RHODES COMMITTEE NAMES DOWLING AND WEHN FOR NEBRASKA

Two From Each State Will Compete for Award in Des Moines.

John H. Wehn, of Bridgeport, and John W. Dowling, of Madison, Nebraska, were selected by the state committee Saturday as the representatives of Nebraska to compete in the district Rhodes scholarship eliminations which will be held in Des Moines Monday.

John H. Wehn, junior law student at the University of Nebraska, graduated from the arts and science college of this university in 1931. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John William Wehn, of Bridgeport, Nebraska, where his father is a banker. Before coming to Nebraska university he had attended Chadron Normal for two years. Mr. Wehn is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa social fraternity, and also is affiliated with Phi Delta Phi professional law fraternity.

Dowling in Wisconsin.

John W. Dowling, the other representative from Nebraska, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dowling, of Madison, Nebraska. He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. At present he is in the graduate school as a fellow, teaching Greek and Latin in that university, and states that he will continue his instructing throughout the second semester.

Twelve men, two from each state in this district, will appear before the district committee Monday from whom four will be chosen as the recipients of the scholarships to Oxford in England. Wehn and Dowling, from Nebraska, will be among the dozen to appear before that committee and go to Des Moines immediately to appear before the district committee.

State Committee.

The state committee on selection was composed of five members: J. E. Miller of Lincoln, chairman; H. A. Gunderson, Fremont, secretary; Paul Good, Lincoln; Robert B. Lasch, Omaha; and Ralph T. Wilson, Omaha. Mr. Wilson was in-

NINE HUNDRED DANCE TO ELI RICE'S MUSIC

Christmas Theme Used for All-University Fete Decorations.

A crowd of about nine hundred couples attended the All-University party held in the Coliseum Saturday night. The orchestra playing for the affair was the Dixie Cotton Pickers, a colored band led by Eli Rice, who is known as the country's greatest colored tenor.

The affair was the annual Christmas party among the group of University parties held during the year and the decorations carried out the seasonal effect. On the stage a fireplace thirty-five feet tall and sixty-five feet in width, served as the orchestra shell.

Floor decorations consisted of two hundred streamers attached to the sides of the building and converging to a giant star, ten feet across, suspended above the crowd over the center of the floor. Streamers were alternating red and green in color, the star tinsel. In keeping with the general color effect members of the band were garbed in green jackets.

The crowd was the largest present at any of the University parties during the last few years, the orchestra proving to be as great a gate attraction in Lincoln as it has at other places in its itinerary thru the middlewest.

Chaperones at the party were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harper, Capt. and Mrs. E. H. Connor, and Maj. and Mrs. C. A. Bishop.

TEACHERS TO HOLD DINNER

University Professors Will Meet at University Club Monday.

The Nebraska chapter of the American Association of University professors will hold a dinner meeting Monday, Dec. 1, at the University club. The program will consist of a discussion of the question "Should Professional Courses in Education be Required of College and University Teachers?" The affirmative side will be led by Prof. D. A. Worcester, professor of educational psychology and the negative discussion will be led by Prof. J. L. Sellers, professor of history.

GAIETY PREVAILS AS COEDS FROLIC AT COSTUME FETE

Misses Howell, Johnston, Walker and Pollard Given Prizes.

Gaily arrayed girls frolicked at the annual girls' Cornhusker costume party Friday evening in Grant Memorial hall. Costumes were striking, varied and original.

Award for the funniest costume went to Virginia Howell, who portrayed the character of Charlie Chaplin with genuine impersonation. The prize for the cleverest costume was given to Faye Johnston and Jean Walker who, garbed completely in black pasteboard and cloth, represented the telephone transmitter and receiver. Leona Pollard, in a white lace dress of the gay nineties, wore the prettiest costume. Prizes were black and silver compacts.

Other clever costumes not mentioned by the judges were those worn by Julia Hall and Margaret Carpenter, who dressed as Stephen's "Mr. Hyde" and "Satan." Judges were Kady B. Faulkner, Dr. Elizabeth Williamson and Pauline Gallatly.

HOME EC ASSOCIATION SPONSORS MILK DRIVE

Club to Canvass Students For Needy Lincoln Families' Aid.

The Home Economics association is sponsoring a milk drive to begin next Monday, Dec. 11. Each member of the association will be asked to contribute 5 cents or 10 cents to a nest egg fund which they will attempt to increase materially between now and Christmas by canvassing among the Agricultural college students.

"Even pennies will be welcomed," declared Emma Feith, social chairman of the organization. The fund is to be used to buy milk for needy families in Lincoln, especially for those with small children. Milk is to be the Christmas present of the association to the needy of Lincoln.

ENTERTAIN SORORITY HEADS

Miss Bernice Miller Will Lead Discussion of Needy Contacts.

Miss Bernice Miller, Y. W. C. A. secretary, will entertain the presidents of all the sororities on the campus at a supper Tuesday evening to meet Miss Melanie Caines, director of the Lincoln Social Welfare society, and Miss Catherine Dunn, of the sociology department of the university.

After the supper, which will be held in Ellen Smith hall at 6:00, there will be a discussion of how to make contacts with needy families. Representatives from Howard and Raymond halls will also be present. Martha Hershey, chairman of the industrial staff of the Y. W. C. A., will assist Miss Miller.

Honorary Captain

Members of the 1932 football team named Chris Mathis their honorary captain at the annual University club banquet Thursday night. He is the first Nebraska captain to be selected, either before or after the season, since 1929.

Ernest Quigley, football official, was the featured speaker on the banquet program. In his speech he lauded the efforts of the team during the past season and Lawrence Ely and Steve Hokuf for their national recognition. He also paid tribute to Coach Bible and his assistants.

DR. SETH NICHOLSON WILL SPEAK FRIDAY

Noted Astronomer From Mt. Wilson Observatory to Talk Twice.

"Charting the Universe" will be the subject on which Dr. Seth B. Nicholson, astronomer from the Mount Wilson observatory, Pasadena, Calif., will speak when he addresses the third in the series of all-university convocations Friday morning, Dec. 16, at 11 o'clock in the Temple theater.

Dr. Nicholson will also be the speaker at a meeting of Sigma Xi, honorary scientific fraternity, at 8 o'clock Friday evening in Morrill hall's downstairs auditorium. Here his topic will be "Measuring the Heat from the Stars." Both the morning and evening meetings are open to all individuals who are interested in the subjects. No admission is charged.

The speaker, who is an astronomer of note, has received worldwide recognition in that field for the discovery of the ninth satellite of the planet Jupiter. This fall he was in charge of the Mt. Wilson observatory eclipse expedition to New England. Affiliated with the Carnegie Institute at Washington, D. C., his special interest has been eclipses, the measurement of heat of the stars and planets, observations regarding the orbits of planetary bodies, terrestrial magnetism, and sun spots and their relation to weather. At the Mt. Wilson observatory he is in charge of the solar and lunar department.

Kirsch Writes Article For American Annual

F. Dwight Kirsch, chairman of the school of fine arts administration committee, is the author of an article entitled "Composition in Photography," which has been published in the American Annual of Photography for 1933. Kirsch's article is illustrated with several of his own drawings.

VESPERS PRESENT SPEAKER

Miss Ruth Easterday Will Read Christmas Poems At Program.

Miss Ruth Easterday, director of religious education at Westminster Presbyterian church, will be the special speaker at vespers this Tuesday. She will read several Christmas poems. Miss Easterday has brought from Europe a Christmas "creche," a manger scene, one of those which are used in families or in churches during the holidays, and this will be on display at that time.

Members of the choir have planned special music, in harmony with the Christmas theme. Muriel Moffitt, chairman of the program and office staff, will preside.

220 SEEK TUITION IN FOUR COLLEGES CHECK-UP REVEALS

Incomplete Figures Indicate That Most Applications Appear Late.

An incomplete check Saturday afternoon showed that approximately 220 applications for tuition scholarships had been received by the four departments from which a count could be obtained. Most of these applications came in at the last minute, interest having lagged up until Friday and Saturday.

While an accurate count had not been made in the Teachers college it was estimated that between seventy-five and eighty persons had made application for the awards. Twenty-two scholarships will be awarded in the Arts and Sciences college, which received eighty applications; twelve in the Engineering college, where fifty applications were received; and three in the school of journalism which received fifteen applications. No figures could be obtained from the other colleges.

The committee in charge of the scholarships will meet shortly before the holidays to make the awards. A total of one hundred scholarships, the same number as last year, will be given.

STUDENT PROGRAM TO FEATURE INDIA TALK

Dr. Gabrielson Will Show Pictures and Number Of Specimens.

Dr. Winnie M. Gabrielson, who has spent more than ten years in India, will be the speaker on the Nebraska State Museum's program in Morrill hall auditorium Sunday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, when she will talk on "India" and show pictures of the life and customs there. She will also have with her a number of specimens of East Indian art which she has collected.

On the children's program at 2:30, the film, "The Conquest of Antarctica" will be shown. This film, comprising three reels, dramatizes the events of the Byrd expedition to the south pole.

RIFLERS RECEIVE MEDALS

J. F. Deklotz, H. P. Letton Are High Score Men in Intramurals.

J. F. Deklotz, Lincoln, and H. P. Letton, Lincoln, were high score men in the intramural matches fired last week at the rifle range in the basement of Andrews Hall. Deklotz was the high scorer of the veterans who tested their skill. Gold medals will be awarded the winners.

The winning team in the matches was captained by Roscoe Kroger, R. O. T. C. colonel. The matches were fired under the rules of the National Rifle association, and Sgt. C. F. McGimsey supervised the firing.

The varsity rifle squad will be picked from the men competing in these matches.

COMMITTEE GRANTS BARB'S REQUEST TO CLOSE FEBRUARY 11

Student Council Relations Group Allows Petition by Unanimous Vote.

By unanimous vote the Barb Relations committee of the Student council voted Friday afternoon to grant the request of the Barb council for a closed night on Feb. 11, according to Jack Erickson, chairman. The committee was empowered to pass on this question by vote of the Student council at its session on Wednesday. Other members of the committee on barb relations are: Anne Bunting, Marlo Smith, Jane Axtell, Marion Scott, and Warren DeBus.

The purpose of the party was set forth in a petition presented to the Student council by the Barb council as follows:

To the Student Council:

We, the members of the Barb council, do hereby petition for the night of Saturday, Feb. 11, 1933, to be closed, by action of the Student council to all university functions in favor of an All-University party to be held on that date.

In presenting this petition we wish to assure the council that the purpose is to use one of the best possible orchestras... and to turn over to the fund for permanent decorations all profits occurring from this as well as subsequent parties of the year, all in an effort to make at least one affair of a truly all university nature at the most nominal price feasible.

SYMPHONY CONCERT FEATURES SOPRANO

Rudolph Seidl and Orchestra Will Present Second Program Sunday.

The Lincoln Symphony orchestra, under direction of Rudolph Seidl, will appear in concert Sunday afternoon, Dec. 11, at the Stuart theater at 3 o'clock. This is the season's second concert.

The orchestra, with a personnel of approximately eighty members, includes many University of Nebraska students on its roster, and will open the program with the Prelude to "Hansel and Gretel," by Humperdinck. Three movements from Hayden's London Symphony, adagio-allegro, andante, and allegro spiritoso, will be followed by the presentation of Wagner's "Liebestod" from Tristan and Isolde.

Jeanette Vreeland, soprano guest artist of New York City, will be heard in a suite of three numbers, "Tell Me, Oh Blue Blue Sky," Vittorio Giannini; "Sing a Song of Sixpence," Herbert Hughes, and "Til Chance the Romaika," Edna Rosalind Park. Miss Vreeland will be accompanied by Earnest Harrison, University School of Music piano instructor.

The orchestra concludes the afternoon's presentations with Tschai-kowsky's "Capriccio Italian."

Miss Vreeland has appeared with the Boston Symphony orchestra, the New York Mendelssohn club, Philadelphia Orpheus club, and the New York, the Cleveland and the Detroit Symphony orchestras.
