EXECUTIVE BOARD MAKES PLANS FOR AG SPRING PARTY

Group Wishes to Establish Affair as Annual Event.

An Ag college spring party will be held on the Ag campus Saturday April 8, according to an announcement made by the Ag executive board at their regular meeting Wednesday evening.

The board plans to make this one of the outstanding parties of the year and surpassed only by the farmer's formal which is held in the fall.

All the members were in favor of the event and expressed the opinion that a spring party should be annual and should precede the Farmer's Fair. Decorations, entertainment, good orchestra, and refreshments will be features of the party.

Appointments for committees will not be made until the next meeting according to Glenn LeDioy, president of the board.

Bill Ralston was elected treasurer to fill the vacancy due to the expiration of Vernon Filley's term. The duties of the treasurer are to collect 5 percent of the gross receipts from Ag mixers. This helps to make the board self supporting whereas last year they were dependent upon the Ag and Home Ec clubs for funds.

The Ag club was granted March 24 for a mixer date.

SPANISH CHAIRMAN SPEAKS

Seventy Attend Monthly Spanish Club Meet At D. G. House.

Prof. J. E. Alexis, chairman of the Spanish department, spoke on his journey thru Spain at the regular monthly meeting of the Spanish club Wednesday night at the Delta Gamma house. About seventy persons attended the meeting.

Prof. Alexis discussed the customs and habits of the people of Spain. On the musical program Carlos Cartagena sang several Filipino songs and members of the club also sang several Spanish songs. Mr. Jelinek was elected vice president to take the place of Robert Lucky, who withdrew from school.

ORCHESTRAS ANNOUNCES ELEVEN NEW MEMBERS

Seniors, Juniors Have Different Nights For Practice.

New Orchestras members chosen by tryouts Wednesday, Feb. 15, are Alpha Catania, Genevieve Delling, Elizabeth Costelloe, Georgia Kilgore, Sebua LaRue, Virginia Moomaw, Grace Morgan, Madeline Raymond and Adela Tombrink. The junior members chosen are Katie Fern Clarke, Gertrude Latnau and Mary Reimers.

New senior members are to report for practice Wednesday, Feb. 22 at 7:30 o'clock and new junior members at 8 o'clock. Tryouts will be held again Tuesday, Feb. 21, at 7:30 o'clock in the dancing studio at the women's gymnasium, according to Miss Edith Vail, who is in charge of Orchestras.

Member of Farmers Association Starts Investigation of Students

Although the investigating fervor has seized congress at frequent intervals, and even our own legislature is not exempt, it remained for a member of the Farmers Holiday Association to carry off the honors of the year along the investigating line.

It was early Thursday morning, and a truckman employed by the university had just taken a large load of musical instruments to Morrill Hall. As he unloaded various sundry instruments, including drums, base viols and kettle drums, he felt a tap on the shoulder.

LAWYERS HOLD SMOKER

Juniors and Seniors Act as Hosts to Freshmen Students.

The junior and senior law classes will act as hosts to the freshman students at the annual law college smoker scheduled for this evening at the Grand hotel. Dean H. H. Foster and Supreme Court Justice Day will be the main speakers at the affair.

The program will be opened by an introduction of the faculty of the college by Dean Foster. Entertainment will be furnished by Kenneth Sutherland in a tumbling act. Edwin Fisher will play the piano-accompanist, and a law college quartet and orchestra will present several numbers.

The main address of the evening will be given by Justice Day, and the program will be concluded by a 1943 news story describing the activities of the present students in the college.

VOTES FAVOR COVER DESIGN NUMBER TWO

Students Ballot on Seven Color Schemes for Cornhusker.

Balloting for the most popular cover design for the 1933 Cornhusker during the first two days of the contest would seem to indicate the choice of those who have voted favors cover number two, the year book editor asserted yesterday afternoon.

The seven covers on display in a window at Long's book store offer a variety of colors and leather designs. Cover number one is done in mottled grey and silver, the second, which, to date, seems to be favored, is a rough cherry and black combination with a touch of silver. Three has a rough grey and silver finish, trimmed with deep red and four is done in semi-rough cherry and silver. Cover number five has a smooth grain silver and cherry finish, number six a smooth grain black and silver with letters engraved in deep red, and the last one mottled cherry and silver with red.

Spencer urged that students be encouraged to state their preference by dropping a ballot clipped from the Daily Nebraskan with the number corresponding to their choice checked; into the ballot box at the book store.

AG COMMITTEE HEARS DETAILED SKIT PLANS

Mark Hackman, Chairman, Announces Rehearsal Wednesday Night.

At the Coll-agri-fun tryout Wednesday night the committee in charge instructed students preparing skits to begin active practice at once. Detailed outlines of a dozen skits were presented to the committee.

According to Chairman Mark Hackman, most of the acts have possibilities, but will take a lot of practice. The committee intends to call a rehearsal every week until the show. Wednesday night, Feb. 22, at the student activities building, will be the next rehearsal. The committee expects the groups to be able to go through their acts at that time.

BEAUX ARTS BALL FORMALLY OPENS ANNUAL ART SHOW

Series of 'Living Pictures' Show Development Of Art.

The forty-third annual exhibition of paintings, sponsored by the Nebraska Art association, was formally opened Thursday evening in Morrill hall with the season's most colorful event, the Beaux Arts ball. The outstanding feature of entertainment aside from the exhibition was a presentation of "living pictures," pictorial poses depicting outstanding examples in the development of art from the early Italian interpretations down to modern tendencies.

Arrangements for exhibiting the paintings were made by Harry F. Cunningham, head of the University architectural department, who also acted as master of ceremonies during the evening. Mrs. Glen H. Foe was chairman of the Beaux Arts ball committee; assisting were Mrs. Ellery Davis and Mr. Ernst Herminhaus. The committee on the life portraits were Miss Charlotte Kizer, chairman, Mrs. Leslie Grainger, Mrs. Walter White, and Mrs. J. John Grainger.

Exhibit is More Varied. "The exhibit on the whole," said Dwight Kirsch, head of the university fine arts department, "was extremely interesting; more varied than usual." Miss Kady B. Faulkner considers the galleries to con-

LAST RITES FOR DR. SHERMAN ARE HELD

Hundreds of Friends and Students Attend Services.

Funeral services for Dean Emeritus Lucius A. Sherman, former prominent member of the English department, were conducted yesterday afternoon at St. Paul Methodist church. Services were conducted by Dr. Walter Aitken, pastor of the church.

Hundreds of friends and students of the university viewed the body as it lay in state preceding the ceremony. Howard Kirkpatrick, member of the University school of music faculty, and Mrs. Altinas Tullis furnished the music for the service. Mrs. Tullis sang "Lead Kindly Light," and "Brightest and Best of the Sons of the Morning."

Dr. Aitken, in his eulogy of the famed and valued professor, likened him to the ideal gentleman and scholar.

"Eighty-five years of noble life have come to a close; forty-seven years devoted to the education of youth in the University of Nebraska. What a contribution to the manhood and womanhood of the state. He brought to his task a wealth of scholarship which was enriched by an engaging and gracious personality," said Dr. Aitken.

"His literary successes have been recognized by scholars in different parts of the world, but he carried these honors modestly. The stability of his manly principles commanded great respect, and the message of his life was one of great poignancy," concluded the pastor.

Faculty associates of Dr. Sherman were pallbearers. The body was taken to Omaha for interment in the Forest Lawn cemetery.

Prof. Stuff to Speak at Professional Institute

Prof. F. A. Stuff of the English department, who has recently returned from a trip through England and the continent, will discuss conditions in Europe at a meeting of the Lincoln chapter of the American Inter-Professional institute Saturday evening at the Lincoln hotel.

STUDENTS GIVE PROGRAM

Will Present Features at Nebraska Press Meeting.

Several student groups will take part in presenting entertainment features at the dinner meeting of the Nebraska Press Association convention at the chamber of commerce dining room this evening. Gayle C. Walker, director of the school of journalism, is in charge.

Members of Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Phi, professional journalism groups, will present a gridiron show. The Alpha Phi trio will sing and members of Kappa Kappa Gamma will present their Kosmet Klub fall revue skit. Prof. J. E. Lawrence, instructor in journalism, will talk this afternoon on the subject of "A New Day in Journalism."

JOINT Y. W. GROUPS PLAN YEAR'S WORK

Program Centers About Four Factors Worked Out by Training Conference.

At a joint meeting of the new and old Y. W. C. A. cabinets held Wednesday night at Ellen Smith hall, the findings of the training conference concerning the work of the coming year were formally accepted.

It was agreed to renew emphasis on the value of the individual. Further stress was laid on economy without hampering the work of the student. Members of the Y. W. C. A. plan to make a study of the economic order in an attempt to find ways in which students may act. The fourth idea is to create opportunities for worship and meditation. Many other general factors will be emphasized during 1933.

New members of the advisory board were also chosen. One-third of the members are elected each year. Three members were re-elected to serve a second term of three years. They are Miss Margaret Hochdorfer, chairman of the German department, Mrs. E. L. Hinman, Mrs. Roy Green, Nebraska alumni and former cabinet members, and Mrs. Roscoe Hill, former president of the Y in 1928. Mrs. Herbert Brownell was chosen to succeed Mrs. Westover, who has moved from the city.

DEBATERS SCHEDULE MEET

Nebraska Students Take Affirmative Against Colorado Colleges.

Nebraska has been asked to join with the colleges of Colorado in a no-decision debate tournament to be held at Denver on Feb. 23 and 24. H. Vincent Broady and Howard L. Holtzendorff will make the trip, taking the affirmative side of the debt cancellation subject. This will take the place of any later trips that normally are planned for the second semester. In past years a trip has been made either to the Colorado colleges or to the north or east.

Two debates will be held in Lincoln on Feb. 23, bringing three teams into action during the same day. This is the first time that Nebraska in any one day has had three teams debating.

TEXAS EDUCATORS SUGGEST SEVERAL SCHOOL REVISIONS

AUSTIN, Tex. (CNS). Abolition of several state teachers colleges and demotion of several more to the status of junior colleges last week was recommended in the report of the state board of education on higher education in Texas.

The present higher educational system maintained by the state comprises fifteen institutions, thirteen of which are nominally senior institutions and two junior colleges. Under the proposed new plan, there would be but five senior institutions and nine junior colleges.

Upper division and graduate work would be concentrated mainly in the University of Texas at Austin and Texas A. & M. college at College Station.

FILINGS FOR PROM GIRL AND ORATOR ARE DUE TONIGHT

Students Will Vote on Candidates Next Tuesday.

Filings for the position of Prom girl and of Ivy Day Orator are due at the student activities office before 5 o'clock this evening. Only five days remain before the annual election at the polls next Tuesday.

The election this spring marks the first time that class officers have not been elected for the second semester. This change was effected by a ruling of the student council abolishing these offices last fall.

As in the past, the four girls receiving the highest number of votes next Tuesday will automatically become candidates for the position of Prom girl. The winner will be decided by those attending the prom, which is to be held in the coliseum March 10.

Voting booths will be in the Temple building on the city campus and in Dean Burr's office in the Student Activities building on the ag campus. The student council committee on elections, headed by Jane Axtell, will be in charge of the election.

SIX GROUPS TO GIVE STUNTS AT FOLLIES

Dancing, Singing, "Take Offs" Included in Various Acts.

The groups to present stunts at the Coed Follies Thursday, Feb. 23, are Carrie Belle Raymond hall, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta and Alpha Phi trio, it was announced yesterday.

Dancing, singing and "takeoffs" will be included in the skits given. Selections were made on cleverness and manner in which they fitted in with the remainder of the evening's entertainment.

Margaret Buol, Margaret Upson, Calista Cooper and Marian Smith made up the committee which chose the stunts. The group went to each house submitting a skit and picked six of the nine entered.

The acts will be given between episodes of the style show sponsored by Gold's ready to wear department. University girls have been selected to model for the revue.

ENGINEERS HOLD MEETING

A. S. C. E. Sees Motion Pictures of Summer Camp Activities.

About thirty members of the local student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers met Wednesday evening in the Mechanic Arts building for an informal meeting. Four reels of motion pictures of the 1932 summer surveying camp activities were shown.

Announcement was made of a dinner meeting to be held in the near future. The main speaker for the event will be Colonel T. A. Leisen, chief of the Metropolitan Utilities district of Omaha. All members of the society, both student and senior, will be invited to attend.

Dr. Fordyce Addresses Public School Patrons

On Thursday night Feb. 16, Charles Fordyce addressed the teachers and patrons of the York Public Schools on the problem of aiding youth to find their life career.

Burnett Says Budget Is Low as Possible

Speaking before the Hamilton County Cornhusker club on Charter Day, Chancellor E. A. Burnett declared that the governor's budget for the university for the coming biennium was the lowest in twelve years and that the institution could not get along with less.
