist of Cadet Colonel E. Albert Lucke, and his staff of field officers, who will lead the parade. The R. O. T. C. band will follow and form behind the Rifles while the salute is being fired. Members of Tassels, girls' pep organization will carry the service flag. The girls who will carry the flag will be selected Saturday noon, according to Julianne Deetkin, president of the organization.

The purpose of this ceremony, which has become an annual custom at the game just before Armistice Day, is to salute the university service flag, and to commemorate the students of the university who lost their lives in the last war. The flag bears a star for every student who was killed in the war.

Immediately after the salute has been fired, buglers in the band will sound taps. After the call, the Tassels will give the service flag to the colonel and his staff, who will carry it off of the field. When the ceremony is over, the band will march to its place in the stands, and the company of Pershing Rifles will march down the east and west tracks of the stadium.

Ramsay to Announce.

During the ceremony, Ray Ramsay, announcer at the game, will give a talk thru the loud-speaker system, explaining the meaning and custom of the event.

Members of Pershing Rifles are to meet at Nebraska hall at 1:15 Saturday afternoon to form for the ceremony, according to Captain McGeachen. All are to appear in full uniform with white shirts, he said.

QUEEN OF COURT.

LUCILLE CARRUTHERS.

Who returns to be queen of the court of King Kosmet in Kosmet Klub's morning revue at the Lincoln high auditorium tomorrow morning, Miss Carruthers was Nebraska Sweetheart two years ago and presided as queen of the court last year. She is replacing Audrey Gregory, resigned, in this year's show.

INGLIS PRINCIPLE SPEAKER TONIGHT AT FRIEND EVENT

University Faculty Hosts Foreign Students at Banquet.

EXPECT 200 ATTENDANCE

Patterson Is Toastmaster; Burnett, Cuneo Will Make Talks.

Rev. Ervine Inglis of the Vine Congregational church will give the principal address on "The Triple Threat of Neighborliness," at the fourth annual international friendship banquet to be given this evening at 6 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church at F and 17th sts.

The faculty members of the university will attend the dinner and have as their guests all foreign students in the university.

Dr. C. H. Patterson of the philosophy department will act as toastmaster for the occasion and introduce the foreign guests. Chancellor E. A. Burnett will extend official greetings from the University administration, and Mrs. Burnett will be on honored guest.

J. A. Cuneo of the economic department will give a short talk on his view of internationalism.

Orchestra to Play.

Dr. Dean R. Leland will give the invocation, and Rev. L. W. McMillin, the benediction at the close of the dinner. The First Baptist church student orchestra will furnish musical selections during the dinner, and Aileen Neely will lead group singing between courses.

Two hundred persons are expected to attend the affair. Flags of all of the nations represented by foreign guests, and fall flowers will form the table decorations.

FOUR CARD STUNTS PLANNED FOR GAME

Three Successive Changes Will Produce 'Fight Nebraska Fight.'

Four stunts have been arranged by the student cheering section for the Iowa-Nebraska game next Saturday according to Marvin Von Seggern, member of the Innocents society in charge.

Along with the usual colored card stunts presented every game, a new combination is to be tried out for the first time. Fight-Nebraska-Fight will be flashed on a colored background, each word immediately following the other. This is a variation from the usual stunts presented in that the three changes are dependent on each other.

The stunts will be given immediately before the tug-of-war which is to take place between halves. The gold and black of Iowa will afford an unusual contrast with the scarlet and cream of Nebraska.

Rifles Form at 1:15 For Salute Saturday

Members of Pershing Rifles are to meet in Nebraska Hall at 1:15 Saturday afternoon to form for the salute. All members and pledges are to appear in full uniform with white shirts.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR PEP SHOW IN STADIUM TONIGHT

Spirit Demonstration Opens With March to Field At 7 O'clock.

CONDRA, NOBLE SPEAK

Well Known Husker Faculty Man and Former Grid Star to Talk.

Nebraska pep will find an outlet tonight in the Stadium when students will gather for a spirit convulse before the Iowa-Nebraska game Saturday.

"Yells and songs will be featured at the meeting," according to rally chairman Art Mitchell, "and a whole-hearted attempt made to stimulate group singing—one of the biggest aids in rousing spirit."

Dr. George E. Condra, campus authority on traditions and one of the oldest members of the faculty in point of service, and Dave Noble, Nebraska backfield star of 1921-3 have been secured to speak before the group in the stadium tonight. There is a possibility that Coach Ingwersen of Iowa may also speak, Mitchell indicated.

Dr. Condra is known as an outstanding speaker throughout the state, Mitchell declared, and Noble is famous for his shining performances of the grid teams of former years.

Ramps Are Lighted.
Lighting fixtures have been installed in two ramps of the stadium to afford entrance and exit, and a lighted speakers' stand will face the east stadium from the track.

Preceding the rally proper at the stadium, a parade of pepsters led by the band and Corn Cobs and Tassels, men's and women's pep groups will start from the Temple at 7 o'clock.

Line of march for the parade, as outlined by Mitchell, will be east on R to Sixteenth, north on Sixteenth to Vine, and west on Vine to the stadium.

Dads Invited.
Special invitation is made to (Continued on Page 3.)

DELEGATES COMING TO CONCLAVE HERE

Colleges Respond to Call For Disarmament Conference.

COPIES WORLD MEETING

College delegates from all parts of Nebraska have responded to the call of the state-wide student disarmament conference to be held in Ellen Smith hall Nov. 28 and 29. A model of the international conference to be held in Geneva, Switzerland, in February will be set up and carried out in detail.

The student committee on the local campus has received invitations from other nearby states to attend similar conferences being planned in those states. Chancellor E. A. Burnett received a letter yesterday from Philip C. King, president of Washburn college at Topeka, Kas., where a meeting is being planned, signifying an invitation to that conference.

Mr. King said "I am greatly interested in the student conference on disarmament planned for Dec. 4 and 5, and am very happy to add my personal word to the invitation already sent out in the name of the student groups of Washburn college.

Says Subject Timely.
"The subject is most timely and of such national and international concern that college men and women can hardly escape the challenge to be intelligent about it."

"Moreover, there is just now a real interest in world affairs on the part of the American college student. Timeliness, natural student interest, and the assurance that the program will present all points of view on the disarmament question, seem to make it certain that the conference will be a lively and stimulating one. Washburn will do its best to make the stay of visiting delegates comfortable and happy."

Louise Davis and Waldo McNutt are chairman of the Washburn conference, which will be similar to that of Nebraska.

K. U. in Field With New Dance Sorority

The University of Kansas, is now one up on Nebraska in the field of sororities.

One very new and distinctive—a dance sorority—has just been founded. Its purpose is to hold dancing sessions before every football game and any other time deemed proper by its members. It is to teach "eds and co-eds to dance."

PROGRAM OF SATURDAY'S EVENTS.

9 a. m. Kosmet Show, with 11 acts by student groups, Ray Ramsay as master of ceremonies, Lucille Carruthers, queen, and Frank Roehl, king.

12 noon Dad's Day luncheon at Chamber of Commerce, with four speakers and Wally Marrow's orchestra.

1 p. m. March en masse to game; R. O. T. C. band march through downtown district before game.

2 p. m. Football game—Nebraska vs. Iowa University. Between halves—card stunt section; Frosh-Soph tug-of-war.

6 p. m. Special dinners at fraternity and sorority houses to honor dads.

BURNETT ORDERS MILITARY PARADE FOR WEDNESDAY

R. O. T. C. Cadets To March With Lincoln Units Armistice Day.

CLASSES ARE DISMISSED

Thompson Reports School Suspended During Afternoon.

Thru the military department, Chancellor E. A. Burnett yesterday issued an order for the university R. O. T. C. unit to parade in the Armistice day celebration Wednesday, Nov. 11. More than forty units will take part in the parade.

No afternoon classes will be held on Wednesday, according to statement from T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs. All classes will be dismissed at 12 o'clock. All cadets who expect to be excused from the parade must file an excuse by noon Wednesday, the military department announced.

The regiment will form in a line of battalions in line of close columns facing south on the north road of the old parade ground. From there the unit will march to 15th and P streets to join the main parade, which is to start at 15th and O.

First Call at 1.
First call will be sounded at 1 o'clock, assembly at 1:10 and regimental adjutant's call will be sounded at 1:15. Guidon bearers will be present in their company area at the first call with the guidon. All cadets are to be in full uniform, and the field officers and staffs will be mounted.

The order of march for the university unit will be as follows: regimental headquarters staff, university, university service flag, band number one, provisional battalion, consisting of the headquarters company and Pershing Rifles, the first battalion under the command of Cadet Major Claude Gillespie, second battalion staff, band number two, second battalion under the command of Cadet Major Otis Detrick, third battalion staff, band number three, and the third battalion under Cadet Major Frank Denton.

The R. O. T. C. band will be split up into three separate units. One unit will be under the command of Emory Peterson, present drum major. Norman Hoff, a senior in the band, will have charge of another unit, and the third division will be led by Ray McCormack, captain of the band a few years ago.

Line of March Routed.
The route of the parade is as follows: Formation on 15th street between N and P streets, down O street to 9th, north on 9th to P, east on P to 14th street. The university unit at this place will leave the main parade and march to the coliseum.

Immediately after the R. O. T. C. unit and band leaves the parade, it will march down 14th street north, and will reform on the athletic field in Memorial stadium where a parade rally and review will be held to honor the football coaches and the squad. Details of this review will be announced later.

Arrangements for the entire observance are in the hands of L. E. Gunderson, commander of Lincoln Post American Legion; Trev E. Gillaspie, general chairman; Walton E. Roberts, parade chairman, and attending committees.

The Armistice day parade will be divided into four divisions. Colonel P. H. Bartholomew will be the aide of the first division. (Continued on page four.)

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Friday.
Methodist Student Council meeting at 12 o'clock in the Temple.

International Friendship banquet at 6 o'clock at First Presbyterian church.

Y. W. C. A. Luncheon reports due at noon at Ellen Smith hall.

Newman club, 1235 R. S. o'clock. Engineering Executive board, A. M. 207, 5 o'clock.

GRIL RESERVES REGISTER

Miss Olson Conducts Annual Course for Student Executives.

Registration for the Girl Reserve leadership training course will continue throughout this week until Tuesday, Nov. 10. Girls interested can sign cards and get further information in the "Y" office in Ellen Smith hall.

Miss Violet Ann Olson, Lincoln Girl Reserve executive, conducts this course annually, classes meeting weekly over a period of eight weeks. The course offered now is the one usually given in the spring. It will not be given again in the spring.

To those completing the course a Girl Reserve certificate is awarded, authorizing them to organize Girl Reserve groups. The first meeting of the class was held Tuesday, Nov. 2. Next Tuesday's meeting will mark the end of the registration period.

DETTRICK URGES ALL PICTURES BE TAKEN

Cornhusker Editor Warns No Moving Up Deadlines This Year.

CLASS SECTIONS FIRST
"If students want a good Cornhusker, one free of mistakes, they will have to help us by not causing delay by failure to have their pictures taken," Otis Detrick, editor of the annual stated yesterday.

"When the staff is forced to wait for late pictures, all work must be suspended, discounts are lost, and hurried, flustered work is the result."

The staff this year, however, according to Detrick, intends to mitigate a large amount of this hurry by setting only one picture deadline, which will be final.

"If students wait too long," the editor warned, "they may not even be able to get their pictures in at all. There will be absolutely no extension of the deadline this year, and if sittings are not arranged immediately, there will not be sufficient time for all students who have not yet had their pictures taken to do so before the last opportunity is passed."

Wait on Class Sections.
The Cornhusker chief of staff explained that everything must wait on the junior and senior and fraternity and sorority sections, and that rush and hurry from delays in these sections makes accuracy next to impossible.

Complaints of errors in the annual. (Continued on Page 4.)

BAPTIST STUDENTS STUDY DISARMAMENT

University Class Will Hear Hill on Subject at Sunday Meeting.

The second of a series of three talks on "Disarmament" will be given Sunday at noon in university class, First Baptist church, 14th and K street, Dr. Norman Hill of the department of political science, will be the speaker. Miss Virginia Larson will lead a short devotional service preceding the talk in which the theme of Armistice day will be presented.

This discussion is a part of a program for the study of world problems which has been planned for this semester by the class. All university students are invited to attend.

At 8 o'clock the Sunday evening social hour will be held following at 6:30 by the regular B. Y. P. U. service. "An Analogy of Life" will be the subject of a talk by Glenn Melson, an engineering student, in which he will compare life with a problem in hydraulics. The Baptist student orchestra will play.

WILL DISCUSS MANCHURIA

Discussion of the present Sino-Japanese controversy in Manchuria is planned for the first open meeting of the Cosmopolitan club Friday, Nov. 13 at 8:30 in the Temple, room 203. Native students from the two countries will discuss the situation from the point of view of their home lands.

HUSKERS READY FOR HAWKEYES

Twenty-First Nebraska-Iowa University Grid Battle Headlines Entertainment Program Planned For Visiting Fathers Saturday.

Annual Dad's Day Luncheon Scheduled at Chamber of Commerce.

TUG OF WAR AT HALF Frosh-Sophomore Contest Will Decide Fate of Scarlet Caps.

The twenty-first Husker-Hawkeye grid battle in Memorial stadium tomorrow afternoon headlines the program planned for the entertainment of Nebraska fathers visiting the university for the annual Dad's day this week end.

Dads will be guests at a special luncheon at the commercial club Saturday noon. From there they will march en masse to the stadium for the game. Sandwiched between halves of the game will be a fight to the finish tug of war between freshman and sophomore teams, the outcome to determine whether or not the frosh may discard their scarlet caps.

Innocents, sponsors of the annual Dad's day since its inception in 1922, have arranged a full schedule of activities for the day, beginning with the Kosmet Klub morning revue at 9 o'clock and carrying thru to special dinners planned by fraternities and sororities to honor the visiting fathers in the evening.

Fearing staleness in the Cornhusker ranks, Coach Dana X. Bible has eased up in this week's workouts in preparation for Saturday's clash with the Iowa Hawkeyes.

Huskies Doped to Win.
Altho the dopsters have given the Huskers an edge in this year's tilt, Bible and his men are not disposed to take the game lightly, for they do not wish a repetition of last year's game, when Iowa turned back Nebraska by a 12 to 7 score.

It is expected Bible will start with practically the same lineup that opened the game against Missouri last Saturday.

The probable lineups are:

Iowa—(172)	Nebraska—(176) Joe J. Foster (212)
Allen (190)	Rosen (122)
Dolly (192)	Roster (190)
Hastemann (193)	Justice (186)
Della Vedova (185)	Gilbert (188)
Swaney (183)	Durkee (174)
Turris (183)	Bauer (185)
Hickman (175)	Kretzinger (180)
Nebraska (184)	Masterman (180)
Average weight of team: Iowa, 184.1; Nebraska, 181.5.	Average weight of backs: Iowa, 176; Nebraska, 176.
Officials: Referee, F. R. Birch; Endlinesman,	Judges, Dartmouth; Field Judge, See Taylor; Wichita; headlinesman,
B. E. Quigley of St.	Nebraska must stop Randall Hickman, star Iowa back who was largely responsible for the Husker defeat last year at Iowa City. Another speedster for the Iowans is Captain Sansen, and the Iowa cohorts are basing their claims to victory on the work of these two men.

Weights Are Even.
The Iowans will outweight the Huskers by one-fourth of a pound per man, both teams averaging 184 pounds.

Hopes were raised high in the Iowa camp by virtue of the 7 to 0 victory scored at the expense of George Washington university last week. Minus their usual number of injuries, Iowa will battle the Huskers with a strong eleven in attempting to regain some of their lost prestige in early season games.

Captain Sansen is expected by the Iowans to do his share in finding the holes in the line, while Dandahl and Hickman must run the ends. It was Sansen who last Saturday smashed the line for 118 yards. It is predicted that Hawkeyes, if their running attack fails against such men as Theo. Koster, B. E. Quigley, may resort to an aerial attack.

Two Quarterbacks Out.
The number of Nebraska quarterbacks, five regulars, has been cut down to three due to injuries and illness. Louis Brown and Chris Mathis will both be out of the running for Saturday's tilt. Mathis will be kept on the sidelines because of an infection in his neck, and Brown was stricken with a sudden attack of appendicitis just before Wednesday's practice. He may be forced to submit to an operation and, if so, it may cost him the rest of the season.

Nebraska's hopes of victory Saturday are flying high and they believe that they will avenge their defeat by Iowa last year. Like the Huskers, however, the Iowa camp is indicative of success. Their captain Sansen is expected by the Iowans to do his share in finding the holes in the line, while Dandahl and Hickman must run the ends. It was Sansen who last Saturday smashed the line for 118 yards. It is predicted that Hawkeyes, if their running attack fails against such men as Theo. Koster, B. E. Quigley, may resort to an aerial attack.

Two Quarterbacks Out.
The number of Nebraska quarterbacks, five regulars, has been cut down to three due to injuries and illness. Louis Brown and Chris Mathis will both be out of the running for Saturday's tilt. Mathis will be kept on the sidelines because of an infection in his neck, and Brown was stricken with a sudden attack of appendicitis just before Wednesday's practice. He may be forced to submit to an operation and, if so, it may cost him the rest of the season.

Nebraska's hopes of victory Saturday are flying high and they believe that they will avenge their defeat by Iowa last year. Like the Huskers, however, the Iowa camp is indicative of success. Their captain Sansen is expected by the Iowans to do his share in finding the holes in the line, while Dandahl and Hickman must run the ends. It was Sansen who last Saturday smashed the line for 118 yards. It is predicted that Hawkeyes, if their running attack fails against such men as Theo. Koster, B. E. Quigley, may resort to an aerial attack.

Cobs Meet at Temple
At 7 o'clock tonight
All Corn Cobs are requested to meet in front of the Temple at 7 o'clock tonight with the band and Tassels to lead the line of march in rally in a round-about way to the stadium, where the main rally will take place.

GAME CAPTAIN.

MARVIN PAUL.

Who will lead Nebraska's Cornhuskers against the University of Iowa Hawkeyes in Memorial stadium Saturday afternoon. Paul is a fleshy back from Fremont, playing his last year with the Bible crew.

Hopes were raised upon their 7 to 0 victory over George Washington university last week.

Starting slowly, the Hawkeyes have been coming along fast and will be prepared to shoot the works against the Scarlet and Cream. This is the twenty-first game played between the two schools in forty years. Nebraska has won ten, Iowa seven, and three were ties. Iowa was victorious in 1918, 1919 and 1930.

Luncheon Planned for Noon.

Preceding the game will be the annual Dad's day luncheon at the chamber of commerce dining room. Plans for the event have been completed, and an interesting and informal program had been arranged, according to Coburn Thomson, who is in charge of the Dad's day festivities for the Innocents society.

Tickets were placed on sale Wednesday, and the sale is progressing satisfactorily, Thomson said. The price of the luncheon is fifty cents. Chancellor E. A. Burnett and Dr. T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs have announced that they were well satisfied with the plans for the day.

A full day for the visiting dads has been planned by the Innocents. The morning entertainment includes Kosmet Klub annual morning revue to be held in the auditorium of Lincoln high school. At noon the lunch at the chamber of commerce, and the football game in the afternoon complete the program for the day.

Davevaux Is Toastmaster.
Dick Davevaux, president of the Innocents, will be toastmaster at the lunch. The following program has been arranged for that event: Chancellor E. A. Burnett will extend the welcome of the university to the guests, John Agge, president of the Lincoln chamber of commerce, and general manager of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company, will welcome the dads and sons to the club.

Walter Kirkbride, executive of Roberts Dairy, will speak from the student's point of view, and Robert Joyce, Lincoln business man, will speak for the dads. Dr. Condra, director of the conservation and survey department of the university, will give a short talk on the Innocents society and summarize the day's events.

During the luncheon, Wally Marrow's band will entertain the guests. The orchestra will play from 12 o'clock to 12:30. At 12:30 the regular program will start.

Chancellor Invites Dads
Chancellor Burnett issued the following statement: "I wish to extend a welcome to all of the fathers and mothers who have sons or daughters registered in the university. They wish to show you the campus and the places where they live and work. They want to show you something about their student life and introduce you to their friends. The students of this university are proud of you and they want to show you a good time. Their invitations were sent in all sincerity."

A parade from the hotel to the stadium will take place after the luncheon is over. Special arrangements have been made by John K. Selleck, student activities chairman, so that students may exchange their tickets in the cheering section for seats in the other parts of the stands. This will enable whole families to sit together.

Members of Mortar Board, women's senior honorary society, at a meeting yesterday noon pledged their support to the affair by deciding that each member should bring her own father and one other guest, selling three tickets altogether.

Began in 1922.
The custom of an annual Dad's day with all of the accompanying celebrations was started by the Innocents society in 1922. This year the society issued an invitation to all fathers and families of university students to attend the festivities.

The student cheering section (Continued on Page 3.)