As an authority upon foreign student opinion and effort, Dr. Koo is unrivaled. As vice chairman of the World Student Christian Federation, he was in a position where he had much friendly contact with the Japanese. He was one of the leaders of a student group in China which, working with a similar student group in Japan, sought to influence their countries to a peaceful settlement of their difficulties. Last fall, in this capacity, Dr. Koo travelled back and forth between China and Japan a great

Dr. Koo has said that he feels that peace must come ultimately through the work of small groups within the nations. He believes that dependence cannot be placed upon international peace machinery alone. That is why he is so interested in all student movements and for that reason he is now touring the United States speaking at different colleges.

DO YOU FAVOR INTRA-MURAL DEBATE? Recent expressions of student and faculty sentiment have favored addition of debate to the Nebraska intramural sports program. Rudy Vogeler, intra-mural athletic director, says such a program could be easily adopted if students should express an interest in it. The Daily Nebraskan, in order to get student reaction to the proposal, is here publishing a ballot which it requests each organized house president, fraternity and sorority, to fill out and return to the Daily Nebraskan office in the basement of U hall Friday or Saturday.

Junior Ak-Sar-Ben Plans Completed Announces Manager Seifer.

All is in readiness at the agricultural college for the presentiation of the annual Junior Ak-Sar-Ben livestock show scheduled for Saturday evening, Manager Fred Siefer announced Thursday night. Ticket sales for the exposition have been moving at a rapid rate, according to Kenneth Reed. Since the building will seat but approximately one hundred and fifty peo ple, more students have purchased their tickets early. Reed says, however, that those planning to at-tend the show will be able to buy tickets at the door Saturday night. Extra seats will be placed in the judging pavilion, where the show is to be held, if necessary. Last year the arena was packed with people for the exhibition.

Present Situation in East Will Be Next Thursday Lecture Topic.

The present situation in regard to the Chinese-Japanese war will be the subject of the talk at the all-university convocation next Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. Captain G. W. Spoerry, instructor in military science, will deliver the address. Captain Spoerry will discuss the present situation in the light of economic and political factors, the standpoint of the Japanese and the reasons for their actions at this time, the internal disorders in China itself, the League of Nations angle of the question, and efforts to bring about peace.

The discussion will be supple mented with large colored maps of the various regions mentioned. The maps have been made by Captain Spoerry and trace the history of that region from the time was opened up to international use until the present day.

Captain Spoerry is familiar with the geographic, political, and ecostimulants to keep going.
