

Be Prepared To Do Your Share in Helping the Cornhuskers Take the Title

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXI—NO. 39.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1931

PRICE FIVE CENTS

CAMPUS OBSERVES ARMISTICE

ONLY 500 SEATS TO KAGGIE TILT REMAIN UNSOLD

Student Activities Office Says Ticket Demands Are Very Heavy.

TWO SPECIALS TO RUN

Citizens' and Students' Trains Scheduled to Make Trip.

Only about 500 tickets of the original block of 1,500 seats reserved for Nebraska rooters in the Kansas Aggie stadium remain to be sold, the student activities office reported yesterday. "In case the remaining tickets do not supply the demand, more may be sent to Lincoln, but they will probably not be in the Nebraska section," according to John K. Selleck, student activities manager.

Tickets are being sold to Lincoln citizens as well as students. A citizens' special train will be run to Manhattan for the same rate, $2.75, as the student's exclusive special train. Round trip tickets on the student special are being handled by the students' activities office, while train tickets for the citizens' special are being sold at the Union Pacific ticket office.

Tickets sold include the reservations made by Rudge and Guenzel for the three fraternities and three sororities who won the first three places in the Rudge and Guenzel "On to Manhattan" contest. Tassels have also reserved a block of tickets. The Corn Cob organization has not yet reserved its block of seats but expects to take about 60 or 70 of the remaining 500 tickets, according to Marvin Schmid, president of the organization.

The band, which is making the trip with all eligible members, and the members of the nubbins football squad, will be admitted to the game but will not occupy any of the seats in the Nebraska section. Chairs will be reserved for them in front of the section.

Alumni Order Tickets.
A number of letters from Nebraska alumni in Kansas as well as Nebraska alumni in other states to the student activities office asking to have seats reserved in the Nebraska section.

Y. W. RECOGNIZES NEW MEMBERS AT SERVICE

Miss Miller Addresses Two Hundred Affiliates at Vespers.

USE CANDLE CEREMONY

Two tall white tapers shed soft light over a table heaped with white flowers and cast dull shadows thru the stately old parlors of Ellen Smith Hall as two hundred university girls were formally presented as members of the Y. W. C. A. in the annual recognition service held last evening.

Filing slowly through the long halls to the singing of "Follow the Gleam," the girls lighted tiny white candles from the flame of the large tapers on the table, symbolizing the lighting of the divine light in their hearts.

Together their voices rose in solemn declaration of the purpose of all Y. W. C. A. members. "We, the members of the Young Women's Christian Association of the University of Nebraska, unite in the desire to realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God. We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people. In this task we seek to understand Jesus and follow Him."

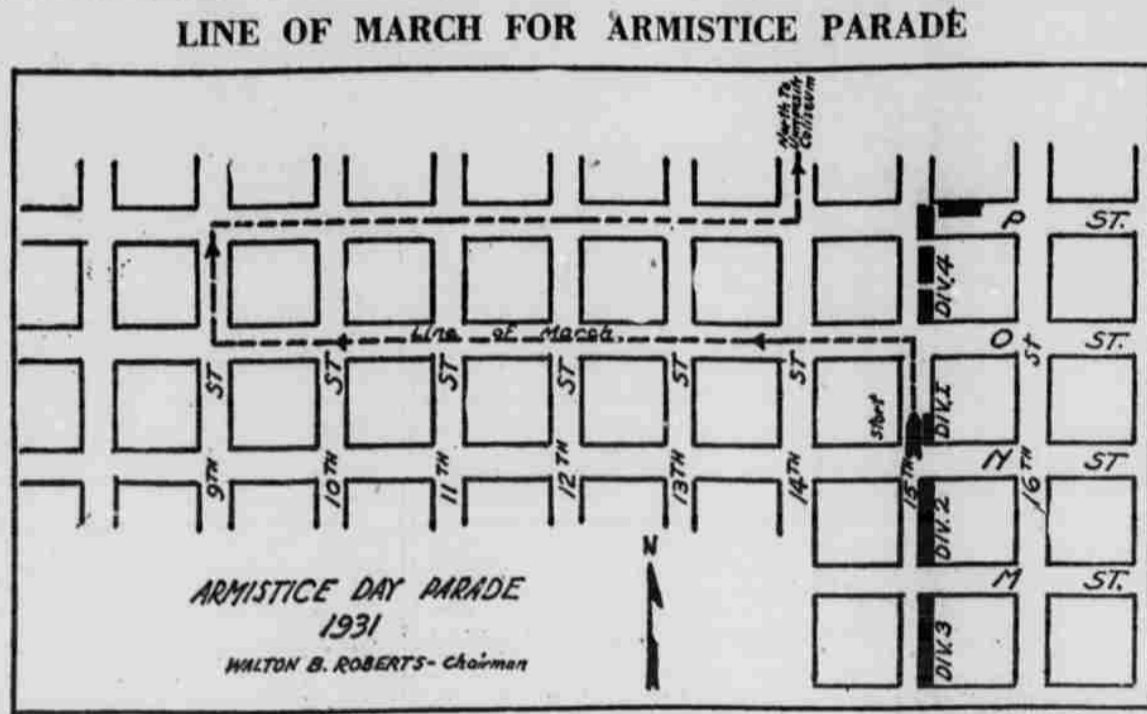

Speaking on "What is a Religious Life?" Miss Bernice Miller appealed to the girls to make true full and creative lives for themselves as they passed through college.

R. C. ROBERTS PAYS VISIT TO DR. CONDRA

R. C. Roberts, '26, formerly a member of the Nebraska soil survey and now with the United States bureau of chemistry and soils, visited the offices of the conservation and survey division last week. Mr. Roberts was en route to Porto Rico where he has been located for the past two winters.

Rouand Asks Soccer Aspirants to Report

All teachers college men interested in representing the college in intercollegiate soccer are to report to Charles Rowand at the Stuart tract on North 10th street at 4:30 this afternoon.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE SELECTS CANDIDATES DEC. 5

Group Will Pick Two Men For Further District Competition.

The Nebraska Rhodes Scholarship committee will meet Dec. 5 in Lincoln to select two candidates from Nebraska to appear before the district scholarship committee a few weeks later. It was announced last night by Paul Good, secretary of the Nebraska group on selection.

The two men who will represent this state in the district selection will be selected from the five university candidates chosen Oct. 16 by the university committee. The university candidates are Russell W. Bartels, Wayne, senior in law college; Walter Huber, Irvington, senior in law college; Gene Robb, '29, Lincoln; and Victor R. Seymour, Lincoln, graduate student.

The personnel of the Nebraska committee, as recently appointed, according to Good, is: J. E. Miller, chairman, Lincoln; Paul Good, secretary, Lincoln; L. E. Gunderson of the university; Robert B. Lash, Omaha; and Ralph Wilson, Omaha.

The two men selected Dec. 5 by the Nebraska committee along with ten candidates from five other mid-western states will appear before the regional committee in Des Moines. The date is not specifically set, but it will probably be some time in December, it was stated yesterday.

Bartels attended Wayne teachers college and received his A. B. degree from there in 1927. Robb was granted his A. B. degree from Nebraska in 1930. Altho he is not in school this year, he took graduate work last year. Victor Seymour received his A. B. degree from this university and has done graduate work for the past two years. Huber is attending the University of Omaha for two years, enrolled in the university here. He received his A. B. degree last year, and is now a student of law.

Pirie at Oxford.
John C. Pirie of Lincoln was named last year in the list of American Rhodes Scholars to enter Oxford University, England. He was the only Nebraska student to

BARB COUNCIL PLANS N. U. NOVELTY PARTY

Admission Open to Public; Marrow's Orchestra To Play.

Wally Marrow's dance orchestra will play for the All University party, sponsored by the Barb council in the Coliseum Saturday evening, and will present special entertainment features during the intermission. The party is the only social event scheduled for Saturday evening and was arranged particularly for students who do not attend the Nebraska-Kansas Aggie game at Manhattan Saturday, according to George Thomas, in charge of publicity for the party.

The party will be known as an N. U. motor party and the decorations will be in scarlet and cream. Large wide streamers are to be draped from balcony to balcony with a criss cross effect. In the center where the streamers intersect will be a large cutout scarlet and cream letters. The cardboard letters will be made more effective by the use of glitter. Colored lights will play on the dance floor during the evening.

WAR PLAY CALLED OFF

Presentation Hindered by Financial Trouble in Chicago.

Announcement yesterday from the office of Miss Alice Howell, head of the dramatics department, revealed that the play "Unknown Warrior" would not be presented in Lincoln due to financial difficulties on its westward tour. A telegram and telephone conversation with Maurice Browne yesterday indicated that the tour would be cut short after the performance in Chicago Nov. 13. Browne expressed the deepest of regrets at not being able to complete his contract.

Charles Hoff, business manager of the University Players, announced yesterday that refunds on tickets already sold would be made sometime Monday. The exact time and place will be announced soon, he stated.

TICKET CANVASS LEADER REFUTES PRICE CRITICISM

Spoerry Says Present Plan Makes $2 Fee Available To 2,000 Cadets.

"Reduction of the price of military ball tickets with the consequent additional reduction to $2 for cadets who wish to attend in uniform will allow over 2,000 students, or about a third of the student body to attend the first formal event of the season for a dollar less than the price last year," Capt. W. G. Spoerry, in charge of ticket sales, said yesterday in answer to student criticism of this year's price.

An article in the Morning Mail column of yesterday's Daily Nebraskan voiced dissatisfaction at the military department's "comparatively small reduction from $3 to $2.50."

"Although plans for city-wide canvasses have been shelved, the competition between platoons and companies for the largest ticket sale will be carried out as intended," Captain Spoerry stated.

As previously announced, the company and platoon winning the ticket sale contest will be awarded streamers to be attached to the company guidon. In addition, three percent will be given the winning company to apply on the annual regimental competition next spring.

"Campus Day" Friday. The special "campus day" (Continued on Page 3.)

JUDGING PAVILION TO BE READY DEC. 1

Building Is Fully Enclosed So Rapid Completion Expected.

The judging pavilion, housing the animal husbandry department on the agricultural college campus, will be ready for occupancy about Dec. 1, Prof. H. J. Gramlich announced this morning.

Work on the structure, which was partially destroyed by fire last spring, has been progressing slowly, but since it is entirely enclosed now, Prof. Gramlich expects rapid completion of the project. The Klingery company of Lincoln has the contract on the repairing of the building.

YEARBOOK EDITOR ANNOUNCES UNIQUE PICTURE DEADLINE

Limited Number Pictures Acceptable Replaces Final Date Plan.

Superseding the usual deadline for junior and senior pictures in the Cornhusker will be a "deadline number." This will permit upperclassmen to have their pictures taken until a specific quota has been reached. The quota is governed by space now reserved for juniors and seniors.

"The number of pictures which will be required to fill the reserved space for this section is under one-half of all juniors and seniors of the university. When this number has been reached the section will be closed and no more pictures will be accepted," Otis Detrick, editor of the year book, declared yesterday.

"Circumstances in the past have forced editors to extend the deadlines they have set on pictures in the junior and senior sections, which caused them a great deal of extra work at the last minute, resulting in loss of efficiency. This situation is not going to exist this year, and when the number of pictures planned for have been taken, no more will be accepted," Detrick declared.

Left to Individuals. "This situation leaves the responsibility of the picture taking up to the individuals. We have given them fair warning, have asked them repeatedly to have their sittings immediately, and have done everything possible to put the idea across that the pictures must be in before the deadline," he asserted.

The limited amount of space that can be allowed for the junior and senior sections means that more than one-half of the juniors and seniors in school will not get their pictures in the Cornhusker.

"If they do not get their pictures in before the limit is reached, they are going to be left out, and it will be their own hard luck," he said, "because from now on, the policy will be first come first served, and when the deadline number is reached, no more will be accepted."

LAW COLLEGE INVITES JUSTICES TO SMOKER

Lincoln Judges, Alumni and Students Will Attend Event Thursday.

Special invitations have been issued to all members of the bench in Lincoln, federal, state and district courts to attend the annual law college smoker at the Grand hotel Thursday evening. Besides these specially invited dignitaries and any alumni in town who may desire to come, the ticket sales indicate that the entire law school will attend, according to Glen McKinney, president of the senior law class, who is in charge of the smoker.

The smoker is given as an official welcome to freshmen in the college, and after an informal reception at the beginning of the evening, the freshmen will be particularly honored with a special welcome. The program will feature a number of law college songs, the newly organized law college eleven piece orchestra, and the introduction of various prominent barristers including justices of the Nebraska supreme court.

Lloyd Marti, local attorney and instructor in the law college for a time last year, will be the speaker of the evening. Dean Foster will preside in the introduction of the various participants in the program.

KOSMET ISSUES CALL FOR PLAY AUTHORS TO ACT

First Manuscript Request Made by Deveraux, Club President.

WANT THREE-ACT SHOW

Fifty Dollar Prize Offered Winning Playwright; No Deadline Yet.

A call for manuscripts for the annual spring musical show of the Kosmet Klub was issued late yesterday afternoon by Dick Deveraux, president of the organization. This is the official beginning made by the Klub each year to obtain a play for the spring show.

The play, according to Deveraux, should consist of a musical show of about three acts, written with the idea of an all male cast. There are to be female roles in the show, but they are to be taken by men. This practice has become a tradition with the Klub and in only one show have women had parts. The cast should comprise about thirty members and the manuscript should be ready to submit before the Christmas holidays. The exact deadline will be announced later. A $50 prize will be given the author of the winning play this year as in the past.

Trip Plans Take Shape.
The spring musical comedy is one of the main activities of the Kosmet Klub each year. The Klub always takes the play on a road trip to various cities throughout the state. Plans for the trip during spring vacation in 1932 are being announced, and two or three towns have been tentatively signed for the trip.

The play is also given in Lincoln following Ivy day. Last year the Klub presented "High and Dry" in Hastings and in Lincoln two nights.

William T. McCleery, '31, a member of the Klub and former president of the Innocents, wrote the past three plays for the spring show. In 1929 he wrote "Don't Be Silly," in 1930 "Sob Sisters" won the prize and last year "High and Dry" was the prize winning show.

PLANS FOR PEP SHOW THIS WEEK PROGRESS

Possibility of Impromptu Gatherings Seen as Spirit Rises.

BIBLE FAVORS RALLIES

Altho it was understood that machinery had been set in motion for staging a giant rally later in the week, the time and place were not announced Tuesday afternoon.

Difficulties in the way of proposed plans are numerous, officials of the Innocents society rally committee said. They reported they had been hindered by an Armistice day program in the Coliseum Wednesday, when they had hoped to be able to stage a pep demonstration.

However, reports of the grapevine variety have been filtering in, saying that numerous impromptu rallies of one sort or another are likely to be staged during evenings this week, especially on Thursday and Friday.

Some singing in classes has been reported already this week, and more is expected. At least one university teacher favors impromptu singing before classes start the day before a football game, and has even led his class in the songs, one sophomore reported Tuesday.

Huskers Face Battles.
Nebraska is facing two of the hardest games ever encountered on succeeding weeks, meeting the Kansas Aggies this weekend and the Iowa State Cyclones a week from Saturday.

Issue Soil Reports On Hamilton County

The Hamilton county soil survey report, prepared by A. W. Goke, U. S. department of agriculture, co-operating with W. H. Buckingham, Nebraska soil survey, has just been issued. In addition to general information concerning the soils in the county, the report contains a colored map showing the location of all the soils, schools, towns, railroads.

Meeting of Corn Cobs Called for Tonight

Corn Cobs will meet at the Phi Delta Theta house at 7:30 tonight. Every member is requested to be present to discuss urgent business.

PARADE FEATURES HOLIDAY PROGRAM

City-Wide Activity Includes March Through Downtown Section Followed by Program at Coliseum And Football Rally at Stadium.

CADETS ASSEMBLE AT 10

Regiment to Form on North Drive of Mall in Line of Close Columns.

WHOLE CITY TO PAUSE

Classes Dismissed at Noon Today for Afternoon Observance.

By DICK MORAN.

Beginning at 11 o'clock this morning, all of Lincoln will pause to celebrate the annual observance of Armistice day. Schools, city organizations and business men will co-operate in making the day worthy of its significance.

A parade of more than forty units, comprising as many different organizations, will march through the streets during the afternoon. After the parade, which will last about an hour, a program for the celebration of the day will take place in the university coliseum.

The events of the day will start at 11 o'clock, when taps will be blown at Thirteenth and O streets by a bugle corps from post No. 3 of the American Legion, Lincoln. The parade will start at 1:30 o'clock.

Through the military department, Chancellor E. A. Burnett issued an order last Wednesday for the university R. O. T. C. unit to parade in the Armistice day celebration as it has done in previous years. The R. O. T. C. band will also take part in the parade.

Classes Out at Noon.
School will be dismissed this afternoon so that all students may witness the demonstration, according to a statement issued by T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs. All classes will be dismissed for the day at 12 o'clock this noon.

The university cadets will form in a line of battalions in line of close columns facing south on the north road of the old parade grounds. From that point the unit will march to Fifteenth and P streets, where it will join the main parade.

First call will be sounded at 1 o'clock, assembly at 1:10 p. m., and regimental adjutant's call will be sounded at 1:15. Guidon bearers will be present in their company area at the first call with the guidon. All cadets are to be in full uniform with O. D. shirts. Field and staff officers will be mounted on horses for the parade.

Ferthing Rifles will march as a separate unit in the parade, J. K. McGeachin, captain of the company, has announced. It will be in the provisional battalion, commanded by Major Robert Lau. All members of the organization are to wear white shirts, the captain announced.

Band to be in Three Units.
The R. O. T. C. band will be split up into three units for the parade. One division will be directed by Emory Peterson, present drum major, Norman Hoff, senior in the band, will have charge of one unit, and Ray McCormack, former leader of the band, will command the third division.

The parade will be divided into four different divisions. The first unit, of which Colonel P. H. Bartholomew is aide, will be composed of the Lincoln motorcycle officers, the chief of police, the fire chief, the marshal of the day and his aides, and the massed colors and guards.

The second division of the parade, with Ira Vorhies, city commissioner, as aide, will contain the Lincoln Union Musician's band, Grand Army of the Republic, Sons of Union Veterans, Sons of '61, Women's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Legion, Sons of the American Legion, Sons of the Union Veterans Auxiliary, U. S. War Veterans, U. S. War Veterans' Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The third unit of the parade, Jesse E. Faes, aide, is made up of the Burlington band, Gold Star Flag, Disabled Veterans, Disabled Veterans Auxiliary, Ex-Service Medics, Red Cross, W. O. S. L., American War Mothers, the 8-40, the 40-8 Box Car, American Legion drum corps, American Legion, American Legion auxiliary, C. B. & Q. ex-service men, the fire trucks, Naval Reserves, the Organized Reserve Corps and the National Guard.

Fourth includes R. O. T. C. The fourth unit of the parade, with E. J. Boschult as aide, will be made up of the three units of the R. O. T. C. band, the university R. O. T. C. unit, and the Lincoln Boy Scouts.

The order of march for the uni-

Heads Cadet Parade

Who will lead the R. O. T. C. regiment in today's Armistice celebration parade in his capacity of Cadet Colonel of the Nebraska military unit. Col. Lucke is from Omaha, a member of Kappa Sigma, and a senior in the College of Business Administration.

versity unit is as follows: Regimental headquarters and staff, university service flag, band number one, the provisional battalion consisting of headquarters company and Pershing Rifles, the first battalion under the command of Major Claude Gillespie, the second battalion staff, band number two, second battalion commanded by Major Otis Detrick, the third battalion staff, band number three, and the third battalion led by Major Frank Denton.

The parade will form on Fifteenth street between L and P, and will begin the march west on O street from Fifteenth. The route of march is as follows: West from Fifteenth and O to Ninth, north on Ninth to P, east on P to Fourteenth, and north on Fourteenth to the coliseum.

Arrangements for the day's program are being handled by L. E. Gunderson, commander of the Lincoln Post of the American Legion and finance secretary of the university; Trev E. Gillespie, general chairman of the day's events; and Walton B. Roberts, parade chairman, and attending committee.

Parade Rally Planned.
Immediately after the R. O. T. C. unit and band leaves the parade, it will march down Fourteenth street north, go thru the east gate of the Memorial stadium, and reform on the athletic field, on the east side facing west in line of battalions in line of close columns.

There a parade rally and review will be held to honor the football coaches and team. As soon as the officers and guidons have posted following Front and Center, cheer leaders will take charge and lead cheers for a few minutes. Then the regiment will pass in review before the reviewing stand, which will contain the football team and coaches.

No cars will be parked on the new mall while the university unit of the parade is being formed. Police officers and cadets will be posted on the four corners of the mall to keep cars from parking there, according to Campus Cop Regier.

Governor Bryan has accepted an invitation from L. E. Gunderson, commander of the Lincoln post of the American Legion, to review the Armistice day parade from the reviewing stand in front of the city hall. Mayor Zehrung, Postmaster Gillespie, and other notables will be in the stand.

Program in Coliseum.
An Armistice day program will be held in the university coliseum at 2:30 this afternoon, immediately following the parade. The column will march north on 14th from R st. to the coliseum. The committee in charge of the program consists of C. W. Motter, chairman; George L. Santo, and E. C. Westervelt.

The program will open with community singing, which will be led by L. J. Strain. Then an address on Armistice day will be given by the Honorable Robert G. Simmons, congressman of the Sixth district, and past department commander of the American Legion post at Scottsbluff.

Following the address, a group of numbers will be played by the combined Lincoln city school bands, under the direction of Bernard Nevin. Then a chorus from the Lincoln junior high schools will sing. They will be followed by a chorus from the Lincoln elementary schools.

Robert D. Flory, department commander of the American Legion post of Albion, will give an address. Following his talk, the

(Continued on Page 2.)