

George Sauer Nominated to Call Plays Against Minnesota Team

FULLBACK GETS FIRST CHANCE IN TUESDAY'S DRILL

Varsity Appears Ragged in Protecting Punters and Passers.

Hokuf in Suit But Refrains From Active Part in Grid Workout.

Selection of George Sauer as field general for the Husker grid forces was an outstanding development Tuesday as the varsity continued to iron out their mistakes in the Iowa State game and at the same time learn the offensive tricks of Bernie Bierman's Minnesota eleven.

While Sauer has been designated to choose the plays, he will not bark signals, this function being retained by one of the other half-backs, probably Masterson for the first string and Miller for the second. Also, this marks Sauer's initial experience at directing the team, the ex-Lincoln high star is expected to start against Minnesota in his new role.

A new backfield combination having Sauer, Boswell, Mathis and Staab to do the ball carrying chores made its first appearance against the freshmen Tuesday afternoon. Coach Bible experimented with several sets of backs, however, one finding Masterson, Boswell, Sauer and Mathis behind the line and the other using Miller, Murray, Parsons and Fahrbruch.

Kicking and passing were stressed in Tuesday's workout. Ed Weir summoned his biggest linemen and backs to rush the varsity punters and passers. The frosh, tagged with the names of Minnesota players, persistently bothered the Scarlet regulars, sitting through consistently to smother the kicker or passer. The Nubbins also using the Gopher defense scrimmaged against the second varsity, only punts and passes being on the program.

Wednesday's drill will see a scrimmage between the freshmen and varsity, with both outfits unloading its tricks on each other. It will be the final hard workout before the Minnesota tilt.

Steve Hokuf was in suit Tuesday, but did not take an active part in the session. His ankle is too sore and stiff to permit the Crete end to do any more than hobble around as yet. Bob Joy occupied Hokuf's place at right end Tuesday, with Penney at left end.

One of the heaviest teams in the country, the Minnesotans also combine speed with their bulk. The Gopher starting lineup against Purdue last week displayed a line averaging 195 pounds and a backfield tipping the beams for an average of 185 pounds.

The Husker party will leave Lincoln about 7 p. m. Friday night, arriving in Minneapolis about 8:30 Saturday morning.

Amherst upperclassmen with an average of above eighty are entrusted with their own responsibility in attending classes.

FEW CASUALTIES IN AMES PIGSKIN CAMP

Survive Husker Tilt With Minor Injuries; Play K. U. Saturday.

AMES, Ia.—The Cyclones survived last Saturday's battering at the hands of the Cornhuskers without a single severe injury, and consequently will be able to use their strongest combination in the homecoming game with Kansas Saturday.

Jack Breyer of Des Moines, center; Paul Berger of Manchester, Mo. tackle, and Gerald Smith of Milwaukee, Wis., guard, veterans who had been out of the lineup for two weeks, got into the Nebraska scrap and showed up well. Their injuries did not bother them and they will be ready for the opening whistle Saturday.

Cyclone athletes who got into the Nebraska game were sent thru a light signal practice by Coach George Venker yesterday. All reserves and other members of the squad scrimmaged against the freshmen.

Dana Shifted to Half.

The major change in the lineup for homecoming will be the shifting of Amos Dana of Burlington from guard to halfback. Dana was an outstanding freshman back, but because of a scarcity of linemen this fall was converted into a guard. Dana, a sophomore, will take over the responsibility of calling the plays. This will relieve Dick Grefe, who, in addition to his spectacular running, has been punting, passing and calling signals.

Dwight Garner, another sophomore who has been playing alternately at guard and center, will take over Dana's duties at right guard. William Dixon of Colfax seems to be established at right tackle, while Hiram Roe of Ames and Berger are fighting it out for first call at left tackle. Andrew Farrell of Omaha, Neb. and Ivan Impson of Des Moines, are at present first choices for ends while Jack Beyer's weight gives him the

Arizona Team Claims Touchdown as Flood Lights Fail During Night Game

C. N. S. Sports Editor. Let the football rules committee figure out this problem—what happens when the lights go out during a night game?

This situation arose last fortnight at Tucson, Ariz., where Loyola university was playing the University of Arizona—and almost led to serious complications. The Desert students had prepared a fireworks display for the period between halves, and a student electrician had orders to "douse the lights when you hear the timer's gun ending the half." He waited conscientiously.

Floyd Jolley of Loyola flipped a pass to Captain Karagozian, who leaped to catch it at the same time an Arizona back jumped to intercept.

At this precise moment an advantage over Magnus Lichter of Algonia at center.

Grege of Des Moines, Donald Theophilus of Smithland and Ed Schafroth of Des Moines will continue in the backfield while Dana will replace Williams at right half. Harold Templeton of Ochevedan, giant end, will not be able to get into the homecoming game because of a knee injury received in the game with Morningstar.

CAMPUS LEAGUE TO DISCUSS THREE PARTY PLATFORMS

The Campus league, an auxiliary of the City League of Women Voters will hold its second meeting of the year Thursday at Ellen Smith hall at 4 o'clock. A new president and vice president will be elected as Louise Wallace, former president, was unable to return this year and Jane Boos, vice president is over-pointed.

The group is prepared to discuss comparison of the platforms of the three leading political parties in the coming election. Anyone interested is urged to attend as the league always takes in new members at this time of year.
