PRICE FIVE CENTS

150 HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS ARE TO RECEIVE AWARDS

Tuitions, Scholarships to Be Awarded Annually Is New Plan.

$70 IS VALUE OF EACH

Academic Contests Will Be Held in Schools May 5, 6 and 7.

One hundred and fifty Nebraska high school seniors will receive tuition scholarships annually during their freshman year at the University of Nebraska under the provisions of a plan recently approved by the board of regents. Details of the plan, which will go into effect next fall, were announced Wednesday by Chancellor E. A. Burnett.

A total of 150 scholarships, good for one year and with an estimated value of $70 each, will be given to winners in an academic contest that will be held in the various schools Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 5, 6, and 7. This plan represents an extension of the academic pentaton system of prizes that has been in effect for several years. Under this system four scholarships had been awarded as prizes.

Divide in Three Groups.

The 470 fully accredited high schools in Nebraska will be divided into three groups, it was explained, so that each group contains about one-third of the entire Nebraska class of 1932. One group will probably contain all schools having not more than 20 graduates, another containing schools having from 21 to 44 graduates, and the third group will have all schools with 45 or more graduates. Each group will be awarded 50 university scholarships.

KLUB ROAD TOUR IS ALMOST COMPLETED

Omaha Considered for April 16; Sioux City and Holdrege Out.

REHEARSALS CONTINUE

Negotiations with out state towns for bookings of "Jingle Belles" will be terminated this week, according to Dick Devereaux, president of the Kosmet Klub. Jack Thompson and Bill Devereaux, members of the Klub business staff, will make a trip to Omaha Thursday to arrange for the appearance of the musical comedy there April 16.

Sioux City, Iowa and Holdrege are definitely out as far as the road trip goes. Norfolk and Fremont are still being considered as possibilities by the Klub. Omaha and Hastings have already signified acquiescence and a trip to Nebraska City will be made in an endeavor to see about connections there, Friday.

Dick Devereaux and Edwin J. Faulkner, business manager of the Klub, will make the Nebraska City trip. The reason for most of the hard luck in booking the road trip is due to the depression, according to Devereaux.

Cast Rehearses. Rehearsals for the entire cast and choruses of "Jingle Belles" are being held in the university coliseum under the direction of Herbert Yenne, author and director, thruout this week. The Temple theater will be secured for the rehearsals next week.

The Lincoln performance of the show is scheduled for April 22 and 23. There is a possibility that the play may be staged three nights if the Temple theater is secured for the show. Nothing definite has been done in signing up a down town theater.

The choruses and the cast will rehearse with the orchestra in the practices next week. The orchestra has not been definitely selected as yet because of eligibility difficulties.

Scenery for the musical comedy is progressing under the supervision of Norman Hoff, who is assisted by Frank Musgrave. The choruses are being coached by Ralph Ireland and Don Easterday is assisting him.

'3 Suns West' Features Eight Couples Dancing the Lively Old Virginia Reel

"Men's heads under, go like thunder," roars Bob Reade, keeping time with his foot, and eight couples comply in the lively Virginia Reel on the Temple theater stage. Two old fashioned dances are a feature of "3 Suns West," current production of the University Players.

Local color and atmosphere are rampant in these party scenes with the "gals" done up in their best calicos and the cowpunchers rigged out in the best each man's "war bag" could produce. Patent leather hued hair, lard-shined boots, cloth trousers, a rare boiled shirt, and multi-colored kerchiefs

DRAMATIC TRY-OUTS TO BE HELD TUESDAY

Aspirants May Read From Sight or Use Own Number.

New candidates for the Dramatic club may try out Tuesday evening, April 5, according to the chairman of the club try-out committee. The committee will meet on that date at 7:30 in the Dramatic club rooms on the third floor of the Temple where the try-outs are to be held.

Ralph Spencer, committee chairman, pointed out that candidates may prepare something specially for the tryout or may read sight material that will be furnished by the committee.

He also stated that all who wish to try out must send information sheets giving the experience in dramatics of each candidate to Reginald Porter before the tryouts are held. These reports may be sent to Porter in care of the Cornhusker office in University hall.

TO ANNOUNCE NEW PHI BETA KAPPAS APRIL 5

University Convocation Will Be Scene of Honorary Society Awards.

Announcement of the Phi Beta Kappa awards for the current year will be made at a university convocation in the Temple theater April 5. A short music program will precede the announcement of the new members of the honorary scholastic society.

The program will be turned over by Prof. J. O. Hertler to officers of Phi Beta Kappa. The officers that will have charge of the program are A. R. Congdon, president, and C. M. Hicks, secretary.

Students from any college are eligible to election to the society providing that they meet the group requirements, according to the rules of the Nebraska chapter. This is contrary to the practice of some schools where only Arts and Science students are eligible.

CERAMICS TEACHER TO SPEAK SUNDAY IN MORRILL HALL

Dr. Raymond Henry Williams, instructor in ceramics, will discuss the subject "How Pottery Is Made" to the general public Sunday afternoon, April 3. The program will be held in room 300 in Morrill hall, at 3 o'clock.

The exhibition of modern pottery which is on display now in Morrill hall will also be open to the public on Sunday.

INSTALLATION OF A.W.S. MEMBERS WILL BE PUBLIC

Special Invitations Will Be Issued Various Groups On Campus.

SERVICES ARE IN APRIL

Present Board Will Continue To Serve; New One Will Attend Meetings.

A public installation of officers and newly elected members of the A. W. S. board was decided upon at a meeting held in the A. W. S. room at Ellen Smith hall Wednesday noon. Present members and newly elected members attended the meeting.

Special invitations to attend the installation will be issued to house mothers, the A. W. S. council of presidents of dormitories, sororities and organized houses and the A. W. S. freshman activities group. The service will be some time during the latter part of April. The present board will serve until that time but new members will attend all meetings.

Plans for the vocational guidance conference, which will be held April 26 and 27, were given by Mary Alice Kelley. Interviews with local women authorities will be arranged for all university women desiring them. In these conferences the business women will try to tell which fields present the most possibilities and are the least crowded. They will discuss salaries and personality traits which are desirable for different types of positions. Willa Norris and Jane Boos, newly elected to the board, were appointed to aid in plans for the conference.

The inter-sorority sing, which will take place on Ivy Day, was discussed by the board as it has charge of this event. Letters will be issued to all sororities asking them to participate and giving the final date for entering the contest. Calista Cooper and Jess Perkins, recently elected as sophomore members of the board, were appointed to assist the present staff in checking A. W. S. date slips.

WOLF SAYS CLASS PRESIDENCIES ARE POLITICAL PLUMS

Believes Committee Should Investigate Their Usefulness.

ABOLITION IS SUGGESTED

Council Decides to Look Into Matter; Report to Be Given Later.

Stating that class presidencies serve absolutely no purpose and that they are nothing more than political plums, Arthur Wolf, editor of the Daily Nebraskan, recommended that the council appoint a committee to investigate the usefulness of such presidencies at the meeting of the Student Council Wednesday night.

Wolf stated that he had written a series of articles in the editorial columns of the Daily Nebraskan explaining his opinion of the offices. He had suggested abolition of the offices, as the minor class offices were treated a few years ago, if no use for them could be found.

Wolf explained that at the present time the class presidencies served no useful purpose. They served only as political plums for men who need to be pushed into activities or for houses whose turn it is to have a candidate, he declared.

The council decided to appoint a committee to investigate the matter. President Edwin Faulkner announced that he would appoint the committee and that a report would be given at the next meeting of the council.

Committee Reports. A summary of the activities of the party realignment committee was given to the council by President Faulkner. He stated that the committee had decided that at the present time abolition of parties was not feasible, and that the committee had decided to try to organize the non-fraternity and non-sorority students into clubs for political purposes mainly.

AWGWAN INTRODUCES HIGH SCHOOL CONTEST

Prizes Will Be Awarded for Best Cartoon and Short, Short Story.

MAIL OUT APRIL NUMBER

In order to sponsor a short story and cartoon contest the Awgwan, Nebraska humor magazine, will mail out copies of the April issue to all of the high schools throughout the state. Cash prizes of $5 will be awarded to the winners of the contests, and those students receiving honorable mention will be given a year's subscription to the Awgwan.

The purpose of the contest, according to Art Mitchell, business manager of the magazine, is to bring out talent in the high schools throughout the state and to acquaint the students with the Awgwan and the university in general. Judges will be selected by the humor magazine staff from the faculty of fine arts, architecture and English departments so that an impartial selection may be made. The contest will close May 15 and is open to any high school student. Mimeographed letters will be mailed to editors of high school publications in the hope that interest will be stimulated.

The June issue will be dedicated to the high schools and the prize winning material will be printed in that issue. The short story contribution may or may not be humorous. The only essential is that it be less than 1,000 words in length. Rules will be outlined in the letters sent the high school editors.

PALLADIANS PLAN PROGRAM

Annual Senior Entertainment Will Be Given Friday Evening at 8:30.

The annual senior program of the Palladian society will be held Friday evening, April 1, at 8:30 o'clock. The program will consist of short skits, according to Ervin Watson, in charge of the program.

Music will be furnished by a quartet consisting of Betsy Benedict, Verna Mae Easton, Calmor Reedy, and Gerald Briggs, also a duo consisting of Betsy Benedict and Alton Pardee. A reading will be given by Bernice Wischmier.

On last Monday night the third term officers were installed. They are Dorothy Atkinson, Lincoln, president; Ervin Watson, Pierce, vice president.

DRAMATIC CLUB WILL NOT MEET THIS WEEK

The regular weekly meeting of the Dramatic club scheduled for Thursday night has been postponed, according to an announcement Wednesday from the newly elected president of the organization, Marvin Schmid. The meeting will be held as usual next week he declared.

COUNTY TAXPAYERS MAKE RESOLUTIONS

Recommend Investigation Of the University by Legislature.

A resolution drawn up at a meeting of the Nebraska Federation of County Taxpayers leagues held at Fremont Tuesday night, concerned the university and the state educational system. The resolution, when proposed, provoked a lengthy and heated debate. It was finally referred to the federation's executive committee.

The resolution, as given to the committee, recommended a legislative investigation of the university looking towards its reorganization and the institution of a more efficient state educational system.

The state supreme court was also criticized for its ruling freeing fraternal property from taxation.

FAIRBURY EDITOR STRESSES PUBLIC SERVICE IN TALK

Doyle Buckles Is Heard by Journalists Wednesday Evening.

Doyle Buckles, managing editor of the Fairbury News addressed the first journalism convocation Wednesday evening in the Social Science auditorium on the community newspaper. The address was given in an informal manner and illustrated with advertising and news layouts.

"Community service" was stressed thruout Mr. Buckles' talk. "The old days of the country newspaper have passed," said the speaker, "formerly the starting up of a country paper was a free-for-all proposition. The cost was small and the papers were generally discontinued soon after they were started. The cost of modern machinery has changed that. Today many country weeklies sell for $50,000."

In explaining what a country newspaper means to the community, Mr. Buckles illustrated how weekly papers help the community by promoting friendship between the business man and the farmer. His own paper was cited as an example of how country weeklies are able to introduce beneficial campaigns for the unemployed, for good roads, and various other civic and community enterprises. Interspersed with his remarks on what a country newspaper means to its community, Mr. Buckles advocated the use of pictures by country weeklies and also the use of complete school notes. "It is surprising," said Mr. Buckles, "the amount of enjoyment the school children get out of reading (Continued on Page 4.)"

WHERRY IS UNABLE TO SPEAK AT FAIR RALLY

Other Speaking Dates Keep Speaker From Making Appearance.

DAVIS WILL SUBSTITUTE

Kenneth Wherry, candidate for governor of Nebraska, will be unable to appear as the principal speaker at the Farmers' Fair rally to be held this evening in Ag hall on the College of Agriculture campus, it was announced Wednesday evening. Other speaking dates caused Wherry to cancel his scheduled appearance at the last minute.

Prof. H. P. Davis, head of the dairy department and member of the faculty advisory board for the 1932 fair, will take Wherry's place on the rally program. It is expected that Professor Davis will talk about fair organization and tell about past experiences with fairs at the college. He has been one of the most enthusiastic faculty members for the fair on the campus for several years.

As previously announced Elvin Frolik, manager of the 1930 fair, will also appear on the evening program. He will tell how the 1930 fair was made successful and probably will offer some suggestions to the senior fair board. To a graduate of the college, Frolik is doing work on his master's degree at the present time.

Every committee will hold individual meetings immediately following the formal program of the rally. Manager Fred Meredith says, "chairmen of the various groups will instruct them about plans for work this year."

Sigma Phi Epsilon Grand Secretary Visits Here

William L. Phillips, grand secretary of Sigma Phi Epsilon, was a guest at the local chapter house last week. Mr. Phillips had just come from the district convention held in Kansas City, Mo. At the conclusion of his visit here he continued on to Manhattan, Kas.

Russ Mousel Will Portray the Part Of Ardent Lover in 'Jingle Belles'

Russ Mousel, who starred in last year's "High and Dry" as the scholarly professor, Albert, takes the part of Tommy Randall, the hero of "Jingle Belles" in Kosmet Klub's 1932 musical comedy. Mousel is registered in the Business Administration college and is a member of Beta Theta Pi. A senior, who comes from Hastings, he is a member of the Innocents society and business manager of the Cornhusker, and was president of the senior class the first semester.

The hero of "Jingle Belles" will be playing before an audience of his home town when the Kosmet Klub production goes to Hastings during spring vacation.

Tommy Randall is the fiance of Helen Barry, the heroine, who is the daughter of Mrs. Barry who owns the summer home where the action of the play takes place. Both Helen and Tommy are seniors in university.

Helen throws Tommy over for Jerry Lambert, the villain, who is a middle aged philanderer who makes love to all the women in the cast. Mrs. Barry has also had an affair with the villain and endeavors to wake Helen up to the worthlessness of the love bird in sheep's clothing by having an infatuation with our Tommy, who reciprocates the love of his fiancée's mother.

Jerry Lambert leaves Helen flat so she returns to her former lover Tommy, and the dying embers of love flame up and burst into a halocaut. Mrs. Barry had planned this, her affair with Tommy, with malice and aforethought, as she wanted to bring about a reconciliation between the two, which could be done only by making Helen jealous of Tommy and by showing up the dyed-in-the-wool villain in his true light.

Mousel winks the heroine with the theme song of the musical comedy, "I Had a Dream Dear" and will sing another solo for the Corncob-Tassel number.

OPEN CAMPAIGN TO ORGANIZE ALL BARB STUDENTS

Political Situation Hoped To Be Improved by This Move.

22 HOUSES TO BE VISITED

Speakers Will Visit Groups Thursday Evening to Explain Purpose.

Opening the campaign to organize non-fraternity students into clubs to facilitate the realignment of political factions, speakers will Thursday evening visit all rooming houses where five or more barb students are living.

Two speakers have been assigned to each pair of the twenty-two houses to be visited between 7 and 8 o'clock. Making the tour are members of the faction realignment committee and others appointed by Edwin Faulkner, president of the student council.

Unorganized students visited will be presented with the proposed plan of reorganization, which would use those houses where there is already a nucleus of organization as a basis for an extensive system of barb clubs.

Letters have been sent to all the houses which will be visited, to enable them to be present to take the first steps in reforming their groups in systematized fashion. It is hoped that after the small groups are once organized they may be able to attract other students to the houses in order to gain the benefits of organization and thus swell the ranks of the "unified barbs."

To Outline Plans. Speakers who are to outline the plans will meet Thursday afternoon (Continued on Page 2.)
