

OMAHA U. DECISIONS NEBRASKA B, 12 TO 6

Gun Stops Nubbins' March With Pigskin Resting On 7-Yard Line.

Two costly B team fumbles gave Omaha university a 12 to 6 victory over the Husker Nubbins Friday afternoon at Memorial stadium.

Altho outdowning Coach Sed Hartman's eleven by the wide margin of sixteen to four, the B backs were unable to retain the ball while in dangerous territory, one fumble occurring on the Nebraska 22-yard line in the second quarter and the other coming when Coach Young's team was on the 28-yard stripe during the third period. On both occasions Omaha U. penetrated the Nubbins defense for touchdowns.

With the opening of the fourth quarter, the B outfit struck in determined fashion. Glenn Skewes broke thru on a sweep for twenty-two yards, and with Ken White smashed the line for a first down on the Omaha 13-yard line. Here an Omaha penalty placed the ball on the 1-yard line, from where White went over for the touchdown.

Nubbins Resume Parade.

Immediately, the Nubbins resumed the march. Two passes thrown by Skewes to Parsons netted thirteen and fifteen yards respectively, taking the pigskin to the Omaha 35-yard line. A first down came after two shots at the line and a short aerial from Skewes to Parsons, and on the last play of the game this same pair completed another flip to place the ball on the 7-yard line.

Skewes, Eldridge and White did most of the offensive work for the B's while Ed Uptegrove played a fine game at tackle. Horchum and

FALL FUND FESTIVAL TO CANVASS HOUSES

Members of YW Cabinet
In Charge of Drive.

This week the Y. W. C. A. Fall Fund Festival is taking the form of a canvass of all women's organized houses on the campus. The aim is contribution from every member of every house. Special recognition will be given all houses that reach this goal before Thanksgiving vacation and the names of those houses which reach the 10 percent mark will be listed daily in the Nebraskan.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet are undertaking this phase of the drive themselves, each member taking the responsibility for one house. Arrangements have been made with the president of the various houses to meet their girls either individually or in a group. Each cabinet member will have met with her group after Monday night and will have a definite report on its rating.

Dr. Wilson Completes Talks.

Dr. Clara O. Wilson, chairman of the department of elementary education, last week completed a series of talks before the public school teachers and principals of Omaha. Doctor Wilson discussed the general topic of "Modern Trends in Elementary Education."

FRATERNITY CAGERS START PLAY MONDAY

Teams Seeking Class A, B
Titles Won in 1931 by Beta, A. G. R.

Thirty-two Class A fraternity teams and twenty-two Class B quintets are ready for the whistle that will open intramural basketball play at the coliseum Monday and Tuesday nights.

Twelve games are slated in Class A competition Monday, while ten tilts are scheduled for settlement Tuesday in the Class B division. Class A teams will be striving to lift the championship won last year by Beta Theta Pi. In Class B, Alpha Gamma Rho is again entered with a strong crew, hoping to repeat last year's conquest.

League play this year will consist of two twelve-minute halves "sandwiched" so that the games may be run off in a minimum of time. Class A teams have been assigned to eight leagues, with Class B outfits divided into five leagues. A fraternity entering a single team must play in Class A, while those entering two fives are required to play the strongest team in Class A.
