FINAL PLANS MADE FOR ALL-UNIVERSITY PARTY ON SATURDAY

Decorations Call for Band To Be Placed Inside Huge Fireplace.

At a meeting of the Barb Council Wednesday evening, final plans were formulated concerning decorations and arrangements for the all university party at the coliseum Saturday evening and nominations were made for the filling of vacancies in the council.

Plans for decorations call for a mammoth fireplace to be constructed on the stage inside of which the orchestra, Eli Rice's Dixie Cotton Pickers, is to be located. The dimensions of the structure are to be fourteen feet in height and sixteen feet in width. There will be Christmas decorations around this setting, and the streamers of green and red crepe paper which are to serve as decorations for the main floor are to be arranged, converging to a large star in the center of the building. Artificial snow will be utilized in adding to the seasonal effect.

The Cotton Pickers, the orchestra booked for the affair, is coming to Lincoln Saturday evening after a successful week in the Rigadon, Sioux City's leading ballroom. Eli Rice, leader of this colored band has established the reputation as being the country's greatest color tenor, and some of his musicians are said to be among the leading players in the middle-west and south.

The chaperones for the party are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harper, Captain and Mrs. E. H. Connor, and Major and Mrs. C. A. Bishop.

Contest Tonight Determines The Winner; Installment Buying Discussed.

Six men have signified intention to compete for the Long cup in the annual freshman debate contest. The contest will be held this evening at 7:30 in Andrews hall 126.

The debaters will be Leonard Patterson, Jack Pace, and Irving Hill on the affirmative and William J. Garlow, Eugene Pester, and John Sperry on the negative. Any additional speakers will be assigned as their names come in.

Each speaker will have eight minutes divided as he chooses between constructive and rebuttal speaking, with the exception of the first speaker who will have a five minute constructive speech and a four minute rebuttal.

Rumor Says Another Leap Year Party in Offing; Men Take Heed

Rumor has it that Mortar Board is contemplating a party similar to the Leap Year celebration it sponsored last year. This secret accidentally leaked out but it was probably intentional. Just a nice way of warning the fellows ahead of time. Considerable improvement is expected in courtesy extended girls. Doors will be graciously opened for baffled coeds, hankies dropped will be immediately snatched up, business will be rushing at the Moon and dateless girls will be swamped with formal bids.

The exact foundation for this rumor has not been definitely established but it is thought that Mortar Board members are planning this party to give stay-at-home girls (not that any Mortar Boards are bothered that way) a chance to get out and see a little university night life. Again it may be merely Mortar Board's way of encouraging improvement in manly courtesy.

Last year a vote was taken to

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS SEEK NEW TALENT IN TRYOUTS OF DEC. 14

Men May Apply for Parts; Must Give Character Role From Play.

Tryouts for dramatic parts with the University Players will be held Wednesday, Dec. 14th, at 2 p. m., it was announced yesterday by Miss H. Alice Howell. This will be the second series of tryouts this year, the first having been held early in the school year. These tryouts will be open to men only.

All men wishing to try out will be required to prepare for presentations a character part from some play. It is also possible for two or three aspirants to join together and give a scene from a play.

Have Three Enterprises.

The dramatics department contains three divisions in which student actors may find an outlet for their talents: The University Players, the Student theater, and the Children's theater, the last-named group giving a play once a month for school children. Much talent is needed to carry on these dramatic enterprises, according to Miss Howell, and it is thru tryouts that new student acting ability is uncovered.

Many character portrayals, it was reported, will be open for those who prove themselves capable of handling them. Juvenile, serious, comedy, and eccentric roles are among the types yet unfilled, and beginners have just as much chance as veterans in the department, it was stated.

All those who are interested have been requested to report in the near future at Temple building 153.

BARBS ASK COUNCIL FOR CLOSED NIGHT PARTY ON FEB. 11

Action on Request Deferred For Time; Decorations Fund Increased.

A request from the Barb Council for the reservation of Saturday evening, Feb. 11, 1933, for an All-University night was read before the Student Council at its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon. Due to the fact that several organizations had already scheduled functions for that evening, the request was not granted at the meeting, but a committee was appointed with the power to act on behalf of the council in investigating and making a decision on the matter.

Disposal of $311.79, left from the junior-senior prom last year, was also made. It was unanimously voted to turn the money over to the fund for permanent decorations for the coliseum. The money had been voted last winter to the drouth relief fund for the sufferers in northern Nebraska. This fund was discontinued before the proceeds was turned over, the money remaining in the treasury during the year.

Discussion was also made of the establishment of a Co-operative book exchange, to be run in order that students might secure second hand books at a reduced price. It was stated that another organization is planning to sponsor an exchange. A motion was passed to limit to 10 percent the profits made from the sale of the books, "unless otherwise allowed by the council."

Other routine business matters were also taken up at the meeting, after which a short conference of the activities tax committee was held.

SPENCER REITERATES DEADLINE OF DEC. 10

Photographers Allow Only Three More Days for Student Pictures.

With but three more days left before the deadline for junior, senior, fraternity and sorority pictures for the 1933 Cornhusker will be reached, Hauck's and Townsend's are preparing for an exceptionally large rush. Already more appointments have been made for Saturday than can it be likely probably be handled, the studios report.

Ralph Spencer, editor, after conferring with the photographers, urged that the students have their pictures taken either today or tomorrow instead of waiting until Saturday.

For the past two weeks, Spencer said, photographers have been kept busy taking many Cornhusker pictures, but since their regular Christmas business has started it will be absolutely impossible for them to continue after Saturday, Dec. 10.

RESPONSE TO SALES DRIVE IS FAVORABLE

Reports Indicate Copies Will Be Sold by End Of Week.

Sales reports of the new Student Directory are very favorable, according to Bernard Jennings, salesmanager, who reports that from all indications the directories will all be sold before the end of the week. Girls in charge of the campaign at the various sorority houses report large sales.

Sales on the campus will be terminated at the end of the week. If any copies are left the downtown credit stores will be solicited. Copies of the directory may be obtained at C. D. Hayes' office and at the Daily Nebraskan office in University hall.
