PREP DEBATE LEAGUE INITIATES REFORMS

lish and president of the state debating league. The subject used by the high schools of the state in the meets this year is, Resolved: that the several states should enact legislation providing for compulsory unemployment insurance. Thirty-three states in the union are using the same subject for debate this year. The state debate league was founded by the university nearly twenty-five years ago. All official business and publications are issued by the extension division of the university, which also handles other routine matters for the league. Some of the high schools in the state have already started debating, according to Professor White. The finals of the state tournament will be held on April 14, 15, and 16 of next year in Lincoln.

VOGELER ASKS TANK MEN REPORT MONDAY

Varsity Swimmers to Use New Coliseum Pool Next Week.

Coach Vogeler issued a call Saturday for all varsity swimmers to be on hand for practice in the new university pool at 4:45 Monday afternoon. This will be the first time the pool will have been used. The pool is the biggest in the Big Six conference. Mr. Vogeler said, being seventy-five feet long and thirty-five feet wide. It is ten feet deep at the deepest end and three and one-half feet at the shallow end.

The opening meet at the new pool will probably be Jan. 15, Coach Vogeler stated, and the dedication ceremony will be held at that time. The Big Six conference meet will be held here March 5, according to present arrangements.

The swimming meet schedule has not been definitely worked out as yet, Vogeler stated, but Nebraska swimmers will probably meet Kansas Aggies both here and away; Drake at Drake; Grinnell, here, and Iowa State at Iowa State. An attempt is being made to arrange for meets with Kansas university both here and there.

SCARLET QUINTET LOSES TO DAKOTA

Show Improvement. Nebraska evidenced the inaccurate passing and shooting and ball-bobbling expected in the first game but improved as the game progressed, outplaying their guests in the second canto almost as decisively as they themselves had been outplayed in the first.

Koster and Davison at guard, and Mauch at forward, were the only Cornhusker veterans on the court last night. Lenser, Henrion, Lunney, Mason, Wischmeier, Norton, Hastley and Sauer were all first year men with the varsity squad. Their exhibition last night indicated that a little more experience will make a ball club which will make a fight in its later conference games.

All showed a lack of experience and lack of teamwork acquired by long play together. Sauer, who only a week ago ended his football season, showed a carryover of gridiron tactics onto the basketball court. During the second half his tussle over the ball with Walker of South Dakota led to the two fouling each other. Both made good their points and the trade was worth the entertainment. A few seconds later the erstwhile fullback tucked the ball under his arm and dove between the two opposing guards in spectacular off tackle style.

All tournament entries are asked by the intramural head, Miss Clarice McDonald, to be punctual in order that this round robin tourney, preliminary to an elimination contest to be held later, may be run off smoothly and quickly.

GIRLS' COSTUME PARTY ATTRACTS 500 ATTENDANCE

(Continued from Page 1.) toothless, thin haired old men in bunnies. Miss Mable Lee of the physical education department, Mrs. E. E. Thompson of the extension division, and Miss Lulu B. Runge of the mathematics department, all sponsors of A. W. S. board, and Miss Clara Rausch of the physical education department judged the costumes after the grand march which began at 7:45 o'clock. Miss Amanda H. Heppner, dean of women, and Miss Elsie Ford Piper, assistant dean of women, were honored guests.

Trio Sings.
Dancing featured the evening until the program was opened by a dance by Carolyn Echols of Omaha, Delta Gamma. Lorraine Lovegren of Fremont, Pi Beta Phi, accompanied the act. A group of popular songs by the Delta Gamma trio, composed of Louise Correa, of Omaha, Zua Warner of Scottsbluff and Eleanor Burwell of Casper, Wyo., was then presented. "The Pet Show" was then dramatized by Tassels, women's pep organization under the direction of Julianne Deetken, president. Following the skit, W. A. A. prizes to the highest salesmen at the football game were awarded by Berniece Hoffman and Helen Baldwin, treasurer of W. A. A. Throughout the evening, refreshments were served by the members of the A. W. S. freshmen activities group under the leadership of Marian Smith of Omaha. In clever costumes the girls wandered among the dancers with eskimo pies and apples. Favors from Lincoln firms were distributed to the guests by the party committee. Gertrude Clarke of LaGrange Ill., was responsible for this portion of the program. The favors were whistles, roses and other flowers and novelties. The program closed with a dance act by the Kappa Kappa Gamma chorus, garbed in costumes of black and white. Following this act the prizes were awarded to the costumes winners.

Has She A Hobby?

AND we don't mean stamp collecting or raising prize Pekinese either! The hobby we're talking about is her own pet fashion whim. Perhaps, a passion for perfume . . . a hankering for swanky handbags. Or, maybe she gloats over lots of gloves and becomes lyrical over lingerie. Whatever her particular ardor, Christmas is the time to pamper it. And we don't mind adding we've been lying awake nights planning to satisfy these hobbies, for after all, this store is pretty much of a feminine hobby, too.
