Students Migrate to Game Saturday

1100 HERE BUY KAGGIE TICKETS FROM SELLECK

Two Trains Leave Lincoln Tomorrow Morning; Many Drive.

600 TO GO ON SPECIAL Cobs, Tassels, Band, Frosh, Nubbins Team Will Make Trip.

Officials of the railroad and university in charge of tickets for the Kansas Aggie-Nebraska game estimate that about 600 students will be on board the special train which will carry the Cornhusker team to Manhattan Saturday for what football dopesters and enthusiasts believe may be the decisive game for the Big Six conference title.

Approximately 1100 tickets to the stadium at Manhattan have been sold from the student activity office and although the sales of round trip tickets on the special train have been slow, according to John K. Selleck, there is every reason to believe that at least 600 students will go on the special train. Approximately the same number of students made the trip to Lawrence last year for a game of somewhat less importance on a rate slightly higher than the rate of $2.75 for the Manhattan trip.

"The train tickets are likely to sell the last minute," said Mr. Selleck, "since students know there will be plenty of room on the train and they are not worried about getting seats on the fifty yard line. So far the demand for train tickets has not kept up in any proportion with the game tickets sold but, with the nubbins and freshman football teams, the entire band, Corn Cobs, Tassels and two fraternities and two sororities sent by Rudge and Guenzel company in their "On to Manhattan" contest making the trip for nearly 400 students alone, there is no reason to believe that the special train will not be filled with one of the largest groups of football enthusiasts who ever went after a Big Six title."

Houses Win Trips.

Winners of the Rudge and Guenzel contest were: Fraternities—Alpha Theta Chi, Sigma Phi Sigma and Lambda Chi Alpha; sororities—Sigma Kappa, Theta Phi Alpha and Delta Delta Delta. Only first and second place winners in each class get train tickets.

Early Saturday morning every fraternity and sorority house on the campus will be aroused by calls made by members of Corn Cobs and Tassels so that no one will oversleep and miss the rally which will be conducted at the Burlington station from 6:45 a. m. until the train with students and football team pulls out at 7:00 a. m. The football team will have two special pullman cars on the special train. Students who will be driving to Manhattan are asked by Art Mitchell, chairman of the Innocents rally committee to attend the early morning rally before starting on the trip.

Following the exclusive student special train by a few miles will be another special football train for citizens of Lincoln and vicinity who are not allowed on board the student special. This train is being run at the same rate and from the number of game tickets sold at the student activities office to alumni of the university and local citizens, this train will be well filled, according to Mr. Selleck.

Entire Band To Go.

Besides the two pep organizations and the band who will make the Manhattan trip en masse with part or all expenses paid, a number of campus organizations will be represented on the special train. The Student council, which is in general charge of the conduct of all student migrations, is supervising this trip and will send as its representatives Edwin Faulkner, president of the council, and Dorothy Weaver. Members of the Innocent's society will be present on the train and will assist in any way possible in the conduct of the trip. From the faculty of the university, several representatives will accompany the student special, including W. C. Harper, assistant dean of men, and Mrs. Harper. Mr. and Mrs. Colbert, Miss Clarice McDonald, and Miss Charlotte Borgstrom. The Cornhusker expects to have a representative from its staff on board the special train and at the

'Y' Group Plans for Next Week Include Movies And Talk.

An indoor meeting of the university freshman council was held Wednesday, Nov. 11, in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in the Temple. Due to the semester examinations being held this week the meeting was short and they held a short talk around the big fireplace in the meeting hall. A weiner roast was also held.

Next week's meeting will be held Nov. 18 at the customary place, and the program will include campus movies of football games and a talk by Ray Ramsay.

This meeting will be primarily for members of the freshman Y. M. C. A. but others desiring to attend should notify C. D. Hayes, university Y. M. C. A. secretary, before Friday noon. The program will be in charge of the executive council, made up of five freshmen, Morton Spence, chairman, Floyd Elwell, Stephen Laub, John Sperry and Willis Thayer.

WOMEN WILL PAY $375

Chancellor Justifies Cost Per Year; Says Dorm To Be Attractive.

Many questions relative to the operation of the new women's dormitory at the University of Nebraska that is to be ready for use with the opening of the next university year are still unsettled, according to Chancellor E. A. Burnett, when questioned regarding this matter today.

"The total cost for rooms and board in the new dormitory will be all the neighborhood of $375 per year, which in view of all the opportunities offered, is not considered excessive by the chancellor.

"It has always been our aim to hold down the cost to students as much as possible, but we are not justified in erecting cheap and temporary buildings in the development of a permanent campus. The new dormitory will be fire-proof and modern in every respect. It will contain not only a kitchen and dining room, but its parlors and its rooms for social purposes will make it an attractive place," he said.

The proposed charge is based in part upon the cost of operating women's dormitories in universities like Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota, which have had experience in such matters.

Especially for Freshmen. While freshmen students will be especially invited to live in the building, no one will be required.

STUDENTS URGED ATTEND MORNING SENDOFF RALLY

Pep Gathering at 6:45 Tomorrow Necessary Says Mitchell.

COBS TO WAKEN CAMPUS

Impromptu Demonstrations Expected Between Classes Today.

Corn Cobs will call all fraternity and sorority houses tomorrow morning to get a turnout for the Kansas Aggie rally which will be held immediately before the student special leaves for Manhattan. The rally is scheduled for 6:45, 15 minutes before the train pulls out for Kansas. Informal speeches, to be made by members of the team and coaching staff, will be punctuated by cheers and songs, according to plans for the pep meeting.

"If Nebraska is to win this game from the strong Aggie team the student body must show the team that it is behind it," Arthur Mitchell, rally chairman said. "The necessity of holding the rally at such an early hour must not deter the students from turning out to show the team real spirit."

In addition to the rally to be held early Saturday morning the Innocents expect between-class rallies Friday as a medium to stir up pep. As an additional method of stimulating spirit it has been suggested that freshmen answering phones at fraternity and sorority houses substitute "Beat the Aggies" for the conventional "Hello."

All Urged To Attend.

It is the plan of the rally chairman that in addition to students taking the trip via the special, all students going by car and those not planning to go attend the rally at the Burlington depot tomorrow morning.

The impromptu rallies scheduled for today are expected to stimulate

HAGGERTY TELLS OF CHANGES IN TEACHING FIELD

Minnesota Educator Talks At Temple Thursday Before 500.

PREDICTS MORE EXAMS

Also Speaks at Faculty Meeting Wednesday Evening.

Discussing the increasing importance of education and declaring that "education had become a major social concern and problem of our people," Dr. M. E. Haggerty, dean of the college of education at the University of Minnesota, addressed approximately 500 faculty members and students Thursday morning at the all university convocation at the Temple theater.

Dean Haggerty stated that approximately 1-4 of the nation's population is enrolled in educational institutions. More than one million people are engaged in the teaching profession and as school administrators and not less than another million are devoting part time work to the educational field.

Introducing the visiting educator to the assembly to deliver one of the several lectures which he has been giving in Lincoln the past three days on "education and scholarship," Dr. F. E. Henzlik, dean of the university teachers college, declared Dr. Haggerty to be a leader in the field of professional training of teachers.

Dr. Haggerty struck a spot which gave rise to much discussion and many heated arguments among students when he predicted that an increased emphasis on college examinations would follow in immediate years. His prediction was made at the opening of his

BEGIN SALE OF MILITARY BALL TICKETS TODAY

Cadets Wear Uniforms to Stimulate Interest In Event.

REDUCE PRICE THIS YEAR

Drill Students Are Offered Special Price Cuts If in Kaki.

Military ball ticket sales campaign opens this morning with all members of the R. O. T. C. appearing in full uniform and beginning a complete coverage of all classes meeting today. The price of the tickets this year has been reduced to $2.50, fifty cents less than last year.

According to Capt. G. W. Sperry, in charge of ticket sales, the campaign should be unusually successful due to the vigor and enthusiasm with which the students are entering into the drive.

Each man selling twenty dollars worth of tickets obtains his own ticket free. Basic students who appear in their uniforms will be admitted for two dollars. Captain Sperry also stated that the several students who applied for the advanced course but were unable to take it and a number of alumni and relatives, will be given regular advance course rates of $1.50 if they will apply personally to him.

The company and platoon winning the sales contest will be awarded streamers to be attached to the company guidon. In addition 3 percent will be given the winning company to apply on the regimental competition next spring.

The original plan of systematically canvassing the business and residential sections of the city has been dropped due to a suggestion by the administration that such a campaign might be looked on unfavorably by the residents of Lincoln at the present time of economic depression.

FAMED PIANIST WILL PLAY HERE NOV. 15

Ganz to Appear With City Symphony Orchestra At Coliseum.

STUDENT RATE OFFERED

Rudolph Ganz, world famous pianist, will be featured soloist with the Lincoln Symphony orchestra in a concert which will offer Nov. 15 in the university coliseum.

Students of the university will be admitted to the orchestra's concert featuring the Swiss pianist upon presentation of their identification cards and 25 cents.

Ganz established a music world record by conducting his own performance of the Liszt "E flat concerto" at Carnegie hall on Jan. 14, 1920. He offered this striking performance with the New York Philharmonic orchestra. The soloist was represented by a Duo-Art roll recording Mr. Ganz' playing of this concerto. The event created a sensation not only in New York, but throughout the entire country.

The company, for whom Mr. Ganz now records exclusively, presented him a few weeks after this performance with a silver loving cup which bears the inscription:

"To Rudolph Ganz: To commemorate the notable concert at Carnegie hall at which for the first time in musical history a pianist conducted the orchestra accompanied by a piano part. The company dedicates this cup in grateful appreciation of his distinguished services on this occasion."

"But now, gentlemen, do let us have another concert which will give you an opportunity to fill it for me," was the surprised and elated Mr. Ganz' only remark after receiving the beautiful cup.

BIG SIX TITLE AT STAKE SATURDAY

Biblemen's Hopes for Conference Pennant Depend on Win Against "Bo" McMillan's Kansas State Gridsters Tomorrow Afternoon.

DOPSTERS GIVE WILDCATS EDGE ON NEBRASKA

All-Time Record Shows Only One Victory for Aggies With 13 for Cornhuskers; Victory Last Year Broke Long Period Jinx.

The Big Six title hangs in the balance! Saturday will find the Cornhuskers battling the Kansas Aggies in a game which will decide almost without question the result of the conference race. Having shattered a precedent of fourteen years standing last fall, Kansas State will trot out on the gridiron as heavy favorites to down the Huskers for a second consecutive time and win for themselves a new lease on a chance for the title.

Nebraska on the other hand is in a position to come through their conference slate with a clean record and the second championship since Dana X. Bible took over the coaching reins here. Wins over the Aggies and Iowa State will turn the trick.

Both teams are in good shape and each coach will be able to utilize the most of his man power to the greatest extent. The Aggies are confident Nebraska is confident, and the game promises to be the feature clash of the conference.

Aggies Need Win.

A win over Nebraska will mean more to Kansas State than any game they have played this fall. It means that should they win they will be given a chance at a tie for the title—the first hold they have ever had on a Big Six championship honors. A win will mean the rise of football in Manhattan and the second victory over the Huskers in two years.

Kansas State will end its conference games this Saturday. If they win from Nebraska and the Huskers turn around and defeat Iowa State, then Nebraska and Kansas State will be in a tie for the title with the Kansas team having a win over the Huskers to add further to their laurels. It's a big game for the Aggies.

Nebraska has a defeat at the hands of the Aggies to avenge from last year. Going into the game as strong favorites to win, the Huskers were met by Cronkite, stellar tackle and end, who almost single handed pulled his team through to their first victory over Nebraska by the score of 10 to 9.

Rhea and Cronkite Meet.

For two men who will trot out on the field Saturday the game has an even greater bearing. Rhea and Cronkite, both tackles, will be given the opportunity of proving their right to all conference and even All American honors.

Looking back into the past, in the fifteen games played over a twenty year period, Nebraska has won thirteen, lost one and one resulted in a scoreless tie.

The campaign of 1925 saw the Aggies rise up and hold the Huskers to a deadlock. It was the first time since football relations had been started in 1911 that the Manhattan outfit was able to make an impression against a Nebraska eleven. Two years later, however, the Scarlet hit its stride again and registered a five touchdown victory. But that was the last time the Huskers were able to win as they pleased.

Berg Steps Wildcats.

In 1928 Coach Berg's eleven stopped the Wildcats 8 to 0. Coach Bibb's first year here in 1929 saw his team chalk up a 10 to 6 triumph and last year the Aggies broke the jinx for their first win.

Last year's game was a thrilling one. Wiggins gave the Aggies a 3 to 0 lead during the first half of the game when he booted a field goal from the Nebraska 11-yard line.

Nebraska came back in the third period to score a touchdown after a fifty-six yard march down the field with Marvin Paul going over for the touchdown. The Husker lead was short lived as Ray McMillan tossed a pass to Cronkite who gathered in the ball on his own 40-yard line and ran sixty yards to tally. Auker was downed for a safety in the final period to give the Huskers their last two points.

Aggies Have Many Vets.

Kansas State, coached by "Bo" McMillan, has a crew of veterans back. Elden Auker is one of the big backfield menaces. Ralph Graham, sophomore ace, has been one of the most consistent ground gainers for the Wildcats and is expected to be in shape to play against the Huskers after a two weeks layoff because of injuries. Cronkite may be shifted to end position where his height makes him a valuable man in a pass offense. The six foot six and a half inch lineman is being hailed for all-American honors and it will be a fight between him and Rhea of Nebraska to see if any man from this section of the country receives that distinction.

In the present season each team has won five games in six starts.

GAME CAPTAIN.

Bob Manley, senior quarterback will captain the Cornhuskers in their battle with "Bo" McMillan's Kaggie gridsters at Manhattan tomorrow. Manley, who comes from Holdrege, is playing his last year with Biblemen. He is fast man on running back punts and can dropkick from the field. He has not been regularly used this year, but will see action in Saturday's contest.

RENAISSANCE ISSUE OF COMIC OUT MONDAY

Awgwan Editor Announces Magazine Has New and Better Appearance.

TELLS OF "AWAKENING"

The November issue of the Awgwan, the Renaissance number, will go on sale in all campus buildings and at the various bookstores Monday morning at 8 o'clock. Students will notice a considerable difference in the appearance and "feel" of the magazine, in the opinion of Marvin Robinson, editor of the Awgwan, by reason of the change in quality of paper, manner of make-up, and method of cartoon reproductions.

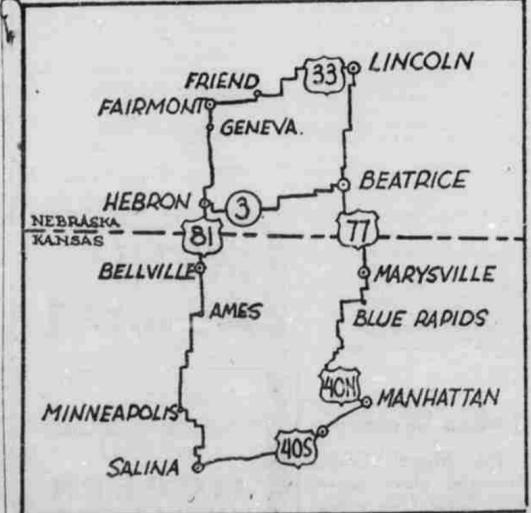

"Although the magazine is the same size as usual," said Robinson, "there is much more material in the new issue. The staff was fortunate in having more material than it needed for the issue so that a selection of the best material was possible."

One of the particular items of interest in the magazine is the photograph of the unofficial Nebraska Sweetheart elected by the Law College. Robinson reports that one of the Awgwan snappers went to considerable pains and inconvenience to secure this photograph.

The frontispiece for the issue is a photograph by Dwight Kirsch depicting a scene typical of college life. The photograph has an unusual setting and the point from which the view was taken gives it

AUTO ROUTES TO MANHATTAN.

A phone call from the director of athletics at Manhattan today stated that the best route for the trip to the game was road 77 to Randolph and 13 to Manhattan. The roads are in excellent condition and the distance by this way is 143 miles.

The other routes are all sealed or paved roads and are longer than the first mentioned. Reports indicate that a number of people expect to motor to the game.
