

BARBOUR TO SPEAK.
Professor E. H. Barbour, chairman of the department of geology, spoke at the meeting of the Knife and Fork club Thursday noon at the Cornhusker hotel. His subject was "Ancestors of Our Domestic Animals."

Now that Pitt is no longer a horrid word, and those mid-semester are out of the way, you will want to take a night off and celebrate at the Pla-Mor. Be sure and join the large university crowd at Pla-Mor tonight. Sunday night dances are particularly popular with the university dancers.

Club Activities Are of Interest to Greek Organizations.

November 25 and 26 have been set as the dates for the installation of the thirty-third chapter of Chi Phi fraternity and the initiation of twenty-seven active members of Alpha Theta Chi into that group. Many alumni are expected to return to the campus for the event for which the Cornhusker hotel will serve as headquarters. Invitations have been issued to Chancellor E. A. Burnett, Dean T. J. Thompson, Assistant Dean W. C. Harper, Prof. E. W. Schramm and the presidents of all Nebraska fraternities to attend the final banquet at the Cornhusker on Saturday, Nov. 26. Among the prominent alumni of Alpha Theta Chi who will be here for the ceremonies are: Chancellor Frederick M. Hunter of the University of Denver, who will be toastmaster at the banquet; Dean Irving S. Cutter of the Northwestern Medical school; John D. Clark, chairman of the economics department, University of Denver, and William M. Poynter of the Nebraska Medical college.
