

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXI—NO. 52.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1931

PRICE FIVE CENTS

BAND WILL MAKE TRIP TO DENVER

PERSHING TO BE IN LINCOLN FOR MILITARY BALL

General Is Here to Spend Holidays; Guest at Friday's Fete. WORK ON DECORATIONS Presentation of Honorary Colonel Will Climax Opening Formal.

General John J. Pershing will be a guest at the annual Military Ball which will be held at the University coliseum Friday night, December 4.

Decorations Underway. Decorations of red, white, and blue are being erected, under the supervision of Captains Scott and Crisby by the basic military science students.

The first complimentary ticket, given for selling tickets amounting to twenty dollars, was awarded yesterday to Archie McMaisters.

Opie Cates to Play. Opie Cates' twelve piece orchestra will furnish the music for the ball. They have been featured at numerous university parties, club dances, and national broadcasts.

ECONOMICS GROUP SCHEDULES ANNUAL DINNER FOR TONIGHT

Dr. Denton Is Main Speaker At 'Ellen Richards' Banquet.

One hundred twenty-five women including all home economics alumnae are expected to be present at third annual "Ellen Richards" banquet, to be held at the Grand hotel at 5:45 today.

Nebraska Students Will Soon Have Chance to Exhibit Their Aquatic Ability Upon Completion of Pool

By MARVIN SCHMID. Shortly and finally both men and women students of the Universities Nebraskensis will have a place to display their aquatic wares.

But it (pool of course) does not stop here. It will have water in it. The kind of water that you can write home about. Although students registered for swimming courses will not be required to drink the water to secure their credits, it will be perfectly palatable.

Purifying System. Through this special and expensive purifying apparatus the water, many thousands of gallons, will be purer after six months in the pool than the day in which it runs fresh from the hydrants.

FEE'S CONDITION IMPROVED, WILL NOT LOSE SIGHT

Condition of O. J. Fee of Sioux City who was seriously injured on Sunday when the car in which he was riding was destroyed by fire, was reported much improved yesterday.

Sigma Delta Chi to Convene at 6 Today. The local chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, will meet on Thursday evening at the Alpha Theta Chi house at 6 o'clock.

DEVEREAUX SETS JANUARY 16 AS SHOW DEADLINE

Authors Must Submit Work By That Date, Say Klub Officers. $50 PRIZE TO WINNER Plans for Comedy Call for Use of All-Male Cast As Feature.

Two weeks after Christmas vacation, Jan. 16, is the date announced today by Dick Devereaux, president of Kosmet Klub, as the deadline for submission of manuscripts for the annual spring musical show sponsored by Kosmet Klub.

Major Production. The spring musical show is one of the two major productions which Kosmet Klub presents each year.

MRS. ELLIS NAMED TO EXTENSION POST

Carolina Demonstrator to Replace Miss Brown At Ag College. Mrs. Sarah Porter Ellis has been employed by the agricultural college extension service to take the place of Miss Mary Ellen Brown.

W.A.A. Will Present Sales Prizes Dec. 11

Prizes to the highest W. A. A. salesmen who sold at the football game this year will be awarded at the annual Girls' Cornhusker costume party on Dec. 11 in the Armory.

But, its cloudiness shall disappear as the early morning fog in the heavens. When the water has been filtered, chlorinated, and purified all this suspended bacteria which first clouded the water will disappear.

ACTIVITIES MEN CREDITED WITH HIGHER GRADES

Report of California U Dean Shows All-Men Average Lower at School. BENEFIT TO STUDENTS Outside Interests Help to Fit Collegian for Later Work.

The average grade of men students participating in extracurricular activities was higher than the average grade of all men students in the University of California at Los Angeles, according to a statistical study of the relationship between extracurricular activities and scholarship, compiled by Earl J. Miller, dean of men at that institution.

The purpose of the study was to determine as nearly as possible the relationship of extracurricular activities to scholarship, as revealed by the scholastic records of men students.

MRS. ELLIS NAMED TO EXTENSION POST

Carolina Demonstrator to Replace Miss Brown At Ag College. Mrs. Sarah Porter Ellis has been employed by the agricultural college extension service to take the place of Miss Mary Ellen Brown.

W.A.A. Will Present Sales Prizes Dec. 11

Prizes to the highest W. A. A. salesmen who sold at the football game this year will be awarded at the annual Girls' Cornhusker costume party on Dec. 11 in the Armory.

But, its cloudiness shall disappear as the early morning fog in the heavens. When the water has been filtered, chlorinated, and purified all this suspended bacteria which first clouded the water will disappear.

Scientific-Minded Activities Coed Is Among Honorary Colonel Candidates

BY ART BAILEY. Had Paul Revere been reincarnated in the form of an amoeba he would indeed be lucky to get the chance to gallop over the side of a certain individual and be viewed through a microscope by this "lady of the scientific mind" who possesses two of those look-at-me-sunore eyes—great big brown ones.

GRETCHEN FEE

More than fifty persons are expected to attend the affair. Among the number will be several alumnae. Reservations should be telephoned to Ada Mae James, secretary, before Thursday at 1 o'clock.

LETTERMEN ELECT TOMSON PRESIDENT OF 'N' CLUB GROUP

Organization Makes Plans For More Extensive Program. Definite plans for activity during the year were made by the "N" club in the first meeting of the year held Tuesday evening in the club room following a dinner served in the coliseum.

AG STUDENTS BANQUET

Vocational Education, Home Ec Departments Hold Annual Meet. Eighty-five college of agriculture students attended the annual vocational education home economics banquet held at the Warren Methodist church Wednesday evening.

PLACE FOURTH AT CHICAGO. The University of Nebraska meats judging team won fourth place in the national collegiate meats judging contest held in Chicago this week in connection with the international livestock exposition.

CANDIDATES FOR RHODES AWARDS MEET SATURDAY

Selection Committee Must Pick Two From List Of Seventeen. FIVE REPRESENT SCHOOL Successful Pair to Face Further Competition at Des Moines. Seventeen candidates for Rhodes scholarships from the state of Nebraska will meet Saturday in Lincoln to appear before a committee of selection which will choose two of the men to represent this state at a district selection sometime next week at Des Moines, Iowa.

KAPPA PHI WILL MEET

'Blending Our Colors' Is Theme for Monthly Assembly. 'Blending Our Colors' will be the theme of the monthly dinner meeting to be held by Kappa Phi, Methodist girls' club, at the Lindell hotel Thursday evening at 6:15 o'clock.

MEATS JUDGING TEAM PLACES IN CONTEST

Husker Squad Ranks Fourth At National Meet in Chicago. COACHED BY LOEFFEL The University of Nebraska meats judging team won fourth place in the national collegiate meats judging contest held in Chicago this week in connection with the international livestock exposition.

ELECT FRANK SHARP GLEE CLUB PRESIDENT

Director Picks Butterfield For Manager; Need First Tenors. Frank W. Sharp, junior in the college of arts and sciences, was elected president of the university glee club at its meeting Tuesday night.

WOMEN PLAN BANQUET Big and Little Sisters Will Meet for Christmas Event Dec. 17. The annual Big and Little Sister Christmas dinner is to be given at Ellen Smith hall, Dec. 17, at 5 o'clock.

75 MEN TO LEAVE FRIDAY FOR GAME

Selleck Announces R.O.T.C. Musicians to Board Train At 6:10 Tomorrow Evening; Arrive in Denver Saturday Morning at 7 O'clock. RECEIPTS PAY EXPENSES Give Preference to Older Men in Drawing Up List Quota.

Nebraska will take a seventy-five piece R. O. T. C. band to Denver Saturday for the charity game between the Cornhusker and the Colorado Aggies, John K. Selleck, student activities manager, announced yesterday.

HUSKERS EXHIBIT SPIRIT IN FINAL DRILL OF SEASON

Entire Varsity Squad Sees Action Wednesday in Scrimmage. PASSING ATTACK CLICKS Linemen Look Good in Last Workout for Aggie Tilt Saturday. Coach Dana X. Bible put every varsity man into action, Wednesday night in the last scrimmage of the year, and with a revived spirit the Huskers romped all over the frosh and nubbins with running and aerial attacks.

ELECT FRANK SHARP GLEE CLUB PRESIDENT

Director Picks Butterfield For Manager; Need First Tenors. Frank W. Sharp, junior in the college of arts and sciences, was elected president of the university glee club at its meeting Tuesday night.

WOMEN PLAN BANQUET Big and Little Sisters Will Meet for Christmas Event Dec. 17. The annual Big and Little Sister Christmas dinner is to be given at Ellen Smith hall, Dec. 17, at 5 o'clock.

75 MEN TO LEAVE FRIDAY FOR GAME

Selleck Announces R.O.T.C. Musicians to Board Train At 6:10 Tomorrow Evening; Arrive in Denver Saturday Morning at 7 O'clock. RECEIPTS PAY EXPENSES Give Preference to Older Men in Drawing Up List Quota.

Nebraska will take a seventy-five piece R. O. T. C. band to Denver Saturday for the charity game between the Cornhusker and the Colorado Aggies, John K. Selleck, student activities manager, announced yesterday.

HUSKERS EXHIBIT SPIRIT IN FINAL DRILL OF SEASON

Entire Varsity Squad Sees Action Wednesday in Scrimmage. PASSING ATTACK CLICKS Linemen Look Good in Last Workout for Aggie Tilt Saturday. Coach Dana X. Bible put every varsity man into action, Wednesday night in the last scrimmage of the year, and with a revived spirit the Huskers romped all over the frosh and nubbins with running and aerial attacks.

ELECT FRANK SHARP GLEE CLUB PRESIDENT

Director Picks Butterfield For Manager; Need First Tenors. Frank W. Sharp, junior in the college of arts and sciences, was elected president of the university glee club at its meeting Tuesday night.

WOMEN PLAN BANQUET Big and Little Sisters Will Meet for Christmas Event Dec. 17. The annual Big and Little Sister Christmas dinner is to be given at Ellen Smith hall, Dec. 17, at 5 o'clock.

Here shown are members and coach of the college of agriculture meats judging team which placed fourth in competition at the national exhibition in Chicago.