ANNUAL EXTENDS SALES CAMPAIGN FOR SINGLE WEEK

Business Manager Urges All Students to Buy Now At Low Prices.

PLAN TO SHARE PROFITS

Husker Coed Contest Closes With Completion of Drive.

"The initial sale of year books has been extended for a period of one more week, to definitely end on Nov. 11, the last day of sales at which the present discount will be offered."

The business manager feels that the support given the Annual during the first week was no indication of the feeling of every true student, but that the students have no doubt been waiting to purchase their books during the next week, and "it can not be too impudently stated that success of a Cornhusker depends upon the support of every individual of the university."

When the final count of sales is made Friday, Nov. 11, Skade believes that students will have taken advantage of the special bargain prices.

The profit sharing plan is making the students realize that they

CHILDREN'S THEATER PRESENTS FIRST PLAY

Students Produce 'Rebecca Of Sunnybrook Farm' On Two Days.

FOURTEEN TAKE PARTS

"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," the year's first offering of the Lincoln Children's Theatre, was presented in the Temple theatre Friday night and Saturday afternoon, November 4 and 5, to appreciative audiences.

The play concerns the adventures, joys and disappointments of the twelve-year-old Rebecca who is sent from her home to "become a lady" under the strict tutelage of her two maiden aunts.

The part of Rebecca was portrayed by Parline Gellatly, of the university dramatic faculty, but the member of the cast who received the largest ovation was little four-month-old Alice Ann Reade, daughter of Robert Reade, stage manager for the University Players. She played her role like a veteran, with the exception of a few tears when the loud voices of the actors offended her.

- The complete cast: Aunt Miranda... Dorothy Zosmer... Aunt Jane... Clara Christensen... Mrs. Perkins... Marjorie Dean... Mrs. Simpson... Virginia Jones... Peterson... Pauline Gellatly... Emma Jane... Lois Patterson... Minnie... Beth Lanford... Clara Belle... Betty Ladd... Simpson baby... Ann Reade... Jeremiah Cobb... Edwin Quinn... Adam Ladd... Clifton Conaway... Abigail... John Chapman... Mr. Simpson... Leonard Beckelman

Thompson Says Skits Have Entertainment Value And Talent.

COMMITTEE WILL DECIDE

"An unusually good array of talent and entertainment value" was the statement made Friday by Jack Thompson, chairman of the Kosmet Klub judging committee, concerning the acts judged, after all skit entries for the Thanksgiving Morning Revue had been considered by the committee. Judging took place from Tuesday to Thursday last week.

Eighteen skits, representing twenty-seven campus organizations were entered for the revue. The judging committee, consisting of Thompson, Joe Alter, Frank Musgrave, and Wally Frankfurt, will meet in the near future and make the final decision as to the acts to be used in the production.

"Practically all of the skits we judged possessed great entertainment possibilities," Thompson declared Friday. "It will be difficult for the committee to finally decide upon the skits to be used in the revue."

Teachers' Placement Bureau States That Supply of Instructors Exceeds Demand During Last Three Years

"We have recommended you as one well qualified for the position herewith indicated.—Please apply at once."

The student-teacher who received such a notice from the teachers' placement bureau (the Department of Educational Service) during the past year was fortunate indeed.

In normal times school officials in Nebraska and neighboring states ask the University of Nebraska for more than a thousand teachers each year to fill vacancies in their school systems; in fact, in the peak year of 1929 the number reached 1,459, more than enough jobs to go around for all who could qualify, since the number of candidates registered was 1,287. Normally approximately 80 percent of the teachers registered with the placement department secure positions.

Three years has seen this situation completely reversed. From Sept. 1, 1931, to Sept. 1, 1932, only 574 requests for teachers were received, and 1,496 teachers were registered, enough positions to go a little more than one-third of the way around. Percent of appointments dropped to thirty-nine. It should be remembered in this connection that there has been no corresponding drop in school enrollments.

D.A.D. INITIATION FEATURES ANNUAL DAD'S DAY RITES

Joyce Ayres and His Eleven Piece Band to Play During Lunch.

Arrangements for the Dad's Day luncheon next Saturday and the remainder of the day have been nearly completed, according to Phil Brownell, innocent in charge of Dad's Day.

Joyce Ayres and his eleven piece orchestra have been secured to play during the luncheon. Two special speakers will talk, after which the banquet will feature the annual initiation of all Dads into the order of Delta Alpha Delta, exclusively for the dads.

Jack Thompson, president of the innocents, will act as toastmaster to this gathering in the Chamber of Commerce hall to be decorated with "N" blankets and pennants of the University of Nebraska.

Expect Large Crowd.

A larger crowd of dads is expected Saturday than ever before because of the Nebraska-Pittsburgh football game which will bring many more to Lincoln than would have otherwise come. All dads have been invited to attend this dad's day function, held annually in honor of every dad, and in addition, invitations have been extended to Chancellor and Mrs. E. A. Burnett, Governor Bryan, Dean T. J. Thompson and his wife, to all the deans and professors of the various colleges, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ramsey.

After the noonday luncheon, all the dads and sons will march in a parade behind the band to the stadium where they will occupy a special section during the game.

Tickets for the luncheon have been distributed to the Interfraternity Council representatives, members of the Barb and Interclub councils, and will be given to the Panhellenic council Monday afternoon.

TODAY OBSERVED AS ANNUAL GO TO CHURCH SABBATH

Burnett Urges Students to Attend Denominations of Their Choice.

FOLLOWS OLD TRADITION

Local Churches Plan Special Services, Sermons, and Meetings.

Today is "Go To Church" Sunday on the university campus, and students are accepting the invitations extended by the Lincoln churches to attend the special services today planned particularly for the students in Lincoln.

The sabbath day known as "Go To Church" Sunday is an annual occurrence and is sponsored by the various religious organizations on the campus thru their centralized group the Council of Religious Welfare of the University of Nebraska of which Dr. B. C. Hendricks, associate professor of chemistry, is president; Rev. Henry Erik, vice president, and Dorothy Weibusch, is secretary.

In a statement to the University of Nebraska student body regarding this All-University church day, Chancellor E. A. Burnett states:

A Long-Standing Tradition.

"Sunday, Nov. 6, is Go To Church Sunday at the University of Nebraska. This is a tradition of long standing at the university and I hope that many students who have not yet identified themselves with a church here, will attend the church of their choice this Sunday—thus beginning to take an interest in the religious life of this community.

"To each one of you it may have a different meaning but I desire to pass along to you the suggestion that you attend church some—"

BARB GROUP FINISHES PARTY ARRANGEMENTS

Council Expects Best Crowd Of Year for Affair on Dad's Day.

Having secured Red Perkins and his Dixie Ramblers to play for the All University Party to be held on Dad's Day, Saturday, Nov. 12, plans for the affair are complete. The band features an imitation of the Mills Brothers and the novelty numbers.

Sponsors believe the Ramblers coupled with the new low admission prices announced last week, will draw the largest crowd of any party this year. Having declared themselves in favor of the innocents' plans for permanently decorating the collection of the Barb council, has also announced that the proceeds of this party and all others held during the year will go to swell the fund.

Since decorations for this year's parties have already been contracted for, the sponsors will not follow the innocents' precedent in using no decorations. Blue and white will be the colors used at the Dad's Day party to harmonize with the orchestra platform colors.

HAWKEYES SCORE TWICE NEAR END

Desperate Passing Attack in Final Period Has Huskers On Run After Bible's Team Had Tallied Two Touchdowns Earlier in Game.

SCARLET OUTCLASSES OSSIE SOLEM'S ELEVEN

Tater Fahrbruch Sprints 72 Yards to First Counter in Second Quarter; Hokuf Flips to Masterson for Second Late in Third Period.

IOWA CITY, Ia.—A fighting Iowa team put on a gallant exhibition in a fourth quarter scoring assault Saturday afternoon but failed to catch up with Nebraska, the Huskers squeezing out a 14 to 13 victory. About 8,000 witnessed the game.

A lad by the name of George Teyro, who suddenly unlimbered aerials of the bullet-like variety in the final period, forced largely in the two Hawkeye touchdowns. Joe Laws, fleet Iowa halfback, flitted through the Cornhusker defense to nab Teyro's pass and run ten yards to the first touchdown. An offside penalty nullified the Hawks' try for point, preventing what would have been a tie. Under the new rule Laws got another shot at the extra point but his boot was wide.

It was this same Laws who two minutes later sprinted down the sidelines to the 7-yard line, after taking a lateral tossed him by Bernard Page. Here the Nebraska line held for three downs, and then Teyro flipped a pass to Dickinson, negro end who grabbed the ball in the end zone for Iowa's second touchdown. Laws converted the extra point.

With only about a minute to play, Coach Bible inserted George Sauer who hit the line for three plays and fumbled on the fourth as the game ended.

Fahrbruch Stars.

Tater Fahrbruch and his 72-yard run to a touchdown in the second quarter furnished the only highlight of the first half. Fahrbruch had perfect efficiency on the play, the Crete fullback dash—"

DR. MANTER TO SPEAK ON MUSEUM PROGRAM

Professor to Discuss Animal Life in Florida and Mexican Gulf.

The adult section of the regular Sunday afternoon Nebraska state museum program will have the opportunity of hearing Dr. H. W. Manter, associate professor of zoology, speak on "Animal Life of the Dry Tortugas, Florida, and the Coral Islands of the Gulf of Mexico," this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock in the downstairs auditorium of Morrill hall.

Doctor Manter has been a student of this type of animal life for some time and for the past three years has been associated during the summer months with the Tortugas laboratories off Key West, Fla. During the summer just past, Doctor Manter continued his studies of the parasites of deep sea fish.

The theme of the children's program beginning at 2:30 o'clock will be "China." In illustrating this theme, an authentic collection of Chinese wood carvings will be used, which demonstrate various phases of life in China.

The children will also see a film entitled "Ocean Tears" in which is depicted the method of evaporating salt from the ocean. The film was made in the Bahama islands. A second film, the title of which is yet to be announced, will also be shown to the children.

These regular Sunday afternoon museum programs have been well attended, according to Miss Marjorie Shanafelt, curator of visual education and director of the museum programs.
