house dances with decorations and favors in keeping with the season. The Tau Kappa Epsilon freshmen are sponsoring their annual Xmas party Saturday night at the house. Pi Beta Phi pledges have booked a formal house dance to honor their upperclassmen the same evening. Friday night Sigma Alpha Epsilon is entertaining at its annual formal at the Cornhusker.

Saturday night at the Cornhusker Delta Delta Delta will give its formal dance of the year. Beta Theta Pi, Alpha Sigma Phi, Alpha Omicron Pi, and Alpha Chi Omega are the other Greek groups giving house dances that evening. Delta Upsilon pledges will entertain for their actives Friday night at a house party.

A Christmas party at the Student Activity Building on the Ag Campus will be the main event for students in that college. Lutheran Students will be guests at a party given by the First Lutheran church.

Ag Students' Party.

The annual Ag Christmas party will be held on Friday night at eight o'clock. The party will be under the direction of the Ag Executive board with Jess Livingston, in direct charge of the affair. The party will be in the Student Activities building.

The Salem choir of Milford will sing for the party, with Albert Ebers directing. The Rev. Ray E. Hunt will speak on "What Christmas Means to Me." Carols will be sung and Santa Claus will distribute presents to prominent Ag college students and faculty members. "Silent Night" by the audience will complete the program.

Tanksterettes Swim.

Tanksterettes, women's swimming club, are giving a party Saturday, Dec. 17 from 12 to 2 o'clock at the University coliseum in honor of the thirteen new members. Lunch will be served at 2 o'clock after the members and their guests have enjoyed an hour's frolic in the water. Those wishing to attend are to make reservations with Maxine Packwood, who is in charge of the arrangements.

Announce Chaperones.

Delta Upsilon freshmen are entertaining the active members at a house dance Friday. Chaperones for the event are Mr. and Mrs. Elton Lux, Dean and Mrs. Fordyce and Mrs. Phillips. Sigma Alpha Epsilon has chosen Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mott, Lester Orfield, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller and Mrs. Hal Minor as their sponsors for their party Friday.

Alpha Chis have invited Miss Iola Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Valdemar Peterson and Mrs. C. L. Bishop, housemother to act as chaperones for their Christmas dance on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Senning and Mrs. Pullman are to be the guest of the Alpha O's on Saturday at a house dance.

Actives Plan Dinner.

Active members of Sigma Alpha Iota, honorary music sorority, are planning a buffet supper Sunday evening in honor of the group's pledges. Eighteen couples will attend. The function will be held at the chapter house and will be chaperoned by Professor and Mrs. Don Berry and Mrs. R. D. Davis, housemother. The evening will be spent informally.

Journalists Meet.

The topic on which Mr. R. F. Crawford spoke at the Theta Sigma Phi meeting Tuesday evening was "The Magazine Article." The groups met at the home of Mary Sutton. Several rushees were asked to attend.
