LEGISLATORS SAY UNI ASSISTS PROSPERITY

atives heard a short speech from Representative Trenmor Cone (d.), Valley, running something like this:

"If any member of the house will go down to the University of Nebraska campus he can get his picture taken free of charge and a good one, too."

Whereupon Speaker George O'Malley added that he could see by the faces of the legislators that prosperity is coming back at last. And thus the university can share its part.

Some men would rather be right than be president, but there are others who never make an effort to be either.

PEP ORGANIZATIONS WILL STAGE RALLY ON SATURDAY NIGHT

As the rally approaches the various Greek houses on the route, their members will be turned out. In spite of the hard luck results of the beginning games this season, Coach Browne says the Cornhuskers have a good team and it is his opinion that with the whole hearted support of the students, the continuance of the enthusiasm which prevailed thruout the football season, the quintet will show their stuff.

All these plans are tentative insofar as the weather might be too unfavorable. In that case the rally will not be staged from the Temple but the organized rooting will begin at the coliseum.
