Welcome, Dads!

SATURDAY the students of Nebraska play host to their Dads who will visit the university for the annual Dad's day festivities. A complete program of events has been planned, beginning today and tonight with pre-game rallies, climaxed with the Dad's day luncheon tomorrow noon and topped off with the prime gridiron spectacle of the season in Memorial stadium in the afternoon.

The occasion furnishes students an opportunity to show off the university to their fathers. It furnishes the fathers a chance to inspect the institution to which they have—often at genuine personal sacrifice—sent their sons and daughters to be educated.

But the day is more. There is no sentiment sweeter than that connected with mother, and that gets its proper attention. But between father and son—and daughter, too—there exists a filio-paternal bond just as real and worthy of appropriate observance. To this often neglected observance Saturday is dedicated.

The Daily Nebraskan joins the university and the student body in welcoming Nebraska Dads to the campus.

Nation-wide schedule of football games

free with every serving of Kellogg's PEP Bran Flakes

IF YOU want to know where a football team plays this week—or in several weeks—here's the answer. Games of nearly every college in the country are listed in Kellogg's National Football Schedule. Tells last year's score. Leaves space to write 1932 results.

Every sport fan will want to keep tabs on his favorites. You can have this schedule—free. Any cafe on this page will give you one with every package of Kellogg's PEP Bran Flakes.

Kellogg's PEP is a real cereal for active people. Delicious with milk or cream. Crisp. Tasty. Millions of men and women who keep fit enjoy these better bran flakes. They're chock-full of the nourishment of whole wheat. Proteins. Vitamins. Minerals. And enough bran to be mildly laxative.

Go to one of the cafes listed on this page. Get your football schedule before they're all gone. Free with every package of PEP Bran Flakes. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

At All Restaurants and Hotels

FOR THE CHILDREN—Tune in Kellogg's SINGING LADY every afternoon, except Saturdays and Sundays, over stations affiliated with the NBC from Coast to Coast. 5:30 Eastern Standard Time, 5:30 Central Standard Time, 5:30 Pacific Coast Time. Songs and stories children love.
