

SOCIETY.

Barbs Sponsor Party.

Chaperones for the all-university party which will be held in the coliseum Saturday evening, under the direction of the Barb council, will be Prof. and Mrs. L. E. Aylsworth, Prof. and Mrs. E. W. Lantz and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lackey. Leo Beck's orchestra will furnish the music.

Delta Zeta Entertains.

About seventy-five actives and alumnae will attend the Founders' day dinner given by Delta Zeta on Saturday evening at the chapter house. There will be several out of town and outstate guests. The chapter is observing the twenty-third anniversary of its founding on the Nebraska campus. Following the dinner, a house party will be held, for which Doc Cook's orchestra will play. Chaperones are to be Mrs. Eloise Tebbetts and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Pike.

K. K. C. Officer Is Guest.

Kappa Kappa Gamma's annual banquet will be held Saturday evening at 6:30 at the University club. Miss Helen Snyder of Columbus, O., field secretary of the sorority, will be a special guest. Active and alumnae members will attend.

Football Theme Used.

The thirty-sixth annual banquet of Kappa Sigma will be held Saturday night at the Lincoln hotel. The banquet is dedicated to Lawrence Ely, and menu and program will carry out the football theme. About 100 active and alumni members are expected to attend.

To Give House Dance.

Theta Phi Alpha will entertain Saturday evening at a house party. Colonel and Mrs. F. A. Kidwell, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Snedgren and Mrs. Katherine Harley, house-mother, will be chaperones.

SENNING TO TALK TO RADIO AUDIENCE ON STATE LEGISLATURE

(Continued from Page 1.) digest of the important aspects of bills which have been introduced. As a basis for his talks he devoted the first two lectures discussing the fundamentals of operation and methods of procedure used in the Nebraska legislature, comparing them favorably to those used in other states.

In his last two messages, Mr. Senning has devoted most of his time to important measures which were incorporated in the governor's budget recommendations, as well as the methods used in drafting and preparing bills for presentation to the house and senate. Mr. Senning has received many queries and comments upon his talks, which incidentally have been mounting steadily the past few weeks. Mr. Senning states that he receives many interesting questions concerning certain bills and policies, and tries to answer as many of them as he is able to do.

ACTIVITY TAX NEAR AS COUNCIL HEARS FAVORABLE REPORT

(Continued from Page 1.) we can't get a good out of town band at this price, we will use two local bands," he explained. All profit, if any, from the prom will be given to the coliseum permanent decoration fund, the council voted.

The student forum committee has selected a speaker for the next meeting, which will be held next week, Porter reported. An attendance of 203 was recorded at the last lunch. Discussion of a better place than the Temple to hold forum meetings resulted, but no place near enough to the campus was found.

Due to the recent controversy over open and closed party dates set by the council, the committee on student parties will investigate the council's right to close such dates, and discover some method of enforcing this rule.

Y. W. AND Y. M. WILL HOLD JOINT MEETING

Eleventh Annual Race Relation Sunday to Be Observed.

The university Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. will hold the eleventh observance of Race Relation Sunday at the Methodist church at Vine and 17th street Sunday Feb. 12 at 8 o'clock. Miss Miller, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., urges all students interested in international and interracial relations to attend this observance.

"The problem of racial relations is a vital one throughout the world from the fight of Gandhi in India for the Untouchables to the white and negro races here. An attempt is being made for the races to understand each other and to live together to the profit of everyone concerned," stated Miss Miller in explaining the purpose of this meeting.

ALL-UNIVERSITY ICE MEET IS POSTPONED

Carnival Is Delayed Until Feb. 14, Due to Cold Weather.

The complete supremacy of King Winter has made it necessary to postpone the all-university ice carnival until Tuesday Feb. 14. Members of the W. A. A. council will notify the houses Monday night. A break in the weather is expected by that time, and plans for the coming event are quite complete according to announcements coming from the offices of both the men's and women's intramural directors.

Skating will occupy the greater part of the evening with specialty events and novelty races as additional amusement. The face between the factions, the blue shirts and the yellow jackets will be the feature of the evening.

There will be no admission charge, the only expense of the party being the price of a "hot dog" or a hot drink which will be on sale at the park. Buses will leave for Oak creek from 16th and S at 7:15 and 7:30.

CHURCH TO HOLD VALENTINE FETE THIS WEEK END

A valentine theme will be carried out in the party of the young people's department of the First Christian church, 16th and K sts., which will be held Friday night, Feb. 10, at eight o'clock in the church. The program is in charge of Louis Davis and Paul Bogott.

Statistics show that college graduates earn about $1,000 more per year than high school graduates. It has been estimated that a college education is worth $14,000 to the student at the time of his graduation.
