Meet Oklahoma, Nebraska, K-Aggies on Final Road Trip.

JAYHAWKS ARE FAVORED

Dope K. U. to Beat Sooners Saturday; Huskers Play Mizzou Saturday.

By JOE MILLER.

A three way scramble for the Big Six basketball championship between Missouri, Kansas, and Oklahoma, with the Jayhawks favored to come through with another title, is on deck during this final week of conference play.

The league leading Missouri Tigers face an almost "suicide" schedule this week, playing all three tilts away from home. The Tigers meet Oklahoma Monday, Nebraska Friday, and Kansas State Saturday. Coach Forrest Allen's Kansas quint, now in second place, have but a single game remaining, that with Oklahoma Saturday at Lawrence.

Jayhawks Hit Stride.

The Jayhawkers seem to have hit their stride, polishing off the Huskers 51 to 19 early last week and trouncing Missouri 24 to 16 Saturday night at Lawrence. Oklahoma turned in a 34 to 22 victory over Kansas State to keep in the running with five wins and three losses. Iowa State was relegated to fifth place by Kansas State, Coach Corsaut's men winning by a 30 to 27 count.

Oklahoma-Kansas game Saturday at Lawrence begins to assume the aspects of a possible championship battle. K. U. needs the tilt to claim a share in the title spoils. However, if the Sooners annex their Monday game with Missouri and then bump off Kansas, the championship will go to Oklahoma.

Pre-game dope gives the edge to Kansas, since the Lawrence crew will be shooting at a chance for the title, plus the advantage of playing on their home court.

Ted O'Leary, Kansas forward, has scored 96 points to lead the conference scorers, while his teammate Bill Johnson, center, is in second place with 87 tallies. Heitman, Iowa State center, rang up 84 points for his season's effort.

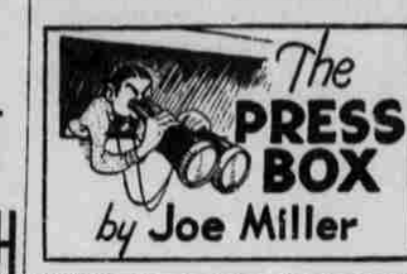

Johnny Cooper, Missouri forward, is in fourth place with 75 points, but he has a fine chance to be on top when the season closes Saturday. Andy Beck, Oklahoma goal artist, ranks fifth with 74 points in eight games.

As Bill Day put it: "Have you ever seen Bishop or DeBus strike an opponent on the head under the old rules? No. They charge low going through the line, depending on speed and cleverness." Now, under the new code, opponents of these men will not be allowed to use the hands, offensively or defensively, thus making it easier for the smaller player.

DOPESTERS give Missouri very little chance to remain at the top of the Big Six conference cage race when the smoke has cleared away, with the Tigers facing an almost "suicide" schedule during this final week. Coach Edward's quintet meets Oklahoma Monday, Nebraska Friday and Kansas State Saturday, all away from home. Kansas, in second place has only to meet Oklahoma at Lawrence, Saturday, and Jayhawk tilt prospects appear exceedingly bright at the moment. The Sooners may pull a surprise, however.

A Nebraska win over Missouri would serve to complicate the standings.

HEYE Lambertus came within an ace of tying the world's 50-yard low hurdle record Saturday when he raced over the barriers in 5.9 seconds at Drake. According to "Pa" Schulte, the world's mark is set at 5.8. The Gothenburg hurdler was pressed hard all the way, observers report, barely nosing out Podrebarac of Drake for first place.

JACK Epstein must be placed alongside John Keriakedes as one of the boys to whom fate has turned a cold shoulder. You see Epstein, like John, is a plunge-for-distance star, but the event is not carried on the collegiate swimming curriculum. Epstein, a freshman, was all-state champ at Omaha Central, where he lettered for four years.

IF HUSKER grid fans have the idea that the new football rule prohibiting the use of hands will discriminate against the smaller player, he or she should dismiss the thought, in the opinion of Coaches Bible and Day. They assert frankly that the new rule on this point will benefit Nebraska's widest guards, Clair Bishop and Warren DeBus and other small linemen.

OKLAHOMA TURNS IN WIN OVER MISSOURI

Scores 28 to 17 Victory to Tie Jayhawks for Big Six Lead.

NORMAN, Okl.—Oklahoma defeated Missouri 28 to 17 in a thrilling battle Monday night. The victory boosted the Sooners into a tie with Kansas for first place, with Missouri a half game behind in second position.

Johnny Cooper, Tiger forward, eluded the Oklahoma guards for twelve points for high scoring honors. Gross led the Sooner team with nine counters. Beck was held to four points.

It was the first time in three years that an Oklahoma quintet had been able to register a victory over a Missouri team. A win over Kansas Saturday will clinch a tie for the Big Six title. Summary:

MORE TEACHERS REGISTER LAST SEVERAL YEARS

Registration by prospective teachers in the University of Nebraska teachers bureau has steadily increased during the last three years, according to figures comparing first semester registrations for the three school years.

From Sept. 1, 1929 to Feb. 1, 1930, 499 registrations were recorded. For the same period, 1930-31, 587 candidates filed registrations, and for the corresponding period, 1931-32, 937 were registered. These figures include registrations in each year as well as new registrants.

MOHAWK WILL EXHIBIT AQUATIC STUNTS TODAY

'Human Seal' Will Perform Difficult Under Water Tricks at 4:30.

A swimming exhibition by Ceola Mohawk, nationally famous stunt-swimmer, is in store for student aquatic enthusiasts Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 in the coliseum pool. A special rate of twenty-five cents plus a student ticket has been made to students. The regular admission charge to the general public will be fifty cents.

The demonstration is being held for the purpose of raising funds towards Nebraska's contribution to the American Olympic fund.

Mohawk hails from Seattle, Wash., and is known as a "human seal." Such difficult tricks as singing under water, eating under water, swimming vertically with head down and feet protruding above the water, Egyptian floating, swimming feet first either on the surface or under it, a triple back pounce and sculling are included in Mohawk's repertory.

Several unique records are also claimed by Mohawk, some of his best known feats being a 378 feet under water swim with one breath and a five mile under water swim executed 100 feet at a time in a total elapsed time of 12 hours and 55 minutes.

Varsity swimmers were amazed at the short demonstration which the "seal" gave for them last week and classified the exhibition as near magic.

TWO SOONER TRACK MEN ARE HONORED

Mell, Moore, Selected to Compete on Six Team for KCAC Meet.

NORMAN—Two Sooner track men, Capt. Clifford Mell, McKinney, Tex., and Warren "Bus" Moore, Oklahoma City, have been invited to compete on a picked team of "Big Six" conference athletes in a dual meet against the Los Angeles, Calif. Athletic club in the twenty-seventh annual Kansas City Athletic club meet at Kansas City Feb. 27. It was learned recently, from Ben. G. Owen, athletic director.

Captain Mell was selected for the 440 yard dash and Moore for the 880 yard dash. However Dr. Joe Reilly, K. C. A. C. athletic director, notified Owen that John Jacobs, the Sooner coach, was free to substitute for either of the above men and as Mell will probably defend his 600 yard Shannon Douglas cup championship, won last February, Jacobs will probably substitute another man for him in the 440 yard race.

Most of the scratch events that were formerly open to all competitors have been erased from the program this year. Aside from the dual meet between "Big Six" schools and the Los Angeles Athletic club, there will be only scratch events in the 50, 440 and 1,000 yard dashes and 50 yard high hurdles, the intercollegiate mile relays and a reduced number of high school events. No ward or grammar school events are on the program this year.

Coach Jacobs has meanwhile developed the Sooner track team to a point where it could probably give a good account of itself in competition this week end. Simms, Pansze, Thrower and Plog have turned the indoor 60 yards in around 6.5 seconds. Morris, Captain Mell, Hewett and Abbott have all beaten 57 seconds for the indoor quarter. Dale has run a 2:07 1/2 half mile indoors and Moore a 2:01 one outdoors. Dale has run a 4:45 mile indoors and Hilt and Newblock a 6.3 second 50 yard low hurdles.

In the field events Newblock, Simms and Barham have all jumped 6 feet 1 inch in the high jump while Howell has done 45 feet 2 1/2 inches and Gilles 44 feet 3 inches in the shot put. Raymond Null, leading pole vault prospect, hasn't yet jumped for height.

TILDEN IS SIGNED FOR KANSAS MATCH

Professional Troupe Slated to Appear at Lawrence on March 11.

LAWRENCE, Kans.—Big shots of the tennis world will be on parade at the University of Kansas auditorium the night of March 11, it was announced recently by Dr. F. C. Allen, director of athletics, who has just received word that William T. Tilden, world professional tennis champion, and his troupe which is playing a series of matches looking toward the crowning of the professional champion of 1932, have consented to make a stop at Lawrence.

Tilden's choice of Lawrence for an appearance in action was largely influenced by his friendship for Wilbur Coen, jr., his protege, and the captain of the University of Kansas tennis team this season.

Proceeds from the Tilden matches at the auditorium will be used in making a budget for the Kansas tennis team this season, not only in its efforts to defend the Big Six title won last season but in bringing outstanding college competition here from the south and possibly the Pacific coast, Dr. Allen said.

Coming here with Tilden will be Albert Burke, the famous Irish professional; Hans Nusslein, twenty-two year old German who is professional champion of Europe; and Roman Najuch, Czechoslovakian pro tennis champion, who with Nusslein holds the European pro doubles title.

The coming of Tilden and the European stars insures local fans of seeing some of the outstanding tennis players of the world today in action in an indoor setting. In all probability Tilden will engage Nusslein in singles and Tilden and Burke will play Nusslein and Najuch in doubles.

Tilden and his troupe will not appear in any city near Lawrence on this tour and the matches will probably draw a large attendance of tennis fans from Kansas City, Topeka and other cities.

Tennis prospects at K. U. are again bright this season and the Tilden matches will give impetus to the tennis enthusiasm which got well underway last season. With Junior Coen captaining the Jayhawker squad this year Coach W. R. Smith has two other lettermen from last season's championship squad. They are Leonard Prosser and George Hurd, both of whom won the most of their matches last season.

In addition to these Ted O'Leary, letterman of two seasons ago is still eligible and may play some this year. An outstanding possibility for the squad this season in the way of new material is Ster-
