

The Daily Nebraskan

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXII—NO. 50.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1932.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

SLATZ RANDALL WILL REPLACE TRUMBAUER FOR MILITARY AFFAIR

Group Announces Change When Orchestra Renews Texas Contract.

That Slatz Randall and his Brunswick Recording orchestra, have been engaged to replace Frankie Trombauer and his orchestra, who was to play at the Military Ball December 2, was announced yesterday by the committee in charge of the orchestra.

Colonel Oury stated today that some of the recordings made by Randall and orchestra will be sent here and be broadcasted in order that the students might know the calibre of the band.

The orchestra, although it is well known in middlewestern states, has played at the Hotel Muhlbach in Kansas City.

It was announced by Oury, yesterday, that due to a last minute renewal of a contract to stay in Galveston, Texas Frankie Trombahr and his orchestra would have been unable to appear in Lincoln. The orchestra was also forced to break contracts to appear in several other towns.

BURNETT ANNOUNCES BIBLE AS DIRECTOR

Football Coach to Have Charge of Athletics in Gish's Place.

D. X. Bible, football coach of the University of Nebraska since 1929, has been appointed permanent director of intercollegiate athletics in addition to his football duties, it was announced Saturday by Chancellor E. A. Burnett. The board of regents at a recent meeting ratified the appointment which takes effect immediately. The enlarged duties carry no additional salary.

"D. X." acting as temporary athletic director, has handled the work all fall and now will perform all the duties formerly done by Herbert D. Gish, resigned.

Johnson of Missouri Dons Skirts Monday

Losing a bet to Lawrence Ely, Nebraska center, Bertram Johnson of the University of Missouri started wearing skirts to school Monday. To prove his confidence in Missouri team's ability to win over Nebraska, Johnson offered to bet any Nebraska student on the Thanksgiving game, with the loser to wear skirts to school for two days. Ely took him up on the bet, and Nebraska won. Now the students at Mizzou are being treated to the spectacle of a male wearing skirts.

YEABOOK DEADLINE NEARS

Many Students Have Annual Pictures Taken During Last Vacation.

During Thanksgiving vacation there was a heavy rush at Townsends' and Haucks' studios by students having pictures taken for the Cornhusker, according to Ralph Spencer, editor.

"The yearly Christmas rush at the studios will begin in a short while and they will not be able to handle delinquents during that time. It is therefore necessary that all photographs for the junior, senior, fraternity, and sorority sections be taken by Saturday, Dec. 3; none will be taken after that date," warned the editor.

UNI CLUB TO HONOR TEAM AND COACHES AT ANNUAL DINNER

The Nebraska football team and its coaches will be the guests of honor at the annual football dinner given by the University club, Dec. 8. E. C. Quigley, veteran sports official, will be the principal speaker. Cornhusker N men of 1900 and of previous years have been invited, and the committee expects many of the old timers to attend.

KLUB PRESENTS PAT MILLER IN SHOW AS SCHOOL SWEETHEART

Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi Minstrel Act Wins Cup.

Pat Miller, Delta Gamma from Tabor, Ia., was presented as the newly elected Nebraska Sweetheart at the annual Thanksgiving Morning Revue, held at the Stuart theater on Thursday, Nov. 24. Approximately 1,100 people attended the revue, the first checkup revealed.

The winners of the Magee cup, presented annually to the skit judged by the audience to be the best entertainment on the program, were Beta Theta Pi and Alpha Tau Omega. The two groups presented a minstrel show.

Minstrels Win.

The Dixie Minstrels, winning skit, consisting of twenty-five members of the two organizations, sang several popular southern songs. Bob Harmon acted as inter-locutor. The second best act, judging by the applause, was the Kappa Kappa Gamma "Story Book," which brought to life such characters as Robin Hood, Red Riding Hood, Goldilocks, and others. Joyce Ayres and his orchestra played for the Minstrels, while Eddie Jungbluth and his orchestra played for the Story Book skit.

A musical fantasy of a dressing table, featuring a dance and the Tri-Delt trio, was presented by Delta Delta Delta and Phi Delta Theta. "Court Gore," a skit written by Herb Yenne and containing much campus gossip, was presented by Delta Gamma and Phi Kappa Psi. A Phi Kappa Psi trio also sang.

Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, both honorary musical organizations, staged an act featuring a blues singer, dancing, accordion numbers, and a chorus by the entire cast.

Members of the Dramatic Club enacted a humorous one-act play concerning the efforts of a frat-

(Continued on Page 4.)

Nebraska Sweetheart

—Photo by Hauck. —Courtesy of The Journal.

PAT MILLER.

Delta Gamma from Tabor, Ia., who was presented as Nebraska Sweetheart at the Kosmet Klub's annual Thanksgiving Morning Revue at the Stuart theater last Thursday. She succeeds Miss Willa McHenry, Kappa Alpha Theta, who was Nebraska Sweetheart for last year.

DEBATERS TO DISCUSS UTILITIES REGULATION

Coach Announces Plans for Remaining Part of Semester.

The completed plans for the debate work for the first semester have been announced by Prof. H. A. White of the English department, who is in charge of debate. Plans for the second semester are

(Continued on Page 3.)

Still With Us

—Courtesy of The Journal.

And we have with us for another year the historic Missouri-Nebraska bell shown above. After the Huskers' 21-6 win over the Tigers Thanksgiving day, the bell will remain on Husker soil for at least a year. The plan of awarding it to the victor of the annual Nebraska-Mizzou football game originated in 1928, and the bell has remained at Nebraska since then. Before that time it had been in the possession of Delta Tau Delta and Phi Delta Theta fraternities for about twenty-five years.

MORRILL MUSEUM ANNOUNCES HOURS FOR PUBLIC VISITS

In response to many inquiries, the Nebraska state museum in Morrill hall announces again the visiting hours for both week days and Sundays. The museum is open to the public each week day between the hours of 8 a. m. and 6 p. m., and on Sundays from 2 to 5:30 in the afternoon. Special tours may be arranged by appointment. Also, a free lecture program is given every Sunday afternoon—a children's program at 2:30 o'clock and an adult lecture at 4:15.

COMPLETE INITIATION OF ALPHA THETA CHI TO CHI PHI CHAPTER

121 Members Local Group Become Affiliated With National.

One hundred and twenty-one members of Alpha Theta Chi were initiated into Chi Phi fraternity at the installation of the Zeta Delta chapter of that organization in ceremonies at the Cornhusker hotel last Friday and Saturday. The installation of the chapter was concluded with a banquet at the hotel Saturday night.

Twenty-seven members of the active chapter of Alpha Theta Chi were initiated, and ninety-four members of the alumni of the organization were taken in. Six of the twelve charter members of Alpha Theta Chi were present for the ceremonies.

The initiatory rites were conducted by a group of eleven members of the Pi chapter of Chi Phi at Iowa State College, Ames, Iowa, and by the national officers of the fraternity.

The charter members of Alpha Theta Chi who returned for the installation are: George Towne, Dr. H. W. Orr, Charles Haskell Kelsey, John Van Zandt Cortelyou, Dr. Irving S. Cutter, and Edward Provost Brown. National officers of Chi Phi who attended the ceremonies are: A. H. Hutchinson of Chicago; Rev. Dr. Milton W. Brown of Cincinnati; Phil Schiesswohl of Chicago; Marcus D. Munn of Chicago, and Daniel D. Craft of Chicago.

The banquet at the hotel Saturday night, which concluded the installation ceremonies, was attended by all members of the fraternity and about fifty invited guests, representing the faculty of the university and fraternities on the campus.

BOEING WILL AWARD FOUR SCHOLARSHIPS

Air-Minded Students to Get Free Tuition for Best Essays.

An announcement of aeronautical scholarships totalling $7,500 in tuition value being offered for the fourth consecutive year to aviation-inclined students of universities and colleges was made recently by W. E. Boeing, leader in the aircraft industry.

This year four college undergraduates who submit the best essays on aeronautical subjects to the national committee of award and who are able to meet necessary physical standards will be given flying and ground training at the Boeing school in Oakland, Calif., at no tuition cost.

The scholarship competition will close on April 15, 1933, and essay subjects selected by candidates must be approved before March 15, 1933. The candidate who is selected for the first prize must be able to pass the Department of Commerce transport pilot license examination within ten days after awards are announced.

In 1931 Charles Sharp of the University of Nebraska won one of these scholarships. Sharp selected the Master Mechanics course, which he has just recently completed. Additional information may be obtained from the Boeing School of Aeronautics, Municipal Airport, Oakland, Calif., or from the university registrar.

MEMBER OF BRITISH BOARD TO SPEAK AT ALL-UNI CONVOCATION

Alfred W. Flux Will Talk On 'The Gold Standard, Its Breakdown.'

Alfred W. Flux, late fellow of St. John's college, Cambridge, and now assistant secretary, statistical department, British Board of Trade, will be the speaker at the all-university convocation at 11 a. m. Tuesday in the Temple theater. He will speak on the subject "The Gold Standard and Its Breakdown."

Mr. Flux who is known personally by Dr. J. E. LeRossignol, dean of the College of Business Administration, comes highly recommended as an authority on international banking and international monetary problems. Mr. Flux and Dean LeRossignol became acquainted at McGill university in Montreal, Canada.

Later Mr. Flux returned to England as lecturer and afterwards professor of political economy at the University of Manchester. He has served as one of the honorary secretaries of the Royal Statistical society, and recently served as president of the society. He was awarded the Guy Medal of the society for his statistical work.

Attended Geneva Convention.

After sharing in the preparatory work leading up to the international convention of Geneva (1928) relating to economic statistics, he was made a member of the committee of statistical experts connected with the convention. He is now chairman of this committee. He presided over the meeting of statistical officers of the British empire that took place in London after the war and has served on

(Continued on Page 4.)

NEGRO PLEADS GUILT TO PILFERING CHARGE

Municipal Court Tries Men Caught During Pitt Game.

George Farley and William Conrad, two negroes both of Lincoln, who were arrested for pilfering parked autos during the Pittsburgh-Nebraska football game, were tried recently in municipal court. Both men were charged with petty larceny, and the case against Farley was dismissed. Conrad plead guilty and was fined $50 and costs.

Farley was caught by Officer Regler and handcuffed to the door of a car, but Conrad escaped after Regler had fired several shots at him. From information obtained from Farley, Conrad was located and later arrested. Both men have former prison records.

HONORARY INITIATES THREE

Beta Gamma Sigma Admits New Members Tuesday In Cornhusker.

Three seniors in the College of Business Administration were initiated into Beta Gamma Sigma, national honorary fraternity in commerce and business administration, Tuesday evening at the Hotel Cornhusker. The new members are Melvin Adams, Lemoyne; J. Edward Kilgore, Lincoln, and Willard H. Young, Lincoln. Earl S. Fullbrook, professor of business administration, was the speaker. Officers for the year are Frederick Warner, Lincoln, president; Rudolph Nordgren, Newman Grove, vice-president, and Jerome Petr, Clarkson, secretary-treasurer.