

The Daily Nebraskan

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXII—NO. 40.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1932.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

OVER 2,000 EXPECTED TO COME TO ANNUAL DADS DAY LUNCHEON

Prominent Speakers Secured To Address Parents Saturday Noon.

About 2,500 dads and their sons and daughters are expected to attend the annual Dad's Day luncheon in the chamber of commerce building Saturday, according to Phil Brownell, innocent in charge of the traditional function.

The luncheon is part of the Dad's Day program planned in connection with the Pittsburg-Nebraska football game. W. C. Rundin, Wahoo, has been secured as special speaker for the affair. Mr. Rundin is chaplain of the State Volunteer Firemen's Association and is well known throughout the state, according to Dr. G. E. Condra, faculty sponsor of the Innocents society.

Prominent Citizens Present.

A number of other prominent citizens will be introduced to the dads during the luncheon, including Chancellor E. A. Burnett; Dean T. J. Thompson; Stanley D. Long, president of the board of (Continued on Page 2.)

AXLING TO SPEAK AT FRIENDSHIP DINNER

Fifth International Banquet Here Is Scheduled for Friday Evening.

Dr. William Axling of Tokyo, Japan, a graduate of the University of Nebraska whose missionary work in Japan has earned for him the title of "Statesman-missionary" of that country, will be the speaker at the fifth international friendship banquet, which will be held Friday evening, Nov. 11, at 6:15 at the First Christian church.

This dinner, sponsored annually by the university council of Religious Welfare, is held for the purpose of fostering friendship between students of the different nations which are represented on the campus.

Dr. Axling's greatest work in Tokyo has been the founding of the Misaki Tabernacle, a center from which work of evangelization, education, and social service is carried on. This institution has helped in the restoration program following the earthquake.

From his post in Japan Dr. Axling has been called several times to furnish information of the Japanese and conditions in their country. He attended the Washington Conference on Limitation of Armament in 1921 and conferred with various delegations. On another occasion he was called to address a group of congressmen.

ESSAY WINNERS WILL RECEIVE CASH PRIZES

Women Students to Write On Proposed Rights Amendment.

Writers of two winning essays on the proposed equal rights amendments will receive cash prizes of $500 and $200 from Mrs. H. P. Belmont, president of the National Women's Party.

The essays may be on any phase of the proposed amendment to the United States constitution which reads, "Men and women shall have equal rights throughout the United States and every place subject to its jurisdiction."

Mrs. Belmont will also give the winners of the first and second prizes a round trip to Washington to receive the prizes which will be awarded in June, 1933.

Contestants must be undergraduate women carrying full time schedules in some college in 1932 or 1933. The contest closes at midnight, Feb. 1, 1933.

TEXT BOOKS INVESTIGATED

Technology College Students Of Washington Will View Changes.

SEATTLE. (CNS). Full investigation of engineering textbook changes during recent years this week was undertaken by students in the college of technology at the University of Washington.

If any unjustifiable changes are found to have been made—possibly for the purpose of forcing students to purchase new books—protests will be sent to the university administration, with recommendations as to remedies for the situation, it was announced.

SELLECK STRESSES NEED OF ORDERING CORNHUSKERS NOW

States None Can Purchase Year Book After It Goes to Press.

Stressing the fact that there will not be any Cornhuskers available to those who do not purchase before the book goes to press, business manager Charles Skade yesterday made public a statement issued by John K. Selleck, secretary of the publication board.

The official statement:

To the Students:
The policy of the 1933 Cornhusker staff to print only a sufficient number of annuals to fill orders received in advance is again being adopted at the request of the Student Publications board. This course has been proved the best possible solution to the difficult situations which arose three years ago, due to the increasing number of students who put off purchase of the book until distribution of the Cornhusker in May.

The pursuance of this policy two years ago meant that those students who did not express (Continued on Page 2.)

Phone Calls Answered

By "Beat Pitt" Slogan
"Beat Pitt" was the slogan being used Tuesday by enterprising pledges at several fraternity and sorority houses in an attempt to inject football spirit into the routine business of answering telephone calls. A hasty survey late Tuesday night indicated that the movement was gaining favor, three of four houses called answering with the pep slogan.

'N' CLUB CHOOSES HOKUF TO POSITION ON ATHLETIC BOARD

Nine New Members Initiated Into Group; Gopher Tilt Pictured.

Steve Hokuf, prominent University of Nebraska athlete, was elected to represent the "N" club on the university athletic board at a meeting of the club held Tuesday evening in the coliseum. Hokuf is an innocent and has been president of the "N" club since the first of the school year. Selection was made by popular vote of the members present. His term begins immediately and will continue until June.

Hokuf is the second student member to be elected on the board in conformity with the plan passed by the board of regents last spring allowing two student representatives on the Athletic board. Jack Erickson is the other student member on the board having been elected by the student council at its first meeting this fall.

During the meeting nine new members were initiated into the club, Jack Miller, John Roby, Bob Joy, Glen Jones, Heye Lambertus, Henry Chamberlin, SESCO (Continued on Page 2.)

LINDLEY ADDRESSES STUDENTS TUESDAY

Teachers College Classes Dismissed to Hear Chancellor.

Emphasizing the importance of personality, E. H. Lindley, chancellor of the University of Kansas, spoke at a convocation of Teachers college students Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. Teachers classes were dismissed for student attendance.

Dr. Lindley implied in his address that persons were the most important things in the world. "Throughout the ages," he declared, "personality has been the dominant element in every form of life."

Speaking in connection with National Education week which now is being observed, Mr. Lindley also spoke before the Faculty Men's dinner club at the University club, on the topic, "A New Frontier." Tuesday afternoon he was the guest of Chancellor E. A. Burnett.

Dr. Lindley is the only college dean in the United States who is also a registered pharmacist, according to Dean Rufus G. Lyman.

Y. M. TO USE 'MITE BOXES'

New Plan to Replace Former Nebraska-in-China Drive. Of Organization.

The industrial staff of the Y. W. C. A. is planning to replace the Nebraska-in-China drive usually held in the spring with a "mite-box" system. According to this plan, donations will be received throughout the year. Anyone who wishes a mite-box may secure one at Ellen Smith hall.

STUDENTS CENSOR ADMINISTRATION AT NEW YORK COLLEGE

Right of Free Speech Cause Of Mock Trial Held By Liberal Club.

NEW YORK. (CNS). Bitter clashes of student and administrative opinion at New York City college over the right of free speech this week had succeeded in stirring already burning animosities to a fever heat.

Prohibited from holding political or similar meetings on the campus, outraged members of the suppressed Liberal club at the college retaliated by threatening to hang President Frederick B. Robinson and Dean Paul H. Linehan in effigy, but instead hired the Central opera house for a mock trial.

Students Act as Jury.
The "trial," at which some 1,500 students acted as the jury, was the culmination of a series of administrative actions aimed at the Liberal club, the controversy first being focused on the issue of free speech several weeks ago when President Robinson refused to allow a political meeting on the campus.

The meeting, nevertheless, was held just off the college grounds, where speakers, principally candidates for public office, roundly censured the president for his as (Continued on Page 2.)

Former Player Returns to Lincoln in New Role

Jack Rank, former University of Nebraska player, played the part of Herr August Poons in David Belasco's comedy-drama "The Music Master" presented by the Misner Players at Lincoln high school auditorium Monday evening. This is the first of a series of three plays being staged by the Lincoln Y. M. C. A. The second play will be given Dec. 13.

MILITARY RALLY TO BE PRESENTED BY R.O.T.C. REGIMENT

Pep Meeting Friday Will Be Modeled After Plan at West Point.

A uniform military rally, worked out on the scheme used at West Point military academy before football games, will be presented in Nebraska Memorial stadium Friday afternoon at 3:15 by the entire R. O. T. C. regiment as one of the features of an entire week of pep demonstrations preceding the Pitt game.

Pershing Rifles, Scabbard and Blade, and every military unit including the band will participate in the rally which will include silent cheering by means of military salutes and formations, and competitive yelling by each platoon, company and battalion, climaxed by mass cheering of the entire regiment. One regular varsity player will be assigned to each individual company, this player to receive special recognition by an ovation from the company.

Classes Dismissed.
The program will probably last (Continued on Page 2.)

STUDENT COUNCIL TO ORGANIZE NEW FORUM

Committee Members Will Be Named at Meeting Wednesday Night.

The student council will meet Wednesday night to select the committee for organizing and supervising the student forum which will be conducted under its guidance. The student forum is a reorganization of the world forum which in the past was sponsored jointly by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. Like the original organization, the purpose of the new forum will be to sponsor periodical discussions of timely topics with prominent speakers present at the meetings.

The council will select one representative from each of four organizations on the campus; the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A., the A. W. S. board, and the student council. These four will then choose a fifth member-at-large to serve with them on the committee in governing the student forum.

The committee will directly sponsor the forum but will be responsible to the student council, which took over the control from the former sponsors of the world forum, in compliance with the request that the organization should (Continued on Page 2.)

CAST FOR NEXT PLAY TO BE RELEASED SOON

'As Husbands Go' to Be Given Nov. 14 Calls For Ten Parts.

The complete cast for "As Husbands Go," a three-act comedy written by Rachel Crothers which the University Players have chosen as their next production, will be announced Thursday. Ten parts are to be selected for the play, which will be presented the week of Nov. 14.

A prologue and three acts, the former laid in a Paris cabaret and the latter in the home of a banker of Dubuque, Ia., are the scenic divisions.

Rachel Crothers, the playwright, has several theatrical successes to her credit aside from this comedy, which was produced on Broadway in March, 1931, and ran for six months. "Nice People," "39 East," and "A Little Journey" were three of her early successes. Then came "Let Us Be Gay," which had an exceptionally long run and was then filmed. "As Husbands Go" is the last play she has written.

These Coeds Candidates for 'Nebraska Sweetheart'

Top row, left to right: Miss Jeannette Clark, Omaha, Alpha Chi Omega; Miss Leola Schill, Alliance, Alpha Xi Delta; Miss Rosalie Lamme, Walsenburg, Colo., Tri Delta; Miss Aileen Miller, Delta Gamma, Tabor, Ia.; and Miss Ann Bunting, Lincoln, Pi Beta Phi.

Lower row: Miss Jeannette Arensburg, Goodland, Kas., Alpha Phi; Miss Alice Pedley, Minden, Kappa Alpha Theta; and Miss Mildred Huff, Lincoln, Alpha Delta Theta.

These are eight of the nine coeds who will be voted upon by all men on the campus Nov. 15 for the honor of being presented as "Nebraska Sweetheart" at the annual Kosmet Klub Thanksgiving morning revue. A picture of Betty Kelley, Kappa Kappa Gamma candidate, is unavailable.

Portraits of Arensburg, Lamme, and Pedley by Townsend. Portraits of Bunting, Clark, Schill and Huff by Hauck-Skoglund. Courtesy of The Star.