

SWIMMERS WILL MEET WASHBURN IN DUAL TONIGHT

Topeka Will Be Scene of Return Match; Huskers Win Splash Here.

PLAN TO LEAVE AT NOON

Amato and Sutherland May Account for Many of Scarlet Points.

Coach Rudy Vogeler's tanksters will journey to Topeka to engage the Washburn swimmers in a return match tonight at 8:30. In their previous contest the Cornhuskers won by the score of 47 to 37.

Amato and Sutherland, Scarlet veterans, will probably account for a great share of Nebraska's points. In the first meet Amato copped first place in both the 60 and 100 yard free style events and is expected to repeat this performance tonight. Sutherland won the fancy diving event and placed second in the 220 yard free style. He will probably be hard pressed by his team mate, Powell, in the diving, but he has a good chance of winning the 220 as Morns of Washburn rarely nosed him out in their last race.

For Washburn Morns and Edmonston, a freshman, will probably carry the brunt of the attack. Morns stars in the 220 and 440 free style events while Edmonston participates in the diving and shorter free style events. The Kansas boys are also strong in the breast stroke and back stroke, having copped first place in both these events.

The Huskers will leave the coliseum at noon making the trip by car.

The Nebraska lineup:
 440-yard free style relay: Watkins, Young, Dahms, Powell.
 200-yard breast stroke: Thomas, Carle.
 100-yard back stroke: Church, Thompson.
 40-yard free style: Amato, Masterson.
 400-yard free style: Eastaday, Dahms.
 100-yard free style: Amato, Whitworth.
 Fancy diving: Sutherland, Powell.
 220-yard free style: Whitworth, Sutherland.
 350-yard medley relay: Amato, Carle, Masterson.

ALPHA THET, LAMBDA CHI BOWLING CHAMPS

Win League I, II Titles as Round Robin Tournéy Closes Wednesday.

Alpha Theta Chi and Lambda Chi Alpha won the intramural bowling titles in League I and II, respectively, Wednesday afternoon, when the Alpha Thetas defeated Pi Kappa Alpha two matches out of three and Lambda Chi won all three games from Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The Alpha Thet-Pi K. A. match was hard fought all the way, with League I honors at stake in the play. Dill bowled 363 to lead Alpha Theta Chi while Cleveland was high point man for Pi Kappa Alpha with a 564 total.

Don Carr was in excellent form Wednesday, chalking up a 688 score for Lambda Chi Alpha high tally. Bennett led the Sig Alpha keepers, hitting the pins for 501.

Phi Gamma Delta won three games by forfeit from Sigma Nu in League III. Phi Kappa Psi took two of three games from Alpha Gamma Rho, 2254 to 2111. Theta Xi won from Phi Delta Theta in a forfeit match. The win clinched second place for Theta Xi in League II with nine wins and three losses.

"DOC" McLean's fame as a trainer received further proof Wednesday when Tommy Grogan, Omaha's outstanding fistic hope, called on the Nebraska Scotsman at the stadium for help. Grogan, who was accompanied by his new manager, Gene Holmes, has been suffering from a pulled thigh muscle and a badly bent, if not broken, arch.

WOULD "Doc" fix it up for him? About ten minutes later, Grogan got up from the training table with most of the soreness gone from his thigh. His arch was tightly taped.

The "Cascade Clouter" confided that he had wasted good money on an Omaha medic, whom he declared had not helped his trouble in the slightest. Manager Holmes in an aside frankly declared he considered McLean the best trainer in the country, bar none.

FRANK Wykoff, great Southern California sprinter here for the A. A. U. meet last summer, stated that "McLean is the first trainer who ever worked on me that knew what it was all about." At the major cinder carnivals, many track stars prefer "Doc" to give them the once over, although their own trainers travel with them. Tommy Warn, Northwestern pole vaulter of a season ago, and Jim Bausch of Kansas are among those who have asked for McLean.

THE boys are panning Rudy Vomont, a freshman, will probably carry the brunt of the attack. Morns stars in the 220 and 440 free style events while Edmonston participates in the diving and shorter free style events. The Kansas boys are also strong in the breast stroke and back stroke, having copped first place in both these events.

KEARNEY FIVE TRIMS VARSITY B 31 TO 23

Graham Stars for Teachers With 11 Points; Coppel Husker Leader.

Nebraska B team could not keep pace with a fast moving Kearney Teachers five Wednesday night and dropped a 31 to 23 tilt at the coliseum.

The Teachers quintet led all the way except for a brief moment late in the first period, when Coppel came through with a run under to give the Husker B's a short lived 12 to 11 lead.

The game was marked by wild passing and indifferent teamwork. Kearney ran up a 9 to 0 count in the first few minutes of play, only to have the B outfit rally in the closing minutes of the half. Score at the midway mark favored Kearney, 15 to 12.

Graham, flash forward, led the way for the visitors with eleven points, ably seconded by Blazek, center, with nine.

Coppel, Scarlet center, was the bright light for his team, chalking up five field goals and a free throw. Bauer showed up well at forward, caging three baskets.

The varsity B squad meets Peru Teachers Friday night at the coliseum in a preliminary to the Nebraska-Missouri game. Summary:

Impetuosity of the Male Mosquito Is Cause of Downfall

"The female of the species is more coltish than the male." True or not, it is certain that the male of the species will be led to its death by its impetuosity. At least in the case of the male mosquito. Hundreds of them were lured to their death by the siren voice of a machine.

The machine was one that had been used for fusing quartz for an astronomical mirror. It was discovered that the peculiar humming noise of the machine was drawing millions of the male mosquitoes from a nearby swamp.

It was evident that the strange hum of the apparatus was an exact replica of the call of the female mosquito. The terrific heat of the machine instantly killed the insects.

E. F. Powell, of the department of zoology, is not convinced of the practicality of the idea that this may be a way to rid the country of the pest. He is inclined to think that the present method of controlling the insect is more efficient and more deadly in the long run.

The practice to which Mr. Powell referred was that of pouring oil on swamps and similar breeding places, thus, by killing the larva, also killing the adult.

More ideal man qualifications, coeds at Millsaps college in Mississippi have decided that the ideal college man must be able to:

Shoot a flattering line, without laughing; tell funny jokes, once; believe just anything, unless you desire otherwise; keep you guessing, for a while; sing love songs in your ear and carry a tune; be totally indifferent toward girls, except you.

D. GS. AND HOBBY CLUB WIN IN NEBRASKA BALL

Elimination Tournament Is Nearing Its Close With Hot Competition.

The Delta Gammas won two of three games over the Huskerettes and the K-B-Bs in a fast match yesterday afternoon. Both teams were in excellent form and had the maximum number of players and battling was fast and furious. The first encounter left the Delta Gammas victorious with a score of 15 to 11.

In the second match, however, the Huskerettes and K-B-Bs regained lost ground and trimmed their opponents 15 to 2. The final round was hard fought, most of the time the scores were tied. The Delta Gammas finally made two deciding plays which netted them a score of 15 to 13. Evelyn West, student in the physical education department, acted as umpire.

A less exciting match, but equally important in the elimination tourney, was that of the Hobby Club and the Kappa Deltas. The Hobby Club easily won two games from their opponents, scoring 15 to 3 one game and 15 to 4 the second encounter.

The elimination contest draws to a close with the two contests which are scheduled for Thursday: Phi Mu vs. Delta Delta Delta. Alpha Chi Omega vs. Kappa Phi. The semi-finals and finals will be played next week.

B TEAM MEETS COTNER TONIGHT IN FINAL GAME

Cathedral and Milford Will Play Preliminary Tilt Preceding It.

Coach Wilbur Knight's Ag B team will be out for revenge in the season's final game tonight when it meets Cotner university in a return game at the ag college gym. The tilt will begin at 8 o'clock, preceded by a preliminary skirmish between Cathedral of Lincoln and Milford high at 7.

The Ag outfit showed plenty of class in defeating McCook Junior last Thursday by a 39 to 34 score and are favored over John Robert's Bulldog five. The Knights have broken even in their games this season, winning and losing four.

Starting lineup for the Ag team is expected to find Hartley and Ralston at forwards, Wischmeier at center, and Beadle and Snipes at guards. Athletic books will admit, with general admission set at twenty-five cents.
