

HUSKER B TEAM NIPS COTNER ELEVEN, 6-0

Eldridge and Skewes Lead Drive for Touchdown in Second Quarter.

With Ralph Eldridge setting the pace with some fine open field running, the Nebraska B team rallied in the second quarter to push over a touchdown and cap a 6 to 0 decision from the Cotner Bulldogs Friday night in the Homecoming tilt at Bethany field.

Glenn Skewes, Bud Parsons and Ken White, all had a share in producing the winning tally, with White taking the ball over on a tackle smash on the fourth down. The Nubbins were outplayed by the aggressive Cotner attack, but came back hard in the second quarter to take the play away from the Bethany team.

a Cotner fumble on his one-foot line in the first quarter, after runs by Sommerhalder and several penalties placed the Bulldogs on the B team 2-yard line. Three tries at the line got Cotner nowhere, and then Sommerhalder fumbled on the fourth down.

Cotner Tricks Passes.

Immediately following the Husker touchdown, Cotner uncorked a passing attack that carried them clear down the field, only to lose a touchdown when Sommerhalder's 35-yard flip to Bailey over the goal line was ruled offside.

The second half found the Huskers in possession of the ball most of the time, but they lacked the finishing punch to score. Skewes and Parsons were consistently getting away for good yardage, but the Bulldog line tightened near the goal.

Featuring the Nubbins play was the work of the line, which stopped the Bulldogs repeatedly for no gain. Skewes and Bailor divided the punting duties for the B's, while Sommerhalder added the kicking job to his passing and running talent.

Jack Thomas' defensive work in backing up the line stood out for the Nebraska team, while Justice, Keriakedes and Armstrong excelled in the line.

BOOKLET OF NEBRASKA ARTISTS IS OFF PRESS

Survey Contains Biographies And Reproductions of State Paintings.

MISS BUCKLIN IS EDITOR

"Nebraska Art and Artists," a booklet published by the University of Nebraska Fine Arts department and edited by Miss Clarissa Bucklin, has just been released. Of eighty-two pages, the booklet is a comprehensive survey of the contributions to the art world made by Nebraska artists.

The cover design is a photographic effect of the front view of Morrill hall with the state capitol in the background done by Dwight Kirsch.

All illustrations in the booklet were taken from paintings in the school of fine arts collections in Morrill hall with the exception of the early pictures, which the State Historical society owns, and the portrait of Mrs. Charles H. Morrill.

Cunningham is Contributor.

"Nebraska Art and Artists" contains a group of biographies of living artists and an article by Martha Turner on the early artists of Nebraska. Harry F. Cunningham has contributed a chapter on the influence of the Nebraska state capitol upon the architectural world, and Paul H. Grummann writes about the Joslyn Memorial.

There are also articles on art organizations, art in the public schools, the Nebraska school of fine arts, and early art teachers. The section of the pamphlet devoted to early artists of the state is the result of long and painstaking research on the part of Miss Turner.

Contains List of Artists.

As quoted from the preface, "The University of Nebraska school of fine arts is breaking pioneer ground in publishing this pamphlet. No systematic attempt has ever been made to collect material on Nebraska art and artists." From many sources Miss Bucklin has compiled a list over 500 artists of the state, most of them of renown.

The purpose of "The Nebraska Art and Artists" is to stimulate public interest in the realm of art and to create a consciousness of the importance of the contributions of Nebraska and Nebraskans.

Copies may be obtained in the Fine Arts library at Morrill hall.

WATER POLO SPORT OFFERS NEW TWIST

Vogeler Arranges Practice Sessions to Instruct New Style Play.

Water polo played like basketball is the new twist in sports offered by fraternities men this year by Rudolph Vogeler, intramural athletic director.

To acquaint the Greek players with this new style of water polo, Vogeler has arranged for half hour practice sessions every night this week starting at 8 o'clock when varsity swimmers will coach those who wish to get the jump on their fraternity competitors.

Believing that the orthodox water polo game has more disadvantages than merits, Director Vogeler anticipates great enthusiasm among the contests for soccer water polo, as it is called. Its outstanding features are as follows:

1. Rough tackling or holding a man under the water is illegal.
  2. The ball cannot be held with both hands.
  3. There are no touch goals in soccer water polo, as the ball must be thrown into a net measuring eight feet wide by three feet high.
  4. The two goals are set up in the water at each end of a 20-foot playing field.
- A total of twenty-two fraternities has filed entries for the competition which gets under way a week from Monday. They are: Phi Gamma Delta, Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Sigma Phi, Alpha Gamma Rho, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Kappa Alpha, Delta Tau Delta, Phi Kappa Psi, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Lambda, Sigma Nu, Phi Delta Theta, Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Sigma, Phi Kappa, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Theta Xi, Zeta Beta Tau, Delta Upsilon, Phi Sigma Kappa and Farm House.

NEBRASKA STAGES BRILLIANT RALLY

coined a long pass but it was incomplete. Graham made three yards off left tackle, but Lee Penney sloughed him for a 13-yard loss on the following play. Russell punted to Masterson, with the Huskers trying some line bucks as the game ended.

With Doug Russell, McMillin's quarterback and one of the finest ball carriers ever seen at Memorial stadium teaming up with Ralph Graham, a hard smashing line dominated completely the first half. Nine first downs were compiled by the Manhattan ball luggers in the first two quarters, while Nebraska could not boast of a single first down.

Russell Great Punter.

The Scarlet found themselves in hole after hole put there by the consistent sharp shooting punting by Russell, and it was only Steve Hokuf's steady work on goal line kicks that staved off the ever-threatening McMillin attack.

Although the Aggies had the ball in their possession most of the first half, only once did they dangerously imperil the Nebraska goal. That was in the second quarter when a beautiful seventeen yard cutback by Russell and some solid smashes by Graham planted the leather on the Husker 22-yard line. Graham's pass to Breen was intercepted by Staab on his 10-yard line, but Hokuf lifted a dazzling 70-yard punt to put his team out of danger.

Tater Rouses Team.

It was the insertion of Fahrbruch, the Crete sophomore, midway in the third quarter that aroused the Nebraska backfield to launch an offensive drive. Tater made a startling debut with an 8-yard drive off tackle. With Mathis, Penney and Fahrbruch alternating, the Bibliemen advanced the ball to the K-Aggie 34-yard line in the fourth quarter in their first scoring gesture. Masterson's 18-yard pass to Hokuf was ruled interference, which put it on the 18-yard marker. Chris Mathis, running very hard steamed around right end for twelve yards on the next play. The ball was on the 6-yard line, but the Huskers were stopped on Tater's incomplete pass in the end zone.

Outstanding in the Nebraska line was Hokuf at right end; Clare Campbell at left guard; Ulysses Schleuter, left tackle; Lawrence Ely, center, and Gail O'Brien, right tackle. Debus played a fine game, stopping many plays aimed at the right side of the Husker line as did Penney. Masterson, Mathis, Fahrbruch and Boswell, although he played a few minutes, stood out in that great drive down the field.

The lineups:
Nebraska— Penney—Kan. State
Boswell—Haskell
Fahrbuch—Haskell
Ely—Michigan
Debus—Nebraska
O'Brien—Nebraska
Hokuf—Nebraska
Masterson—Nebraska
Mathis—Nebraska
Staab—Haskell
Penney—Nebraska

Touchdown: Boswell.
Substitutions: Kansas State, Morgan for Breen, Hanson for Zeckler, Dalton for Maddox, Nelly for Haster, Nebraska, Jay for Roby, Campbell for Bishop, Schleuter for Pflum, Fahrbruch for Staab, Boswell for Penney, Penney for Roby.

When it comes to slippery and speedy, scintillating ball carriers, Doug Russell, Kansas State sophomore quarterback must be given a seat in the front of the class. This had required at least two Nebraska tacklers to haul him down on the average play. The smooth way he ran the Husker ends sent shivers through loyal Scarlet spectators, for once past the line of scrimmage the McMillin back was doubly dangerous. A punter who placed his kicks with monotonous regularity out of bounds inside the Cornhusker 20-yard line, Russell needs only to add passing skill to his bundle of talents.

It's not hard to realize that the K-Aggie quarterback scored two touchdowns against the strong Purdue line, now. On punt returns, Russell averaged twelve yards.

From the way the Manhattan boys took the play away from Coach Bible's team the first three quarters, it looked very sad indeed for the Husker cause. Without George Sauer and Corwin Hulbert, two towers of strength, the case appeared rather hopeless. However, Ulysses Schleuter, the blond from Fremont played a grand game at Hulbert's left tackle position to ease the situation there. Clare Campbell and Gail O'Brien were frequently found in the Kansas State backfield, too.

Pitt's 12 to 0 victory over Notre Dame certainly sets up the Nebraska tilt with the Panthers here on Nov. 12. What a game that should be.
