This organizations being conducted by a com-mittee who, outside of the faculty members on it, are active mem-bers of fraternities but who realize that the passive interest of non-fraternity men in campus activities should be changed to active participation.

Out of the darkness of world wide depression comes a slow real-ization that individuals and nations cannot go on carrying out their own individualistic schemes without co-ordination and solely for their own selfish, materialistic ends and demonstrates the need of incorporating Christian ideals in our lives, not only in word but in thought and deed as well. That there must be more interest by the there must be more interest by the average individual in his community and his fellowman every day becomes more apparent. Our university career should prepare us to take that place in society.
