

TRACK TRYOUTS HELD FRIDAY FOR KANSAS RELAYS

Asher and Petz Make Best Marks; Second Trial Is Planned.

TO SELECT TWENTY-ONE

Schulte Will Name Men to Make Trip Early This Coming Week.

Sesco Asher's 1:57.5 effort in the 880 and Harold Petz' performance in coping both the 100-yard dash and the high hurdles featured the varsity track trials for the Kansas relays at Memorial stadium track Friday afternoon. Petz was timed in 10 seconds flat for the century and 15 seconds for the barrier event.

In winning the half, Asher broke the tape ahead of Ostergard, Ayres, Storey and Fink, all of whom were clocked in less than two minutes. The Scottsbluff sophomore stood off a fast spur by Bob Ostergard, the long striding Gothenburg star barely failing to catch Asher at the finish.

Heye Lambertus displayed lots of stuff in winning the 220 from Petz, loafing the last 75 yards. Ostergard took the 440 in 51 seconds with England a close second. Dohrman was second to Petz in the high hurdles and Linus Carroll was third. Rhea threw the discus 130 feet. Hokuf got 129, while Masterson was credited with a heave of 122 feet. Lloyd Long, Newman Grove freshman hurled the javelin 162 feet, 4 inches for the best throw in the spear event, while high jump honors went to Jiggs Pierce with a leap of 5 feet, 10 inches. Heye jumped 21 feet, 6 inches for first in the broad jump. Dean won the pole vault, clearing 12 feet, 3 inches.

Second Trial Planned.

Cosch Schulte declared following the tryouts that he would announce the list of entries for the Kansas track carnival after a second trial early this week. He intimated that twenty-one men would make up the personnel for the Kansas trip. Summary:

100-yard dash: Won by Petz; second, Rota; Time: 10 seconds.

220-yard dash: Won by Lambertus; second, Petz. Time: 22 seconds.

440-yard dash: Won by Ostergard; second, England; third, Siefkes. Time: 51 seconds.

880-yard run: Won by Asher; second, Ostergard; third, Ayres. Time: 1:57.5.

120-yard high hurdles: Won by Petz; second, Dohrman; third, Linus Carroll. Time: 15 seconds.

Discus: Won by Rhea; second, Hokuf; third, Masterson. Distance: 130 feet, 2 inches.

Javelin: Won by Long (fresh). Distance: 162 feet, 4 inches.

Broad jump: Won by Pierce. Distance: 21 feet, 6 inches.

Pole vault: Won by Dean. Height: 12 feet, 3 inches.

LINCOLN WINS STATE DEBATE CHAMPIONSHIP

was in charge of the tournament, explained that all the men who judged the debates had both debating and judging experience.

Out of the fourteen debates throughout the tournament seven decisions were rendered for teams upholding the affirmative and the same number of decisions went in favor of the negative side of the question. This gave a very good indication of the fairness of the question, according to Prof. White.

The results of the first round of the tournament are as follows: Fremont, negative, defeated Pierce; Curtis, affirmative, defeated Geneva; Lincoln, affirmative, defeated Alliance; Kearney, negative, defeated Wymore; Norfolk, negative, defeated Bayard; Omaha North, negative, defeated Syracuse; Osceola, negative, defeated Grand Island; Holdrege drew a bye.

Second Round Results.

The results of the second round: Curtis, affirmative, defeated Norfolk; Kearney, affirmative, defeated Fremont; Osceola, negative, defeated Holdrege; Lincoln, affirmative, defeated Omaha North.

In the semifinals, Friday evening, Lincoln, upholding the negative for the first time, won the decision from Kearney. Osceola took the decision from Curtis, upholding the affirmative.

Judges for the first round debates were Ted Fiedler, Earl C. Fishbaugh, James H. Anderson, Munro Kezer, Charles Gray, Lloyd Popshill and Everett M. Hunt. Lawyers judging the second round debates were C. L. Clark, Joseph Ginsburg and Bernard Gradwohl.

In the semifinal round, Prof. Lane W. Lancaster, of the political science department, and Prof. T. J. Fitzpatrick, of the botany department, were the judges.

Debated Anonymously.

A plan adopted by the league provided for the use of a system whereby the teams should debate anonymously throughout the tournament. Each team was assigned a number and the judges were not supposed to know who the teams were. The system, however, did not work out after the first round debates and the identity of the teams were generally known.

Following the debate Saturday morning, Prof. White announced that some form of the question of national taxation would be the question for debate next year. At present, he indicated, the sales tax principle, which has been the subject of much controversy in congress during the present session, appears to be the most likely phase of the problem for debate.

Prof. White is a member of the committee which will decide upon and word the question some time during this month.

the front main walk of the social science building. Mr. Dunman is having this space sodded. The parking around the building and the mall are not to be sodded, but a combination of 60 percent Kentucky bluegrass with 40 percent, red top, Canada blue, meadow fescue blue, Persian rye grass and white clover is to be sown on these two places. This has already been planted on the east end of the mall.

Mr. Dunman hopes by next season to have crosswalks on the mall with various flowers and bushes arranged in the center.

INTER-COLLEGE NINE TO PLAY THIS WEEK

Leagues Formed; Winner Of Each Will Try for Championship.

According to the schedule released Saturday, seven college baseball lines will cross bats this week in the first tilts of the inter-college hard ball diamond competition.

Two leagues have been formed, with the winners of each group slated to meet during the week of May 9 for the championship. Teachers, Engineers, Pharmacy-Dent and Arts and Science are in League I, with Bizad, Laws and Agriculture in League II.

Rules governing the play have been drawn up by Rudy Vogeler, intramural sports director, with the assistance of the college managers. Each college will play two games a week with the same opponent. The tilts will be seven inning affairs. Managers shall decide on days of play, location and time. It has been suggested that the games start by 4:30.

Bats, balls, bases and catchers' outfits are to be checked out to managers before each game. The latter will be directly responsible for all equipment used. Managers must notify the intramural office by noon on the Monday of each week as to when and where the game for that week will be played.

Complete schedule of the games are as follows:

WEEK OF APRIL 18.

Teachers vs. Engineers. Pharmacy-Dent vs. Arts and Science. Bizad vs. Laws.

WEEK OF APRIL 20.

Teachers vs. Pharmacy-Dent. Engineers vs. Arts and Science. Bizad vs. Agriculture.

WEEK OF MAY 2.

Teachers vs. Arts and Science. Laws vs. Pharmacy-Dent. Laws vs. Agriculture.

GRIMES REPLIES TO DEFENSE BY AWGWAN EDITOR

"It's too bad the Awgwan isn't as full of fire and as funny as the attack upon me," declared George Grimes, literary critic of the Omaha World Herald in replying to Editor Marvin Robinson's defense of the Awgwan as printed in the Friday Daily Nebraskan.

Robinson's "full of fire" criticism of the critic was by the way of rebuke to an article in the World-Herald which declared the Awgwan was "fun without a smile."

On the same day Robinson's defense of the Awgwan was printed an editorial also appeared in the Daily Nebraskan taking Mr. Grimes to task. The April issue of the comic, scheduled to go on sale early this week will also contain Robinson's statement.

Mr. Grimes' original criticism accused the Awgwan of "aping every fun magazine on the market." To this charge the magazine's editor replied: "Now that Mr. Grimes has discovered that the Awgwan is not funny, other college editors will have to revise their sense of humor to meet his 1932 standard. Take for instance the editors of the New York City Mercury, the Illinois Siren, the Georgia Tech Yellow Jacket, the Michigan Gargoyle and others, who in one month reprinted over half the cartoons in that issue of the Awgwan."

The story of Robinson's statement appeared in the World-Herald under the headline "Editor of Awgwan Word-Spans Critic." Mr. Grimes' reply to the criticism of his criticism consisted of a short paragraph at the end of the story.

Team From Teachers College to Practice

Teachers college baseball team will practice Monday afternoon at 3:30 on the Stuart tract diamond. Men interested in playing on this club are asked to call Frank Mueller at B6311 or Delmar Bailor at B2486.

GEORGE SMUTNY came into too close contact with an axe during spring vacation, and as a result the Seward sprinter and hurdler did not compete in the Kansas relays track tryouts Friday afternoon.

It seems that George was chopping wood a bit too lustily, the blade grazing a shin bone. The injury is not expected to prove serious, and will not keep the three year veteran from competing at the Kansas cinder carnival Saturday at Lawrence.

Coach Schulte is pointing Heye Lambertus and Bob Ostergard for the Olympic 400-meter hurdles. Just because the 200-meter low hurdle event is not listed on the Olympic games program is no deterrent to these Gothenburg boys. Lambertus possesses the best hurdling form, but Bob has the edge in speed over the 400-meter distance. His best time in the 400 is 49 seconds. Heye ran the quarter mile during his high school days, his best time hovering around 52 seconds. This experience should be a help in training for the Olympic event.

Nebraska should make a serious bid for honors in three relay events at the Kansas relays at Lawrence Saturday. There is Lambertus, Petz, Smutny, Roby and Lee to choose from for the 440 and 880-yard relays. Smutny should be in shape to go, but whether Lee will be ready is questionable. Jerry has recovered from a bad ankle injury only to fall heir to a "charley horse." If he is able to compete, the Husker rating in the sprint relays will soar.

The Scarlet should do well in the two mile baton passing event, with Asher, Ostergard, Ayres and Storey all running the 880 in under two minutes. It will take a real quartet to beat them.

AMOS ALLEN, '29, IS ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

Amos C. "Barney" Allen '29 is seriously ill with pneumonia at his home in Mitchell. "Barney" when in school was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and graduated from the Pharmacy college.

Mr. Grimes' original criticism accused the Awgwan of "aping every fun magazine on the market." To this charge the magazine's editor replied: "Now that Mr. Grimes has discovered that the Awgwan is not funny, other college editors will have to revise their sense of humor to meet his 1932 standard. Take for instance the editors of the New York City Mercury, the Illinois Siren, the Georgia Tech Yellow Jacket, the Michigan Gargoyle and others, who in one month reprinted over half the cartoons in that issue of the Awgwan."

The story of Robinson's statement appeared in the World-Herald under the headline "Editor of Awgwan Word-Spans Critic." Mr. Grimes' reply to the criticism of his criticism consisted of a short paragraph at the end of the story.

PROGRAM OF FARMERS FAIR BEING ARRANGED

Exhibits and Attractions Planned; Pageant to Be Presented.

Definite arrangement of all Farmer's Fair exhibits and attractions has been made, Gerald Shick in charge of exhibits has announced.

The pageant "Progress of the Prairie" will be presented on the green east of the agricultural engineering building. The dairy and animal husbandry exhibits will be outside, and all others will be located in the College Activities building. Exhibit space has been allotted to each committee, and the exhibit building is in progress, Shick declared.

Fair Manager Fred Meredith announced the tentative program for the day. At 1 o'clock the fair will open with the first presentation of "Progress of the Prairie." The University of Omaha will cross bats with the Ag college nine at 2 o'clock. The horse pulling contest, livestock parade, and tractor testing demonstration will follow the ball game. "Progress of the Prairie" and the Snorpmuch show will be given in the afternoon and again in the evening before the dance.
